

Farm Credit Administration

§ 602.260

(i) Could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings;

(ii) Would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication;

(iii) Could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;

(iv) Could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of a record or information compiled by criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source;

(v) Would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law; or

(vi) Could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;

(8) Records of or related to examination, operation, reports of condition and performance, or reports of or related to Farm Credit institutions that are regulated and examined by the Farm Credit Administration that are prepared by, on behalf of, or for its use; except that reports to shareholders filed with the Farm Credit Administration pursuant to part 620 of this chapter and those items in reports of condition and performance filed with the Farm Credit Administration pursuant to part 621 of this chapter that are of essentially the same character as items disclosed in reports to shareholders filed with the Farm Credit Administration pursuant to part 620 of this chapter, shall be available to the public on request for a reasonable fee.

(b) Any reasonably segregable portion of a record shall be provided to any person requesting such record after deletion of the portions which are exempt under this section.

(c) This section does not authorize withholding of information or limit the availability of records to the public, except as specifically stated in this section. This section is not authority to withhold information from Congress.

§ 602.251 Current index.

The Farm Credit Administration will make available for public inspection and copying a current index to provide identifying information as to any matter required by 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(2)(C) to be made available or published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Because of the infrequent requests in the past for material required to be indexed, it is determined that the publication of the index in the FEDERAL REGISTER is unnecessary and impractical. However, the Farm Credit Administration will provide a copy of such index to a member of the public upon request therefor at a cost not in excess of the direct cost of duplication.

[40 FR 7339, Feb. 19, 1975]

§ 602.255 Identification of records requested.

A member of the public who requests records from the Farm Credit Administration shall provide a reasonable description of the records sought including, where possible, specific information as to dates, titles, and subject matter, so that such records may be located without undue search or inquiry. If a record is not identified by a reasonable description, the request therefor may be denied.

[40 FR 7339, Feb. 19, 1975]

§ 602.260 Request for records.

Requests for records shall be in writing and addressed to the attention of the Freedom of Information Officer, Farm Credit Administration, 1501 Farm Credit Drive, McLean, Virginia 22102-5090. A request improperly addressed will be deemed not to have been received for purposes of the 20-day time period set forth in § 602.261(a) of this part until it is received, or would have
