

§ 818.14 Basic Allowance for Quarters (BAQ).

Under the DOD Military Pay and Allowances Entitlements Manual (DODPM), paragraph 30236, BAQ is not payable on behalf of a dependent whom a member refuses to support. Failure to support a dependent on whose behalf BAQ is being received requires recoupment for periods of nonsupport. Members should be informed of this provision and be advised that refusal or failure to support dependents requires administrative termination of BAQ entitlement at the with dependents rate.

(a) BAQ termination at the with dependents rate does not relieve a member of responsibility for providing dependent support.

(b) Commanders must assess the member's compliance with Air Force policy in those situations where the member would not otherwise be authorized the BAQ entitlement. For example, member is residing in government quarters and has no other dependents.

§ 818.15 Garnishment.

Federal law authorizes legal process against the Air Force only for the enforcement of child support and alimony payments according to state law. Service of legal process must be accomplished by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, or by personal service. The Commander, Air Force Accounting and Finance Center, Attention: JA, Denver CO 80279-5000, telephone (303) 370-7524, is the agent designated to accept legal process within the Air Force for active duty, Reserve, and retired military members.

(a) Legal process is defined as any writ, order, summons, or other similar process in the nature of garnishment issued by:

(1) A court of competent jurisdiction within any state, territory, or possession of the United States; or

(2) A court of competent jurisdiction in any foreign country with which the United States has entered into an agreement that requires the United States to honor such process; or

(3) An authorized official pursuant to an order of such court of competent jurisdiction or pursuant to state or local law. (See 42 U.S.C. 659, 662.)

(b) Process directed for garnishment must demonstrate, either on its face or by accompanying documentation, that collection is sought only for child support or alimony or both. The process must also show the member's Social Security number and whether the member is active duty, Reserve, or retired.

(c) If the validity of a court's order is questioned by the member concerned, the issue must be resolved by the parties or in court by the member or his or her private attorney. The Air Force has no authority to resolve such disputes.

§ 818.16 Statutory allotments.

An active duty member's pay and allowances are subject to a mandatory allotment to satisfy child or child and spousal support obligations where payments are in arrears for at least 2 months.

(a) A statutory allotment, pursuant to federal law, may be accomplished by the Air Force Accounting and Finance Center upon their being furnished a written notice from a court or state agency with responsibility for administering child support programs under title IV-D of the Social Security Act.

(b) The notice and the following documents or information must be served on the Commander, Air Force Accounting and Finance Center, Attention: JA, Denver CO 80279-5000:

(1) A statement that the person signing is an agent or an attorney of the state having a title IV-D plan who has the duty or authority under such plan to seek to recover amounts owed by a member as child or child and spousal support or a notice from a state court or any agent of the court who has authority to issue an order against a member for the support of a child.

(2) The service member's full name and Social Security number.

(3) A recently certified copy of the order awarding support must be included with the notice and a statement that the support payments are in arrears at least 2 months.

(4) A court order showing the amount of the arrears and specifying that payments be made to liquidate such arrears.
