

Bureau of Land Management, Interior

§ 8560.4-6

(c) No roads shall be constructed across wilderness areas unless permitted by the authorized officer. Access by routes or modes of travel not available to the general public may, when fully justified, be permitted by written authorization of the authorized officer. The authorization shall prescribe routes and modes of travel which will result in impacts of least duration and degree on wilderness characteristics, and at the same time, serve the reasonable purposes for which the lands are held or used.

§ 8560.4-4 Commercial services.

The authorized officer may permit temporary structures and commercial services such as those provided by packers, outfitters and guides within wilderness areas to the extent he/she finds necessary for activities appropriate for realizing the recreational or other wilderness purposes of the area.

§ 8560.4-5 Gathering information about resources.

(a) Any person desiring to conduct any activity for purposes of gathering information about natural resources in wilderness may do so provided it is carried on in a manner compatible with the preservation of the wilderness environment. Where required by other law or regulation, such person shall obtain the necessary permits or authorizations. The authorized officer in granting such permits or authorizations shall allow such activities, subject to such restrictions as he/she may impose to insure that they are carried on in a manner compatible with the preservation of the wilderness environment. This section shall not apply to mineral prospecting under the mining or mineral leasing laws conducted prior to the date when the mining and mineral leasing laws cease to apply to the respective component of the system. (See §8560.4-6.)

(b) Any person desiring to use motor vehicles, motorized equipment, mechanized transport, or to land aircraft for mineral prospecting or for gathering information about resources, shall notify the Bureau in writing. No form of overland mechanical transport may be used unless approved in accordance with subparts 2920, 3045, 3209 or 3509 of this title. If a permit is required, it shall provide for the protection of public land resources, including wilderness characteristics, protection of the public and restoration of disturbed areas, and may provide for the posting of performance bonds.

§ 8560.4-6 Mining law administration.

The United States mining laws shall apply to each wilderness area under the jurisdiction of the Bureau for the period specified in the Wilderness Act and subsequent establishing legislation to the same extent they were applicable immediately prior to the designation of the area as part of the National Wilderness Preservation System.

(a) No person shall obtain any right or interest in or to any mineral deposits that may be discovered through prospecting or other information-gathering activity after the date on which the United States mining laws cease to apply to the specific wilderness area.

(b) No mining operations shall be conducted on Bureau-administered wilderness areas without an approved plan of operations where required by subpart 3809 of this chapter.

(c) Holders of valid mining claims established on any Bureau-administered wilderness area before the date such unit was included in the National Wilderness Preservation System shall be accorded the rights provided by the United States mining laws then applicable to the public lands involved.

(d) Any person prospecting or locating a mining claim in a Bureau-administered wilderness area on or after the date the wilderness area was included in the National Wilderness Preservation System, but prior to the date on which the mining laws cease to apply to that area, shall have the rights provided by the United States mining laws, subject to the provisions of the Wilderness Act and subsequent establishing legislation.

(e) All mining claimants shall comply with the reasonable stipulations established by the authorized officer for the protection of resources in accordance with the general purposes of maintaining the National Wilderness Preservation System unimpaired for future use and enjoyment as wilderness
