

cases may specifically provide for such authorization and/or future partial releases to be granted on terms which will adequately protect the Government's security for the credit extended to the purchaser.

(b) Except for exchange transactions initiated by the Federal Government for its own benefit, any disposition of land, or land and improvements located thereon, to public bodies by negotiation pursuant to §101-47.304-9(4) shall include in the deed or other disposal instrument a covenant substantially as follows:

The Grantee covenants for itself, its heirs, successors, and assigns and every successor in interest to the property hereby conveyed, or any part thereof, that the said Grantee and such heirs, successors, and assigns shall not discriminate upon the basis of race, color, religion, or national origin in the use, occupancy, sale, or lease of the property, or in their employment practices conducted thereon. This covenant shall not apply, however, to the lease or rental of a room or rooms within a family dwelling unit; nor shall it apply with respect to religion to premises used primarily for religious purposes. The United States of America shall be deemed a beneficiary of this covenant without regard to whether it remains the owner of any land or interest therein in the locality of the property hereby conveyed and shall have the sole right to enforce this covenant in any court of competent jurisdiction.

(c) Any deed, lease, or other instrument executed to dispose of property under this subpart, subject to reservations, restrictions, or conditions as to the future use, maintenance, or transfer of the property shall recite all covenants, representations, and agreements pertaining thereto.

(d) Where the existence of hazardous substance activity has been brought to the attention of the disposal agency by the Standard Form 118 information provided in accordance with §101-47.202-2(b)(10), the disposal agency shall incorporate such information into any deed, lease, or other instrument executed pursuant to part 101-47. See the language contained in §101-47.304-14. In the case where the purchaser is a potentially responsible party (PRP) with respect to the hazardous substance activity, the language must be modified as appropriate to properly represent the liability of the PRP for any remedial action.

§101-47.307-3 Distribution of conformed copies of conveyance instruments.

(a) Two conformed copies of any deed, lease, or other instrument containing reservations, restrictions, or conditions regulating the future use, maintenance, or transfer of the property shall be provided the agency charged with enforcement of such reservations, restrictions, or conditions.

(b) A conformed copy of the deed, lease, or other conveyance instrument shall be provided to the holding agency by the disposal agency.

§101-47.307-4 Disposition of title papers.

The holding agency shall, upon request, deliver to the disposal agency all title papers in its possession relating to the property reported excess. The disposal agency may transfer to the purchaser of the property, as a part of the disposal transaction, the pertinent records authorized by §101-11.404-2, to be so transferred. If the purchaser of the property wishes to obtain additional records, copies thereof may be furnished to the purchaser at an appropriate charge, as determined by the agency having custody of the records.
