

section, and include the appropriate taxpayer identifying number. Registrations requested will be inscribed on the face of the bond if in definitive form or on the confirmation of investment if in book-entry form. The following provisions shall apply for registration of Farm Credit Investment Bonds:

(1) In all cases the member's name (whether a natural person, fiduciary, or legal entity) or employee's name must appear as owner of the bond.

(2) A bond may be registered in the name of a fiduciary only if the fiduciary is in fact the member.

(3) A member or employee may not use a form of registration (such as a gift to a minor, irrevocable trust, etc.) which would divest himself of ownership. However, a minor may be named as coowner or beneficiary.

(4) If a member is a natural person, a second natural person, member or non-member, may be named as coowner or beneficiary. Coownership may not involve a fiduciary or private organization.

(5) In the coownership form the connective "or" shall serve the same purpose as "joint tenants with right of survivorship."

Subpart E—Investment Management

§ 615.5131 Definitions.

(a) Absolute final maturity means the date on which the remaining principal amount of a mortgage-backed security or asset-backed security is due and payable (matures) to the registered owner. It shall not mean the average life, the expected average life, the duration, or the weighted average maturity.

(b) Adjustable rate mortgage (ARM) means a mortgage-backed security that features a predetermined adjustment of the interest rate at regular intervals tied to an index.

(c) Asset-backed security (ABS) means investment securities that provide for ownership of a fractional undivided interest, or collateral interests, in a specific asset of a trust that are sold and traded in the capital markets. For the purposes of this subpart, all eligible ABSs shall be collateralized with either loans for the sale of automobiles (CARs) or credit card receivables (CARDs).

(d) Asset/liability management means the process used to plan, acquire, and direct the flow of funds through a Farm Credit bank in order to generate adequate and stable earnings and to steadily build equity, while taking reasonable and measured business risks.

(e) Collateralized mortgage obligation (CMO) means a multi-class, pay-through bond representing a general obligation of the issuer backed by mortgage collateral. Each CMO consists of a set of, at least, four tranches of bonds with different maturities and cashflow patterns. An accrual bond is last tranche. Floating Rate CMO means a CMO or REMIC tranche that pays an adjustable rate of interest that is tied to a representative interest rate index.

(f) Federal funds means funds sold to or bought from a federally insured depository institution or government-sponsored enterprise for 1 business day which increases or decreases that institution's reserve account of immediately available funds with a Federal Reserve Bank. Term Federal funds means funds sold to or bought from a federally insured depository institution or government-sponsored enterprise under a callable contract with a term to maturity of 100 days or less.

(g) Interest rate risk means the risk of loss resulting from the impact of interest rate fluctuations upon the net interest income and market value of equity of a bank.

(h) Liquid investments are assets that can be promptly converted into cash without significant loss to the investor. In the money market, a security is liquid if the spread between bid and ask
