

(iv) Could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source, including a state, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of a record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by the confidential source;

(v) Would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigation or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law; or

(vi) Could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual. This includes, but is not limited to, information relating to enforcement proceedings upon which NCUA has acted or will act in the future.

(8) Contained in or related to examination, operating or condition reports prepared by, or on behalf of, or for the use of NCUA or any agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions. This includes all information, whether in formal or informal report form, the disclosure of which would harm the financial security of credit unions or would interfere with the relationship between NCUA and credit unions.

§ 792.4 Release of exempt records.

(a) Prohibitions against disclosure. Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section and subpart C of this part, no officer, employee, or agent of NCUA or of any federally-insured credit union shall disclose or permit the disclosure of any exempt records of the Agency to any person other than those NCUA or credit union officers, employees, or agents properly entitled to such information for the performance of their official duties.

(b) Disclosure authorized. Exempt NCUA records may be disclosed only in accordance with the following conditions and requirements:

(1) Exempt records—Disclosure to credit unions, financial institutions and state and Federal agencies. The NCUA Board or any person designated by it in writing, in its sole discretion, may make available to certain governmental agencies and insured financial institutions copies of reports of examination and other documents, papers or information for their use, when necessary, in the performance of their official duties or functions. All reports, documents and papers made available pursuant to this paragraph shall remain the property of NCUA. No person, agency or employee shall disclose the reports or exempt records without NCUA's express written authorization.

(2) Exempt records—Disclosure to investigatory agencies. The NCUA Board, or any person designated by it in writing, in its discretion and in appropriate circumstances, may disclose to proper Federal or state authorities copies of exempt records pertaining to irregularities discovered in credit unions which may constitute either unsafe or unsound practices or violations of Federal or state civil or criminal law.

§ 792.5 Fees for document search, review, and duplication; waiver and reduction of fees.

(a) Definitions. (1) Direct costs means those expenditures which NCUA actually incurs in searching for, duplicating and reviewing documents to respond to a FOIA request.

(2) Search means all time spent looking for material that is responsive to a request, including page-by-page or line-by-line identification of material within documents. Searches may be done manually or by computer using existing programming.

(3) Duplication means the process of making a copy of a document needed to respond to a FOIA request.

(4) Review means:

(i) The process of examining documents located in response to a request that is for a commercial use (see § 792.5(a)(5)) to determine whether any portion of a document located is permitted to be withheld; and

(ii) The process of preparing such documents for disclosure.
