

(f) Letter of objection. If the FDIC determines, in its discretion, that the proposed conversion poses a risk to the institution's safety and soundness, violates any law or regulation or presents a breach of fiduciary duty, then the FDIC shall issue a letter to the institution stating its objection(s) to the proposed conversion and advising the institution that the conversion shall not be consummated until such letter is rescinded. A copy of the letter of objection shall be furnished to the institution's primary state regulator and any other state or federal banking and/or securities regulator involved in the conversion. The letter of objection shall advise the institution of its right to petition the FDIC for reconsideration under §303.6(e). Such action shall not, in any way, prohibit the FDIC from taking any other action(s) that it may deem necessary.

(g) Consummation of the conversion. An institution may consummate the proposed conversion upon either:

(1) The receipt of a notice of intent not to object; or

(2) The expiration of the 60-day period following acceptance of a complete notice by the FDIC or the 20-day period after the last applicable state or other federal regulator has acted on the proposed conversion, whichever is later, unless the FDIC issues a notice of objection before the end of that period and, in which case, the conversion shall not be consummated until such letter is rescinded. The FDIC may, in its discretion, extend by written notice to the institution the initial 60-day period by an additional 60 days.
