

programs following full scale production decision (Milestone III); the business, contractual, manpower, and logistic support aspects of the Department of the Navy Acquisition programs, including policy and administration of affairs related thereto; the maintenance, alteration, supply, distribution, and disposal of material; all transportation matters; the acquisition, construction, utilization, improvement alteration, maintenance, and disposal of real estate and facilities, including capital equipment utilities, housing, and public quarters; printing and publications; labor relations with respect to contractors with the Department of the Navy; industrial security; the Mutual Defense Assistance Program, as related to the supplying of material, including Foreign Military Sales; and supervision of offices and organizations as assigned by the Secretary.

(f) The Assistant Secretary of the Navy (Research, Engineering and Systems) is responsible for all technical aspects of all stages of Department of the Navy acquisition programs through the full-scale production decision (Milestone III), including policy and administration of affairs related thereto, with the exception of the acquisition of naval ships funded by the appropriation 'Ships Construction, Navy'; the technical aspects of the maintenance or alteration of material; all matters related to research, development, engineering, test, and evaluation efforts within the Department of the Navy, including management of the appropriation, 'Research, Development, Test and Evaluation, Navy'; oceanography; ocean engineering and closely related matters; and supervision of offices and organizations as assigned by the Secretary.

(g) The General Counsel of the Navy is responsible for providing legal advice, counsel, and guidance to the Secretary and the other Civilian Executive Assistants on any matter that they may direct or that the General Counsel determines should be brought to their attention. The General Counsel is also responsible for providing all necessary legal advice, counsel, and guidance to the staffs of the Secretary and the other Civilian Executive Assistants; the supervision of the Office of the General Counsel; and such other duties as the Secretary may assign. The responsibilities of the General Counsel are not intended to infringe upon, or interfere with, the responsibilities of the Judge Advocate General for the administration of military justice and such other matters as may be assigned to that officer by statute or by the Secretary.

(h) The Deputy Under Secretary of the Navy is responsible to the Secretary or Under Secretary for acting as a focal point and coordinator for the resolution of problems which require high-level special attention. In addition, the Deputy Under Secretary is the major claimant for funds and manpower supporting the Department of the Navy Secretariat, Staff Offices, and the Department of the Navy General Gift Fund. The Deputy Under Secretary is responsible for general oversight, policy and procedure formulation and coordination regarding environmental matters affecting the Department of the Navy, with the exception of occupational health and safety and employee working conditions.
