

made on behalf of another bank, the Directorate shall multiply the available funds in the reserve account by the percentage arrived at by dividing, for each separate deficiency—

(A) The cumulative amount of interest expenses paid by a bank on behalf of such bank; by

(B) The cumulative amount of interest expenses paid by all the banks on behalf of such bank for that deficiency.

(4) Any net proceeds from the sale of assets received from the RTC by the FSLIC Resolution Fund.

(b) To the extent that the funds from the sources identified in paragraph (a) of this section are insufficient, the Department of Treasury shall pay to the Funding Corporation such additional amounts as may be necessary to pay such interest, upon receipt of a certification from the Directorate, in a form satisfactory to the Department of the Treasury. The certification at a minimum shall state the total amounts paid by the Funding Corporation from the sources listed in paragraph (a) of this section and the amounts necessary to make up the deficiency. Any amount paid by the Department of Treasury shall become a liability of the Funding Corporation to be repaid to the Department of Treasury upon the dissolution of the Funding Corporation, to the extent of its remaining assets.

§ 1510.12 Request for funds for interest payments.

(a) Prior to the date that funds are needed by the Funding Corporation for interest payments pursuant to section 21B(f)(2) of the Act, the Directorate shall determine each bank's pro rata share in accordance with the provisions of section 21B(f)(2) of the Act and a methodology approved by the Board. The Directorate shall notify each bank in writing at least three business days in advance of such date of the amount and due date of payment of its pro rata share.

(b) Each bank shall wire immediately available and finally collected funds to the Funding Corporation on the due date.
