On July 29, 1999, Mirka and 3M filed a joint motion to terminate the investigation based on a proposed consent order. The joint motion contained a stipulation and proposed consent order. On August 11, 1999, the Commission investigative attorney filed a response in support of the joint motion. On September 24, 1999, the ALJ issued an ID (Order No. 2) terminating the investigation based on the proposed consent orders. No petition for review was filed.

Copies of the ALJ's ID, the consent order, and all other nonconfidential documents filed in connection with this investigation are or will be available for inspection during official business hours (8:45 a.m. to 5:15 p.m.) in the Office of the Secretary, U.S. International Trade Commission, 500 E Street, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20436, telephone 202-205-2000.

This action is taken under the authority of section 337 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, 19 U.S.C. § 1337, and Commission rule 210.42, 19 C.F.R. § 210.42.

Issued: October 27, 1999.

By order of the Commission.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE COMMISSION

[Investigations Nos. 731-TA-125-126 (Review)]

Potassium Permanganate From China and Spain

Determinations

On the basis of the record¹ developed in the subject five-year reviews, the United States International Trade Commission determines,² pursuant to section 751(c) of the Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1675(c)), that revocation of the antidumping duty order on potassium permanganate from China would be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time. The Commission further determines that revocation of the antidumping duty order on potassium permanganate from Spain would not be likely to lead to continuation or recurrence of material injury to an industry in the United States within a reasonably foreseeable time.

Background

The Commission instituted these reviews on November 2, 1998 (63 FR 58765) and determined on February 4, 1999 that it would conduct full reviews (64 FR 9177, February 24, 1999). Notice of the scheduling of the Commission's reviews and of a public hearing to be held in connection therewith was given by posting copies of the notice in the Office of the Secretary, U.S.

International Trade Commission, Washington, DC, and by publishing the notice in the Federal Register on March 8, 1999 (64 FR 11041). The hearing was held in Washington, DC, on August 31, 1999, and all persons who requested the opportunity were permitted to appear in person or by counsel.

The Commission transmitted its determination in this investigation to the Secretary of Commerce on October 27, 1999. The views of the Commission are contained in USITC Publication 3245 (October 1999), entitled Potassium Permanganate from China and Spain: Investigations Nos. 731-TA-125-126 (Review).

Issued: October 29, 1999.
