

§514.112

26 CFR Ch. I (4-1-00 Edition)

spent within the United States during the taxable year and regardless of the amount of the fees or professional charges resulting to such alien from such services. As to when an alien is regarded as a resident of the United States and hence outside the scope of the exemption, see §29.211-2 of Regulations 111 (26 CFR 1949 ed. Supps. 29.211-2) [and §39.211-2 of Regulations 118 (26 CFR, Rev. 1953, Parts 1-79, and Supps.)].

§514.112 Stocks, securities, and commodities.

Under Article 11 of the convention, gains derived from the sale or exchange within the United States of stocks, securities, or commodities (if of a kind customarily dealt in on an organized commodity exchange) by a nonresident alien individual resident in France, or by a French corporation or other French entity, is exempt from Federal income tax unless such individual, corporation, or other entity has a permanent establishment in the United States. If, however, a permanent establishment is maintained in the United States, such gains are not so exempt even though the sales or exchanges resulting in such gains were carried on directly from the home office of the taxpayer and not through the permanent establishment in the United States. As to what constitutes a permanent establishment, see §514.104(b)(1).

§514.113 Remittances to students.

Under Article 12 of the convention, nonresident alien individuals who are residents of France and who are temporarily residing in the United States for the purposes of studying or for acquiring business experience, are exempt from Federal income tax upon amounts representing remittances from France for the purposes of their maintenance and studies.

§514.114 Credit against United States tax liability for income tax paid to France.

For the purpose of avoidance of double taxation, Article 14A of the convention provides that, on the part of the United States, there shall be allowed against the United States income and excess profits tax liabilities a credit for any income, war-profits or excess profits taxes paid to France by United States citizens or domestic corporations. Such principle also applies in the case of a citizen of France residing in the United States. Such credit, however, is subject to the limitations provided in section 131 of the Internal Revenue Code (relating to the credit for foreign taxes) and section 729 of such Code (relating to laws applicable). See §§29.131-1 to 29.131-10 of Regulations 111 (26 CFR 1949 ed. Supps. 29.131-1 to 29.131-10), [§§39.131(a)-1 to 39.131(j)-1 of Regulations 118 (26 CFR, Rev. 1953, Parts 1-79, and Supps.)], and §§35.729-1 to 35.729-3 Regulations 112 (26 CFR 1938 ed. Supps. 35.729-1 to 35.729-3).

§514.115 Adjustment of tax liability of residents of France and French corporations.

Article 18 of the convention confers upon the Commissioner authority to adjust under the Revenue Act of 1936 the tax liability for taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1936, of nonresident alien residents of France, and French corporations, in any case in which such tax liability remained unpaid on January 1, 1945. Such provision, however, will not apply in any case unless:

(a) The Commissioner is satisfied that the additional income tax involved did not arise by reason of fraud with intent to evade the tax on the part of the taxpayer concerned; and

(b) The taxpayer files, prior to January 1, 1947, with the Commissioner a sworn statement showing for each year involved and for such other years as the Commissioner may require, (1) by items and classes of income the amounts of interest, dividends, rents, salaries, wages, premiums, annuities, compensations, remunerations, emoluments, or other fixed or determinable annual or periodical income, gains, profits, and income derived from sources within the United States; (2) the business transactions, if any, carried on in the United States by or in behalf of the taxpayer during each of such years; and (3) such further information as the Commissioner may require in the particular case.
