

requires the applicant to seek separation from the military service or assignment to noncombatant training and duty for reasons of conscience.

(2) An explanation as to how his beliefs changed or developed, to include an explanation as to what factors (how, when and from whom or from what source training received and belief acquired) caused the change in or development of conscientious objection beliefs.

(3) An explanation as to when these beliefs became incompatible with military service, and why.

(4) An explanation as to the circumstances, if any, under which the applicant believes in the use of force, and to what extent, under any foreseeable circumstances.

(5) An explanation as to how the applicant's daily lifestyle has changed as a result of his beliefs and what future actions he plans to continue to support his beliefs.

(6) An explanation as to what in applicant's opinion most conspicuously demonstrates the consistency and depth of his beliefs which gave rise to his claim.

(c) Participation in organizations. (1) Information as to whether applicant has ever been a member of any military organization or establishment before entering upon his present term of service. If so, the name and address of such organization will be given together with reasons why he became a member.

(2) A statement as to whether applicant is a member of a religious sect or organization. If so, the statement will show the following:

(i) The name of the sect, and the name and location of its governing body or head, if known.

(ii) When, where, and how the applicant became a member of said sect or organization.

(iii) The name and location of any church, congregation or meeting which the applicant customarily attends, and the extent of the applicant's active participation therein.

(iv) The name, title, and present address of the pastor or leader of such church, congregation or meeting.

(v) A description of the creed or official statements, if any, and if they are known to him, of said religious sect or organization in relation to participation in war.

(3) A description of applicant's relationships with and activities in all organizations with which he is or has been affiliated, other than military, political, or labor organizations.

(d) References. Any additional information, such as letters of reference or official statements of organizations to which the applicant belongs or refers in his application, that the applicant desires to be considered by the authority reviewing his application. The burden is on the applicant to obtain and forward such information.

§ 75.10 Statement (counseling concerning Veterans Administration benefits).

I have been advised of the provisions of 38 U.S.C. 3103 concerning possible nonentitlement to benefits administered by the Veterans Administration due to discharge from the military service as a conscientious objector under certain conditions. I understand that a discharge as a conscientious objector, who refused to perform military duty or otherwise to comply with lawful orders of competent military authority, shall bar all rights, based upon the period of service from which discharged, under any laws administered by the Veterans Administration except my legal entitlement (if any) to any war risks, government (converted) or National Service Life Insurance.

§ 75.11 Statement (counseling concerning designation as conscientious objector).

I have been counseled concerning designation as a conscientious objector. Based on my religious training and belief, I consider myself to be a conscientious objector within the meaning of the statute and regulations governing conscientious objectors and am conscientiously opposed to participation in combatant training and service. I request assignment to noncombatant duties for the remainder of my term of service. I fully understand that on expiration of my current term of service I am not eligible for voluntary enlistment, reenlistment, or active service in the Armed Forces.
