[For the General Services Administration statement of organization, see the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 41, Part 105-53]

The General Services Administration establishes policy for and provides economical and efficient management of Government property and records, including construction and operation of buildings; procurement and distribution of supplies; utilization and disposal of real and personal property; transportation, traffic, and communications management; and management of the governmentwide automatic data processing resources program.

The General Services Administration (GSA) was established by section 101 of the Federal Property and Administrative Services Act of 1949 (40 U.S.C. 751).

Contract Appeals The General Services Administration Board of Contract Appeals is responsible for resolving disputes arising out of contracts with the General Services Administration and other Government agencies. The Board is also empowered to hear and decide requests for review of transportation audit rate determinations; claims by Federal civilian employees regarding travel and relocation expenses; and claims for the proceeds of the sale of property of certain Federal civilian employees. In addition, the Board provides alternative dispute resolution services to executive agencies in both contract disputes which are the subject of a contracting officer's decision and other contract-related disputes. Although the Board is located within the agency, it functions as an independent tribunal.

For further information, contact the Board of Contract Appeals, General Services Administration, Washington, DC 20405. Phone, 202-501-0585.

Domestic Assistance Catalog The Federal Domestic Assistance Catalog Program collects and disseminates information on all federally operated domestic assistance programs such as grants, loans, and insurance. This information is published annually in the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance.

For further information, contact the Federal Domestic Assistance Catalog staff. Phone, 202-708-5126.

Governmentwide Policy The Office of Governmentwide Policy (OGP) collaborates with the Federal community to develop policies and guidelines, provide education and training, and identify best practices in the areas served by GSA's business lines: real property and personal property; travel and transportation; acquisition; information technology (IT) and electronic commerce; regulatory information; and use of Federal advisory committees.

The Office of Acquisition Policy provides resources to support the Federal acquisition system. The Office researches, develops, and publishes policy guidance, provides career development services for the Federal acquisition work force, and reports on more than 20 million contract actions annually. For further information, call 202-501-1043. For electronic access, contact www.arnet.gov.

The Office of Electronic Commerce develops electronic commerce policies for the Federal Government, including managing with the Department of Defense an electronic commerce program office which monitors and provides support for interagency efforts for electronic commerce across the

GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRATION

Government and working with other agencies and with the private sector to develop and promote the use of standardized card technologies in order to advance a more streamlined electronic Government. For further information, call 202-501-1667.

The Office of Information Technology provides executive and interagency information technology (IT) support. The Office also supports the Government Information Technology Services Board and provides IT tools to support agencies' missions. For further information, call 202-501-0202.

The Office of Intergovernmental Solutions serves as a worldwide expert and unique resource on intergovernmental IT issues. The Office uses its expertise to help resolve common IT challenges at all levels of Government. For more information, call 202-501-0291.

The Office of Real Property provides leadership in the use and management of real property. It is responsible for the development, coordination, administration, and issuance of governmentwide management principles, guidelines, regulations, standards, criteria, and policies that relate to real property and asset management. Real property programs include real estate operation and management, acquisition, disposal, design, construction, space standards, delegations, safety and environmental issues, and workplace initiatives including telecommuting and cooperative administration support units, whereby agencies share in the cost and use of common administrative services.

For further information, call 202-510-0856.

The Office of Transportation and Personal Property develops governmentwide policies for personal property utilization, donation, and sales, and participates in the development and evaluation of governmentwide issues, legislation, policies, and objectives related to travel, transportation, mail, personal property, aircraft, and the motor vehicle fleet management. For further information, call 202-501-1777.

The Regulatory Information Service Center compiles and disseminates information about Federal regulatory activity. The principal publication of the Center is the Unified Agenda of Federal Regulatory and Deregulatory Actions, which is published in the Federal Register every spring and fall. For further information, call 202-482-7345.

The Committee Management Secretariat plans, develops, evaluates, and directs a governmentwide program for maximizing the value-added role of public participation in Federal decisionmaking through Federal Advisory Committees. For further information, call 202-273-3565.

For further information, contact the Office of Governmentwide Policy. Phone, 202-501-8880. Internet, policyworks.gov.

Enterprise Development The Office of Enterprise Development focuses on programs, policy, and outreach to assist the small business community nationwide in doing business with GSA.

For further information, call 202-501-1021. Internet, www.gsa.gov/oed.

Mobile Services Office Anywhere is responsible for developing a new product line for GSA offering mobile Federal workers cutting-edge products and services that cross GSA's Federal Supply Service, Federal Technology Service, and Public Buildings Service boundaries. It provides technical and procurement expertise and assistance to other Federal agencies in acquiring integrated service delivery, including portable computing devices, software, telecommunications, and other services to meet the critical needs of the mobile Federal worker. The Office develops and executes a marketing communications strategy to educate the Federal consumer about the use of mobile technology and its availability through GSA.

For further information, contact the Office Anywhere, General Services Administration, Eighteenth and F Streets NW., Washington, DC 20405. Phone, 202-208-7761.

Federal Technology Service

The Federal Technology Service (FTS) delivers reimbursable local and long-distance telecommunications, information technology (IT), and information security services to Federal agencies. Its mission is to provide IT solutions and network services to support its customers' missions worldwide through its business lines.

The network services business line enables FTS to provide its customers end-to-end telecommunications services. Included in this business line are the the FTS2001 contracts that provide world-class, worldwide long-distance telecommunications services including low-cost, state-of-the-art voice, data, and video telecommunications and the local telecommunications service that provides local voice and data telecommunications to Federal agencies nationwide

The IT solutions business line helps agencies acquire, manage, integrate, and use IT resources and protect the security of Federal information.

The smart card business line offers services to other Federal agencies including standardization of smart cards and building an open smart card system configuration consistent with industry standards.

The Federal Relay Service (TTY, 800-877-8339) ensures that all citizens—hearing individuals and individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing, or speech-disabled—have equal access to the Federal telecommunications system and enables Federal employees to conduct official duties and the general public to conduct business with the Federal Government and its agencies.

For further information, contact the Federal Technology Service. Phone, 703-306-6000.

Federal Supply Service

The Federal Supply Service (FSS) supports Federal agencies worldwide by providing them with supplies and services each year. By taking advantage of the Government's aggregate buying power, FSS achieves significant savings for both the customer and the taxpayer. Its programs are an important link in the Government's efforts to protect the environment and to give back to the community for the public benefit. FSS carries out its mission through the following four business lines:

- the supply and procurement business line operates a worldwide supply system to contract for and distribute personal property and services to Federal agencies. It offers convenience, quality, best value, and choice by making available a wide array of commercial products and services, from office equipment and supplies, paint, tools, IT equipment and software, and furniture, to contracts for services such as purchase cards, auditing and financial management, and airline travel.

- the vehicle acquisition and leasing services business line buys and leases new vehicles to provide Federal agencies with a modern fleet and timely replacement of vehicles, lower lease costs, professional maintenance management, and a selection of alternative-fuel vehicles. The GSA fleet is the largest alternative-fuel vehicle fleet in the Federal Government.

- the personal property business line helps to maximize the Government's investment in personal property as well as to serve the public benefit.

—the travel and transportation business line provides Federal agencies with easy access to commercial sources that can arrange employee travel or ship parcels, freight, and household goods.

For more information, contact the Federal Supply Service, Washington, DC 20406. Phone, 703-305-5600. Internet, www.fss.gsa.gov.

Public Buildings Service

The Public Buildings Service (PBS) provides work environments for over a million Federal employees nationwide. Since 1949, PBS has served as a builder, developer, lessor, and manager of federally owned and leased properties. It provides a full range of real estate services, property management, construction and repairs, security services, property disposal, and overall portfolio management.

For further information, contact the Office of the Commissioner, Public Buildings Service. Phone, 202-501-1100. Internet, www.pbs.gov/pbs.
