

(b) [Reserved]

[54 FR 41245, Oct. 6, 1989]

§ 101-47.313 Easements.

§ 101-47.313-1 Disposal of easements to owner of servient estate.

The disposal agency may dispose of an easement to the owner of the land which is subject to the easement when the continued use, occupancy, or control of the easement is not needed for the operation, production, use, or maintenance of property owned or controlled by the Government. A determination shall be made by the disposal agency as to whether the disposal shall be with or without consideration to the Government on the basis of all the circumstances and factors involved and with due regard to the acquisition cost of the easement to the Government. The extent of such consideration shall be regarded as the appraised fair market value of the easement. The disposal agency shall document the circumstances and factors leading to such determination and retain such documentation in its files.

§ 101-47.313-2 Grants of easements in or over Government property.

The disposal agency may grant easements in or over real property on appropriate terms and conditions: Provided, That where the disposal agency determines that the granting of such easement decreases the value of the property, the granting of the easement shall be for a consideration not less than the amount by which the fair market value of the property is decreased.

§ 101-47.314 Compliance.

§ 101-47.314-1 General.

Subject to the provisions of § 101-47.314-2(a), requiring referral of criminal matters to the Department of Justice, each disposal agency shall perform such investigatory functions as are necessary to insure compliance with the provisions of the Act and with the regulations, orders, directives, and policy statements of the Administrator of General Services.

§ 101-47.314-2 Extent of investigations.

(a) Referral to other Government agencies. All information indicating violations by any person of Federal criminal statutes, or violations of section 209 of the Act, including but not limited to fraud against the Government, mail fraud, bribery, attempted bribery, or criminal collusion, shall be referred immediately to the Department of Justice for further investigation and disposition. Each disposal agency shall make available to the Department of Justice, or to such other governmental investigating agency to which the matter may be referred by the Department of Justice, all pertinent information and evidence concerning the indicated violations; shall desist from further investigation of the criminal aspects of such matters except upon the request of the Department of Justice; and shall cooperate fully with the agency assuming final jurisdiction in establishing proof of criminal violations. After making the necessary referral to the Department of Justice, inquiries conducted by disposal agency compliance organizations shall be limited to obtaining information for administrative purposes. Where irregularities reported or discovered involve wrongdoing on the part of individuals holding positions in Government agencies other than the agency initiating the investigation, the case shall be reported immediately to the Administrator of General Services for an examination in the premises.

(b) Compliance reports. A written report shall be made of all compliance investigations conducted by each agency compliance organization. Each disposal agency shall maintain centralized files of all such reports at its respective departmental offices. Until otherwise directed by the Administrator of General Services, there shall be transmitted promptly to the Administrator of General Services one copy of any such report which contains information indicating criminality on the part of any person or indicating noncompliance with the Act or with the regulations, orders, directives and policy statements of the Administrator of General Services. In transmitting such reports
