

that the residency-based preference requirements mandated by paragraph (g) of this section are observed.

(g) Residency-based preferences. For occupied units, a preference shall be given to the existing residents of each of the dwellings to be sold. For vacant units (including units which are voluntarily vacated), a preference shall be given to residents of other public housing units owned or leased by the seller PHA (over any other residency-based categories that may be established by the homeownership plan for Section 8 residents and any categories of non-resident applicants).

(h) Self sufficiency preference. For vacant units, a further preference shall be given to those applicants who have completed self-sufficiency and job training programs, as identified in the homeownership plan, or who meet equivalent standards of economic self-sufficiency, such as actual employment experience, as specified in the homeownership plan.

(i) Other eligibility or preference standards. If consistent with the other provisions of this section, a homeownership plan may include any other standards for eligibility or preference, or both, at the discretion of the PHA, that are not contrary to law.

§906.9 Counseling, training, and technical assistance.

Appropriate counseling shall be provided to prospective and actual purchasers, as necessary for each stage of implementation of the homeownership plan. Particular attention must be given to the terms of purchase and financing, along with the other financial and maintenance responsibilities of homeownership. In addition, where applicable, appropriate training and technical assistance shall be provided to any entity (such as an RMC, other resident organization, or a cooperative or condominium entity) that has responsibilities for carrying out the plan.

§906.10 Nonpurchasing residents.

(a) Nonpurchasing resident's options. If an existing resident of a dwelling authorized for sale under a homeownership plan is ineligible for purchase, or declines to purchase, the resident shall be given the choice of either relocation to other suitable and affordable housing or continued occupancy of the present dwelling on a rental basis, at a rent no higher than that permitted by the Act. Displacement (permanent, involuntary move) in order to make a dwelling available for sale, is prohibited. In addition to applicable program sanctions, a violation of the displacement prohibition may trigger a requirement to provide relocation assistance in accordance with the Uniform Relocation Assistance and Real Property Acquisition Act of 1970 and implementing regulations at 49 CFR Part 24. Where continued rental occupancy by a nonpurchasing resident is contemplated after conversion of the property to cooperative or condominium ownership, the homeownership plan must include provision for any rental subsidy required (e.g., Section 8 assistance, if available and authorized by the Section 8 regulations). As soon as feasible after they can be identified, all nonpurchasing residents shall be given written notice of their options under this section.

(b) Relocation assistance. A nonpurchasing resident who chooses to relocate pursuant to this section shall be offered the following relocation assistance:

(1) Advisory services to assure full choices and real opportunities to obtain relocation within a full range of neighborhoods where suitable housing may be found, in and outside areas of minority concentration, including timely information, counseling, explanation of the resident's rights under the Fair Housing Act, and referrals to suitable, safe, sanitary and affordable housing (at a rent no higher than permitted by the Act), which is of the resident's choice, on a nondiscriminatory basis, without regard to race, color, religion (creed), national origin, handicap, age, sex, or familial status, in compliance with applicable Federal and State law. This requirement will be met if the resident is offered the opportunity to relocate to other suitable housing under the Public Housing Program, any of the housing assistance programs under Section 8 of the Act, or
