

and hold such conferences as are necessary. Investigations in connection with a rulemaking may be conducted in accordance with the general investigatory procedures under part 3800 of this chapter.

(b) At any such conferences, interested persons may appear to express views and suggest amendments relative to proposed rules.

[61 FR 10442, Mar. 13, 1996]

§ 1720.15 Notice.

General notice of proposed rulemaking shall be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER and, to the extent practicable, otherwise made available to interested persons. Such notice shall state the time, place, and nature of public hearings, if any; the authority under which the rule or regulation is proposed; either the terms or substance of the proposed rule or regulation or a description of the subjects and issues involved; and the manner in which interested persons shall be afforded the opportunity to participate in the rulemaking. If the rulemaking was instituted pursuant to petition, a copy of the notice shall be served on the petitioner.

§ 1720.20 Promulgation of rules and regulations.

The Secretary, after consideration of all relevant matters of fact, law, policy, and discretion, including all relevant matters presented by interested persons in the rulemaking proceedings, shall adopt and publish in the FEDERAL REGISTER an appropriate rule or regulation together with a concise general statement of its basis and purpose and any necessary findings; or the Secretary shall give other appropriate public notice of disposition of the rulemaking proceeding.

§ 1720.25 Effective date of rules and regulations.

The effective date of any rule or regulation or of an amendment, suspension, or repeal of any rule or regulation shall be specified in a notice published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Such date shall not be less than 30 days after the date of such publication unless the Secretary specifies an earlier effective date for good cause found and published with the rule or regulation.

Subpart B—Filing Assistance

§ 1720.30 Scope of this subpart.

The rules in this subpart apply to and govern procedures under which developers may obtain pre-filing assistance and be notified of and permitted to correct deficiencies in the Statement of Record.

§ 1720.35 Prefiling assistance.

Persons intending to file with the Office of Interstate Land Sales Registration may receive advice of a general nature as to the preparation of the filing including information as to proper format to be used and the scope of the items to be included in the format. Inquiries and requests for informal discussions with staff members should be directed to the Administrator, Office of Interstate Land Sales Registration, Department of Housing and Urban Development, 451 Seventh Street SW., Washington, DC 20410.

§ 1720.40 Processing of filings.

(a) Statements of Record and accompanying filing fees will be received on behalf of the Secretary by the Administrator, Office of Interstate Land Sales Registration, for determination of:

- (1) Completeness of the statement,
- (2) Adequacy of the filing fee and
- (3) Adequacy of disclosure.

Where it appears that all three criteria are satisfied and it is otherwise practicable, acceleration of the effectiveness of the Statement of Record will normally be granted.

(b) Filings intended as Statements of Record but which do not comply in form with §§ 1710.105 and 1710.120 of this chapter, whichever is applicable, and Statements of Record accompanied by inadequate filing fees will not be effective to accomplish any purpose under the Act. At the discretion of the Administrator, such filings and any monies accompanying them may be immediately returned to the sender or after notification may be held pending the sender's appropriate response.

(c) Persons filing incomplete or inaccurate Statements of Record will be
