

a non-regular way trade when such approval is required.

The Commission finds good cause to approve Amendment No. 1 to the proposed rule change prior to the thirtieth day after the date of publication of notice of filing of the amendment in the Federal Register. Specifically, Amendment No. 1 changes the proposal to require Floor Official approval for non-regular way trades throughout the year, but not during the last calendar week of the year, from $\frac{4}{16}$ point away from the regular way bid or offer to $\frac{2}{16}$ point away. Initially, the proposed rule change would have extended the existing requirement of NYSE Rules 64 for Floor Official approval for end-of-the-year non-regular way trades to the entire year. In other words, Floor Official approval would have been required for non-regular way trades that were more than $\frac{4}{16}$ point away from the regular way bid or offer throughout the year. The Commission finds that reducing the deviation from the regular way bid or offer that would require Floor official approval for a non-regular way trade is consistent with Section 6(b)(5) of the Act.¹² The Exchange's analysis of non-regular way trades indicated that approximately 97% of such trades occur at a $\frac{4}{16}$ point or less deviation from the regular way market, while approximately 80% of such trades occur at a $\frac{2}{16}$ point or less deviation from the regular way market. Therefore, the Commission believes that Amendment No. 1 helps to achieve the Exchange's goal of alleviating a substantial administrative burden for Floor Officials and members while preserving the investor protection provided by Floor Official review of non-regular way trades that occur at $\frac{2}{16}$ point or more away from the regular way market throughout the year, but not during the final calendar week of the year. Accordingly, the Commission believes that there is good cause, consistent with Sections 6(b)(5) and 19(b) of the Act,¹³ to approve Amendment No. 1 to the proposal on an accelerated basis.

[Release No. 34-42162; File No. SR-NYSE-99-32]

Self-Regulatory Organizations; Order Approving Proposed Rule Change by the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. To Amend Exchange Rule 22(b)

November 19, 1999.

I. Introduction

On July 9, 1999, the New York Stock Exchange, Inc. ("NYSE" or "Exchange") submitted to the Securities and Exchange Commission ("Commission"), pursuant to Section 19(b)(1) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Act")¹ and Rule 19b-4² thereunder, a proposed rule change. In its proposal, the NYSE seeks to codify an interpretation of a section of its Disqualification Because of Personal Interest Rule.³ The proposed rule change was published for comment in the Federal Register on September 21, 1999.⁴ The Commission received no comments on the proposal. This order approves the proposal.

II. Description of the Proposal

The NYSE seeks to codify an interpretation of Exchange Rule 22(b), which addresses circumstances under which Board and committee members and other persons are obliged to disqualify themselves from participating in matters in which they have a personal interest. Exchange Rule 22(b) currently states that no person(s) shall participate in the "adjudication" of any matter in which they are personally interested. The proposed amendment to this rule would bar person(s) from participating in the "consideration, review or adjudication" of any matter in which they are personally interested.

III. Discussion

After careful review, the Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the requirements of the Act.⁵ In particular, the Commission finds the proposal is consistent with Section 6(b)(5)⁶ of the Act. Section 6(b)(5) requires, among other things, that the rules of an exchange be designed to promote just and equitable principles of trade and to protect investors and the public interest.

The Commission finds that the proposed rule change is consistent with the Act in that the change promotes fairness and impartiality in the operation and oversight of the NYSE. The proposal codifies an interpretation of Exchange Rule 22(b). This rule prevents persons with conflicts of interests from participating in matters in which they have a personal interest. The Commission believes the amendment clarifies those situations in which a person with a conflict of interest should disqualify himself.

IV. Conclusion

It is therefore ordered, pursuant to Section 19(b)(2) of the Act,⁷ that the proposed rule change (SR-NYSE-99-32) is approved.

For the Commission, by the Division of Market Regulation, pursuant to delegated authority.⁸
