

§ 541.212

29 CFR Ch. V (7–1–04 Edition)

§ 541.211 Amount of salary or fees required.

(a) Except as otherwise noted in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section, compensation on a salary or fee basis at a rate of not less than $225 per week beginning February 13, 1981 and $250 per week beginning February 13, 1983, exclusive of board, lodging or other facilities, is required for exemption as an administrative employee. For example, based on $250 a week, the requirement will be met if the employee is compensated biweekly on a salary basis of $500, semimonthly on a salary basis of $541.67 or monthly on a salary basis of $1,083.33.

(b) In Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and American Samoa, the salary test for exemption as an administrative employee is $180 per week beginning February 13, 1981 and $200 per week beginning February 13, 1983 for other than an employee of the Federal Government.

§ 541.212 Salary basis.

The explanation of the salary basis of payment made in § 541.118 in connection with the definition of “executive” is also applicable in the definition of “administrative.”

§ 541.213 Fee basis.

The requirements for exemption as an administrative employee may be met by an employee who is compensated on a fee basis as well as by one who is paid on a salary basis. For a discussion of payment of a fee basis, see § 541.313.

§ 541.214 Special proviso for high salaried administrative employees.

(a) Except as otherwise noted in paragraph (b) of this section, § 541.2 contains a special proviso including within the definition of “administrative” an employee who is compensated on a salary or fee basis at a rate of not less than $250 per week exclusive of board, lodging, or other facilities, and whose primary duty consists of either the performance of office or nonmanual work directly related to management policies or general business operations of the employer or the employer’s customers, or the performance of functions in the administration of a school system, or educational establishment or institution, or of a department or subdivision thereof, in work directly related to the academic instruction or training carried on therein, where the performance of such primary duty includes work requiring the exercise of discretion and independent judgment. Such a highly paid employee having such work as his or her primary duty is deemed to meet all the requirements in § 541.2 (a) through (e). If an employee qualifies for exemption under this proviso, it is not necessary to test the employee’s qualifications in detail under § 541.2 (a) through (e).

(b) In Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, and American Samoa, the proviso of § 541.2(e) applies to those administrative employees other than an employee of the Federal Government who are compensated on a salary or fee basis or not less than $200 per week.

§ 541.214 Special proviso for high salaried administrative employees.

(a) Except as otherwise noted in paragraph (b) of this section, § 541.2 contains a special proviso including within the definition of “administrative” an employee who is compensated on a salary or fee basis at a rate of not less than $320 per week beginning February 13, 1981 and $345 per week beginning February 13, 1983, exclusive of board, lodging, or other facilities, and whose primary duty consists of either the performance of office or nonmanual work directly related to management policies or general business operations of the employer or the employer’s customers, or the performance of functions in the administration of a school system, or educational establishment or institution, or of a department or subdivision thereof, in work directly related to the academic instruction or training carried on therein, where the performance of such primary duty includes work requiring the exercise of discretion and independent judgment. Such a highly paid employee having such work as his or her primary duty is deemed to meet all the requirements in § 541.2 (a) through (e). If an employee qualifies for exemption under this proviso, it is not necessary to test the employee’s qualifications in detail under § 541.2 (a) through (e).
