RETENTION AND DISPOSAL:

Program subject files are destroyed when 10 years old. Internal review case files are maintained until the end of the fiscal year in which the case was closed. One year after these records are closed, they are transferred to the National Records Center and kept for 10 years and then are destroyed. General internal review files will be destroyed when superseded, obsolete, or no longer needed for reference. Investigative case files concerning selected cases are maintained permanently. Ten years after the case is closed, it is transferred to NARA. Non-selected investigatory files are destroyed 10 years after the case is closed. Electronic versions of records created by the electronic mail and word processing applications are deleted when a file copy is generated or when no longer needed for reference or updating.

Notice Pursuant to the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993—Advanced Technology Institute: National Shipbuilding Research Program (“NSRP”)

Notice is hereby given that, on October 24, 2001, pursuant to section 6(a) of the National Cooperative Research and Production Act of 1993, 15 U.S.C. 4301 et seq. (“the Act”), Advanced Technology Institute has filed written notifications simultaneously with the Attorney General and the Federal Trade Commission disclosing changes in the membership of the National Shipbuilding Research Program (“NSRP”). The notifications were filed for the purpose of extending the Act's provisions limiting the recovery of antitrust plaintiffs to actual damages under specified circumstances. Specifically, Bender Shipbuilding and Repair Company, Mobile, AL has been added as a party to this venture.

No other changes have been made in either the membership or planned activity of the group research project. Membership in this group research project remains open, and Advanced Technology Institute intends to file additional written notification disclosing all changes in membership.

On March 13, 1998, Advanced Technology Institute filed its original notification pursuant to section 6(a) of the Act. The Department of Justice published a notice in the Federal Register pursuant to section 6(b) of the Act on January 29, 1999 (64 FR 4708).

The last notification was filed with the Department on April 11, 2000. A
