

§ 101-40.108

41 CFR Ch. 101 (7-1-99 Edition)

or upon request of agencies, GSA will make onsite surveys of transportation activities and will make recommendations, when necessary, for changes in agencies' policies, standards, practices, and procedures to improve transportation concepts and operations at all levels.

§ 101-40.108 Transportation seminars and workshops.

GSA conducts transportation seminars and workshops for the benefit of executive agency personnel assigned functions relating to the movement of Government materials. The objective of this training is to broaden traffic management knowledge and experience within the agency and to enhance economy of operations. Seminars on the use of socially and economically disadvantaged carriers are conducted by the GSA regional offices in coordination with the GSA Central Office. All other seminars are conducted through GSA Training Center (CTD). GSA regional offices will conduct workshops on transportation subjects designed to meet specific agency needs. Agencies desiring assistance in these matters should direct their requests to the appropriate GSA regional office or to the General Services Administration, GSA Training Center (CTD), P.O. Box 15608, Arlington, VA 22215, as appropriate.

§ 101-40.109 Availability of transportation-related contracts and agreements.

§ 101-40.109-1 Miscellaneous transportation-related contracts and agreements.

(a) The GSA Central Office or the appropriate GSA regional office will, as considered necessary, enter into agreements or contracts for transportation and related services, including but not limited to stevedoring, storage, drayage, packing, marking, ocean freight forwarding, accessorial services, demurrage, and weighing. (See 41 CFR 101-41.304-2 for the use of commercial forms and procedures instead of Government bills of lading.) These contracts and agreements will be made for and in behalf of all executive agencies.

(b) The availability of these contracts and agreements will be announced through GSA bulletins which will outline the specific contractual services and the terms of the agreements. After distribution of these bulletins, GSA will furnish copies of the contracts and agreements to agencies upon request.

§ 101-40.109-2 Office relocation contracts.

(a) Prior to entering into office relocation contracts, agencies should ensure they are complying with the provisions of FPMR Temp. Reg. D-73, or reissues thereof. (See 41 CFR appendix to subchapter D.) Compliance assistance may be obtained from the respective regional directors of the GSA Public Buildings Service, Real Estate Division.

(b) An agency may either enter into its own office relocation contracts or request the appropriate GSA regional office to enter into office relocation contracts on the agency's behalf. Requests to GSA should be made as soon as possible and at least 120 calendar days before the proposed date of the move for local office relocation moves. The agency shall furnish the GSA such pertinent information concerning the proposed relocation as origin, destination, moving date, an itemized inventory of property to be moved, and the name and telephone number of the agency relocation coordinator.

(1) Arrangements for moving services, other than local office relocation moves, will be contracted for using competitive procedures or other appropriate relocation arrangements including Government tenders pursuant to section 10721 of the Interstate Commerce Act (49 U.S.C. 10721).

(2) Local office relocation moves must be acquired by contract, since such moves qualify as transportation within "commercial zones or terminal areas" and are excepted from rate regulation by the Interstate Commerce Commission. Neither the statutory exemption provided for in paragraph (3) of section 7 of the McNamara-O'Hara Service Contract Act of 1965 (Service
