[AAG/A Order No. 254-2001]

Privacy Act of 1974; System of Records

Pursuant to the Privacy Act of 1974 (5 U.S.C. 552a), the Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), Department of Justice, proposes to modify the following system of records—previously published March 7, 1997, (62 FR 10580):

The Immigration and Naturalization Service, Office of Internal Audit Investigations (OIA) Index and Records, JUSTICE/INS-002.

INS proposes to republish the notice to: (1) Include new information in the Categories of Records section, (2) add two new routine uses (J and K), and (3) modify the "Retention and Disposal" section as described in the attached Federal Register notice.

Routine use J will allow contractors working for INS to have access to the information in this system of records. Routine use K allows disclosure to former employees when the Department of Justice requires information and/or consultation assistance from the former employee that is necessary for personnel-related or other official purposes regarding a matter within that person's former area of responsibility. Also, INS is making a modification to the Retention and Disposal section of the notice. The National Archives and Records Administration (NARA) has oversight responsibility for retention and disposal schedules. NARA withdrew the entire General Records Schedule (GRS) 22, Inspector General Records, and the disposal authority formerly provided under this schedule. GRS 22 covered the records in this system. Therefore, INS is modifying this notice to include a new Retention and Disposal Schedule for OIA records. Also, other minor corrections and edits have been made to reflect the current status of this system of records.

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(4) and (11), the public is given a 30-day period in which the comment on new routine use disclosures and system modifications. The Office of Management and Budget (OMB), which has oversight responsibilities under the Act, requires a 40-day period in which to conclude its review of this revised system notice. Therefore, please submit any comments by February 4, 2002. OMB, the Congress, and the public are invited to send written comments to Mary Cahill, Management Analyst, Management and Planning Staff, Justice Management Division, Department of Justice, Washington, DC 20530 (Room 1400, National Place Building).

In accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552a(r), the Department has provided a report to OMB and the Congress.

Dated: December 20, 2001.
