Subpart A—General Rules

NOTE TO SUPART A: Use of the pronouns "I" and "you" throughout this subpart refers to the employee.

§302-10.1 What is a "privately owned vehicle (POV)"?

A motor vehicle not owned by the Government and used by the employee or his/her immediate family for the primary purpose of providing personal transportation.

§302-10.2 What is an "official station" for purposes of this part?

An official station is defined in §302-1.4(k). For purposes of this part, an official station may be within or outside the continental United States (CONUS).

§302-10.3 What is a "post of duty" for purposes of this part?

An official station outside CONUS.

§302-10.4 What are the purposes of the allowance for transportation of a POV?

To reduce the Government's overall relocation costs by allowing transportation of a POV to your official station within CONUS when it is advantageous and cost effective to the Government, and to improve your overall effectiveness if you are transferred or otherwise assigned to a post of duty at which it is in the interest of the Government for you to have use of a POV for personal transportation.

§302-10.5 What is the purpose of the allowance for emergency storage of a POV?

To protect a POV transported at Government expense to your post of duty when the head of your agency determines that the post of duty is within a zone from which your immediate family and/or household goods should be evacuated.

§302-10.6 What POV transportation and emergency storage may my agency authorize at Government expense?

Your agency may authorize:

- (a) Transportation of a POV to a post of duty as provided in subpart B of this part;
- (b) Transportation of a POV from a post of duty as provided in subpart C of this part;
- (c) Transportation of a POV wholly within CONUS as provided in subpart D of this part; and
- (d) Emergency storage of a POV as provided in subpart E of this part.

§302-10.7 Must my agency authorize transportation or emergency storage of my POV?

No. However, if your agency does authorize transportation of a POV to your post of duty and you complete your service agreement, your agency must pay for the cost of returning the POV. Your agency determines the conditions under which it will pay for transportation and emergency storage and the procedures a transferred employee must follow.

§302-10.8 What type of POV may I be authorized to transport, and if necessary, store under emergency circumstances?

Only a passenger automobile, station wagon, small truck, or other similar vehicle that will be used primarily for personal transportation. You may not transport or store a trailer, airplane, or any vehicle intended for commercial use.

§302-10.9 For what transportation expenses will my agency pay?

When your agency authorizes transportation of your POV, it will pay for all necessary and customary expenses directly related to the transportation of the POV, including crating and packing expenses, shipping charges, and port charges for readying the POV for shipment at the port of embarkation and for use at the port of debarkation.

§302-10.10 For what POV emergency storage expenses will my agency pay?

All necessary storage expenses, including but not limited to readying the POV for storage, local transportation to point of storage, storage, readying the POV for use after storage, and local transportation from the point of storage. Insurance on the POV is at your expense, unless it is included in the expenses allowed by this paragraph.

§302-10.11 May I receive an advance of funds for transportation and emergency storage of my POV?

Yes, in accordance with §302-1.14(a) and not to exceed the estimated amount of the expenses authorized under this part for transportation and emergency storage of your POV.

§302-10.12 May my agency determine that driving my POV is more advantageous and limit my reimbursement to what it would cost to drive my POV?

Yes. Your agency decides whether it is more advantageous for you and/or a member of your immediate family to drive your POV for all or part of the distance or to have it transported. If your agency decides that driving the POV is more advantageous, your reimbursement will be limited to the allowances provided in part 302-2 of this chapter for the travel and transportation expenses you and/or your immediate family incur en route.
