Subpart C—Application and Proposal

SOURCE: 61 FR 38018, July 22, 1996, unless otherwise noted.

§ 941.301 Application.

If funding is made available for public housing development, HUD will provide information about fund allocation, application deadline, and selection criteria and procedures through a Notice of Funding Availability (NOFA).

EFFECTIVE DATE NOTE: At 61 FR 38018, July 22, 1996, § 941.301 was revised. This section contains information collection and recordkeeping requirements and will not become effective until approval has been given by the Office of Management and Budget. When approval is obtained, HUD will publish notice of the effective date in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 941.302 Annual contributions contract; drawdowns and advances.

(a) A PHA wishing to develop public housing shall execute an ACC or ACC amendment covering the entire amount of reserved development funds or the amount of modernization funds (under section 14 of the Act, 42 U.S.C. 1437l) it proposes to use in accordance with this part. This ACC or ACC amendment must be executed by both the PHA and HUD before funds can be provided to the PHA.

(b) Until HUD has approved a PHA's full proposal, a PHA may only draw down funds under the ACC for pre-development costs for materials and services related to proposal preparation and submission. Expenditures for pre-development costs shall not exceed three percent of the total development cost stated in the executed ACC.

(c) HUD may approve the following in writing:

(1) Amounts in excess of three percent of TDC for pre-development costs; and/or

(2) Drawdown of funds to enable a PHA to acquire a site after approval by HUD of the PHA's site acquisition proposal, in accordance with § 941.303.

(d) After HUD approval of the full proposal, the PHA may draw down additional funds under the ACC to develop the public housing units in accordance with the approved full proposal.

§ 941.303 Site acquisition proposal.

When a PHA determines that it is necessary to acquire land for development through new construction, it may spend funds authorized under this part to acquire development sites. HUD must approve a PHA's proposed use of funds before it may acquire sites in this manner. A PHA must submit the following documents for HUD review and approval, in accordance with the standards set forth in § 941.305:

(a) Justification. A justification for acquiring land prior to PHA proposal approval;

(b) Site information. An identification and description of the proposed site, site plan, neighborhood, and evidence of PHA control of the site for at least sixty (60) days after proposal submission.

(c) Zoning. Evidence that construction or rehabilitation is permitted by current zoning ordinances or regulations or evidence to indicate that needed rezoning is likely and will not delay the project.

(d) Development schedule. A copy of the PHA development schedule, including the PHA architect estimates of the time required to complete each major development stage.

(e) Environmental assessment. All available environmental information on the proposed development (to expedite the HUD environmental review).

(f) Appraisal. An appraisal of the proposed site by an independent, state-certified appraiser.

EFFECTIVE DATE NOTE: At 61 FR 38018, July 22, 1996, § 941.303 was revised. This section contains information collection and recordkeeping requirements and will not become effective until approval has been given by the Office of Management and Budget. When approval is obtained, HUD will publish notice of the effective date in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

§ 941.304 Full proposal content.

Each full proposal shall include at a minimum the following:

(a) Project description. A description of the housing, including the number of units, schematic drawings of the proposed building and unit plans, outline specifications or rehabilitation work write-ups, and the types and amounts of non-dwelling space to be provided;

(b) Description of development method. A description of the PHA's proposed development method, and a demonstration by the PHA that it will be able to use this method successfully to develop the public housing units. If the PHA proposes to use the turnkey method, it must submit a Board-approved certification that the developer was selected as the result of a public solicitation for proposals and that the selection was based on an objective rating system, using such factors as site location, project design, price, and developer experience. If the PHA proposes to use the acquisition method, the PHA must submit a certification by the PHA and owner that the property was not constructed with the intent that it would be sold to the PHA. If the PHA proposes to use the mixed-finance method, it should have consulted with HUD on its plans. If the PHA proposes to use the force account method to develop the public housing units, it must have already received approval from HUD of its capability to carry out the development successfully in this manner;

(c) Site information. An identification and description of the proposed site, site plan, neighborhood, and evidence of PHA or turnkey developer control of the site for at least sixty (60) days after proposal submission;

(d) Project costs. (1) Categories of cost. The detailed budget of the costs of developing the project, in accordance with the form prescribed by HUD. With respect to costs of demolition and relocation, the description must distinguish between costs related to existing public housing property and costs related to acquisition of a new public housing site;

(2) Budget and payment schedule. A budget that identifies the sources of funding for relocation benefits, and a payment schedule anticipated to be provided under a construction contract;

(e) Appraisal. An appraisal of the proposed site or property by an independent, state-certified appraiser;

(f) Financial feasibility. Identification of funds sufficient to complete the development, including a reasonable contingency;

(g) Zoning. Evidence that construction or rehabilitation is permitted by current zoning ordinances or regulations or evidence to indicate that needed rezoning is likely and will not delay the project;

(h) Facilities. A statement addressing the adequacy of existing facilities and services for the prospective occupants of the project, a description of public improvements needed to ensure the viability of the proposed project with a description of the sources of funds available to carry out such improvements, and, if applicable, a statement addressing the minority enrollment and capacity of the school system to absorb the number of school-aged children expected to reside in the project;

(i) Relocation. A certification by the PHA that it will comply with all applicable Federal relocation requirements;

(j) Life-cycle analysis. For new construction and substantial rehabilitation, the criteria to be used in equipping the proposed project(s) with heating and cooling systems, and which shall include a life-cycle cost analysis of the installation, maintenance and operating costs of such systems pursuant to section 13 of the Act (42 U.S.C. 1437k);

(k) Project development schedule. A copy of the PHA development schedule, including the PHA architect or turnkey developer estimates of the time required to complete each major development stage;

(l) Environmental assessment. All available environmental information on the proposed development (to expedite the HUD environmental review);
