Chesapeake 2000; A Watershed Partnership Draft for Public Review and Comment

U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Chesapeake Bay Program Office is releasing this draft document to solicit your comments. It has been developed by the Chesapeake Bay Program partners with the assistance of thousands of citizens, scientists and policy makers from throughout the Chesapeake Bay region. It contains commitments that are far reaching and that address issues of the waters and living resources of the Bay and its rivers, and the land and air that surround them. It is intended to take us well into the next decade and beyond.

For the most part, the document represents issues that the signatories believe must be addressed. In order to finalize our decisions, we must hear from you. Have we addressed your concerns? Will the Bay and its rivers be better off as a result of the commitments proposed?

Public comments will be received until March 31, 2000. A copy of this document is available by calling 1-800-YOUR-BAY or by visiting: www.chesapeakebay.net. Comments will only be accepted in writing either through the web page comment box or by mail.

William Matuszeski,

Director, Chesapeake Bay Program Office.
