

Department of the Navy, DoD

§ 776.32

and substantially as a public officer or employee, unless the appropriate government agency consents after consultation. If a former judge advocate in a firm with which that judge advocate is associated knows that the firm or anyone associated with the firm is undertaking or continuing representation in such a matter:

(i) The disqualified former judge advocate must ensure that he or she is screened from any participation in the matter and is apportioned no part of the fee or any other benefit therefrom; and,

(ii) Must provide written notice promptly to the appropriate government agency to enable it to ascertain compliance with the provisions of this section.

(2) Except as the law or regulations may otherwise expressly permit, a former judge advocate who has information known to be confidential government information about a person which was acquired when the former judge advocate was a public officer may not represent a private client whose interests are adverse to that person in a matter in which the information could be used to the material disadvantage of that person. The former judge advocate may continue association with the firm only if the disqualified judge advocate is screened from any participation in the matter and is apportioned no part of the fee or any other benefit therefrom.

(3) Except as the law or regulations may otherwise expressly permit, a judge advocate shall not:

(i) Participate in a matter in which the judge advocate participated personally and substantially while in private practice or nongovernmental employment, unless under applicable law no one is, or by lawful delegation may be, authorized to act in the judge advocate's stead in the matter; or,

(ii) Negotiate for private employment with any person who is involved as a party or as attorney for a party in a matter in which the judge advocate is participating personally and substantially.

(4) As used in this section, the term "matter" includes:

(i) Any judicial or other proceeding, application, request for a ruling or other determination, contract, claim, controversy, investigation, charge, accusation, arrest or other particular matter involving a specific party or parties; and,

(ii) Any other matter covered by the conflict of interest rules of the appropriate government agency.

(5) As used in this section, the term "confidential governmental information" means information which has been obtained under governmental authority and which, at the time this section is applied, the government is prohibited by law or regulations from disclosing to the public or has a legal privilege not to disclose, and which is not otherwise available to the public.

(b) [Reserved]

§ 776.31 Former judge or arbitrator.

(a) Former judge or arbitrator. (1) Except as stated in paragraph (a)(3) of this section, a judge advocate shall not represent anyone in connection with a matter in which the judge advocate participated personally and substantially as a judge or other adjudicative officer, arbitrator, or law clerk to such a person, unless all parties to the proceeding consent after disclosure.

(2) A judge advocate shall not negotiate for employment with any person who is involved as a party or as attorney for a party in a matter in which the judge advocate is participating personally and substantially as a judge or other adjudicative officer. A judge advocate serving as law clerk to a judge, other adjudicative officer, or arbitrator may negotiate for employment with a party or attorney involved in a matter in which the clerk is participating personally and substantially, but only after the judge advocate has notified the judge, other adjudicative officer, or arbitrator.

(3) An arbitrator selected as a partisan of a party in a multi-member arbitration panel is not prohibited from subsequently representing that party.

(b) [Reserved]

§ 776.32 Department of the Navy as client.

(a) Department of the Navy as client. (1) Except when representing an individual client pursuant to paragraph (a)(6) of this section, a judge advocate
