Food Labeling; Nutrient Content Claims, Definition of Term: Healthy; Extension of Comment Period

AGENCY: Food and Drug Administration, HHS.

ACTION: Proposed rule; extension of comment period.

SUMMARY: The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) is extending to May 19, 1998, the comment period for its advance notice of proposed rulemaking (ANPRM) on the use of the term “healthy.” The ANPRM was published in the Federal Register of December 30, 1997 (62 FR 67771). The agency is taking this action in response to two requests for an extension of the comment period. This extension is intended to provide interested persons with additional time to submit comments to FDA on the ANPRM.

DATES: Written comments by May 19, 1998.

ADDRESSES: Submit written comments to the Dockets Management Branch (HFA–305), Food and Drug Administration, 12420 Parklawn Dr., rm. 1–23, Rockville, MD 20857.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: Virginia L. Wilkening, Center for Food Safety and Applied Nutrition (HFS–165), Food and Drug Administration, 200 C St. SW., Washington, DC 20204, 202–205–5763.

SUPPLEMENTARY INFORMATION: In the Federal Register of December 30, 1997 (62 FR 67771), FDA published an ANPRM announcing that it is considering whether to institute rulemaking to reevaluate and possibly amend certain provisions of the nutrient content claims regulations pertaining to the use of the term “healthy.” In the ANPRM, FDA asked for information and data to help resolve the issues pertaining to the use of the term “healthy” that were raised by a petition submitted by ConAgra, Inc (Docket 96P–0500, CP–1). Interested persons were given until March 16, 1998, to submit comments on the ANPRM.

In the Federal Register of February 13, 1998 (63 FR 7279), the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) published an interim final rule extending until January 1, 2000, the effective date for certain requirements pertaining to the use of “healthy” on the label or labeling of meat products. In that final rule, USDA stated that written comments about its instituting additional rulemaking should be received by May 19, 1998. FDA has received letters from trade associations requesting the agency to extend the comment period on its ANPRM until May 19, 1998, to coincide with the date for USDA’s interim final rule. The requests contend that additional time is needed for both food manufacturers and other interested groups to address both FDA’s and USDA’s comments. They also cite the need to coordinate comments to the two documents.

FDA has decided to extend the comment period to May 19, 1998, to allow additional time for the submission of comments on the ANPRM. FDA recognizes the value in providing an extension that will allow the coordination of comments on these FDA and USDA documents. Accordingly, FDA has decided to extend the comment period to May 19, 1998, to allow additional time for the submission of comments on the ANPRM.

Interested persons may, on or before May 19, 1998, submit to the Dockets Management Branch (address above) written comments regarding this proposed rule. Two copies of any comments are to be submitted, except that individuals may submit one copy. Comments are to be identified with the docket number found in brackets in the heading of this document. Received comments may be seen in the office above between 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Dated: March 13, 1998.

*Associate Commissioner for Policy
