

with continued assistance under the program, either inside the HA jurisdiction, or under the portability procedures. (See §982.353)

(2) The HA may establish:

(i) Policies that prohibit any move by the family during the initial year of assisted occupancy; and

(ii) Policies that prohibit more than one move by the family during any one year period.

(3) The HA policies may apply to moves within the HA jurisdiction by a participant family, and to moves by a participant family outside the HA jurisdiction under portability procedures.

(d) Notice that family wants to move. (1) If the family terminates the lease on notice to the owner, the family must give the HA a copy of the notice at the same time.

(2) If the family wants to move to a new unit, the family must notify the HA and the owner before moving from the old unit. If the family wants to move to a new unit that is located outside the initial HA jurisdiction, the notice to the initial HA must specify the area where the family wants to move. See portability procedures in subpart H of this part.

(e) When HA may deny permission to move. (1) The HA may deny permission to move if the HA does not have sufficient funding for continued assistance.

(2) At any time, the HA may deny permission to move in accordance with §982.552 (grounds for denial or termination of assistance).

§982.315 Family break-up.

(a) The HA has discretion to determine which members of an assisted family continue to receive assistance in the program if the family breaks up. The HA administrative plan must state HA policies on how to decide who remains in the program if the family breaks up.

(b) The factors to be considered in making this decision under the HA policy may include:

(1) Whether the assistance should remain with family members remaining in the original assisted unit.

(2) The interest of minor children or of ill, elderly or disabled family members.

(3) Whether family members are forced to leave the unit as a result of actual or threatened physical violence against family members by a spouse or other member of the household.

(4) Other factors specified by the HA.

(c) If a court determines the disposition of property between members of the assisted family in a divorce or separation under a settlement or judicial decree, the HA is bound by the court's determination of which family members continue to receive assistance in the program.

§982.316 Live-in aide.

(a) A family that consists of one or more elderly, near-elderly or disabled persons may request that the HA approve a live-in aide to reside in the unit and provide necessary supportive services for a family member who is a person with disabilities. The HA must approve a live-in aide if needed as a reasonable accommodation in accordance with 24 CFR part 8 to make the program accessible to and usable by the family member with a disability. (See §982.402(b)(6) concerning effect of live-in aide on family unit size.)

(b) At any time, the HA may refuse to approve a particular person as a live-in aide, or may withdraw such approval, if:

(1) The person commits fraud, bribery or any other corrupt or criminal act in connection with any federal housing program;

(2) The person commits drug-related criminal activity or violent criminal activity; or

(3) The person currently owes rent or other amounts to the HA or to another HA in connection with Section 8 or public housing assistance under the 1937 Act.
