

fee is reasonable and necessary for administration of the program in accordance with HUD requirements.

(3) HUD may pay a lower ongoing administrative fee for HA-owned units.

(c) Preliminary fee. (1) A one-time preliminary fee, in the amount of $500, is paid by HUD in the first year an HA administers a tenant-based assistance program under the 1937 Housing Act. The fee is paid for each new unit added to the HA program by the initial funding increment.

(2) The preliminary fee is used to cover expenses that the HA documents it has incurred to help families who inquire about or apply for the program, to lease up new units, or to pay for family self-sufficiency program activities.

(d) Reducing HA administrative fee. HUD may reduce or offset any administrative fee to the HA, in the amount determined by HUD, if the HA fails to perform HA administrative responsibilities correctly or adequately under the program (for example, HA failure to enforce HQS requirements; or to reimburse a receiving HA promptly under portability procedures).

§ 982.154 ACC reserve account.

(a)(1) HUD establishes an unfunded reserve account, called the ACC reserve account (formerly “project reserve”), for the HA’s program. There are separate ACC reserve accounts for the HA’s certificate and voucher programs. The ACC reserve account is established and maintained in the amount determined by HUD.

(2) At the end of each HA fiscal year, HUD credits the ACC reserve account from the amount by which the sum of contract authority for all funding increments under the consolidated ACC (maximum annual payment) exceeds the amount actually approved and paid for the HA fiscal year. However, the maximum annual payment does not include contract authority for an expired funding increment. If the term of a funding increment expires during the HA fiscal year, this maximum amount only includes the pro-rata portion of contract authority for the funding increment covering the portion of the HA fiscal year prior to expiration.

(b) HUD may approve additional payments for the HA program from available amounts in the ACC reserve account.

§ 982.155 Administrative fee reserve.

(a) The HA must maintain an administrative fee reserve (formerly “operating reserve”) for the program. There are separate administrative fee reserve accounts for the HA’s certificate and voucher programs. The HA must credit to the administrative fee reserve the total of:

(1) The amount by which program administrative fees paid by HUD for an HA fiscal year exceed the HA program administrative expenses for the fiscal year; plus

(2) Interest earned on the administrative fee reserve.

(b)(1) The HA must use funds in the administrative fee reserve to pay program administrative expenses in excess of administrative fees paid by HUD for an HA fiscal year. If funds in the administrative fee reserve are not needed to cover HA administrative expenses (to the end of the last expiring funding increment under the consolidated ACC), the HA may use these funds for other housing purposes permitted by State and local law. However, HUD may prohibit use of the funds for certain purposes.

(2) The HA Board of Commissioners or other authorized officials must establish the maximum amount that may be charged against the administrative fee reserve without specific approval.

(3) If the HA has not adequately administered any Section 8 program, HUD may prohibit use of funds in the administrative fee reserve, and may direct the HA to use funds in the reserve
