

as long as these patrols are in accordance with applicable treaties and Status of Forces Agreements.

(c) Military police personnel selected for off-post patrols must be experienced in law enforcement and have mature judgment. They must be thoroughly familiar with all applicable agreements and implementing standard operating procedures. They must understand the implications of the Posse Comitatus Act as it pertains to military law enforcement personnel assisting local law enforcement agencies.

(d) At a minimum, instructions to military police assigned to off-post patrols will specifically state that if they accompany civil police, they will do so for the sole purpose of enforcing the UCMJ among persons subject to the code. Their instructions will also specifically state that they are under the command and directly responsible to their military superiors and that they exercise no authority over the civil police or the civil populace. Accordingly, military police should be instructed that they are not to exercise any authority in a case of misconduct or apparent law violation unless the person concerned has been identified as a member of the military service. However, military law enforcement personnel may come to the aid of civil police in order to prevent the commission of a felony or injury to a civilian police officer.

§ 631.16 Policy (for Navy only).

(a) Off-base law enforcement activities by naval personnel (CONUS and Hawaii) shall be limited to liaison functions with civilian law enforcement agencies and courts and to the acceptance of "courtesy turnovers."

(b) The court liaison function is limited to the provision of an official Navy point of contact for the courts, to the provision of advice for individuals and local commands, and to court appearance with individuals from deployed commands.

(c) Courtesy turnovers will be limited to those persons whose behavior and attitude are acceptable and who desire to be returned to the custody of their parent command.

(d) Courtesy turnovers will be accepted from jails, police stations, etc., but not directly from police officers on the scene of an incident.

§ 631.17 Policy (for Marine Corps only).

(a) Within CONUS. (1) Normally, off-installation patrols will not be established in CONUS. However, installation commanders may request authority from HQMC (Code MPH) to establish off-installation patrols if needed.

(i) In conjunction with military operations.

(ii) To safeguard the health and welfare of Marine personnel.

(iii) When the type of offenses or the number of military personnel frequenting an area is large enough to warrant such patrols.

(2) In view of the important legal implications involved (see 18 U.S.C. 1382, the Posse Comitatus Act as made applicable to DoN) the advice of the local staff judge advocate/legal officer should be sought prior to the implementation of such an authorization. When possible, installation commanders will execute a mutually acceptable written agreement with the civil police authorities.

(b) Overseas Areas. Off-installation patrols will be kept at minimum for mission accomplishment. Commanders of installations may authorize off-installation patrols as required by local conditions and customs as long as these patrols are in accordance with applicable treaties and Status of Forces Agreements.

(c) Personnel selected for off-installation patrols must be experienced in law enforcement and have mature judgment. They must be thoroughly familiar with all applicable agreements and implementing standard operating procedures. They must understand the implications of the Posse Comitatus Act as it pertains to military law enforcement personnel assisting local law enforcement agencies.

(d) At a minimum, instructions to military police assigned to off-installation patrols will specifically state that if they accompany civil police, they will do so for the sole purpose of enforcing the UCMJ among persons subject to the code. Their instructions will also specifically state that they are under the command and directly responsible to their military superiors and that they exercise no authority over the civil police or the civil populace.

Accordingly, military police should be instructed that they are not to exercise any authority in a case of misconduct or apparent law violation unless the person concerned has been identified as a member of the military service. However, military law enforcement personnel may come to the aid of civil police in order to prevent the commission of a felony or injury to a civilian police officer.

(e) Absentee and deserter collection units to accept active duty absentee or deserter military personnel from civilian authorities may be established.

(f) Civil police and civil court liaison may be established.

(g) Installation commanders are authorized to establish other activities deemed necessary, provided each activity is within the scope of military purpose and authority, i.e., apprehensions where authorized by UCMJ, courtesy patrols, etc.

§ 631.18 Policy (for Air Force only).

See section B, AFR 125-19, for Air Force policy on off-installation patrols.

§ 631.19 Operations.

(a) In CONUS, incidents occurring off-installation normally are investigated by civil law enforcement agencies. These include State, county, or municipal authorities or a Federal investigative agency. When an incident of substantial interest to the U.S. Army occurs off-installation, the Armed Forces law enforcement organization exercising area responsibility will obtain copies of the civil law enforcement report. These are incidents that involve Army property or personnel. The civil law enforcement report would be processed according to applicable Service regulations.

(b) In oversea areas, off-installation incidents will be investigated in accordance with Status of Forces agreements and other appropriate U.S.-host country agreements.
