

(4) Other activities, services, or facilities that primarily promote the public welfare;

(b) The bank demonstrates that it is not reasonably practicable to obtain other private market financing for the proposed investment;

(c) The bank demonstrates the extent to which the investment benefits communities otherwise served by the bank; and

(d) The bank demonstrates non-bank community support for or participation in the investment. Community support or participation may be demonstrated in a variety of ways, including but not limited to:

(1) In the case of an investment in a CD entity with a board of directors, representation on the board of directors by non-bank community representatives with expertise relevant to the proposed investment;

(2) Establishment of an advisory board for the bank's community development activities that includes non-bank community representatives with expertise relevant to the proposed investment;

(3) Formation of a formal business relationship with a community-based organization in connection with the proposed investment;

(4) Contractual agreements with community partners to provide services in connection with the proposed investment;

(5) Joint ventures with local small businesses in the proposed investment; and

(6) Financing for the proposed investment from the public sector or community development organizations.

§24.4 Investment limits.

(a) Limit on aggregate outstanding investments. A national bank's aggregate outstanding investments under this part may not exceed 5 percent of its capital and surplus, unless the bank is at least adequately capitalized and the OCC determines, by written approval of the bank's proposed investment(s), that a higher amount will pose no significant risk to the deposit insurance fund. In no case may a bank's aggregate outstanding investments under this part exceed 10 percent of its capital and surplus.

(b) Limited liability. A national bank may not make an investment under this part that would expose the bank to unlimited liability.

§24.5 Public welfare investment self-certification and prior approval procedures.

(a) Self-certification of public welfare investments. (1) Subject to §24.4(a), an eligible bank may make an investment described in §24.6(a) without prior notification to, or approval by, the OCC if the bank follows the self-certification procedures prescribed in this section.

(2) To self-certify an investment, an eligible bank shall submit, within 10 working days after it makes an investment, a letter of self-certification to the Director, Community Development Division, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, DC 20219.

(3) The bank's letter of self-certification must include:

(i) The name of the CDC, CD Project, or other entity in which the bank has invested;

(ii) The date the investment was made;

(iii) The type of investment (equity or debt), the investment activity listed in §24.6(a) that the investment supports, and a brief description of the particular investment;

(iv) The amount of the bank's total investment in the CDC, CD Project or other entity, and the bank's aggregate outstanding investments under this part, including commitments and the investment being self-certified;

(v) The percentage of the bank's capital and surplus represented by the bank's aggregate outstanding investments under this part, including commitments and the investment being self-certified;

(vi) A statement certifying compliance with the requirements of §24.3 and §24.4; and

(vii) If a portion of the investment funds projects outside of the areas in which the bank maintains its main office or branches, a statement certifying that no more than 25 percent of the investment funds projects in a state or metropolitan area other than the states or metropolitan areas in which the bank maintains its main office or branches.

(4) A national bank that is not an eligible bank but that is at least adequately capitalized, and has a composite rating of at least 3 with improving trends under the Uniform Financial Institutions Rating System, may submit a letter to the Community Development Division requesting authority to self-certify investments. The Community Development Division considers these requests on a case-by-case basis.

(b) Investments requiring prior approval. (1) If a national bank or its proposed investment does not meet the requirements for self-certification set forth in paragraph (a) of this section, the bank shall submit a proposal for an investment to the Director, Community Development Division, Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, Washington, DC 20219.

(2) The bank's investment proposal must include:

(i) The name of the CDC, CD Project, or other entity in which the bank intends to invest;

(ii) The date on which the bank intends to make the investment;

(iii) The type of investment (equity or debt), the investment activity listed in §24.3(a) that the investment supports, and a description of the particular investment;

(iv) The amount of the bank's total investment in the CDC, CD Project or other entity, and the bank's aggregate outstanding investments under this part (including commitments and the investment being proposed);

(v) The percentage of the bank's capital and surplus represented by the bank's aggregate outstanding investments under this part (including commitments and the investment being proposed); and

(vi) A statement certifying compliance with the requirements of §24.3 and §24.4.

(3) In reviewing a proposal, the OCC considers the following factors and other available information:

(i) Whether the investment satisfies the requirements of §24.3 and §24.4;

(ii) Whether the investment is consistent with the safe and sound operation of the bank; and

(iii) Whether the investment is consistent with the requirements of this part and the OCC's policies.

(4) Unless otherwise notified in writing by the OCC, and subject to §24.4(a), the proposed investment is deemed approved after 30 calendar days from the date on which the OCC receives the bank's investment proposal.

(5) The OCC, by notifying the bank, may extend its period for reviewing the investment proposal. If so notified, the bank may make the investment only with the OCC's written approval.

(6) The OCC may impose one or more conditions in connection with its approval of an investment under this part. All approvals are subject to the condition that a national bank must conduct the approved activity in a manner consistent with any published guidance issued by the OCC regarding the activity.

§24.6 Activities eligible for self-certification.

(a) Eligible activities. In accordance with the process described in §24.5(a), a bank may self-certify the following investments without prior notice to, or approval by, the OCC:

(1) Investments in an entity that finances, acquires, develops, rehabilitates, manages, sells, or rents housing primarily for low- and moderate-income individuals;

(2) Investments that finance small businesses (including equity or debt financing and investments in an entity that provides loan guarantees) that are located in low- and moderate-income areas or that produce or retain permanent jobs, the majority of which are held by low- and moderate-income individuals;

(3) Investments that provide credit counseling, job training, community development research, and similar technical assistance services for non-profit community development organizations, low- and moderate-income individuals or areas, or small businesses located in low- and moderate-income areas or that produce or retain permanent jobs, the majority of which are held by low- and moderate-income individuals;

(4) Investments in an entity that acquires, develops, rehabilitates, manages, sells, or rents commercial or industrial property that is located in a
