

the final administrative action. (See § 101-41.605-2(b).) A GSA claim settlement is not to be regarded as a precedent for agency determination of future payments by accountable or other administrative officers.

Subpart 101-41.7—Reconsideration and Review of General Services Administration Transportation Claim Settlements

§ 101-41.700 Protest to settlement action.

(a) A claimant who disagrees with the action taken upon his claim in GSA's transportation audit may write to the Administrator of General Services, General Services Administration (BW), Washington, DC 20405, requesting reconsideration of the action. The letter shall identify the transaction and set forth in detail the legal, technical, or factual data or other information or documentation relied upon by the carrier to raise substantive doubt as to the correctness of the claim settlement.

(b) A claimant who disagrees with the claim settlement action taken by an agency authorized by GSA to perform the transportation audit may address his request for reconsideration to the head of that agency. Such request shall include all information as indicated in paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 101-41.701 Review by the Comptroller General of the United States.

(a) A claimant desiring a review of a transportation settlement action taken by GSA or by a designee agency may request review by the Comptroller General of the United States (4 CFR part 53). Settlement means any final administrative action taken by GSA or by a designee agency in connection with the audit of payments for transportation and related services furnished for the account of the United States, including:

(1) Deduction from moneys otherwise due a carrier (or refund by carrier) to adjust asserted transportation overcharges;

(2) Disallowance, either in whole or in part, of a claim or a supplemental bill for charges for transportation and related services; or

(3) Any other action that entails finality of administrative consideration.

(b) A request for review shall be forever barred unless received in the General Accounting Office within 6 months (not including time of war) from the date the settlement action was taken or within the periods of limitation specified in 31 U.S.C. 3726, as amended, whichever is later. The request should be addressed to the Comptroller General of the United States, U.S. General Accounting Office, Washington, DC 20548.
