

§ 1505.19 Purchase of assets of institutions in conservatorship or receivership.

(a) An employee, the employee's spouse or dependent child, or members of the employee's immediate household shall not, directly or indirectly, purchase any property which, to the employee's knowledge, the RTC manages as conservator of an insured depository institution or holds in its capacity as receiver, liquidator, or liquidating agent of the assets of an insured depository institution, regardless of how the property is sold.

(b) An employee who is involved in the disposition of conservatorship or receivership assets shall disqualify himself or herself from participation in the disposition of such assets when the employee becomes aware that any relative, or any organization or partnership with which the employee, the employee's spouse or dependent child is associated, has submitted a bid for purchase of such assets. The employee shall advise the President and the DAEO in writing of the self-disqualification.

(c) An employee shall not, directly or indirectly, use or release to persons outside the Board confidential information regarding the sale or disposition of assets.

§ 1505.20 Purchase of Board or RTC property.

An employee, the employee's spouse or dependent child, or members of the employee's immediate household shall not, directly or indirectly, purchase or bid on any property owned by the Board or owned or held by the RTC in its corporate capacity.

§ 1505.21 Providing goods or services to the Board or RTC.

An employee, the employee's spouse or dependent child, or members of the employee's immediate household shall not, directly or indirectly, provide any goods or services for compensation to the Board or RTC unless the President determines, subject to the prohibitions in 18 U.S.C. 203 and 205, that there is a most compelling reason to do so, such as where the Board's or RTC's needs cannot be otherwise met. For the purposes of this section, the term "services" does not include services as required by the employee's position with the Board.

§ 1505.22 Outside employment and other activity.

(a) An employee shall not engage in employment or other activity outside the scope of his or her Board employment which is not compatible with the full and proper discharge of the employee's duties and responsibilities to the Board. Employment or activity which is not compatible with the employee's duties and responsibilities to the Board includes, but is not limited to, that which results in, or creates an appearance of, a conflict of interest or impairs the employee's physical or mental capacity to perform the duties and responsibilities of his or her position with the Board. Such employment or activity may involve:

(1) Service, with or without compensation, as an organizer, incorporator, director, officer, trustee, or representative of, or advisor or consultant to, or in any other capacity with, any insured depository institution, including a credit union;

(2) Service, with or without compensation, in any capacity with an investment advisor, investment company, investment fund, mutual fund, insurance company, stockbroker, underwriter, or any other person engaged in providing financial services; or

(3) Active participation in or conduct of a business dealing with or related to real estate including, but not limited to, real estate brokerage, management and sales, property insurance and appraisal services.

(b) An employee shall not engage in outside employment or other activity, with or without compensation, with any person or entity doing business with the Board or RTC.

(c) An employee shall not accept any money or anything of monetary value from a private source as compensation for the employee's service to the Board or RTC. (See 18 U.S.C. 209.)

(d) An employee shall not, directly or indirectly, receive compensation for representational services rendered by himself or herself or another before an
