

Federal Reserve System

§ 208.4

	Minimum capital
Exceeding 50,000 inhabitants (except as stated below)	200,000
In an outlying district of a city with a population exceeding 50,000 inhabitants; provided State law permits organization of State banks in such location with a capital of $100,000 or less	100,000

With certain exceptions not here applicable, a national bank must have surplus equal to 20 percent of its capital in order to commence business.

§208.3 Insurance of deposits.

Any State bank becoming a member of the Federal Reserve System which is engaged in the business of receiving deposits other than trust funds and which is not at the time an insured bank under the provisions of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act, will become an insured bank under the provisions of that Act on the date upon which it becomes a member of the Federal Reserve System.² In the case of an insured bank which is admitted to membership in the Federal Reserve System, the bank will continue to be an insured bank.

§208.4 Application for membership.

(a) State bank, other than a mutual savings bank. A state bank, other than a mutual savings bank, applying for membership, shall make application on Form FR 83A to the Board for an amount of capital stock in the Federal Reserve Bank of its district equal to six percent of the paid-up capital stock and surplus of the applying institution.

²In the case of a State bank which is engaged in the business of receiving deposits other than trust funds and which at the time of its admission to membership in the Federal Reserve System is not an insured bank, the Board is required under the provisions of sections 4 and 6 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act to issue a certificate to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation to the effect that the bank is a member of the Federal Reserve System and that consideration has been given to the financial history and condition of the bank, the adequacy of its capital structure, its future earnings prospects, the general character of its management, the convenience and needs of the community to be served by the bank, and whether or not its corporate powers are consistent with the purposes of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act.

(b) Mutual savings bank. A mutual savings bank applying for membership shall make application on Form FR 83B to the Board for an amount of capital stock in the Federal Reserve Bank of its district equal to six-tenths of one percent of its total deposit liabilities as shown by the most recent report of examination of such institution preceding its admission to membership, or, if such institution be not permitted by the laws under which it was organized to purchase stock in a Federal Reserve Bank, on Form FR 83C, for permission to deposit with the Federal Reserve Bank an amount equal to the amount which it would have been required to pay in on account of a subscription to capital stock.

(c) Mutual savings bank which is not authorized to purchase stock of Federal Reserve Bank at time of admission. If a mutual savings bank be admitted to membership on the basis of a deposit of the required amount with the Federal Reserve Bank in lieu of payment upon capital stock because the laws under which such bank was organized do not at that time authorize it to purchase stock in the Federal Reserve Bank, it shall subscribe on Form F.R. 83D for the appropriate amount of stock in the Federal Reserve Bank whenever such laws are amended so as to authorize it to purchase stock in a Federal Reserve Bank.³

(d) Execution and filing of application. Each application made under the provisions of this section and the exhibits referred to in the application blank shall be executed and filed, in duplicate, with the Federal Reserve Bank of the district in which the applying bank is located.

³The Federal Reserve Act provides that, if the laws under which any such savings bank was organized be not amended at the first session of the legislature following the admission of the savings bank to membership so as to authorize mutual savings banks to purchase Federal Reserve Bank stock, or if such laws be so amended and the bank fail within six months thereafter to purchase such stock, all of its rights and privileges as a member bank shall be forfeited and its membership in the Federal Reserve System shall be terminated in the manner prescribed in section 9 of the Federal Reserve Act.
