

(5) Identify the persons or groups with whose assistance the plan was prepared.

§352.8 Program accessibility: New construction and alterations.

Each building or part of a building in which the programs or activities set forth in §352.2 will be carried on, and which is newly constructed, or substantially altered by, on behalf of, or for the use of the FDIC, shall be designed, constructed or altered so as to be readily accessible to, and usable by, handicapped persons.

§352.9 Communications.

(a) The FDIC shall take appropriate steps to ensure effective communication with participants in the FDIC programs and activities set forth in §352.2.

(1) The FDIC shall furnish appropriate auxiliary aids where necessary to afford a handicapped person an equal opportunity to participate in, and enjoy the benefits of, the FDIC programs or activities set forth in §352.2 of this part.

(i) In determining what type of auxiliary aid is necessary, the FDIC shall give primary consideration to any reasonable requests of the handicapped person.

(ii) The FDIC need not provide individually prescribed devices, readers for personal use or study, or other devices of a personal nature.

(2) Where the FDIC communicates by telephone, it shall use telecommunications devices for deaf persons (TDD's) or equally effective telecommunication systems with hearing impaired participants and beneficiaries.

(b) The FDIC shall ensure that interested persons, including persons with impaired vision or hearing, can obtain information as to the existence and location of accessible services, activities, and facilities. Interested persons may obtain such information by calling, writing or visiting the FDIC Office of Equal Employment Opportunity, located at 550 17th Street, NW., Washington, DC 20429. The Office of Equal Employment Opportunity telephone number is (202) 898-6745 (District of Columbia area) and (800) 424-5488 (all others) (TDD).

(c) The FDIC shall provide information at a primary entrance to each of its accessible and inaccessible facilities where programs or activities as set forth in §352.2 are conducted, directing users to a location at which they can obtain information about accessible facilities. The international symbol for accessibility shall be used at each primary entrance of an accessible facility.

(d) This section does not require the FDIC to take any action that the FDIC can determine on the basis of a written record would result in a fundamental alteration in the nature of a program or activity or in undue financial and administrative burdens. If an action that is required to comply with this section would result in such an alteration or such burdens, the FDIC shall take other reasonable actions that would not result in such an alteration or such burdens but would nevertheless ensure that, to the maximum extent possible, handicapped persons receive the benefits and services of the program or activity.

§352.10 Compliance procedures.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, this section applies to all allegations of discrimination on the basis of handicap in the FDIC programs or activities set forth in §352.2 of this part.

(b) The FDIC shall process complaints alleging employment discrimination on the basis of handicap according to the procedures established in 29 CFR part 1613 pursuant to section 501 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 (29 U.S.C. 791).

(c) The FDIC's Office of Equal Employment Opportunity shall be responsible for coordinating implementation of this section. All complaints should be sent to the FDIC's Office of Equal Employment Opportunity, 550 17th Street, NW., Washington, DC 20429.

(d) The FDIC shall accept and investigate all complete complaints over which it has jurisdiction. All complete complaints must be filed within 180 days of the alleged act of discrimination. The FDIC may extend this time period for good cause.

§ 352.11

(e) If the FDIC receives a complaint over which it does not have jurisdiction, it shall promptly notify the complainant and shall make reasonable efforts to refer the complainant to the appropriate government entity.

(f) Within 180 days of the receipt of a complete complaint for which it has jurisdiction, the FDIC shall notify the complainant of the results of the investigation in a letter containing—

(1) Finding regarding the alleged violations;

(2) A description of a remedy for each violation found; and

(3) A notice of the right to appeal.

(g) Appeals of the findings or remedies must be filed by the complainant within 90 days of receipt from the FDIC of the letter required by §352.10(f). The FDIC may extend this time for good cause.

(h) Timely appeals shall be accepted and processed by the Chairman of the FDIC or designee.

(i) The Chairman of the FDIC or designee shall notify the complainant of the results of the appeal within 90 days of the receipt of the request. If the Chairman of the FDIC or designee determines that additional information is needed from the complainant, he or she shall have 60 days from the date of receipt of the additional information to make a determination on the appeal.

(j) The time limits set forth in paragraphs (f) and (i) of this section, may be extended for an individual case when the Chairman of the FDIC or designee determines that there is good cause, based on the particular circumstances of that case, for the extension.

(k) The FDIC may delegate its authority for conducting complaint investigations to other federal agencies, except that the authority for making the final determination may not be delegated.

§ 352.11 Notice.

The FDIC shall make available to employees, applicants, participants, beneficiaries, and other interested persons such information regarding the provisions of this part and its applicability to the program or activities conducted by the agency, and make such information available to them in such manner as the Chairman or his des-

PART 353—SUSPICIOUS ACTIVITY REPORTS

Sec.

353.1 Purpose and scope.

353.2 Definitions.

353.3 Reports and records.

AUTHORITY: 12 U.S.C. 1818, 1819; 31 U.S.C. 5318.

SOURCE: 61 FR 6099, Feb. 16, 1996, unless otherwise noted.

§ 353.1 Purpose and scope.

The purpose of this part is to ensure that an insured state nonmember bank files a Suspicious Activity Report when it detects a known or suspected criminal violation of federal law or a suspicious transaction related to a money laundering activity or a violation of the Bank Secrecy Act. This part applies to all insured state nonmember banks as well as any insured, state-licensed branches of foreign banks.

§ 353.2 Definitions.

For the purposes of this part:

(a) FinCEN means the Financial Crimes Enforcement Network of the Department of the Treasury.

(b) Institution-affiliated party means any institution-affiliated party as that term is defined in sections 3(u) and 8(b)(5) of the Federal Deposit Insurance Act (12 U.S.C. 1813(u) and 1818(b)(5)).

§ 353.3 Reports and records.

(a) Suspicious activity reports required. A bank shall file a suspicious activity report with the appropriate federal law enforcement agencies and the Department of the Treasury, in accordance with the form's instructions, by sending a completed suspicious activity report to FinCEN in the following circumstances:

(1) Insider abuse involving any amount. Whenever the bank detects any known or suspected federal criminal violation, or pattern of criminal violations, committed or attempted against the bank or involving a transaction or transactions conducted through the bank,
