AGENCY: National Labor Relations Board (NLRB).

ACTION: Revised publication of System of Records Notice NLRB-4, Claim Records.

SUMMARY: The Privacy Act of 1974, as amended, requires that each agency publish a notice of a proposed new System of Records, as well as proposals to revise existing Systems of Records. This notice alters an existing Privacy Act System of Records Notice NLRB-4, Claim Records, by deleting two routine uses, dividing one routine use into two distinct uses for purposes of clarity, amending the language of four routine uses, changing the system manager, and the address of the system location, and updating the citations referring to 29 CFR 102.117; as well as making several insignificant administrative language revisions.

All persons are advised that in the absence of submitted comments, views, or arguments considered by the NLRB as warranting modification of the notice as herewith to be published, it is the intention of the NLRB that the notice shall be effective upon expiration of the comment period without further action by this Agency.

DATES: The amended System of Records Notice will become effective without further notice 30 days from the date of this publication (January 13, 2000) unless comments are received on or before that date which result in a contrary determination.

ADDRESSES: All persons who desire to submit written comments, views, or arguments for consideration by the NLRB in connection with the proposed revised System of Records Notice shall file them with the Executive Secretary, National Labor Relations Board, 1099 14th Street, NW, Room 11600, Washington, DC 20570-0001.

Copies of all such communications will be available for examination by interested persons during normal business hours in the Office of the Executive Secretary, National Labor Relations Board, 1099 14th Street, NW, Room 11600, Washington, DC 20570-0001.

2. Routine use 3 has been amended by changing reference from "Agency" to "NLRB" for more specificity, and has been renumbered 1.

3. Routine use 4 has been amended to specify more exactly the information that may be disclosed to a court or an adjudicative body in the course of presenting evidence or argument including disclosure to opposing counsel or witnesses in the course of civil discovery, and has been renumbered 2.

4. Routine use 5 has been renumbered 3.

5. Routine use 6 has been amended to specify more exactly the categories of users and the information that may be disclosed, and has been renumbered 4.

6. The language of routine use 7 has been amended to specify that on disclosure to an inquiring congressional office, the subject individual must be a constituent about whom the records are maintained, and has been renumbered 5.

7. Routine use 8 has been renumbered 6.

8. Routine use 9 has been divided into two distinct uses for purposes of clarity, one dealing solely with arbitrators and the other with officials of labor organizations. The language has been amended to conform to the intent of routine use (e) in the Government-wide system of records OPM/GOVT-2,
