

§ 317.62

(i) Name, address, taxpayer identification number (SSN), and other information necessary to establish the identity of the individual.

(ii) The amount, status, and history of the claim; and

(iii) The agency or program under which the claim arose.

(3) 31 U.S.C. 952d specifically requires that the FEDERAL REGISTER notice for the system of records from which the information will be disclosed indicate that the information may be disclosed to a consumer reporting agency.

§ 317.62 Disclosures to commercial enterprises.

(a) General policy. (1) Records may be disclosed to commercial enterprises only under the criteria established by the FOIA.

(2) The relationship of commercial enterprises to their customers or clients and to the agency is not changed by this part.

(3) The policy on personal indebtedness for civilian employees, is contained in DCAA Manual 1400.1, DCAA Personnel Management Manual.

(b) Disclosure of information. (1) Any information required to be disclosed by the FOIA may be disclosed to a requesting commercial enterprise.

(2) Commercial enterprises may present a concise statement signed by the individual indicating specific conditions for disclosing information from a record. Statements such as the following, if signed by the individual, are considered sufficient to authorize the disclosure:

I hereby authorize the Defense Contract Audit Agency to verify my Social Security Number or other identifying information and to disclose my home address and telephone number to authorized representatives of (name of commercial enterprise) to be used in connection with my commercial dealings with that enterprise. All information furnished will be used in connection with my financial relationship with (name of commercial enterprise).

(3) When a consent statement as described in the preceding paragraph is presented, the information should be provided to the commercial enterprise, unless the disclosure is prohibited by another regulation or Federal law.

32 CFR Ch. I (7-1-98 Edition)

(4) Requests should not be honored from commercial enterprises for official evaluations or personal characteristics such as personal financial habits.

§ 317.63 Disclosing health care records to the public.

This section applies to the disclosure of information to the news media and the public concerning individuals treated or hospitalized in DoD medical facilities and, when the cost of care is paid by the agency, in non-Federal facilities.

(a) Disclosures without the individual's consent. Normally, the following information may be disclosed without the individual's consent:

(1) Information required to be released by the FOIA, as well as the information listed for military personnel and for civilian employees; and

(2) The following general information concerning medical condition:

(i) Date of admission or disposition; and

(ii) Present medical assessment of the individual's condition in the following terms, if the medical practitioner has volunteered the information:

(A) The individual's condition presently is (stable) (good) (fair) (serious) (critical), and

(B) The patient is conscious, semiconscious, or unconscious.

(b) Disclosures with the individual's consent. With the individual's informed consent, any information about the individual may be disclosed. If the individual is a minor or has been declared incompetent by a court of competent jurisdiction, the parent or the appointed legal guardian may give consent on behalf of the individual.

(c) Disclosures to other government agencies. This section does not limit otherwise lawful disclosures to other government agencies for use in determining eligibility for special assistance or other benefits provided there is a published routine use permitting the disclosure.

§ 317.64 Accounting for disclosures.

(a) When to keep disclosure accountings. An accurate record of all disclosures made from a record (including those made with the consent of the individual) should be kept except those made:

(1) To DCAA personnel for use in performing their official duties; and

(2) Pursuant to DCAA Regulation 5410.10 (32 CFR part 290).

(b) Content of disclosure accountings. Disclosure accountings shall contain:

(1) The date of the disclosure.

(2) A description of the information disclosed.

(3) The purpose of the disclosure; and

(4) The name and address of the person or agency to whom the disclosure was made.

(c) Using disclosure accountings. When an individual's request to amend the record is granted and when an individual files a statement of disagreement, all persons and agencies listed in the disclosure accounting, except those known to be no longer retaining the record, must be informed.

(d) Individual access to disclosure accountings. The record subject has the right of access to the disclosure accounting except when:

(1) The disclosure was made at the request of a civil or criminal law enforcement agency, or

(2) The system of records has been exempted from the requirement to provide access to the disclosure accounting.

(e) Methods of disclosure accounting.

(1) The agency may use any method of disclosure accounting that will readily provide the necessary disclosure information required.

(2) When numerous similar records are disclosed (e.g., sending payroll checks to banks), identify the category of records disclosed and include the information in some form that can be used to construct a disclosure accounting.

(f) Retaining disclosure accountings. The disclosure accounting shall be retained for five years after the disclosure was made or the life of the record, whichever is longer.

Subpart G—Publication Requirements

§ 317.70 Federal Register publication.

(a) Documents that must be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. (1) Three types of documents relating to the Privacy Program must be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER:

(i) DCAA Privacy Program procedural rules (32 CFR part 317).

(ii) DCAA exemption rules (32 CFR part 317), and

(iii) Record system notices.

(2) DoD 5025.1-M, "DoD Directives System Procedures," and DoD Directive 5400.9, "Publication of Proposed and Adopted Regulations Affecting the Public" (32 CFR part 336), contain information on preparing documents for publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

(b) Effect of publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Publishing a document in the FEDERAL REGISTER constitutes official public notice of the existence and content of the document.

(c) Formal rulemaking and notices. (1) DCAA Privacy Program procedural and exemption rules are subject to the rulemaking procedures prescribed by 32 CFR part 336. These are incorporated automatically into the Code of Federal Regulations.

(2) Record system notices are published in the FEDERAL REGISTER as "notices." They are not subject to the rulemaking procedures or automatic incorporation into the Code of Federal Regulations.

(d) Submitting Privacy Program procedural rules for publication. (1) Procedural rules must be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER first as proposed rules to allow for public comment, then as final rules.

(2) The DCAA Privacy Advisor will submit to the Defense Privacy Office all proposed rules implementing this rule. The submission must conform to the FEDERAL REGISTER format.

(3) This part published as a final rule in the FEDERAL REGISTER shall be incorporated by regions as their own
