41 CFR Ch. 101 (7-1-00 Edition)

(d) Appraisal confidentiality. Appraisals, appraisal reports, appraisal analyses, and other pre-decisional documents obtained in accordance with this subpart are confidential and for the use of authorized personnel of Government agencies having a need for such information. Further, such information shall not be divulged prior to the delivery and acceptance of the deed. Any person engaged to collect or evaluate information pursuant to this paragraph shall certify that there is no interest, direct or indirect, in the property which would conflict in any manner with the preparation and submission of an impartial appraisal report.

§ 101-47.304 Advertised and negotiated disposals.

§ 101-47.304-1 Publicity.

(a) The disposal agency shall widely publicize all surplus real property and related personal property which becomes available for disposal hereunder, giving information adequate to inform interested persons of the general nature of the property and its possible uses, as well as any reservations, restrictions, and conditions imposed upon its disposal.

(b) A condensed statement of proposed sales of surplus real property by advertising for competitive bids, except where the estimated fair market value of the property is less than $2,500, shall be prepared and submitted, for inclusion in the U.S. Department of Commerce publication "Commerce Business Daily," to: U.S. Department of Commerce (S-Synopsis), room 1300, 433 West Van Buren Street, Chicago, Illinois 60604.

§ 101-47.304-2 Soliciting cooperation of local groups.

The disposal agency may consult with local groups and organizations and solicit their cooperation in giving wide publicity to the proposed disposal of the property.

§ 101-47.304-3 Information to interested persons.

The disposal agency shall, upon request, supply to bona fide potential purchasers and lessees adequate preliminary information, and, with the cooperation of the holding agency where necessary, shall render such assistance to such persons as may enable them, insofar as feasible, to obtain adequate information regarding the property. The disposal agency shall establish procedures so that all persons showing due diligence are given full and complete opportunity to make an offer.

§ 101-47.304-4 Invitation for offers.

In all advertised and negotiated disposals, the disposal agency shall prepare and furnish to all prospective purchasers or lessees written invitations to make an offer, which shall contain or incorporate by reference all the terms and conditions under which the property is offered for disposal, including all provisions required by statute to be made a part of the offer. The invitation shall further specify the form of the disposal instrument, which specifications shall be in accordance with the appropriate provisions of §§ 101-47.307-1 and 101-47.307-2.

(a) When the disposal agency has determined that the sale of specific property on credit terms is necessary to avoid retarding the salability of the property and the price obtainable, the invitation shall provide for submission of offers on the following terms:

(1) Offers to purchase of less than $2,500 shall be for cash.

(2) When the purchase price is $2,500 or more but less than $10,000, a cash downpayment of not less than 25 percent shall be required with the balance due in 8 years or less.

(3) When the purchase price is $10,000 or more, a cash downpayment of not less than 20 percent shall be required with the balance due in 10 years or less.

(4) The purchaser shall furnish a promissory note secured by the purchase money mortgage or deed of trust on the property, whichever the Government determines to be appropriate.
