

§ 111.60

19 CFR Ch. I (4-1-99 Edition)

(1) Transmits a copy of the proposed statement of charges;

(2) Informs him that formal proceedings are available to him;

(3) Informs him that 5 U.S.C. 554 and 558 will be applicable if formal proceedings are necessary;

(4) Invites him to show cause why the formal proceedings should not be instituted;

(5) Informs him that he may make submissions and demonstrations of the character contemplated by the cited statutory provisions;

(6) Invites any negotiation for settlement of the complaint or charge that the broker deems it desirable to enter into;

(7) Advises him of his right to be represented by counsel;

(8) Specifies the place where the broker may respond in writing; and

(9) Advises the broker that the response must be received within 30 days of the date of the notice.

§ 111.60 Request for additional information.

If, in order to prepare his response, the broker desires additional information as to the time and place of the alleged misconduct, or the means by which it was committed, or any other more specific information concerning the alleged misconduct, he may request such information in writing. He shall set forth in his request in what respect the proposed statement of charges leaves him in doubt and describe the particular language of the proposed statement of charges as to which additional information is needed. If in the opinion of the port director such information is reasonably necessary to enable the broker to prepare his response, he shall furnish the broker with such information.

§ 111.61 Decision on preliminary proceedings.

The port director shall prepare a summary of any oral presentations made by the broker or his attorney and forward it to the Commissioner together with a copy of each paper filed by the broker. The port director shall also give to the Commissioner his recommendation on action to be taken as a result of the preliminary proceedings. If the Commissioner determines that the broker has satisfactorily responded to the proposed charges, and that further proceedings are not warranted he shall so inform the port director who shall notify the broker. If no response is filed or the Commissioner determines that the broker has not satisfactorily responded to the proposed charges, he shall so advise the port director and instruct him to prepare, sign, and serve a notice of charges and the statement of charges. If one or more of the charges in the proposed statement of charges was satisfactorily answered by the broker, the Commissioner shall instruct the port director to omit those charges from the statement of charges.
