

years, but may be extended upon re-application. The FDIC will provide notice to the depository institution's appropriate Federal banking agency and any state regulatory agency, as appropriate, that a request for a waiver has been filed and will consult with such agency or agencies, prior to taking action on the institution's request for a waiver. Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior notice and/or consultation shall not be required in any particular case if the FDIC determines that the circumstances require it to take action without giving such notice and opportunity for consultation.

(2) Any application filed by an institution that is CAMEL- or MACRO-rated 1 or 2 by its appropriate Federal banking agency shall be deemed approved for the period requested (not to exceed 2 years) 21 days after filing unless the institution in the interim has been notified in writing that further review and consideration are required and that it will be specifically notified when its application has been decided.

(f) 60-Day transition period. An adequately capitalized insured depository institution may accept, renew or roll over any brokered deposit for a period of 60 days following June 16, 1992, provided it has properly filed an application within 30 days after June 16, 1992, and the FDIC has not notified the institution that the application has been denied.

(g) Exclusion for institutions in FDIC conservatorship. No insured depository institution for which the FDIC has been appointed conservator shall be subject to the prohibition on the acceptance, renewal or rollover of brokered deposits contained in this §337.6 or section 29 of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act for 90 days after the date on which the institution was placed in conservatorship. During this 90-day period, the institution shall, nevertheless, be subject to the restriction on the payment of interest contained in paragraph (b)(2)(ii) of the section. After such 90-day period, the institution may not accept, renew or roll over any brokered deposit.

(h) Deposit brokers. (1) A deposit broker shall not solicit or place any deposit with an insured depository institution unless it has provided the FDIC with written notice that it is acting as a deposit broker. The notice may be in letter form and shall describe generally the history, nature and volume of its deposit brokerage operations, including the sources and placement of such funds. The notice should be submitted to the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, Office of Compliance and Special Activities, Division of Supervision, Washington, DC 20429. The notice shall be effective upon receipt.

(2) A deposit broker shall maintain sufficient records of the volume of brokered deposits placed with any insured depository institution over the preceding 12 months and the volume outstanding currently, including the maturities, rates and costs associated with such deposits.

(3) The Director of the Division of Supervision or designee may request, from time to time, quarterly written reports from any deposit broker regarding the volume of brokered deposits placed with a specified insured depository institution and the maturities, rates and costs associated with such deposits.

(4) When a deposit broker ceases to act as such, it shall notify the FDIC in writing at the address indicated in paragraph (h)(1) of this section that it is no longer acting as a deposit broker.

§§ 337.7—337.9 [Reserved]

§337.10 Waiver.

An insured State nonmember bank has the right to petition the Board of Directors of the Corporation for a waiver of this part or any subpart thereof with respect to any particular transaction or series of similar transactions. A waiver may be granted at the discretion of the Board upon a showing of good cause. All such petitions should be filed with the Office of the Executive Secretary, Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation, 550 17th Street, NW., Washington, DC 20429.

§337.11 Effect on other banking practices.

Nothing in this part shall be construed as restricting in any manner the
