

the terms of the arrangement. The size and frequency of installment payments should bear a reasonable relation to the size of the debt and the debtor's ability to pay. Interest, administrative charges, and penalty charges shall be provided for in the note. The debtor shall be provided with a written explanation of the consequences of signing a confess-judgment note. The debtor shall sign a statement acknowledging receipt of the written explanation which shall recite that the statement was read and understood before execution of the notice and that the note is being signed knowingly and voluntarily. Some form of objective evidence of these facts should be maintained in the agency's file on the debtor.

(c) If no response to the demand is received by the date stated in the demand, GSA will take further action under this subpart or under the Federal Claims Collection Standards. These actions may include reports to credit bureaus, referrals to collection agencies, termination of contract, debarment, offset of Federal salary, and other administrative offset, as authorized in 31 U.S.C. 3701-3719.

§ 105-55.005 Interest, administrative charges, and penalty charges.

(a) GSA shall assess interest on unpaid claims at the rate of the current value of funds to the Treasury as prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury on the date interest begins to run. GSA shall assess administrative charges to cover the costs of processing and handling overdue claims. GSA shall assess penalty charges of six percent a year on any part of a debt more than 90 days past due. The imposition of interest, administrative charges, and penalty charges are made in accordance with 31 U.S.C. 3717.

(b) Interest will be computed from the date of mailing or hand delivery of the initial demand if the amount of the claim is not paid within 30 days. The 30-day period may be extended in individual cases if there is good cause to do so and it is in the public interest. Interest will only be computed on the principal of the claim and the interest rate will remain fixed for the duration of the indebtedness, except where a debtor has defaulted on a repayment agreement and seeks to enter into a new agreement. A new rate which reflects the current value of funds to the Treasury at the time the new agreement is executed may be set if applicable and interest on interest and related charges may be charged where the debtor has defaulted on a previous repayment agreement. Charges which accrued but were not collected under the defaulted agreement shall be added to the principal to be paid under the new repayment schedule.

(c) GSA may waive interest, administrative charges, or penalty charges if it finds that:

(1) The debtor is unable to pay any significant sum toward the claim within a reasonable period of time;

(2) Collection of interest, administrative charges, or penalty charges will jeopardize collection of the principal of the claim; or

(3) It is otherwise in the best interests of the United States, including the situation where an offset or installment payment agreement is in effect.

§ 105-55.006 Responsibility for collection.

(a) Heads of Central Office Services and Staff Offices and Regional Administrators must initiate actions on claims arising from their program operations and immediately notify the appropriate Regional Finance Division. A claim will be recorded and controlled by the Regional Finance Division upon receipt of documentation from a competent authority establishing the amount due.

(b) The collection of claims under the control of Regional Finance Divisions will be aggressively pursued in accordance with the provisions of part 102 of the Federal Claims Collection Standards (4 CFR part 102). Whenever feasible, debts owed to the United States, together with interest, administrative charges and penalty charges, should be collected in full in one lump sum. If the debtor requests installment payments, the Regional Finance Divisions shall be responsible for determining the financial hardship of debtors and when appropriate shall arrange installment payment schedules. Claims which cannot be collected either directly or by administrative offset shall either be
