

Subpart D—Joint Service Law Enforcement Operations (Not Applicable to U.S. Navy)

§ 631.20 Organization.

In localities frequented by personnel of more than one Service, installation commanders may consider the establishment of joint law enforcement operations. Such operations may provide a more effective and economical accomplishment of off-installation law enforcement. When such operations are established, participating installation commanders will—

- (a) Execute written agreements concerning the operations.
- (b) Insure that each participating organization contributes its proportionate share of personnel, equipment, and supporting facilities.

§ 631.21 Joint law enforcement operations.

The following procedures will apply when establishing joint law enforcement operations:

- (a) Personnel. Enlisted personnel selected for joint law enforcement duty should meet the following qualifications:
 - (1) Be temperamentally suited for police duty and received training or have experience in law enforcement.
 - (2) Be 19 years of age or older.
 - (3) Have no record of court-martial convictions or civilian offenses other than minor traffic violations.
 - (4) Be at least 5 feet 4 inches tall.
 - (5) Meet General Classification Test (GCT) (or equivalent test) score requirements of the parent Service for assignment to police duty.
 - (6) Possess a military motor vehicle operators license.
 - (7) Have at least 12 months remaining on current enlistment.
- (b) Logistics. Personnel assigned to joint patrols will be equipped as prescribed by their respective Service regulations or directives to include the symbol of their law enforcement authority (badge or brassard).
- (c) Functions. Joint law enforcement operations will perform, at a minimum, the following functions:
 - (1) Provide assistance to all Armed Forces personnel who are charged with civil violations.

- (2) Maintain liaison with civilian enforcement and judicial agencies.

- (3) Have the capability to receive military personnel apprehended by civilian authorities.

- (d) Duty assignments. Personnel assigned to perform joint operations may be further assigned to perform duties in any of the following functional areas:

- (1) Police station operation (desk sergeants, desk clerks, radio operators, etc.).
- (2) Motor patrols necessary to conduct police and court liaison and to transport military personnel from the local civilian police.
- (3) Operations.
- (4) Administration.

APPENDIX A TO PART 631—CIVIL AGENCIES

A-1. American Social Health Association.

The American Social Health Association, upon request, provides information and consultation in the fields of venereal disease and drug abuse. Local AFDCBs desiring information should apply through one of the following regional offices of the association:

Eastern Regional Director, 86 Farmington Ave., Hartford, CT 06105

Middle America Regional Director, 110 North High Street, Gahanna, OH 43230

Southern Regional Director, 173 Walton Street, NW., Atlanta, GA 30303

Western Regional Director, 785 Market Street, Rm. 1010, San Francisco, CA 94103

A-2. United States Brewers Association.

a. The United States Brewers Association is the trade and public relations agency of the organized brewing industry in the United States. Upon request, it will assist military authorities within CONUS to eliminate conditions detrimental to the health, morals, and welfare of members of the Armed Forces in the cities and communities adjacent to military installations.

b. This association conducts an Armed Forces cooperation program to further "self-regulation" activities among beer dealers. It cooperates with State and local law enforcement officials in the promotion and maintenance of proper conditions in retail beer outlets throughout the country. Its services are available to AFDCBs for furthering joint action in the promotion of law observance and the maintenance of conditions of cleanliness and decency in retail beer outlets patronized by members of the Armed Forces.

c. Local sponsoring commanders requesting the assistance of the Brewers Association may apply to the Director of Field Services,
