§ 904.3 Published information.

(a) FEDERAL REGISTER. As required by sections 552 and 553 of title 5 of the United States Code, the Finance Board publishes in the FEDERAL REGISTER for the guidance of the public:

- (1) A description of its organization;
- (2) Statements of the general course and methods by which its functions are channeled and determined, including the nature and requirements of all formal and informal procedures available;
- (3) Rules of procedure, descriptions of available forms and where they may be obtained, and instructions as to the scope and contents of all papers or reports;
- (4) Substantive rules of general applicability adopted as authorized by law, and statements of general policy or interpretations of general applicability formulated and adopted by the Finance Board;
- (5) Every amendment, revision, or repeal of the foregoing; and
- (6) General notices of proposed rule-making.

(b) Annual Report. The Finance Board submits an Annual Report to Congress pursuant to section 2B(d) of the Federal Home Loan Bank Act, as amended (12 U.S.C. 1422b(d)). It is available to the public after its submission.

(c) Other published information. From time to time, the Finance Board provides information to the press regarding statements of policy, actions with respect to certain types of applications, and other matters.

(d) Access to published information. The publications referred to in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section may be examined and, if available, copies may be obtained at the address set forth in § 904.5(b)(1).

§ 904.4 Records available to public.

(a) General. It is the policy of the Finance Board to provide as promptly and reasonably as possible all information, documents and records requested of the agency subject to the limitations stated in § 904.7 and 904.9. Information customarily furnished to the public in the regular course of the performance of official duties may continue to be furnished to the public without complying with this part, provided that the furnishing of such information would not violate the Privacy Act of 1974, 5 U.S.C. 552a, and would not be consistent with other subparts of this part. To the extent permitted by other laws, the Finance Board also will consider making available records that it is permitted to withhold under the FOIA, if it determines that such disclosures would be in the public interest.

(b) Available records. Subject to § 904.7, the Finance Board makes available for inspection and copying:

(1) All final opinions by the Finance Board made in the adjudication of cases;

(2) Statements of policy and interpretations adopted by the Finance Board, not published in the FEDERAL REGISTER; and

(3) Administrative manuals and regulations that affect any member of the public. To the extent required to prevent a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, however, the identifying details in any material of the kinds described above may be deleted.

(c) Votes of Finance Board members. Subject to the provisions of § 904.7, a record of the final votes of each member of the Finance Board in any proceeding is available for public inspection.

§ 904.5 Procedure for requesting records.

(a) General. Requests for access to, or copies of, Finance Board records shall be in writing and describe the information or records requested in a manner reasonably sufficient to identify them. The request shall state that it is being made pursuant to the FOIA, and shall state the full name and address of the requester. The request also may specify a dollar limit which the requester is willing to pay for the costs of searching, reviewing or duplicating, and the Finance Board will limit its search, review or duplication of the record to the dollar amount specified in the request.

(b) Initial determination. (1) All requests to access or to copy Finance Board records shall be in writing and addressed to the Executive Secretary, Federal Housing Finance Board, 1777 F Street NW., Washington, DC 20006.
