§ 302-1.106 Time limits for beginning travel and transportation.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, all travel, including that for the separated covered individual, and transportation, including that for household goods, allowed under this subpart, shall be accomplished within 6 months of the date of separation (or date of death if the individual died before separating), or other reasonable period of time as determined by the agency concerned, but in no case later than 2 years from the effective date of the individual's separation from Government service (or date of death if the individual died before separating).

(b) For the immediate family of a covered individual who died in Government service between January 1, 1994 and May 13, 1997, all travel and transportation, including that for household goods, allowed under this subpart, shall be accomplished no later than May 13, 1999.

§ 302-1.107 Use of funds.

Travel advances will not be issued to cover any of the expenses authorized by this subpart. Transportation expenses should be paid through the use of U.S. Government Transportation Requests and U.S. Government Bills of Lading to the maximum extent possible to minimize travel and transportation costs and the need for individuals to use personal funds. However, individuals who have been authorized or approved to make their own moving arrangements may be reimbursed for their actual transportation expenses not to exceed applicable coach air fares for transportation of the individual and immediate family, or the applicable allowances under the commuted rate

Subpart C—Employee's Temporary Change of Station

SOURCE: FTR Amdt. 64, 62 FR 13771, Mar. 21, 1997, unless otherwise noted.

NOTE TO SUBPART C: Use of the pronouns "I" and "you" throughout this subpart refers to the employee.

§ 302-1.200 What is a "temporary change of station (TCS)"?

TCS means the relocation of an employee to a new official station for a temporary period while the employee is performing a long-term assignment, and subsequent return of the employee to the previous official station upon completion of that assignment.

§ 302-1.201 What is the purpose of a TCS?

TCS provides agencies an alternative to a long-term temporary duty travel assignment to increase employee satisfaction and enhance morale, reduce the employee's income tax liability, and save the Government money.

§ 302-1.202 Am I eligible for a TCS?

Yes, if you are an employee who is directed to perform a long-term assignment at a temporary location, and you otherwise would be eligible for payment of temporary duty travel allowances authorized under chapter 301 of this subtitle. For exceptions, see § 302-1.203.

§ 302-1.203 Who is not eligible for a TCS?

The following individuals are not eligible for a TCS:

- (a) A new appointee;
- (b) An employee assigned to or from a State or local Government under the Intergovernmental Personnel Act (5 U.S.C. 3372, et. seq.);
- (c) An individual employed intermittently in the Government service as a consultant or expert and paid on a daily when-actually-employed (WAE) basis;
- (d) An individual serving without pay or at $1 a year; or

Relocation Allowances

§ 302-1.213

(e) An employee assigned under the Government Employees Training Act (5 U.S.C. 4109).

§302-1.204 Must my agency authorize a TCS when I am directed to perform a long-term assignment at a temporary official station?

No. Your agency determines the conditions under which a TCS is necessary to accomplish the purposes of the Government effectively and economically.

§302-1.205 Under what circumstances will my agency authorize a TCS?

Your agency will authorize a TCS when:

(a) You are directed to perform a long-term assignment at another duty station;

(b) Your agency otherwise could authorize temporary duty travel and pay travel allowances, including payment of subsistence expenses, under chapter 301 of this subtitle for the long-term assignment;

(c) Your agency determines it would be more advantageous, cost and other factors considered, to authorize a TCS; and

(d) You meet any additional conditions your agency has established.

§302-1.206 If my agency authorizes a TCS, do I have the option of electing payment of temporary duty travel allowances instead?

No.

§302-1.207 How long must my assignment be for me to qualify for a TCS?

Not less than 6 months, nor more than 30 months.

§302-1.208 What is the effect on my TCS reimbursement if my assignment lasts less than 6 months?

Your agency may authorize a TCS only when a long-term assignment is expected to last 6 months or more. If your assignment is cut short for reasons other than separation from Government service, you will be paid TCS expenses.

§302-1.209 What is the effect on my TCS reimbursement if my assignment lasts more than 30 months?

If your assignment exceeds 30 months, your agency must permanently assign you to the temporary official station or return you to your previous official station. Your agency may not pay for nontemporary storage or property management services incurred after the last day of the thirtieth month. Your agency must pay the expenses of returning you and your immediate family and household goods to your previous official station unless you are permanently assigned to your temporary official station.

§302-1.210 Is there any required minimum distance between an official station and a long-term assignment location that must be met for me to qualify for a TCS?

No. Your agency may establish the area within which it will not authorize a TCS.

§302-1.211 Must I sign a service agreement to qualify for a TCS?

No.

§302-1.212 What is my official station during my long-term assignment?

Your official station is the location of your long-term assignment.

EXPENSES PAID UPON ASSIGNMENT

§302-1.213 What expenses must my agency pay for a TCS upon my assignment?

Your agency must pay the following:

(a) Travel, including per diem, for you and your immediate family under part 302-2 of this chapter;

(b) Transportation and temporary storage of your household goods under part 302-8 of this chapter;

(c) Transportation of a mobile home instead of transportation of household goods under part 302-7 of this chapter;

(d) A miscellaneous expenses allowance under part 302-3 of this chapter;

(e) Transportation of a privately owned vehicle(s) under part 302-10 of this chapter; and

(f) A relocation income tax allowance under part 302-11 of this chapter for additional income taxes you incur on payments your agency makes under
