

as defined in 101-5.102(a), provided in a Federal building. Generally, such a committee will be established when the problems of administration and coordination necessitate a formal method of consultation and discussion among occupying agencies.

(b) Membership. Each occupying agency of a Federal building is entitled to membership on an agency committee. The chairperson of each such committee shall be a GSA employee designated by the appropriate GSA Regional Administrator, except when another agency had been designated to administer the centralized service. In this instance, the chairperson shall be an employee of such other agency as designated by competent authority within that agency.

(c) Activities. Agency committees shall be advisory in nature and shall be concerned with the effectiveness of centralized services in the building. Recommendations of an agency committee will be forwarded by the chairman to the appropriate GSA officials for consideration and decision.

(d) Reports. A résumé of the minutes of each meeting of an agency committee shall be furnished to each member of the committee and to the appropriate GSA Regional Administrator.

Subpart 101-5.2—Centralized Field Reproduction Services

§ 101-5.200 Scope of subpart.

This subpart states general guidelines and procedures for the establishment and operation of centralized field printing, duplicating, and photocopying services on a reimbursable basis. These services may be provided in multi-occupant leased and/or government-owned buildings.

[56 FR 33874, July 24, 1991]

§ 101-5.201 Applicability.

This subpart is applicable to all executive agencies which occupy space in or are prospective occupants of a multioccupant Federal building or complex located in the United States.

[41 FR 46296, Oct. 20, 1976]

§ 101-5.202 Types of centralized field reproduction services.

With due regard to the rules and regulations of the Joint Committee on Printing, the types of centralized field duplicating services made available by GSA to occupying agencies in a Federal building or complex will be as follows:

(a) Services will include offset reproduction, electronic publishing, photocopying, distribution, bindery services, and other closely related services as requested or required.

(b) Qualified specialists will be available for advice and guidance on publications management.

§ 101-5.203 Economic feasibility of centralized field reproduction services.

§ 101-5.203-1 Scheduling of feasibility studies.

(a) Based on the available data on the proposed size, location, number of agencies scheduled for occupancy, and other factors pertinent to a proposed new or acquired Federal building, GSA may determine whether to provide for a centralized field reproduction facility in the space directive covering the new building. A feasibility study thereafter will be scheduled and coordinated with the Federal building program of the Public Buildings Service, GSA, and the occupying agencies to occur during the period following development of the prospectus and before development of final working drawings for the space directive. The final decision to provide centralized field reproduction services in a new or acquired Federal building will be subject to subsequent determination by the GSA Administrator based upon results of the formal feasibility study. Agencies wishing not to participate may do so by requesting an exception from the appropriate GSA Regional Administrator.

(b) Feasibility studies may be initiated by GSA and coordinated with occupying agencies in existing Federal buildings. Such studies will be conducted in accordance with the rules prescribed in 101-5.203.
