

(c) Noncompliance with a court order may be legally justified when the individual can adequately demonstrate that the conduct, which is the subject of the complaint or request, was sanctioned by supplemental court orders, equally valid court orders of other jurisdictions, good faith legal efforts to resist the request, or other reasons. HQ USAF/JACM and JACA, and Air Force legal offices in the jurisdiction concerned will provide legal support to servicing staff judge advocates who request assistance in reviewing these issues.

(d) When federal, state or local authorities request delivery of an Air Force member who is stationed outside the United States and who is convicted of or is charged by such authorities with a felony or other serious offense punishable by confinement for more than one year under the laws of the requesting jurisdiction, or who is sought by such authorities in connection with the unlawful or contemptuous taking of a child from the jurisdiction of a court or from the lawful custody of another, the member normally will be expeditiously returned to the United States for delivery to the requesting authorities. Delivery of the member is not required if the controversy can be resolved without returning the member to the United States, or the request for delivery of the member is denied in accordance with this subpart.

(e) An Air Force member stationed outside the United States ordinarily will not be returned to the United States for delivery to civilian authorities in connection with an offense not enumerated in paragraph (d) of this section, but The Judge Advocate General (TJAG) may direct return in such cases when TJAG determines that the best interests of the Air Force require it.

(f) Before action is taken under this subpart, the member will be afforded the opportunity to provide evidence of legal efforts to resist the court order or process sought to be enforced, or otherwise to show legitimate cause for non-compliance.

§ 884.11 Assigned responsibilities.

(a) The Assistant Secretary of Defense (Force Management and Per-

HQ USAF/JAJM also is responsible for all reports and notifications to ASD (FM&P) and General Counsel, DOD (DOD/GC), as required by this part. HQ USAF/JAJM will conduct all communications with requesters.
