7 (2) Firearms selected for tracing are not chosen
8 for purposes of determining which types, makes or 9 models of firearms are used for illicit purposes. The 10 firearms selected do not constitute a random sample 11 and should not be considered representative of the 12 larger universe of all firearms used by criminals, or 13 any subset of that universe. Firearms are normally
14 traced to the first retail seller, and sources reported 15 for firearms traced do not necessarily represent the 17 acquired for use in crime.

3 ments would not result in the loss of skills related to the 4 safety of the Space Shuttle or the International Space Sta-
5 tion or to the conduct of independent safety oversight in 6 the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

7       SEC. 630. Notwithstanding 40 U.S.C. 524, 571, and

9 Space Administration may sell the National Aeronautics
10 and Space Administration-owned property on the Camp

12 and credit the net proceeds of such sales as offsetting col-

15 used to replace the facilities at Camp Parks that are still 16 required, to improve other National Aeronautics and

9           (c) CONSIDERATIONS.—In developing the national 10          aeronautics policy, the Administrator shall consider the 11          following questions, which shall be discussed in the policy
12          statement—

13           (1) the extent to which NASA should focus on 14           long-term, high-risk research or more incremental
15           research or both and the expected impact on the 16           U.S. aircraft and airline industries of those deci-
17           sions;

18           (2) the extent to which NASA should address
19           military and commercial needs;

11 met by the exporting party for such articles.

12 (b) The foregoing exemption from obtaining an ex-

14 (1) does not exempt an exporter from filing any 15 Shipper's Export Declaration or notification letter
16 required by law, or from being otherwise eligible
17 under the laws of the United States to possess, ship,
18 transport, or export the articles enumerated in sub-

20 (2) does not permit the export without a license 21 of—

23 in subsection (a), such that a significant diversion of such 24 articles has and continues to take place for use in inter-25 national terrorism or in the escalation of a conflict in an-

1 other nation. The President shall terminate the require-
2 ments of a license when reasons for the temporary require-
