

INDEX TO PRECEDENTS

Addressing remarks in the House or Committee of the Whole, form of

Chair, addressing, generally, §§ 42.1, 42.2

chair, female occupant of, addressing, § 42.4

Chair, Members must rise and address, § 41.3

colleague, addressing, §§ 42.5, 42.6, 42.24, 56.1 et seq.

“colleague,” use of term, § 56.7

female occupant of chair, addressing, § 42.4

galleries, addressing remarks to, § 42.7

“guy,” another, reference to, § 56.6

interrupting Member who has the floor, see Interruption of Member who has floor

“Jewish gentleman from New York,” reference to, § 56.5

Member, another, addressing, §§ 42.5, 42.6, 42.24, 56.1 et seq.

name, references to Members by, §§ 56.1, 56.3, 56.4, 56.8–56.11

President, addressing, § 42.3

“press,” addressing remarks to, § 42.7

Speaker, addressing, generally, §§ 42.1, 42.2

television audience, addressing, §§ 42.15–42.23

third person, reference to Members in, §§ 56.1 et seq.

“you,” addressing Member by use of, § 56.2

Adjourn, motion to

after House votes to consider bill, see Question of consideration recognition as between Members with competing motions to, § 9.68 recognition for motion to, generally, §§ 23.63–23.68

Allocation of debate time, see, e.g., Special rules, effect of, on control or distribution of time for debate; Unanimous-consent agreement, effect of, on debate time or allocation of time; Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time; Third, one, of debate time controlled by one opposed

Amendments

debate on, see Five-minute rule; Hour rule offered after expiration of debate time, see Expiration of debate time, amendments offered after recognition to offer or debate, see, e.g., Priorities in recognition; Recognition

Applause and demonstrations not part of reported proceedings, § 1.11

Attire

badges, § 8.7

guidelines announced by Speaker, § 41.12

hats, § 41.14

overcoats, § 41.13

relaxation of standards, Chair under some circumstances might recognize for resolution concerning, § 41.12

Speaker, role of, in enforcing standards, § 41.12

Badges communicating messages, wearing of, prohibited, § 8.7

Budget

conference report on budget resolution, debate on, § 17.14 debate on economic goals and policies in Committee of the Whole prescribed by Budget Act, § 67.16 debate under Congressional Budget Act, requirement of relevancy of, § 39.4

Budget—Cont.

- hour rule, Budget Act exception to, §31.38
- new entitlement authority effective before new fiscal year, consideration of, prohibited, §§2.36, 2.37
- points of order against consideration, §§2.36, 2.37
- privilege of concurrent resolution destroyed by reconciliation instructions affecting future fiscal years, §2.35
- rescission, amendment striking out, as causing outlays to exceed limit, §2.40
- special rule for consideration of concurrent resolution, §2.35
- special rule waiving points of order against bill authorizing new budget authority, §2.38
- special rule waiving points of order against conference report, §2.38
- special rule waiving points of order against consideration of new budget outlays exceeding ceiling, §2.38
- unanimous-consent agreement waiving points of order against consideration of Senate amendment containing new budget authority in excess of ceiling, §2.39

Calendar Wednesday

- debate on bills considered in Committee of the Whole on, §25.21
- question of consideration raised against bills on, see Question of consideration
- recognition to call bills on, §§16.17–16.21

Call of House

- recognition for, after previous question, §20.22
- recognition for, when question has not been put on pending proposition, §20.21

Call of House—Cont.

- Speaker may recognize any Member to move, §9.41
- Speaker may recognize for motion for, at any time, §20.20

Candidates for office, references to, see Presidential or Vice-presidential candidates, references to Chair, discretion and power of, with regard to recognition (see also, e.g., Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time; Recognition)

- generally, §§9.1 et seq., 12.1
- adjourn, Chair may not refuse to recognize Member having floor for motion to, §11.12
- adjourn, recognition as between Members with competing motions to, §9.68
- allocation of time by Member in control of debate on motion to suspend rules is not province of Chair, §25.23
- alternation between majority and minority is subject to discretion of Chair, §§9.16, 9.18, 9.23, 13.7, 13.10, 25.5 et seq., 25.19
- amendments, preferential voting status of, as factor in exercise of discretion, §§9.17, 9.23, 19.9
- amendments, recognition for purpose of offering, is within discretion of Chair, §§9.6, 9.15, 9.16, 19.7 et seq.
- announce in advance who will be recognized, Chair may refuse to, §§9.11, 9.12
- appeal from decision on recognition does not lie, §§9.5, 9.6, 9.7
- appeal from Speaker's refusal to allow one-minute speeches, instance where Speaker entertained, §9.61
- apportionment of time between those favoring and those opposing proposition, discretion of Chair where special rule provides for, §9.21

Chair, discretion and power of, with regard to recognition (see also, e.g., Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time; Recognition)—Cont.

call of House, recognition for, when question has not been put on pending proposition, § 20.21

call of House, Speaker may recognize any Member to move, § 9.41 committee amendments and other amendments, Chair's discretion in recognizing for, under modified closed rule, § 9.19 committee reporting bill, Chair may exercise discretion as to recognizing members of, § 9.2

compel Chair's recognition, motion to, § 9.3

denial of recognition, basis for, generally, §§ 11.1 et seq.

dilatory, Chair exercises discretion in determining motions to be, §§ 9.43–9.45 discharge, Speaker's discretion in recognizing for motion to, § 9.51 division vote, Chair recognized Member for demand for, after announcement of voice vote, § 9.40 exhibits, offensive, denial of recognition where Member intends to use, see Exhibits expiration of debate time, Member may not proceed after, § 11.19

filibuster, Chair exercises discretion in terminating, § 9.43

five-minute rule, Chair's discretion in apportioning time after limitation on debate under, §§ 9.24–9.32, 13.37, 22.6 et seq., 24.29 five-minute rule, recognition under, §§ 21.1 et seq.

gallery occupants, Chair does not recognize for reference to, § 11.10

Chair, discretion and power of, with regard to recognition (see also, e.g., Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time; Recognition)—Cont.

hour, Chair recognized five Members successively for total debate of one, § 9.10 hour rule, recognition under, § 9.9

hypothetical questions, Chair does not recognize for, §§ 9.1, 9.50 inquiry by Chair into purpose in seeking recognition where members rise at same time, § 23.4

limitation on debate, Chair's allocation of time under, §§ 22.6 et seq., 79.43–79.52, 79.64–79.81 limitations on power of recognition generally, §§ 11.1 et seq.

limiting debate, Chair's discretion in, §§ 78.77, 78.78 meeting of Members in Chamber, informal, Speaker did not recognize Member for request for, § 11.14

one-minute speeches, recognition for, see One-minute speeches opposition to amendment, recognition to control time in, § 12.16 order of consideration of amendments allowed by special rule as determined by Chair, § 2.31

parliamentary inquiries, recognition for, see Recognition point of order, Chair's recognition to offer amendments may not be challenged on, §§ 9.6, 9.16 points of order, debate on, §§ 6.11, 9.47, 9.48, 20.38, 20.39 policy, Speaker has announced, concerning recognition for specified purposes, §§ 9.13, 9.14, 9.37 prayer in House, daily, Chair will not recognize for point of no quorum before offering of, § 11.5

Chair, discretion and power of, with regard to recognition (see also, e.g., Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time; Recognition)—Cont.

- preferential voting status of amendments as factor in exercise of discretion, §§ 9.17, 9.23
- Presidential messages, recognition during reading of, § 11.3
- priority of business, effect of Rule XXV on Chair's discretion as to, § 9.3
- Private Calendar, Chair does not recognize for requests to make statements during consideration of, § 11.16
- privilege, Chair does not recognize for question of, while another pending, § 11.2
- privileged or assertedly privileged questions, recognition for, §§ 9.54–9.58
- privileged, resolution calling on Office of Price Administration to furnish information was not, § 9.57
- privilege, equal, recognition where two pending propositions are of, §§ 11.4, 23.5
- privileges of the House, question of, may not be raised to impinge on Chair's power of recognition, § 9.8
- pro forma amendments, Chair may recognize for, between perfecting amendments, § 9.22
- quorum, Chair declined to entertain point of no, §§ 9.41, 9.44
- quorum, Chair does not recognize for demand for teller vote while counting for, § 11.8
- quorum, Chair may not recognize Member for parliamentary inquiry pending point of order of no, unless relating thereto, § 11.7

Chair, discretion and power of, with regard to recognition (see also, e.g., Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time; Recognition)—Cont.

- quorum, point of no, not allowed before prayer, § 11.5
- quorum, recognition where absence of, has been announced, § 11.6
- quorum, Speaker declined to recognize for motion that Sergeant at Arms take action to ensure presence of, § 9.42
- reading of engrossed copy of bill, Chair recognized Member for demand for (under former rules), after bill had been ordered engrossed and read a third time, § 9.46
- recommit, Speaker's discretion in recognizing for motion to, § 9.67
- request for off-the-record meeting, recognition for, denied, § 11.14
- reservation of objection, recognition for debate under, §§ 9.49, 67.6
- reservation of point of order, Chair may permit debate on merits before debate under, § 9.48
- rules of House may limit, § 11.1
- Senate, Chair declines to recognize Member proposing to refer to, § 11.11
- Senate, recognition to refer to, denied, § 11.11
- seniority of committee members as factor in exercise of discretion, §§ 9.17, 9.24, 12.3–12.5, 12.7, 13.18, 13.25, 13.30–13.33
- special-order speeches, recognition for, see Special-order speeches
- sponsorship of amendment as factor in exercise of discretion, § 9.24
- statutory provisions as affecting control of debate time, § 11.17
- suspend the rules, Speaker's discretion in recognizing for motion to, §§ 9.52, 9.53

Chair, discretion and power of, with regard to recognition (see also, e.g., Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time; Recognition)—Cont.

- suspension of rules, allocation of time by Member controlling debate on, is not within province of Chair, § 25.23
- tellers, Chair recognized Member for demand for, after announcement of division vote, § 9.39
- third, one, of debate time allotted under Rule XXVIII to one opposed to certain propositions, see Third, one, of debate time controlled by one opposed
- time remaining to opposing sides as factor in Chair's exercise of discretion in recognition, § 9.18
- unanimous-consent agreement permitting Member to speak at certain time is not necessarily an infringement of Chair's power, § 10.1
- unanimous-consent request by Member to proceed for additional minute during debate on omnibus private bill, § 11.13
- unanimous-consent requests, Chair may decline recognition for, §§ 9.33–9.37
- unanimous-consent requests to extend debate on omnibus private bill, Chair declined to recognize for, § 71.12
- unfinished business, Chair as determining what is, § 9.1
- visitors, recognition to refer to, denied, § 11.10
- words, taking down the, Chair does not recognize for debate pending demand for, § 11.9
- yeas and nays, Chair declined to recognize Member to demand, during count on division vote, § 9.38

Chair, discretion and power of, with regard to recognition (see also, e.g., Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time; Recognition)—Cont.

- yielding back time in opposition, objection to, § 11.18
- Chair's initiative in enforcing rules (see also, e.g., Relevancy in debate; Words, taking down)
- blasphemous words stricken from Record, § 43.9
- cautioning Member instead of entertaining demand that words be taken down, § 48.6
- Committee on Standards of Official Conduct, Member's discussion of matter pending before, §§ 48.9, 48.10
- conversing with Member who is addressing House, Chair admonished Member for, § 48.8
- gallery, reference to visitors in, prohibition on, § 45.7
- language in debate ruled out of order on Speaker's initiative, § 48.2
- language, striking, from Record, § 43.9
- order, calling Members to, by name, § 48.4
- personal, Chair intervenes when debate is becoming, §§ 48.1, 48.5, 48.7, 48.9, 48.10
- relevancy in debate, §§ 35.6, 35.7, 35.12
- relevancy in five-minute debate, § 38.2
- Senate, references to, see Senate or Senators, references to
- Charts in debate, see Exhibits
- Clocks in the House Chamber, discrepancy in, § 74.2
- Close debate, right to (see also, e.g., Closing of debate in House)
- amendment, closing debate on, §§ 7.18–7.42, 14.16

Close debate, right to (see also, e.g., Closing of debate in House)—Cont.

- amendment, proponent of, as not entitled to close debate, §§ 7.18–7.22, 7.25–7.27, 7.29, 7.30
- amendment, proponent of, may close debate where no representative from reporting committee opposes, § 7.38
- amendment, proponent of, permitted to close if manager does not oppose amendment, §§ 7.39–7.41
- amendments, proponents of, permitted to close where there is no “manager”, § 7.37
- amendments, right to close debate on, may be determined by unanimous consent, § 7.42
- committee, member of, may close debate on amendment, §§ 7.20–7.23, 7.30–7.36
- conferee opposing motion to reject portion of conference report, § 7.16
- conferees, proponent of motion to instruct, § 7.17
- general debate, who may move to close, §§ 7.3, 7.4, 14.20
- general debate, reserving time to close, § 26.32
- limitation on debate time, effect of, § 22.50
- manager of bill closes, § 24.31
- manager of bill may move to close debate on amendment, §§ 7.18–7.26, 14.16
- multi-jurisdictional bill, proponent of amendment to, § 7.38
- previous question considered as ordered by terms of special rule, § 7.9
- previous question, Member controlling debate may move, §§ 7.7, 7.8
- previous question, ordering of, as closing debate, § 7.6

Close debate, right to (see also, e.g., Closing of debate in House)—Cont.

- previous question, ordering of, vacated to permit further debate, § 7.10
 - proponent of amendment in nature of substitute could close debate where there was no manager of joint resolution, § 26.45
 - proponents of bill close debate, § 7.5
 - reserving time to close general debate, § 26.32
 - special rule dividing debate between proponent and opponent of amendment in nature of substitute, § 28.6
 - suspend the rules, Member making motion to, may close debate, §§ 7.13–7.15
 - suspend the rules, recognition alternates evenly between majority and minority on motion to, § 7.15
- Closed sessions, see Secret sessions
- Closing five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole (see also Limiting five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole; Close debate, right to)
- generally, §§ 78.1 et seq.
 - allocation of time under motion to close or limit debate, §§ 78.61–78.66
 - amendments offered after expiration of debate time, see Expiration of debate time, amendments offered after
 - debatable, motion as not, §§ 78.16–78.18
 - debate, motion is in order after, §§ 78.21–78.25
 - “debate,” what qualifies as, to permit motion to close debate, § 78.25
 - dispensing with further reading of bill, motion to close or limit debate after, §§ 78.30, 78.36
 - expiration of debate time, amendments offered after, see Expiration of debate time, amendments offered after

Closing five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole (see also Limiting five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole; Close debate, right to)—Cont.

“instantly,” motion to close debate, § 78.39

interruption of Member with floor by motion to close debate, § 78.13

prior recognition to manager for motion over Member who seeks to debate or amend, § 78.9

privilege of motion to close debate, §§ 78.5, 78.8, 78.9

read, closing debate on sections not, § 78.29

reading, completion of, required before motion permitted, §§ 78.26 et seq.

reconsider motion to close or limit debate, motion to, §§ 78.79, 78.80

reserving time not allowed under motion, § 78.71

strike enacting clause, motion to, is preferential to motion to close debate, § 23.32

time, stated, motion to close debate at, §§ 78.39, 78.40

when in order, §§ 78.21 et seq.

Closing of debate in House

generally, §§ 72.1 et seq.

previous question, by ordering of, §§ 7.6, 7.9, 72.1 et seq.

previous question, use of, where debate limited by unanimous consent, § 72.3

previous question vacated, § 7.10 special rule, effect of, § 72.6

table, motion to, effect of, § 72.5

table, motion to lay resolution on, adoption of, § 7.11

Closing of general debate (see also Close debate, right to) appropriation bill, debate on, §§ 76.3, 76.6, 76.8

Closing of general debate (see also Close debate, right to)—Cont.

Committee of the Whole, managers of bill in, may agree to terminate debate, §§ 76.1, 76.2

House, by motion in, §§ 76.3–76.5

House, unanimous-consent agreements made in, affecting general debate in Committee of the Whole, §§ 76.6–76.8

House, unanimous-consent request to dispense with general debate on appropriation bill in Committee of the Whole was agreed to by, § 76.6

manager of bill may close, §§ 7.3, 7.4

managers of bill in Committee of the Whole may agree to terminate debate, §§ 76.1, 76.2

motion in House, by, §§ 76.3–76.5

motion to close general debate in Committee of the Whole where special rule has been adopted, § 76.9

rise, motion that the Committee of the Whole, see Rise, motion that the Committee of the Whole special rule, motion to close debate where time has been prescribed by, § 74.11

Colloquialisms, objectionable use of

generally, §§ 61.1 et seq.

“crybaby,” § 61.8

dictionary definitions of expressions given weight, § 50.4

“guts,” Members described as lacking, § 61.14

“guy,” § 61.5

“horning in,” § 61.5

“mouthpiece” for association, Member described as, § 61.7

personal privilege, Member raised point of, § 61.5

“pinko,” § 61.9

“skin us,” opposition accused of attempting to, § 61.10

Colloquialisms, objectionable use of—Cont.

“snooper,” § 61.11

“stool pigeon,” § 61.12

“yapping,” § 61.13

Comity, see, e.g., Senate or Senators, references to; Senate, references made in, to HouseCommittee of the Whole, resolving into automatically resolving into Committee of the Whole after affirmative vote on question of consideration, § 5.9

automatic resolution into Committee on Calendar Wednesday where question of consideration decided in affirmative, § 3.14

by declaration of Speaker where rule has been adopted, § 3 Introduction, § 23.26 consideration, question of, automatically resolving into Committee of the Whole after affirmative vote on, § 5.9

consideration, question of, not applicable to motion to resolve into Committee of Whole, §§ 5.5, 5.6

disapproval resolution, motion to resolve into Committee for consideration of, may be offered before third day on which report available, § 2.44 discharge committee to which bill referred, adoption of motion to, followed by motion to resolve into Committee of Whole, § 3.15 discharged, motion that Committee of Whole be, as not preferential, § 3.8

House, general rules of, unanimous consent to consider bill in Committee of Whole under, § 3.4

motion, by, §§ 3.5, 3.6, 23.26 motion, by, for consideration of disapproval resolution, §§ 3.6, 3.7

motions, equal privilege of, to resolve into Committee of Whole pursuant to separate special rules, § 3.9

Committee of the Whole, resolving into—Cont.

motion to resolve, effect of rejection of, §§ 3.12, 3.13

postpone, motion to, not applicable to motion to resolve into Committee unless allowed by statute, § 3.11 question of consideration, automatically resolving into Committee of the Whole after affirmative vote on, § 5.9

question of consideration not applicable to motion to resolve into Committee of the Whole, §§ 5.5, 5.6

rejection of motion to resolve, effect of, §§ 3.12, 3.13

special rule providing for consideration of House Calendar resolution in Committee of the Whole, § 3.1

special rule, resolving into Committee without motion after adoption of, §§ 3.2, 23.26; see also § 3 Introduction unanimous consent, by, §§ 3.3–3.5

unanimous consent to consider bill in Committee of Whole under general rules of House, §§ 3.4, 74.5

Committee proceedings, unreported, objectionable references to

generally, §§ 55.1 et seq.

ethics committee deliberations, §§ 55.8, 55.9

executive session, references to, §§ 55.2, 55.3, 55.5

paraphrase of minutes of executive proceedings, § 55.3

point of order, necessity of, § 55.4

privilege of the House, reference to committee action permitted where issue relates to possible question of, §§ 55.6, 55.7

prohibited, references as, §§ 55.1–55.3

Standards of Official Conduct, references to matters pending before Committee on, §§ 55.8, 55.9

Committee proceedings, unreported, objectionable references to—
Cont.

unanimous consent to divulge unreported matters, § 55.4

Committees, criticism of, as objectionable

generally, §§ 54.1 et seq.

abuse of powers, § 54.1

badgering of witness in hearing, allegation concerning, § 54.13

“defame,” purpose of subcommittee was to, § 54.1

dereliction of duty, § 54.8

fascist influence on committee, allegation of, § 66.7

Hitler, query as to whether committee found agents of, on congressional payroll, § 54.12

inaction, charge of, § 54.6

influence, fascist organizations said to exert, § 54.3

integrity, charges reflecting on, §§ 54.4, 54.5

“lies,” committee report said to contain, § 54.4

motives of committee, statement impugning, §§ 54.1, 54.3, 54.11

“packing” the Rules Committee, § 54.10

“pusillanimous,” charge that committee was, § 54.7

report, committee, telegram read in House referring to “lies and half-truths” of, § 63.5

“sincerity,” attack on, § 54.5

“Un-American Committee,” references to Committee on Un-American Activities as, § 66.12

unlawful activity, allegation of, §§ 54.1, 54.2

Committees formerly prohibited from sitting during proceedings under five-minute rule, § 9.14Committee structure, control of debate on resolution relating to, § 28.32*Concur, motion to, see Senate amendments*Conferees debate on motion to instruct, §§ 17.2, 17.17, 17.21, 17.22, 24.40, 68.28-68.30 debate on motion to instruct, extended by unanimous consent after previous question ordered, § 17.2

motion to instruct, one-third of debate time allotted to Member opposed to, § 17.21

Conference, motion to send bill to

as privileged, § 17.1

debatable under hour rule, § 68.26

Conference report deemed adopted by special rule, § 17.4Conference reports

absence of manager, called up by another in, § 26.11

budget resolution, conference report on, see Budget chairman of committee is opposed to bill, calling up conference report where, §§ 17.6, 17.7, 24.4

debate, additional, permitted by unanimous consent under “special order” procedure, § 17.13 debate controlled by conferees appointed from two committees, § 17.12 debate on conference report after section containing nongermane Senate matter is agreed to, § 17.11 debate on conference reports considered en bloc, special rule providing for, § 17.3

debate on, control of, generally, §§ 17.9, 24.41, 25.26 et seq., 69.12, 69.23-69.26

debate, one hour of, equally divided and controlled by majority and minority parties, § 24.41

Conference reports—Cont.

- debate on motion to reject nongermane portion of conference report, §§ 17.10, 69.12, 69.23–69.26
- debate time allocated after report called up, § 26.55
- debate time, one third of, allotted to Member opposed, see Third, one, of debate time controlled by one opposed
- debate time re-allocated by unanimous consent, § 26.56
- debate, unanimous consent to permit debate to appear in Record where conference report was adopted without, § 71.26
- discretion of Chair, recognition for calling up conference report as within, § 27.6
- division of debate time on, § 17.21
- en bloc, five conference reports considered, division of debate on, § 28.34
- hour rule, consideration formerly under, §§ 24.41, 68.22 et seq.
- interrupting consideration of bill, conference report as, § 32.18
- jurisdiction of two committees, control of debate where conference report is within, § 17.8
- minority Member recognized where conferees appointed from two committees, § 25.26
- nongermane Senate language, control of debate on motion to strike after separate vote demanded on, § 25.27
- nongermane Senate language, debate on conference report after House agreed in separate vote to retain, § 25.27
- part of conference report, recognition to move adoption of, denied, § 17.15
- privilege of, § 17.5
- recognition during consideration of, generally, §§ 17.1 et seq.

Conference reports—Cont.

- recognition, effect where Member calling up conference report did not seek, to offer motion to dispose of matter in disagreement, § 17.24
- recommit, recognition for motion to, § 17.62
- rejection of nongermane matter, recognition for motion to recede and concur with amendment after, § 17.16
- rejection of, recognition after, §§ 17.50–17.52, 24.42, 34.9, 34.10
- senior conferee, Speaker recognized junior member of conference committee to manage report in absence of, § 27.6
- special orders permitted by unanimous consent to debate conference report prior to actual consideration, § 71.27
- special rule providing for more than one hour of debate, § 71.18
- unanimous consent, debate extended by, § 71.19
- Consideration, initiating, see, e.g., Initiating consideration or debate; Special rules
- Consideration, motion to postpone, as in order before manager recognized, § 2.41
- Consideration, points of order against
 - Budget Act, amendment providing new entitlement authority effective before new fiscal year not in order under, §§ 2.36, 2.37
 - budget authority, Senate amendment containing new, points of order waived against consideration of, § 2.39
 - printed, point of order that report has not been, does not lie where consideration granted, § 2.26
 - quorum, committee reported bill in absence of §§ 2.6–2.8, 2.16

Consideration, points of order against—Cont.

special rule providing for consideration, effect of, on points of order, §§ 2.13–2.16

special rule waiving points of order against consideration of joint resolution making continuing appropriations, § 2.11 unanimous consent for consideration of bill, effect of, on points of order, § 2.6

unanimous consent for consideration of measure, point of order of lack of quorum in committee reporting bill is to be made immediately after House has given, § 2.6

Consideration, question of, see Question of considerationCriticism of Members, Speaker, House, etc., see, e.g., Speaker, criticism of, as objectionable; Motives of other Members, statements impugning; Falsehoods, statements accusing Members of uttering; Words, taking down the*Debatable and nondebatable matters adjournment sine die, resolution providing for, §§ 6.55–6.58, 67.4, 67.5

adjourn, motion or resolution to, §§ 6.52–6.58

amendments offered after expiration of debate time, see Expiration of debate time, amendments offered after

appeal on ruling of Chair, § 21.36

call of the House, motion to dispense with further proceedings under, § 6.14 close five-minute debate, motion to, §§ 6.19–6.21 committee chairman, resignation of, § 6.2

consideration, question of, § 6.3

disapproval resolution, motion to limit debate on, § 6.34

Debatable and nondebatable matters—Cont.

discharge of privileged resolution of inquiry, § 6.7

discharge of Rules Committee resolution, § 6.6

discharged, resolution, from Committee on Rules, § 6.6

enacting clause, motion to strike, see Enacting clause, motion to rise and recommend striking inquiry, resolution of, § 6.8

Journal, motion for reading of, § 6.38

Journal, motion to approve, § 6.37

lay on the table, motion to, § 6.9

limit debate, motion to, §§ 6.31–6.34

limit debate, motion to, on disapproval resolution, §§ 6.34, 75.13

Member-elect, no debate on right of, to be sworn, § 6.1

objection to unanimous-consent request, debate under reservation of, § 67.6

point of order, debate on, is within discretion of Chair, § 6.11

previous question, motion for, § 6.35

previous question, points of order and inquiries after demand for, § 6.36

quorum, absence of, § 6.13

quorum, point of order of no, § 6.12

reading of amendment, motion to dispense with, § 6.10

reading papers, consent for, after objection made, § 6.18

recommit, motion to, §§ 6.39–6.42, 23.50, 23.52, 23.53

reconsider, motion to, §§ 6.48, 6.49

reconsider, question to be reconsidered after adoption of motion to, §§ 6.50, 6.51

refer, motion to, as debatable, §§ 23.58, 23.60, 23.61

refer, motion to, resolution offered as question of privileges of House, §§ 6.43, 6.44

Debatable and nondebatable matters—Cont.

- rereference of bill to committee, §§ 6.4, 6.5
- resignation of committee chairman, § 6.2
- rise, motion that Committee of the Whole, §§ 6.29, 6.30, 14.20, 76.12
- Rules Committee, discharge of resolution from, § 6.6
- secret session, motion for, not debatable, § 85.7
- Senate, debate not in order in, in absence of quorum, § 6.65
- Senate, nondebatable questions in, §§ 6.61–6.65
- Senate, request for return of bill to, §§ 6.59, 6.60
- sworn, right of Member-elect to be, § 6.1
- table, motion to lay on the, § 6.9
- table, motion to lay resolution on, not debatable, § 7.11
- title of bill, amendment to committee amendment to, § 6.46
- title of bill, amendments to, offered after bill is passed, §§ 6.45, 6.47
- words, objectionable, debate not in order pending unanimous-consent request to withdraw, § 6.16
- words taken down, question of propriety of, §§ 6.15–6.17

Decorum (see also, e.g., Words, taking down the; Attire)

- generally, §§ 40.1 et seq., 60.1 et seq.
- acts of Members as disorderly, generally, §§ 41.1 et seq.
- altercations between Members, § 41.6
- anticipated disorder, announcement concerning, § 41.7
- applause, §§ 41.8, 41.9
- approval, expression of, called for by Member other than Chair, §§ 41.10, 41.11

Decorum (see also, e.g., Words, taking down the; Attire)—Cont.

- attire, appropriate, § 41.12
- badges, wearing of, on floor, § 84.18
- comportment as breach of, § 41.2
- demeanor as breach, § 51.29
- demonstrations of approval or disapproval during debate are not part of Record, § 41.8
- exhibits as offensive, see Exhibits
- foreign language, addressing Committee of the Whole in, § 40.8
- gallery, references to occupants of, see Gallery, occupants of, references to
- hands, call by Member for show of, §§ 41.10, 41.11
- hats, wearing of, precluded, § 41.14
- Hope, Bob, proceedings during tributes to, § 40.7
- ignoring gavel, § 40.11
- interrupting Member's remarks, § 41.3
- interrupting Member who has the floor, see Interruption of Member who has floor
- mace as symbol of order, § 48.21
- microphones turned off in response to disorderly behavior, §§ 40.5, 40.6, 40.10
- microphones, turning off, as giving rise to question of privilege of the House, § 40.10
- microphones, turning off, where Member not properly recognized engages in disorderly behavior, § 48.20
- personal privilege, question of, does not arise from words spoken in debate, § 40.9
- poll on question called for by Member other than Chair, §§ 41.10, 41.11
- privilege of the House, question of, alleged violation of rule as giving rise to, § 40.10
- recess, speaking from well during, § 41.17

- Decorum (see also, e.g., Words, taking down the; Attire)—Cont.
 smoking, §§ 41.15, 41.16
 walking about or standing by Member who has floor, § 41.1
 well of the House, clearing, §§ 41.4, 41.5
 well, removing Member from, § 48.21
- Demonstrations and applause not part of reported proceedings, § 1.11
- Demonstrations in debate, see Exhibits
- Designation of managers (see also Manager of bill or resolution) absence of manager, effect of, § 14.12
 Calendar Wednesday, committee designates Member to call up bill on, § 14.10 call up bill, only the Member designated by committee is authorized to, §§ 14.9, 14.10 committee, designated by, §§ 14.9, 14.10 death of manager, effect of, § 14.13
- Dilatory motions
 generally, §§ 23.7–23.12
 recognition for, see Chair, discretion and power of, with regard to recognition
- Disapproving agency action, three-day layover requirement not applicable to report on concurrent resolution, § 2.44
- Discharge, debate on motion to, §§ 18.9, 68.64
- Disciplinary resolutions
 hour rule as applicable to, §§ 68.52–68.54 scope of debate on, §§ 35.1 et seq.
- Discretion of Speaker or Chair, see Chair, discretion and power of, with regard to recognition; Chair's initiative in enforcing rules
- Disloyalty, statements accusing Member of, as objectionable, see Loyalty, statements questioning Member's
- Disorder in debate, see, e.g., Words, taking down; Senate or Senators, references to; Gallery, occupants of, references to
- Division of debate time, see, e.g., Special rules, effect of, on control or distribution of time for debate; Unanimous-consent agreement, effect of, on debate time or allocation of time; Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time; Third, one, of debate time controlled by one opposed
- Dress, manner of, see Attire
- Duration of debate, see, e.g., Hour rule in House; Five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole; Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time
- Enacting clause, debate on motion to strike, during consideration of omnibus private bills in House as in Committee of the Whole, § 70.11
- Enacting clause, motion to rise and recommend striking close debate, motion to, motion to strike enacting clause is preferential to, § 23.32 debatability of, §§ 6.26–6.28, 21.31–21.35, 22.48, 22.49, 23.35, 23.38, 23.39 debate in opposition, recognition for, §§ 14.22, 14.23, 23.40–23.43 debate on, as affected by limitation, §§ 23.36, 23.37, 79.17–79.28, 79.87–79.91 debate on, effect of limiting, on offering of perfecting amendments, § 79.138 debate on, recognition for, §§ 21.31–21.35

Enacting clause, motion to rise and recommend striking—Cont.

- debate, scope of, §§ 37.5–37.11
- expiration of debate time, not debatable after, §§ 6.26–6.28
- extend time, Member opposed to motion may not, by using yielded time, § 31.33
- five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole, motion made during, §§ 77.11–77.18
- offered during time limitation, §§ 22.38, 22.49, 79.17–79.28, 79.87–79.91
- offered while motion to limit debate was pending, § 23.31
- offeror of motion as opposed to bill, § 23.33
- opposition to, recognition for debate in, §§ 14.22, 14.23, 23.40–23.43
- preferential to motion to close debate, § 23.32
- pro forma amendments, recognition not extended for, on motion to strike enacting clause, § 21.31
- pro forma amendments, special rule prohibiting, as not prohibiting motion, § 74.19
- recognition for debate on, §§ 21.31–21.35
- recognition for motion where another Member had been recognized to offer amendment, § 12.13
- relevancy in debate, requirement of, as applied to motion, §§ 37.5–37.11
- special rule prohibiting pro forma amendments as not prohibiting motion, § 74.19
- withdrawal of motion, § 77.17
- yielded time, Member opposed to motion may not extend time by using, § 31.33
- yield, offeror of motion may, a portion of time, § 31.32

Executive or governmental officials, references to

- agency, referred to as communist experiment, § 47.4
- conduct of executive officials, arraignment of, § 47.3
- government, general criticism of, §§ 47.5, 47.6
- impeachment charges against judge, debate on, §§ 47.7, 47.8
- President, see President or Vice President, references to Executive session, see Secret sessionsExhibits

- anticipatory ruling that Chair would prevent displays disruptive of order, § 84.16
- badges, wearing of, to communicate messages, § 84.18
- bills marked with Member's interpretive comments could not be distributed, § 84.7
- cartoon caricatures, § 84.15
- charts, §§ 84.3, 84.5
- debate, display not being utilized in, §§ 84.8–84.10
- debate, vote on permission taken without, §§ 84.1, 84.8
- decorum, displays should not detract from good order and, §§ 84.11–84.13
- dice, oversized and loaded, used without objection, § 84.2
- disorderly language, placard containing, § 84.6
- duck as symbol of "lame duck" session, § 84.11
- impugning Members, display, § 84.6
- legislation, exhibits used to explain, §§ 84.3 et seq.
- mask, use of, § 84.12
- objection to use of exhibits, House votes following, § 84.1

Exhibits—Cont.

- permission to display, §§ 84.1 et seq.
- photographic exhibits of missing children, § 84.14
- recognition for one-minute speech denied where exhibit was offensive, § 84.11
- recognition, Speaker may inquire as to Member's intentions before conferring, § 84.13
- Speaker's Lobby, posters and charts in, Speaker ordered removal of, § 58.11
- television audience, role of Chair where exhibit is aimed at, §§ 84.14, 84.15
- time, proper, for using displays, §§ 84.8–84.10
- video, use of, § 80.8
- weapons, dismantled, § 84.17

Expiration of debate time, amendments offered after

- amendment to amendment on which debate time expired was debatable under special rule, § 19.35
- debated, may not be, §§ 6.22–6.25, 78.50, 79.94 et seq.
- pro forma amendments printed in Record, § 79.117
- Record, amendments not printed in, § 19.36
- Record, amendments printed in, §§ 19.33, 79.100 et seq.
- special rule limiting debate on amendments, debate on amendment to amendment under, § 28.22

Expiration of debate time, Member may not proceed after, § 11.19Falsehoods, statements accusing Members of uttering

- generally, §§ 63.1 et seq.
- “believe,” statement by Member that he does not, another Member, § 63.3
- “canard” as denoting falsehood, § 63.1

Falsehoods, statements accusing Members of uttering—Cont.

- committee, allegation of falsehoods by, see Committees, criticism of, as objectionable
- committee report, telegram read in House referred to “lies and half-truths” of, § 63.5
- defending lies of “slime-monger,” Member accused of, § 63.2
- “hypocrisy” alleged to add “malice” to falsehood, § 63.6
- sincerity, Member questioned, of another, § 63.7
- “slanderous” and “false,” characterization of remarks as, § 63.4
- sponsorship of measure by certain Member was said to ensure it would “receive 1 or 2 votes” in House, § 58.2

Filibuster, Chair exercises discretion in terminating, § 9.43Five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole

- generally, §§ 77.1 et seq.
- alternation in recognition, see Recognition
- amendment to amendment, offeror of primary amendment may speak on, § 77.2
- appeals, debate on, § 77.32
- divisible amendment, debate on, § 77.38
- en bloc amendments, debate on, §§ 77.23–77.25
- extending debate time for Member recognized under five-minute rule requires unanimous consent, § 21.13
- interruption of Member who has floor, see Interruption of Member who has floor
- length of debate, minimum, motion requiring, § 78.101

Five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole—Cont.

letter, Member granted permission to read, is limited to five minutes, § 21.19

letters or papers, reading, time for, § 77.31

limitation on, effect of, see, e.g., Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time limiting or closing, see Limiting five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole; Closing five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole minimum amount of debate, motion to require, § 78.101

pro forma amendment, Member previously recognized may speak in opposition to, § 19.48

pro forma amendment, Member who had spoken in opposition to pending amendment as subsequently offering, § 19.47 pro forma amendment offered by proponent of pending amendment, § 19.45

pro forma amendments, generally, §§ 77.4–77.10, 77.35, 77.39

proponent of amendment may speak again on subsequent day by unanimous consent, § 19.46 recognition, priorities in, see Priorities in recognition; Recognition reintroduced amendment, debate on, § 77.26

relevancy, requirement of, see Relevancy in debate requiring certain amount of debate, § 78.101 reservation of objection, extension of debate by proceeding under, § 77.36 rise, motion to, as interrupting debate, § 7.12

special rules, effect of, see, e.g., Special rules, effect of, on control or distribution of time for debate

Five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole—Cont.

strike enacting clause, motion to, §§ 77.11–77.18

strike enacting clause, withdrawal of motion to, § 77.17

substitute, debate after adoption of, § 77.39

twice, Member speaking, on same amendment, §§ 77.4–77.10, 77.28

vacated, proceedings by which amendment was adopted were, § 77.33

yielding for debate or amendment, see Yielding time for debate; Yielding time for offering amendments

Five-minute debate in House as in Committee of the Whole

generally, §§ 70.1 et seq.

close debate on amendment, motion to, § 72.8

closing debate by ordering previous question, § 7.6

motion to strike enacting clause, debate on, during consideration of omnibus private bills, § 70.11

nonamendable propositions, consideration of, §§ 70.12, 70.13

previous question, ordering of, as closing debate, § 7.6

Private Calendar measures, §§ 70.7–70.11

pro forma amendment, recognition by unanimous consent of Member who had spoken on another pro forma amendment, § 70.2

recognition of Member previously recognized for five minutes is by unanimous consent, § 21.12 unanimous consent, consideration by, of nonamendable proposition, § 70.12

Union Calendar bills, §§ 70.3–70.6

Foreign language, addressing Committee of the Whole in, § 40.8

Forty-minute debate in House

- generally, §§ 69.12 et seq.
- allocation of time by Member controlling debate is not within province of Chair, § 25.23
- alternation of recognition, § 25.22
- conference reports, nongermane portion of, see Conference reports
- extend debate, unanimous consent to, § 69.18
- opposition to motion to suspend rules, control of debate time in, § 26.36
- previous question ordered on debatable motion without debate, demanding right to debate where, § 25.15
- previous question ordered on debatable proposition on which there has been no debate, §§ 69.19–69.22
- rules, prior to adoption of, where previous question was moved without debate, § 69.22
- Senate amendments, see Senate amendments
- suspend the rules, motion to, §§ 69.13–69.18
- transferred to another Member, debate time was, § 25.24

Gallery, occupants of, references to

- acknowledging visitor without reference to his presence, § 45.9
- Chair, announcement by, § 45.8
- Chair's initiative, enforcement of rule on, § 45.7
- constituents, § 45.2
- federal officials, § 45.3
- guest, honored, reference to, § 45.1
- Hope, Bob, tribute to, § 40.7
- legislation, persons interested in, §§ 45.3–45.5
- press gallery, § 45.6
- unanimous consent to speak out of order, § 45.9

General debate (see also Closing of general debate)

- appropriation bill, unanimous consent to provide two hours of general debate on each chapter of, § 74.3

General debate (see also Closing of general debate)—Cont.

- Budget Act, debate on economic goals and policies in Committee of the Whole prescribed by, § 67.16
- Committee of the Whole, duration of debate in, §§ 74.1 et seq., 75.1 et seq.
- Committee of the Whole, in, generally, §§ 75.1 et seq.
- dispense with, unanimous-consent request to, on appropriation bill in Committee of the Whole, agreed to by House, § 76.6
- hour rule used in Committee of the Whole in absence of agreement, §§ 75.1 et seq.
- House rules, general, effect of, § 74.4
- limiting debate in Committee of the Whole under statute prescribing procedures for disapproval of Federal Trade Commission regulations, § 75.13
- relevancy of general debate in Committee of the Whole, see Relevancy in debate
- Senate concurrent resolution on House Calendar in Committee of the Whole, unanimous consent to consider, limiting general debate to one hour, § 74.6
- special rule giving Member control of more than one hour, § 74.4
- special rule, may not change terms of, by unanimous consent in Committee of the Whole, § 74.16
- statutory provisions, motion limiting debate time where debate time prescribed by, § 67.15
- time, additional, requests for, under hour rule in Committee of the Whole, §§ 75.5–75.7
- time, additional, unanimous-consent request for, by Member yielded to, where special rule has divided control of, § 75.8

General debate (see also Closing of general debate)—Cont.

unanimous-consent agreements affecting general debate in Committee of the Whole §§ 75.9, 75.10, 76.6–76.8

unanimous consent in Committee of the Whole may not change terms of special rule, § 74.16 unanimous-consent request for additional time by Member yielded to, where special rule has divided control of general debate, § 75.8

unanimous-consent requests for additional time under hour rule in Committee of the Whole, §§ 75.5–75.7

unanimous-consent request to dispense with general debate on appropriation bill in Committee of the Whole was agreed to by House, § 76.6

unanimous consent to consider Senate concurrent resolution on House Calendar in Committee of the Whole, limiting general debate to one hour, § 74.6

unanimous consent to consider Union Calendar bill, limiting debate in Committee of the Whole to one hour, § 74.5

unanimous consent to provide two hours of general debate on each chapter of general appropriation bill, § 74.3

Union Calendar bill, unanimous consent to consider, limiting debate in Committee of the Whole to one hour, § 74.5

yielding portions of time, Member recognized for an hour as, in Committee of the Whole, § 75.4

Governmental officials, references to, see Executive or governmental officials, references toHope, Bob, tributes to, § 40.7*Hour rule in House

adoption of rules, prior to, §§ 68.1, 68.2

Hour rule in House—Cont.

amendment in nature of substitute, amendment to, not in order unless manager yields for amendment, § 19.39

amendment, proponent of, prior to adoption of rules, § 68.2

amendments to bill in order if Member in control yields, § 30.2

appeal from Chair's ruling, § 68.71

bills and resolutions generally, §§ 68.3–68.5, 68.11

Budget Act exception to hour rule, § 31.38 committee amendments, time for debate on, § 68.45

committee funding resolution, § 68.32

Committee of the Whole, House agreed by unanimous consent to consider bill in, under general rules of House, § 3.4

committee, resignation from, motion to accept, § 68.62 committee, resolution electing Member to, § 68.63

conferees, amendment to motion to instruct, § 68.30

conferees, motions to instruct, §§ 68.28–68.30 conference meetings, motion to close, § 68.27

conference, motion to send bill to, § 68.26

conference reports, see Conference reports discharged measure, debate on, §§ 68.65, 68.66

discharge, motion to, § 68.64

disciplinary resolution, extension and allocation of time on, § 26.33

disciplinary resolutions, §§ 68.52–68.54

District of Columbia bill, § 68.5

impeachment charges, § 68.47

Hour rule in House—Cont.

inquiry, resolutions of, §§ 68.33–68.35 motion to correct Record or to expunge, §§ 68.60, 68.61 motion to discharge, § 68.64 motion to postpone further consideration, § 68.58 motion to recommit with instructions, § 68.57 motion to reconsider, § 68.59 personal privilege, Member recognized for one hour on question of, § 8.34 postpone, motion to, § 68.58 postpone, motion to, disciplinary resolution, § 68.53 private bill, § 68.9
 privileged resolution, Member calling up, has control of time, §§ 18.1, 18.2
 privileged resolutions, §§ 68.31 et seq.
 privileges of the House, resolutions concerning, §§ 68.46 et seq.
 recommit with instructions, motion to, § 68.57
 reconsider, motion to, § 68.59
 Record, motion to correct or to expunge, §§ 68.60, 68.61 refer, motion to, §§ 68.50, 68.51 reserving portion of yielded time is not permitted, § 68.7
 resignation from committee, motion to accept, § 68.62 resolution, privileged, which is the subject of motion to discharge, § 68.34 Rules, resolutions from Committee on, §§ 68.36 et seq.
 seating of Member-elect, § 68.1
 Senate amendments, §§ 68.12 et seq.
 Senate bill considered in House under special rule, § 68.10 special-order speeches, see Special-order speeches statutory allocation of time, effect of, on hour rule, §§ 68.69, 68.70

Hour rule in House—Cont.

unanimous consent, bill called up by, §§ 68.4, 68.9
 vetoed bills, debate on passage of, § 68.55 vetoed bills, motion to postpone or refer, § 68.56
 yielding for amendment, effect of, § 68.8

House as in Committee of the Whole, debate in, see Five-minute debate in House as in Committee of the WholeHouse as in Committee of the Whole, initiating consideration in (see also Five-minute debate in House as in Committee of the Whole)

District of Columbia bill on Union Calendar, § 4.12 immediate consideration of Union Calendar bill, effect of unanimous-consent agreement for, §§ 4.7, 4.8 motion as not in order, § 4.11
 Private Calendar bills, omnibus, considered in House as in Committee of the Whole, § 4.13 special rules providing for consideration, §§ 4.1, 4.2
 unanimous consent granted for consideration of bill after special rule adopted for consideration of same bill, § 4.10 unanimous-consent request for consideration, §§ 4.3–4.8, 4.11, 4.12

House, criticism of, as objectionable campaign expenses allegedly paid by certain interests, statement concerning, did not reflect on any individual Member, § 53.1
 individual Member, remarks permissible if not reflecting on, § 53.1
 remarks in Senate, §§ 46.1 et seq.

Hypothetical questions, Chair does not respond to, §§ 9.1, 9.50

Initiating consideration or debate (see also, e.g., Consideration, points of order against; Question of consideration; Special rules; Unanimous-consent requests)

after consideration permitted, request that Private Calendar bill be passed over comes too late, § 1.16

any day thereafter, unanimous-consent request for consideration in House of bill on following day or, § 2.10

Committee of the Whole, House may resolve into, by motion, §§ 3.5, 3.6

Committee of the Whole, House may resolve into, by unanimous consent, §§ 3.3–3.5

Committee of the Whole, House resolved into, without motion, § 3.2

Committee of the Whole, motion to resolve into, for consideration of resolution disapproving executive action, §§ 3.6, 3.7

Committee of the Whole, resolution into, see Committee of the Whole, resolving into Committee of the Whole, unanimous consent for consideration of bill in, under general rules of House, § 3.4

death or absence of Member designated to call up bill as not affecting question of consideration by House, § 9.4

discharge, adoption of motion to, followed by motion to resolve into Committee of Whole, § 3.15

House as in Committee of the Whole, consideration in, see House as in Committee of the Whole, initiating consideration in; Five-minute debate in House as in Committee of the Whole impeaching government official, resolution, as question of privilege, § 1.15

Precedents of House, joint resolution concerning, considered by unanimous consent, § 1.14

Initiating consideration or debate (see also, e.g., Consideration, points of order against; Question of consideration; Special rules; Unanimous-consent requests)—Cont.

privileged, consideration of matter not, as requiring special rule or unanimous consent, §§ 2.1, 2.2

privileged, resolution directing select committee chairman to request special rule held not to be, § 2.17

Senate bill, § 1.13

Speaker's declaration, resolving into Committee of Whole, see § 3 Introduction, § 23.26

special rule, consideration of, on same day reported, see Special rules statute providing for consideration or postponement of consideration of specified matters, §§ 2.42, 2.43

three-day layover requirement not applicable to report in disapproval resolution, § 3.7

unanimous consent for consideration of bill, effect of, on points of order against consideration, § 2.6

unanimous-consent request for consideration of bill, Chair declines to recognize for, unless assured of clearances from leadership, § 2.5

unanimous-consent requests for initial consideration of bills and resolutions, Chair has declined to recognize for, § 9.37 unanimous consent to consider measure while another pending, § 2.9

unanimous consent to consider private Senate bill with nongermane amendment, § 2.12

Inquiry, resolutions of, hour rule as applicable to, §§ 68.33–68.35

Intelligence, statements impugning Member's, as objectionable

generally, §§ 64.1 et seq.

Intelligence, statements impugning Member's, as objectionable—Cont.

“dumb interpretation,” Member's view of amendment's effect characterized as, § 64.4

“English,” questioning whether Member can understand, § 64.1

forged document, charge that Member could never detect a, § 64.4

incapable of ascertaining whether document forged, Member alleged to be, § 64.4

“one syllable,” asking that bill be reprinted in words of, so opposition could understand it, § 64.2

Interruption of Member who has floor

call of the House, special order interrupted by, § 32.12

Chair, must rise and address, §§ 42.10, 42.14

conference report, interruption by, § 32.18 consent of Member who has floor required, §§ 42.8, 42.9, 42.12

decorum, as breach of, §§ 42.8, 42.10, 42.11, 42.14

message from Senate, interruption by, § 32.18

microphone at majority or minority table should be used for questions to Member speaking from well of the House, § 29.3

motion to adjourn, interruption by, § 32.6

motion to close debate, interruption by, § 32.4

motion to rise, interruption by, § 32.5

objection to unanimous-consent request, charging time consumed by Member who has reserved, § 32.16

parliamentary inquiry, interruption by, §§ 32.7–32.10, 42.12

Interruption of Member who has floor—Cont.

perfecting amendment, seeking to offer, where motion to strike is under debate, § 32.17

permission to interrupt, seeking, §§ 32.1, 32.2

point of order, interruption by, §§ 32.10, 32.11

privilege, question of personal, interruption by, §§ 32.14, 32.15

quorum, point of no, interruption by, § 32.13

Record, treatment of interruption in, §§ 42.13, 42.14

resuming unfinished business, debate recommences at point where interrupted upon, § 67.14 stricken, remarks of Member interrupting may be, § 32.3

time, charging, where Member with floor has been interrupted, §§ 32.3, 67.7

yield, asking Member to, see, e.g., Yielding time for debate

Yield, Member declines to, § 42.14

Legislative actions or proposals, criticism of, as objectionable (see also, e.g., Tactics in debate, objectionable references to) amendments, criticism of, §§ 58.3–58.6, 58.12

bills, criticism of, §§ 58.1, 58.2

“blind,” “slavish,” and “shameful” opposition to measure, § 58.7

conferees, criticizing actions of, § 58.11

filibuster, allegation of “sinister” influences on those conducting, § 58.9

“Legislative day,” debate fixed at “one day” as meaning, § 67.9Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time (see also Chair, discretion and power of; Recognition) generally, §§ 13.32, 13.35–13.40, 22.1 et seq., 25.8 et seq., 79.1 et seq.

Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time (see also Chair, discretion and power of; Recognition)—Cont.

abrogated, five-minute rule was not, where debate fixed at hour and a half, § 22.8

abrogating five-minute rule, limitation as, generally, §§ 22.30, 79.45, 79.49, 79.54

abrogating five-minute rule, limitation to time certain as, §§ 9.26–9.28, 13.37, 22.22 allocate time, Chair may, between proponent and opponent of amendment, § 24.29 allocation of time under, between proponents of two amendments, § 24.31

allocation of time under limitation on debate, §§ 78.61–78.66 amendment offered before motion to limit debate agreed to, proponent of, recognized for five minutes, § 22.3

amendment offered for which time was not allocated, § 24.33 amendment, pending, must be disposed of before second amendment offered, § 79.30 amendment printed in Record, proponent offered, under allocated time rather than claiming separate time, § 79.139 amendments not covered by limitation, §§ 22.46, 22.47, 79.135–79.137 amendments not yet pending, reserving time to debate, § 79.62 amendments offered after debate time expires, §§ 79.94 et seq.

amendments, order of, under limitation, §§ 79.135–79.137

amendments printed in Record, debate on, after expiration of debate time, §§ 79.99 et seq., 79.139

Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time (see also Chair, discretion and power of; Recognition)—Cont.

amendments printed in Record, form of, §§ 79.110–79.112, 79.119 amendments printed in Record, form of amendment offered must conform to, § 79.119 amendments, pro forma, printed in Record, § 79.117 amendments which are affected by motion to close or limit debate, §§ 79.37–79.42

amendment to amendment, time allocated for debate on, § 22.28 amendment, transferring unused debate time to another, § 79.133

Chair's distribution of time, §§ 79.43–79.52, 79.64–79.81

close debate, recognition to, § 22.50 committee members, allocating time to, on amendments to amendment in nature of substitute, § 26.23 desk, amendments at the, as affected by limitation, §§ 79.32, 79.37 discretion of Chair, allocation of time is within, §§ 9.24–9.32, 13.37, 22.6 et seq., 24.29

extending allocated time not permitted, § 79.50 extension of time after limitation is by unanimous consent, § 22.2

extension of time, effect of, §§ 22.21, 79.121

five-minute rule, when Chair allows debate to continue under, §§ 79.123–79.125

guidelines for recognition after limitation, generally, §§ 22.12–22.14

instantly, debate closed, by motion, § 79.1

Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time (see also Chair, discretion and power of; Recognition)—Cont.

Members not in Chamber when limitation agreed to, recognition of, § 22.4
 motion allocating debate time permitted by special rule, § 79.86 motion allocating debate time ruled out, §§ 22.39, 22.40, 78.68, 79.85 notice in advance by Members who wish to speak, §§ 22.5, 22.7
 open to amendment at any point, effect of motion to limit debate where text is, § 79.34 opposing sides, Chair allocated time between two Members on, to be yielded by them, § 9.27 opposition to amendment, Member recognized for, notwithstanding prior recognition under limitation, § 19.56 opposition to amendment, priority of recognition for, § 22.30 order of amendments under limitation, §§ 79.135–79.137 parliamentary inquiry, time for, was not deducted from allocated time, § 79.73 point of order, argument on, after expiration of debate time, § 79.120 pro forma amendments after closing of debate on bill, §§ 79.35, 79.36 pro forma amendments during allocated time, § 79.33 pro forma amendments, effect of limitation on, § 78.60 proponent of amendment recognized before committee chairman in opposition, § 22.26 reallocated time unused at expiration of time, § 79.8 reallocation of time, §§ 9.30, 9.32, 22.43, 79.121 et seq.

Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time (see also Chair, discretion and power of; Recognition)—Cont.

recognition after limitation, guidelines for, generally, §§ 22.12–22.14 recognition, time allocated equally among Members seeking, at time limitation agreed to, §§ 22.10, 22.16 Record, amendment printed in, was offered under allocated time rather than time allowed under rule, § 79.139 Record, debate on amendments previously printed in, after limitation on debate, §§ 22.18, 22.19, 22.32–22.38, 79.62, 79.99 et seq.
 Record, pro forma amendments printed in, § 79.117
 Record, recognition of Members whose amendments have been printed in, may be deferred, § 9.26 Record, when to offer amendments printed in, § 22.11 repeated recognition of Member who has spoken, §§ 9.28, 22.9, 22.17, 22.22–22.25, 77.40 reserving time, §§ 22.27, 22.41, 78.67, 78.69, 78.74, 79.54–79.62, 79.67 rising of Committee of the Whole, effect of, §§ 22.45, 79.127–79.131 section of bill and amendments thereto, closing of debate on, does not apply to amendment offered as new section, §§ 79.29, 79.31 special rule permitting allocation of debate time in motion, § 79.86 sponsorship of amendment as factor in recognition by Chair, § 9.24 standing at time limitation agreed to, division of time among Members, § 79.53 strike, effect of limiting debate on motion to, on offering of perfecting amendments, § 79.138

Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time (see also Chair, discretion and power of; Recognition)—Cont.

- strike enacting clause, debate on motion to, as affected by limitation, §§ 23.36, 23.37, 79.17–79.28, 79.87–79.91
- strike enacting clause, motion to, offered during time limitation, §§ 22.48, 22.49, 79.17–79.28, 79.87–79.91
- substitute amendment in nature of, time for making motion to limit debate on amendments to, §§ 78.97, 78.98
- time allocated between proponents of two amendments, § 24.31
- time, allocating, under limitation on debate, §§ 78.61–78.66
- time, certain, running of time where debate is to end at, §§ 79.2–79.9
- time, Chair may allocate, between proponent and opponent of amendment, § 24.29
- time, charging, under limitation on debate, § 78.51
- time remaining, length of, as affecting Chair's allocation of debate time, § 9.29
- time, running of, under fixed period limitation, §§ 79.10–79.16
- unanimous-consent agreement to limit and divide control of time for debate on amendments to certain paragraphs, § 78.99
- unanimous consent, allocating time by, §§ 79.82–79.85
- unanimous-consent request to close debate before Members to whom time was allocated have spoken, Chair refused to entertain, § 78.92
- unused time under an allocation, § 22.43, 79.8, 79.92, 79.93, 79.133

Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time (see also Chair, discretion and power of; Recognition)—Cont.

- use of time allotted under limitation for various amendments, §§ 22.15, 22.42
 - vacated, effect where limitation was, § 22.44
 - voting, Chair's reallocation of time where time has been partly consumed by, § 9.30
 - yielding time allotted under limitation, §§ 22.14, 22.29, 22.30, 22.41, 29.31, 79.132
- Limiting five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole (see also Closing five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole)
- generally, §§ 78.1 et seq.
 - abrogated, five-minute rule is, after limitation, §§ 19.49, 25.9
 - allocating time under limitation, §§ 78.61–78.66, 78.97
 - amendment pending, motion to limit debate is in order where, § 78.6
 - amendments not yet offered, limiting debate on, §§ 78.37, 78.38
 - amendments offered after expiration of debate time, see Expiration of debate time, amendments offered after any Member may make motion, §§ 14.17, 14.18
 - Chair's discretion in limiting debate, §§ 78.77, 78.78
 - debatable, motion is not, §§ 78.19, 78.20
 - dispensing with further reading of bill as part of unanimous-consent request to limit debate, § 78.93
 - dispensing with further reading of bill, motion to limit or close debate after, § 78.30

Limiting five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole (see also Closing five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole)—Cont.

enacting clause, motion to strike, made while motion to limit debate was pending, § 23.31

expiration of debate time, amendments offered after, see Expiration of debate time, amendments offered after extending debate beyond limitation, §§ 78.41–78.49

extension of time is by unanimous consent, § 22.2

further limitation where limitation already agreed to, § 78.100

interpreting language of limitation, §§ 78.89–78.91

interruption of Member with floor by motion to limit debate, §§ 78.13, 78.14 manager of bill customarily recognized for motion although any Member may move, §§ 14.17, 14.18 manager of bill recognized for request to limit debate before Member recognized to offer amendment, § 19.40 motion allocating debate time, see Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time motion to require certain amount of debate, § 78.101

pending motion disposed of before further recognition by Chair, § 22.1

prior recognition to manager over Member who seeks to debate or amend, §§ 78.11, 78.12 pro forma amendment, manager of bill entitled to prior recognition to move to limit debate over Member seeking to offer, § 14.19

reading, completion of, required before request to limit debate permitted, § 78.33

Limiting five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole (see also Closing five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole)—Cont.

reading, unanimous-consent request to limit debate before conclusion of, §§ 78.94, 78.95 recognition after limitation of Member who had previously spoken on amendment, § 19.49 reconsider, motion to, limitation on debate, §§ 78.79, 78.80

rescinding or vacating limitation, §§ 78.81–78.87

reserving time not allowed under motion, §§ 78.72, 78.73

resuming debate where Committee rose before time expired, § 78.57 rise, motion to, made while motion to limit debate was pending, § 23.30 rising of Committee before allotted time expires, § 78.57

special rules limiting debate, § 74.12 strike enacting clause, motion to, takes precedence over motion to limit debate, § 78.58 time certain, limitation to, converted to minutes of debate, § 79.133

time, charging, under limitation on debate, § 78.51

time consumed in disposing of requests or motions to limit debate, charging of, § 78.15

time, stated, motion to close debate at, §§ 78.39, 78.40

titles, allocation of time to designated, where committee amendment considered as read and open to amendment at any point, § 78.70 unanimous-consent request limiting five-minute debate to certain number of minutes on each of seven remaining titles of bill, § 74.13 unanimous-consent request that debate end ten minutes after subsequent amendment offered was not entertained, § 10.42

Limiting five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole (see also Closing five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole)—Cont.

- unanimous-consent request to limit debate not entertained during reading of amendment, § 10.41
- unanimous-consent request to limit debate not entertained until resolution read or considered as read, § 10.40
- unanimous-consent request to limit debate on amendments as including statement that remainder of bill considered as read and open to amendment, § 78.93
- unanimous-consent request to limit debate prior to conclusion of reading of bill, §§ 78.94, 78.95
- unanimous consent required to further limit debate where limitation previously agreed to, § 78.100
- unanimous consent to extend debate beyond limitation, §§ 78.41–78.49
- vacating or rescinding limitation, §§ 78.81–78.87
- voting, setting time certain for, setting time by clock is preferred to, §§ 78.75, 78.76
- when in order, § 19.52
- who may move, §§ 78.3, 78.10–78.12
- writing, motion must be reduced to, upon demand, § 78.52

Losing or surrendering control of debate time

- amendment, yielding for, see Yielding time for offering amendments
- conferees, motion to instruct, rejection of previous question on, § 26.47
- conference report, rejection of, see Conference reports
- essential motion, recognition of opposition after rejection of, generally, §§ 15.1 et seq., 34.1 et seq.
- hour rule, Member in charge of measure under, yielding for amendment, § 68.8

Losing or surrendering control of debate time—Cont.

- inquiry, defeat of motion to table resolution of, § 18.7
- motion, essential, recognition of opposition after rejection of, §§ 15.1 et seq., 17.55–17.61, 34.1 et seq.
- motion to table resolution, effect of defeat of, § 34.2
- “opposed,” Member qualified as, recognized to make motion to table after rejection of previous question, § 15.14
- opposed to bill, chairman of committee surrendered control where he was, §§ 33.10, 33.11
- opposition, control passing to, generally, §§ 34.1 et seq.
- postpone to day certain, motion to, not “essential”, § 15.2
- preferential motion, Member offering, does not gain control of time, §§ 33.12–33.16
- previous question, effect of intervening business and adjournment after rejection of, § 15.22
- previous question, effect of rejection of, §§ 12.20, 15.11–15.17, 15.19–15.21, 17.55, 18.3–18.6, 26.47, 34.3–34.8
- previous question, effect of rejection of, prior to adoption of the rules, § 34.8
- previous question on motion to instruct conferees, effect of, § 33.21
- previous question, priorities in recognition after rejection of, § 12.20
- relevancy in debate, after repeated points of order that Member is violating rule of, § 33.2
- reserving portion of time, Member to whom time was yielded as, § 33.19
- Senate amendment, effect of rejection of motion to dispose of, §§ 15.6–15.10, 17.55, 17.58–17.61, 34.11–34.15
- sit, Member permitted by unanimous consent to, after yielding for purposes of debate, § 8.32

Losing or surrendering control of debate time—Cont.

- standing, effect of requirement that Member in control remain, § 33.22
- statute, where time has been allotted by, § 33.20
- statutory provisions as guaranteeing time in opposition under Trade Act, § 11.17
- table, motion to, effect of rejection of, §§ 15.3, 15.4, 15.20
- unfinished business, chairman of committee recognized to call up bill as, even though previous question on bill was rejected on prior legislative day, § 15.22
- unused time as reverting to Member in control, § 33.19
- withdrawal of resolution, § 33.3
- words, unparliamentary, Member called to order for, see, e.g., Words, taking down
- yielded back, effect where time is, §§ 33.17, 33.18
- yielded time, effect on, where manager who has yielded time loses floor, § 24.13
- yielding for amendment, see Yielding time for offering amendments
- yielding remainder of time without moving previous question, §§ 67.12, 67.13

Loyalty, statements questioning Member's

- generally, §§ 66.1 et seq.
- aid and comfort to enemies, Members or others accused of giving, §§ 55.30, 66.3, 66.4
- Committee of the Whole characterized as "agency of the U.S.S.R.," § 66.11
- "communistic" or communist leanings, allegations concerning, §§ 66.1, 66.2
- fascist or Nazi elements as influencing Members, allegations concerning, §§ 66.6, 66.7

Loyalty, statements questioning Member's—Cont.

- flag, American, reference to those who would rip down, § 66.5
 - government, accusing Member of trying to undermine, § 66.9
 - government, Member allegedly associated with newspaper dedicated to destruction of, § 66.10
 - Nazi or fascist elements as influencing Members, allegations concerning, §§ 66.6, 66.7
 - subversive, characterizing remarks in debate as, § 66.8
 - "un-American Committee," Committee on Un-American Activities referred to as, § 66.12
 - "undermine" the government, accusing Member of trying to, § 66.9
- Manager of bill or resolution
- absence of, effect of, § 14.12
 - absence of, Member authorized to control time during, § 28.9
 - amendment, manager may be recognized to offer more than one, § 14.7
 - amendment, manager recognized more than once to speak on, § 14.8
 - amendments, right to offer or debate, generally, §§ 14.6, 14.7, 24.9, 24.10
 - appropriation bill, control of debate on where time not fixed, § 24.35
 - appropriation bills, control of debate on, generally, §§ 24.35–24.39
 - Calendar Wednesday, debate on bills considered on, control of, § 26.40
 - Calendar Wednesday, Member authorized to call up bill on, § 26.39
 - close debate at certain hour, manager given recognition for unanimous consent request to, over minority Member seeking to offer amendment, § 14.2
 - close debate on amendment, manager entitled to recognition for motion to, over others wishing to debate amendment or offer amendments thereto, § 14.16

Manager of bill or resolution—Cont.

close debate, proponents of bill have right to, § 24.17

close debate, right to, generally, §§ 24.17–24.20

closes debate, manager of bill, § 24.31

committee amendments acted on before manager recognized for debate, § 26.15

conferees, motion to instruct, consideration of, § 24.40 conference reports, see Conference reports; Senate amendments death of, effect of, § 14.13

debate time, control of, generally, §§ 24.1 et seq.

delegation of authority by designated manager, § 28.9

designated and authorized, Member who has been, calls up bill or resolution, §§ 27.1, 27.2

designation by committee, §§ 27.1, 27.2

designation by unanimous consent, §§ 27.3, 27.4

discharged bill, manager of, § 27.5

discharged, debate on privileged resolution after committee has been, § 14.24

disciplinary resolution, division of time on, § 24.34

enacting clause, manager recognized in opposition to motion to strike, §§ 14.22, 14.23

extension of time for general debate, § 24.11 limitation on debate, manager recognized again after, § 14.8

limit debate, manager entitled to prior recognition for motion to, over Member seeking to offer pro forma amendment, § 14.19 limit debate, recognition for motion to, in committee of the Whole, §§ 14.17, 14.18

Manager of bill or resolution—Cont.

minority member of subcommittee, ranking, controlled debate in favor of resolution where chairman controlled time in opposition, § 14.21

minority Member seeking to offer amendment, Chair overruled point of order made by, against recognition of manager for unanimous-consent request to close debate, § 14.2

opposition, chairman of committee recognized in, to amendment, § 26.44 opposition, chairman who reported resolution controlled time in, § 14.21 opposition to amendment, manager of bill recognized in, §§ 28.25–28.27 opposition to bill as amended, manager relinquished control and offered motion to strike after stating, § 26.8

opposition to conference report, control of time where manager states, § 24.4

opposition to motion that enacting clause be stricken, recognition for, §§ 14.22, 14.23

previous question as terminating debate time previously yielded, § 24.23

previous question, motion for, generally, §§ 24.21, 24.22

previous question on privileged resolution, Member in control may move, notwithstanding his prior allocation of debate time to another, § 14.25 priority of recognition, generally, §§ 14.1–14.3, 24.1 et seq.

Private Calendar bill called up by unanimous consent, control of debate time on, § 14.15 privileged resolution, Member recognized to call up, has control of time under hour rule, §§ 14.11, 18.10 privileged resolution offered prior to adoption of rules, § 24.28 privileged resolution, proponent of, has priority of recognition after committee discharged, § 14.24

Manager of bill or resolution—Cont.

- recognition, priority of, generally, §§ 14.1–14.4
- rise, motion that Committee, §§ 14.20, 14.21, 24.15
- rise, motion to, recognition for, §§ 14.20, 14.21
- special rule not specifying manager, effect of, §§ 28.5, 28.6
- special rules dividing debate on amendments between proponent and opponent, §§ 26.44–26.46
- special rules, effect of, on control or distribution of debate time, generally, see Special rules, effect of, on control or distribution of time for debate
- suspension of rules, management of House bill with Senate amendments under, §§ 26.34, 26.35
- time not fixed, recognition for debate on appropriation bill where, § 24.35
- unanimous consent, bill called up by, generally, §§ 24.24, 24.25
- unanimous consent, Member calling up bill for consideration by, is recognized to control time, §§ 14.14, 14.15
- veto, control of debate on overriding, §§ 26.41, 26.42
- withdrawal of special rule from consideration, §§ 24.7, 24.8
- yielding for amendment, effect of, § 14.14
- yielding repeatedly to same Member, § 28.29
- “yielding” to himself, manager barred from, § 14.5

Member-elect, participation in debate by, is by unanimous consent, § 8.33Morning-hour debates, §§ 10.64, 73.24*Motions, debate on, under hour rule, see Hour rule in House*Motions, generally, see specific motions, e. g., Recommit, motion to*Motions, recognition for particular, see Recognition*Motions, rejection of certain, as affecting control of debate, see Losing or surrendering control of debate time*Motives of other Members, statements impugning

- generally, §§ 49.35, 49.36, 62.1 et seq.
- Armed Forces, Member accused of depriving members of, of right to vote, §§ 62.3, 62.4
- conferees, motives of, § 58.11
- “consistency is a virtue of small minds,” as not impugning motives, § 62.2
- “deceptive” and “hypocritical,” § 58.12
- deceptive and hypocritical motives, § 62.9
- “defense of our country,” opposition to, § 62.5
- “demagogic or racist” motivation for amendment, § 58.6
- fascist influence on committee, § 66.7
- “hypocritical” and “deceptive,” § 58.12
- hypocritical and deceptive motives, § 62.9
- legislation, position on, attributed to improper motives, §§ 62.3 et seq.
- “opportunism,” allegation of, § 62.7
- party, motivation of, §§ 62.10, 62.12
- personal gain as motive, allegation concerning, § 62.8
- “petty politics,” opposition motivated by, § 49.35
- political motivations for legislative positions, accusations concerning, § 62.6
- “racist” or “demagogic” motivation for amendment, § 58.6
- timely, demand that words be taken down was not, § 49.35

One-minute speeches

- generally, §§ 73.1 et seq.

One-minute speeches—Cont.

appeal from Speaker's refusal to allow one-minute speeches, instance where Speaker entertained, § 9.61

business, recognition for one-minute speeches after completion of, § 73.6

Calendar Wednesday, on, § 10.62

custom of House, as, § 73.1

discharge, recognition for one-minute speeches refused where motion to, was in order, § 73.4

discretion of Speaker, recognition as within, §§ 9.8, 9.59–9.62, 10.51–10.57, 73.2 et seq.

extension of one-minute speeches, §§ 73.10, 73.11

Journal, recognition during reading of, § 10.63 legislative business, Chair may recognize for one-minute speeches after, §§ 10.58–10.60 legislative business, effect of, §§ 73.5–73.8

nonpartisan, Chair endeavors to be, § 10.50

once, Member may not address the House more than, before business of the day, §§ 10.61, 73.9

point of order does not lie against Speaker's refusal to allow one-minute speeches, § 9.61

policy, Speaker announced, for recognition for, § 10.48

procedure, Chair announced, § 10.49

quorum, point of no, effect of, § 73.8

recognition for, is within discretion of Speaker, §§ 9.8, 9.59–9.62

Record, appendix of, when speeches are to appear in, § 73.7

requests for, refusal of, §§ 73.1, 73.4, 73.5

second request not entertained, §§ 10.61, 73.9

One-minute speeches—Cont.

Speaker's discretion in recognizing for, §§ 9.8, 9.59–9.62

timekeeping during, § 67.2

when in order, § 73.6

Opening debate

committee chairman or ranking committee member as opening general debate, § 7.2

general debate, special rule designating Member to control, § 7.2

motion, Member making, § 7.1

proponent of amendment in nature of substitute could open debate where there was no manager of joint resolution, § 26.45

special rule designating Member to control general debate, § 7.2

special rule dividing debate between proponent and opponent of amendment in nature of substitute, § 28.6

Opposition, control of debate time passing to, see Losing or surrendering control of debate timeOpposition, when one third of debate time may be controlled by, see Third, one, of debate time controlled by one opposed*“Oxford-style” debates, §§ 10.64, 73.24*Papers, permission to read, in debate (see also Reading matter that is prohibited)

charging of time consumed by vote on permission, § 81.5

Clerk, having documents read by, §§ 82.2–82.4

extend time, permission to read paper does not, §§ 80.7, 81.6

former rule, procedures under, §§ 80.1, 80.5, 81.1–81.7, 82.1 et seq.

letter, name of signer of, not required to be given, § 80.4

objections to reading, under former rule, §§ 80.1, 80.5, 81.1–81.7, 82.1 et seq.

Papers, permission to read, in debate (see also Reading matter that is prohibited)—Cont.

point of order based on relevancy may not be raised where permission granted, § 82.5

relevancy not required where permission given, § 80.2

relevancy, point of order based on, may not be raised where permission granted, § 82.5

remarks of Member read by Clerk, § 82.3

revise and extend, effect of permission to, § 82.6

rule, reading of, does not require consent, § 80.3

video, use of, Member informed House of Speaker's denial of request for, § 80.8

voting on permission, §§ 81.1–81.7

yielded, documents read in time that is, § 82.7

yielding time to Member to read paper, effect of, § 80.6

yielding to another to read paper, § 29.17

Parliamentary inquiry is not “intervening business,” § 20.8Parliamentary inquiry, recognition for, see Recognition*Participate in debate, who may or may not contestees in election contest, § 1.4

delegates, § 1.2

former Members of House, § 1.6

Member-elect before oath, § 1.3

Parliamentarian, § 1.7

Resident Commissioner, § 1.2

Senators may not address House, § 1.5

Speaker, § 1.1

Permission to explain or proceed after demand that words be taken down

generally, § 52.1 et seq.

Permission to explain or proceed after demand that words be taken down—Cont.

debate on motion to proceed in order, §§ 6.17, 52.11–52.13

House, consent of, to proceed in order, §§ 52.4–52.8

motion, Member may be allowed to proceed by, §§ 52.7, 52.9–52.13, 52.17 motion to proceed in order as privileged, §§ 52.9, 52.10 motion to proceed in order, debate on, §§ 52.11–52.13

motion to proceed in order may be laid on table, §§ 52.12, 52.13 sufficient sanction, Speaker's ruling and expungement of words usually considered, § 51.29

unanimous consent, § 51.29

unanimous consent to proceed in order, §§ 52.2, 52.4–52.8, 52.14, 52.17, 52.18 withdrawal of words ruled out of order as conferring permission, § 52.3

Points of order

amendment, debate on merits of, before debate under reservation of point of order, §§ 9.48, 19.53 amendments, committee members have priority in making points of order against, § 19.16 amendments, consideration of, point of order against portion of bill ruled on before, § 20.37

bill open to amendment at any point, points of order where, § 19.17 committee members have priority in making, against amendments, § 19.16 debate, interruption of, Chair must permit, § 29.26 debate on amendment, point of order after, § 20.31 debate on, Chair's discretion as to duration of, § 67.3

Points of order—Cont.

- debate on merits of amendment permitted before debate under reservation of point of order, §§ 9.48, 19.53
- debate on paragraph, point of order against paragraph is too late after, § 20.30
- debate on point of order, running of time on, under time limitation, § 79.9
- debate, scope of, on point of order, § 37.12
- debate time, expiration of, argument on point of order after, § 79.120
- debate time, separate, for points of order, § 9.47
- diligence, due, in seeking recognition to make, §§ 20.32–20.34
- expiration of debate time, argument on point of order after, § 79.120
- germaneness, point of order based on, too late after debate on amendment, § 20.31
- interruption of debate, Chair must permit, to rule on point of order, § 29.26
- interrupt, point of order may, question of privilege, § 20.27
- open to amendment at any point, points of order where bill is, § 19.17
- portion of bill, point of order against, ruled on before amendment considered, § 20.37
- privilege, point of order may interrupt question of, § 20.27
- recognition for debate on amendment does not preclude, where Member has not begun remarks, § 19.42
- recognition for points of order against amendments, committee members have priority of, § 19.16
- recognition of Member for, where Speaker had not observed Member seeking recognition before House resolved into Committee, § 20.28

Points of order—Cont.

- recognition to make, seeking, §§ 13.16, 20.23 et seq., 20.32–20.34
 - reservation of point of order, debate under, debate on merits of amendment permitted before, §§ 9.48, 19.53
 - ruling on point of order against provision before amendment is offered, § 19.18
 - timeliness of, §§ 19.42, 20.28, 20.30–20.34
 - yield for point of order, not necessary that Member, § 20.26
 - yield, Member recognized on point of order may not, §§ 20.38, 20.39
- Political party, criticism of, as objectionable
- election, “stealing,” allegation concerning Members as, § 53.7
 - individual Member, remarks permissible if not reflecting on, §§ 53.2, 53.6
 - opportunism, statement that Member was leading opposition party in policy of, § 53.5
 - simple form, request that bill be printed in, so opposition party could understand it, § 53.4
 - “stealing” election, allegation concerning Member as, § 53.7
 - syllable, one, request that bill be printed in words of, § 53.4
- Postpone consideration, motion to, in order before manager recognized, § 2.41
- Postpone consideration, debate on motion to, controlled by Member offering motion, § 24.14
- Postpone, debate on motion to, under hour rule, see Hour rule in House
- Postpone indefinitely motion to resolve into Committee of Whole, motion to, allowed as to disapproval resolution, §§ 2.42, 2.43

Presidential or Vice Presidential candidates, references to “hypocrisy,” characterization of acts and words as, §49.17

Senator who is candidate, reference to, §47.10

President or Vice President, references to (see also Presidential or Vice Presidential candidates, references to) abusive language, §§47.12, 47.15–47.18

addressing President in second person in debate, §§47.13, 47.14

“aid and comfort to the enemy,” charge that President had given, §47.17

contemptuous reference to President, §47.1

family, references to President’s, §47.18

floor or House, remarks not made on, §47.11

“intellectually dishonest,” charge that President was, §47.15 press, remarks made in, §47.12

Record, inserting remarks in, §47.12

sexual misconduct, allegations of, §47.16

Speaker’s remarks in press conference, §47.11

surname, referring to President by, §47.1

Vice President, reference to, held in order, §47.2

Vice President, rule prohibiting reference to Senators as not applicable to references to, §47.9

Previous question, effect of rejection of, on recognition, see Losing or surrendering control of debate timePrevious question, vacating of, by unanimous consent (see also, e.g., Closing of debate in House), §72.4*Priorities in recognition (see also Recognition)

generally, §12.1 et seq.

absence of chairman and ranking minority member of committee, effect of, on recognition, §13.15

agreement as to control of time, in absence of, §12.11

alternation between majority and minority, §§12.6–12.9, 12.16, 13.9, 13.11, 21.9

alternation of recognition, principle of, as affected by recognition for parliamentary inquiry, §12.9

amendment, perfecting, offered while motion to strike is pending, §19.29 amendment, proponent of, controlled debate by unanimous consent, §27.4

amendment, proponent of, may control time in opposition to substitute therefor although committee members would have preference, §13.4 amendments, offering, §§13.10, 13.19, 13.34, 14.6

amendments, preferential voting status of, as factor, §§9.17, 9.23 appropriation bill, debate on, generally, §§24.35–24.39 appropriation bill, general, amendments offered to, §12.14 appropriation bill, recognition for amendments to, as affected by motion to rise, §12.14

Calendar Wednesday, preference in recognition for opposition to motion to dispense with, goes to committee member, §13.24

Calendar Wednesday, preference in recognition to control time in opposition to bill on, §13.25

chairman of committee, duty of, to report bill, §16.21

chairman of committee reporting bill, §§12.2, 21.2

Priorities in recognition (see also Recognition)—Cont.

- closed rule permitting only committee amendments, recognition of committee members for debate under, §§ 13.51, 13.52
- committee amendment, Member in favor of, recognized before one opposed, § 19.55
- committee amendments acted on before manager recognized for debate, § 26.15
- committee amendments, Chair recognized for, before recognizing for other amendments under modified closed rule, § 9.19
- committee amendments, debate under special rule permitting only, §§ 13.51, 13.52
- committee chairman has priority of recognition to offer amendment, § 14.6
- committee, member of, has priority in making points of order against amendments, § 19.16
- committee, member of, recognized to offer substitute even though previously recognized to debate original amendment, § 13.20
- committee, members of, generally, §§ 9.2, 9.16, 12.1, 12.10, 12.12, 12.17, 12.18, 13.1 et seq., 16.1 et seq., 19.10 et seq., 21.1, 26.1 et seq.
- committee, members of, given preference to control time in opposition to substitute amendment over proponent of original amendment, § 13.4
- committee, members of, given priority in recognition where titles considered open to amendment, § 13.19
- committee, members of, may lose priority of recognition, § 13.13
- committee, members of, not necessarily given priority in recognition under limitation on debate, § 13.36

Priorities in recognition (see also Recognition)—Cont.

- committee, members of, recognition among, in absence of chairman and ranking minority member, § 13.15
- committee, members of, recognized before Member who introduced bill, § 13.3
- committee, members of, where bill contains subjects beyond jurisdiction, § 13.12
- committee member standing but not actively seeking recognition, recognition of another where, § 13.14
- committee or subcommittee, members of, priorities as among, §§ 13.5–13.7
- conference, committee chairman recognized to request, § 13.21
- conference reports, during consideration of, see, e.g., Conference reports; Senate amendments
- conference report, Speaker recognized for resolutions disapproving Presidential reorganization plans before recognizing Member to call up, § 9.54
- discharged bill, proponents of motion to discharge have prior recognition in debate on, § 27.5
- discharge, recognition for debate in opposition to motion to, goes to committee members in order of rank, § 13.18
- District of Columbia business, general debate on, § 12.11
- enacting clause, recognition for motion to strike, where another Member had been recognized to offer amendment, § 12.13
- five-minute rule, after limitation of debate under, §§ 12.5, 13.35, 13.38–13.40, 14.8, 22.3 et seq.
- five-minute rule, under, generally, §§ 12.4, 12.8, 12.10, 12.12, 14.4, 21.1 et seq., 26.18 et seq.

Priorities in recognition (see also Recognition)—Cont.

- jurisdiction of reporting committee, recognition of members where bill contains subjects beyond, § 13.12
- limitation on debate, effect of, on recognition and allocation of time, see Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time
- limit debate, motion to, see, e.g., Limiting five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole
- manager of bill or resolution, see Manager of bill or resolution
- Minority Leader asserted “preemptory right” to offer motion to recommit resolution imposing discipline on Member, § 13.46
- motions, recognition for, §§ 8.21, 23.1 et seq.
- motion to discharge bill, proponents of, manage bill after motion agreed to, § 27.5
- opposition, control of time in, where special rule divides time between proponent of amendment and Member opposed, §§ 12.16, 12.17, 28.24
- opposition, rights of, after rejection of essential motion, see Losing or surrendering control of debate time
- opposition to amendment, recognition to control time in, as within discretion of Chair, § 12.16
- opposition to amendments, recognition for, §§ 13.4, 13.23, 13.53
- points of order, member of committee has priority of recognition in making against amendments, § 20.29
- points of order, members of committee have priority of recognition to make, against amendment to bill, § 13.16
- preferential voting status of amendments as factor, §§ 9.17, 9.22, 13.34

Priorities in recognition (see also Recognition)—Cont.

- Presidential reorganization plans, Speaker recognized for motions disapproving, before recognizing Member to call up conference report, § 9.54
- previous question, after rejection of, §§ 12.20, 34.3–34.8
- Private Calendar bill, preference in recognition for debate in opposition to amendment to, goes to member of committee, § 13.23
- Private Calendar, opposition to amendment to bill on, § 19.57
- privileged questions, Chair’s discretion in recognizing for, §§ 9.54–9.57
- pro forma amendments, for, § 12.18
- pro forma amendments, under special rule permitting only, § 13.17
- recommit, for motion to, generally, §§ 12.21–12.23, 13.42–13.44
- recommit, Minority Leader asserted “preemptory right” to offer motion to, in case of resolution imposing discipline on member, § 13.46
- recommit, motion to, priority given to minority members of committee in order of rank to offer, §§ 13.42, 13.43
- recommit, recognition to offer motion to, does not preclude recognition for another motion to recommit if first motion has not been read, § 8.21
- refer, motion to, for, § 12.23, 23.59–23.61
- second on motion to suspend rules, recognition of Member to demand (under former rule), §§ 13.27–13.29
- seniority of committee members as factor, §§ 9.17, 9.24, 12.3–12.5, 12.7, 13.18, 13.25, 13.30–13.33
- seniority of committee members rather than party affiliation as basis for recognition in opposition to amendment printed in Record and offered after limitation on debate, § 13.32

Priorities in recognition (see also Recognition)—Cont.

- simultaneously, where Members seek recognition, § 12.10
- special-order speeches, see Special-order speeches
- special rule permitting only committee amendments, debate under, §§ 13.51, 13.52
- special rule permitting only pro forma amendments, under § 13.17
- special rule permitting simultaneous pendency of three amendments in nature of substitute, then pro forma amendments and perfecting amendments in specified order, § 12.19
- sponsor or Member who introduced bill, members of committee recognized before, § 13.3
- sponsorship of amendment, Chair may disregard seniority and base recognition on, § 12.5
- strike enacting clause, preference in recognition for opposition to recommendation to, §§ 13.47–13.50
- subcommittee or full committee, members of, priority as among, §§ 13.5–13.7
- suspend rules, motion to, is of equal privilege to District of Columbia business, § 16.24
- suspend the rules, alternation of recognition not followed on motion to, § 12.24
- suspend the rules, challenging qualification of ranking minority member to be recognized in opposition to motion to, § 26.36
- suspend the rules, minority Member opposed to motion has priority over majority Member opposed in controlling twenty minutes debate in opposition, §§ 12.15, 12.26
- suspend the rules, recognition (under former rule) as between majority and minority to demand second on motion to, §§ 12.25, 12.26

Priorities in recognition (see also Recognition)—Cont.

- suspension of rules, preference in recognition to demand second on motion for (under former rule), given to committee member opposed to bill, §§ 13.27–13.29
- Trade Act provisions, control of debate under, § 13.54
- two or more committees reported bill, where, § 12.22
- Private Calendar bill called up by unanimous consent, control of debate time on, § 14.15
- Private Calendar bill, request that bill be passed over not allowed after consideration of, § 1.16
- Privileged or assertedly privileged questions, recognition for, §§ 9.54–9.58
- Privileged question, resolution directing select committee chairman to request special rule held not to be, § 2.17
- Privileged resolutions, hour rule as applicable to, §§ 68.31 et seq.
- Privilege of the House, alleged violation of rules as giving rise to question of, § 40.10
- Privilege, scope of debate on questions of, see Relevancy in debate
- Privileges of the House, resolutions concerning, hour rule as applicable to, §§ 68.46 et seq.
- Proceed in order, motion to, see Permission to explain or proceed after demand that words be taken down
- Pro forma amendments, see, e.g., Five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole; Recognition
- Question of consideration (see also, e.g., Consideration, points of order against)
 - adjourn, motion to, as not in order after vote to consider bill before House has resolved into Committee of the Whole, § 5.11

Question of consideration (see also, e.g., Consideration, points of order against)—Cont.

Calendar Wednesday, question is raised against bill called up on, before House resolves into Committee of the Whole, § 5.3

Calendar Wednesday, question of consideration against bills on, §§ 5.3, 5.9–5.11

Committee of the Whole, House automatically resolved into, after affirmative vote, § 5.9

Committee of the Whole, motion to resolve into, question of consideration not applicable to §§ 5.5, 5.6

Committee of the Whole, question raised before House resolves into, during Calendar Wednesday procedure, § 5.3

debatable, not, §§ 5.4, 6.3

existing law, question may not be raised against bill on ground provisions are contrary to, § 2.13

House, whether to consider matter is determined by, § 2.19 inquiry, resolution of, as subject to, § 5.2

points of order against conference report, question of consideration raised before, § 5.12

read, question raised after bill or resolution is, §§ 5.1, 5.3

refusal to consider bill as not precluding special rule, § 2.27

second question of consideration on same bill on Calendar Wednesday, § 5.10

special rule, consideration of, on same day reported, see Special rules

special rule, effect of, on points of order against consideration, §§ 2.13–2.15

when question of consideration cannot be raised, §§ 2.13, 5.5, 5.6, 5.11

Question of consideration (see also, e.g., Consideration, points of order against)—Cont.

when question of consideration may be raised, §§ 5.1, 5.2

Quorum call, business intervening after, before putting demand for recorded vote on pending amendment, § 20.19Quorum call, effect of, on time where debate has been limited, § 67.8*Quorum in committee reporting bill, lack of

as basis of point of order, §§ 2.6–2.8, 2.16

when to make point of order based on, §§ 2.6, 2.16

Quorum, point of no

dilatory, may be held, after quorum disclosed, § 20.17 not in order when Speaker has not put pending question, § 9.41 not in order where Speaker has ordered Committee to resume sitting, § 49.41

one-minute speeches, effect on, see One-minute speeches pending question must first be put to vote, §§ 23.13–23.15 recognition for, seeking, § 20.12

when in order, §§ 20.13–20.16, 20.20, 20.22

Race, references to, as objectionable generally, §§ 65.1 et seq.

association with one's own race or another race, remarks concerning, § 65.1

Jewish "race," references to, § 65.4

"Negroes," use of term, questioned in 1949, § 65.2

Racism or prejudice, statements accusing Member of, as objectionable

generally, §§ 65.3, 65.5, 65.6

Racism or prejudice, statements accusing Member of, as objectionable—Cont.

“bigoted,” opinions of Member characterized as, § 65.5

motivation for amendment characterized as “racist” and “demagogic,” § 65.6

prejudice, Member accused of arousing, § 65.7

Ramsayer rule, point of order against consideration based on noncompliance with, precluded by special rule, § 2.15Reading matter that is prohibited (see also Papers, permission to read in debate)

discharge petition, names signed on, reading of, § 83.1

executive session committee proceedings, § 83.4

impugning Members, papers, §§ 83.5, 83.6

press accounts critical of Member, §§ 83.6, 83.7

privileges of House, question of, may be raised against insertion in Record of offensive press account, § 83.7

Senate proceedings, reports of, § 83.3

Senators, communications from, § 83.2

unparliamentary language, matter containing, §§ 83.5, 83.6

Reading of notes of reporters of debates, request for, not in order, § 1.10Reading papers, see Papers, permission to read, in debate*Recede and concur, motion to, see Senate amendments*Recess, Member may not speak from well during, § 41.17*Recognition (see also Priorities in recognition)

actively seeking recognition, §§ 8.15, 8.19, 8.20, 8.23, 13.2, 13.14

Recognition (see also Priorities in recognition)—Cont.

adjourn, motion to, §§ 9.68, 23.63–23.68

alternation between majority and minority members of committee reporting bill, §§ 9.16, 9.18, 9.23, 12.6–12.8, 12.12, 13.7, 13.11

alternation between those favoring and those opposed to proposition, §§ 25.1, 25.2, 25.14 et seq., 25.22 alternation in recognition, generally, §§ 25.1 et seq.

alternation in recognition in absence of agreement as to control of time, § 12.11

alternation of recognition as not including parliamentary inquiry, § 12.9

alternation of recognition not followed during debate on motion to suspend rules, § 12.24 amendment and amendment thereto, Member speaking on both, § 21.18 amendment, control of time in opposition to substitute for, § 26.43

amendment, may not offer, in time yielded for debate, § 19.28

amendment, may not offer, when recognized for parliamentary inquiry, § 19.30 amendment, Member wishing to offer, must seek, §§ 8.15, 8.16 amendment, modification of, by proponent, § 19.15

amendment not yet offered, may not debate, § 19.41 amendments left with Reading Clerk, Member must seek recognition at appropriate time to offer, § 8.17 amendments, offering or debating, generally, §§ 13.10, 13.19, 13.34, 19.1 et seq., 21.1 et seq.

amendments, order of recognition on, where amendment tree is full, §§ 19.50–19.52

Recognition (see also Priorities in recognition)—Cont.

amendments printed in Record, recognition to offer, § 19.33 amendments proposing limitations on appropriation bills, § 19.38 amendments, seeking recognition to offer, §§ 19.2–19.6

amendments to general appropriation bill, order of, § 23.29 amendment, substitute, recognition to speak in support of perfecting amendment before another recognized to offer, § 19.54 amendment, time in opposition to, controlled by chairman of committee or floor manager, §§ 26.44, 26.46 amendment to motion in House, § 30.1

appeal from decision on recognition does not lie, §§ 9.5, 9.6

appeal from Speaker's refusal to allow one-minute speeches, instance where Speaker entertained, § 9.61

appropriation bills, control of time on, generally, §§ 24.35–24.39 badges, rule on seeking recognition as barring wearing of, to communicate messages, § 8.7

bills, for calling up or controlling debate on, generally, § 16.1 et seq.

Calendar Wednesday bills, §§ 16.17–16.21 committee amendments considered before floor amendments, § 19.19

committee amendments, debate under special rule permitting only, §§ 13.51, 13.52

committee amendments to title I of bill, Chair recognized Member to offer, where bill open to amendment at any point, § 2.32 committee chairman opposed to reported bill, § 26.44

Recognition (see also Priorities in recognition)—Cont.

committee member, same, recognized in opposition to several amendments, § 13.53 committee reporting bill, members of, see Priorities in recognition conferees, recognition for motion to instruct, § 23.62

conference, committee chairman recognized to request, § 13.21

conference reports, matters pertaining to, generally, see, e.g., Conference reports; Senate amendments conferred, recognition is not, by inquiry, "for what purpose does gentleman rise", § 23.1

conferred, recognition was not, where Member made motion without being formally recognized, § 23.2

denial of recognition, basis for, see Chair, discretion and power of, with regard to recognition desk, amendments left at, must still be "offered" after proponent obtains recognition, § 8.17 diligence in seeking, §§ 9.39, 9.40, 9.46, 23.2

discharged bill, §§ 16.13–16.15

discharge, recognition for motion to, § 23.23 discretion of Chair, see Chair, discretion and power of, with regard to recognition

District of Columbia bills, §§ 16.22–16.24 duty of committee chairman to report bill, § 16.21 enacting clause, motion to strike, recognition for debate on, §§ 21.31–21.35

en bloc amendments, time allotted on, § 21.21

Recognition (see also Priorities in recognition)—Cont.

- executive session, motion to resolve into, see Secret sessions
- five-minute rule, under, generally, §21.1 et seq.
- floor, Member does not have, until recognized, §§8.1, 8.2, 8.10
- floor, Member may not be taken from, by parliamentary inquiry, §29.23
- “for what purpose does the gentleman rise?” does not confer, §8.14
- hypothetical questions, Chair does not recognize for, §§9.1, 9.50
- limitation amendments on appropriation bills, §19.38
- limitation on debate, effect of, on recognition and allocation of time, see Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time
- limitations on power of recognition, see Chair, discretion and power of, with regard to recognition
- limit debate, motion to, see, e.g., Limiting five-minute debate in Committee of the Whole
- managers of bill, priority of, generally, see Manager of bill or resolution
- Member-elect may participate in debate on question of right to be sworn by unanimous consent only, §8.33
- messages, rule on seeking recognition as barring wearing of badges to communicate, §8.7
- Minority Leader who called up bill was recognized in opposition to motion to recommit offered by ranking minority member of reporting committee, §8.22
- motion not pending until Chair has recognized Member to offer, §8.11
- motion, recognition to offer amendment to, in House, §30.1

Recognition (see also Priorities in recognition)—Cont.

- motion relating to enacting clause may be offered while motion to limit debate is pending, §23.31
- motions or debate on motions, generally, §§23.1 et seq.
- motion that Committee of the Whole rise may be offered while motion to limit debate is pending, §23.30
- motion to adjourn, §§9.45, 9.68, 23.63–23.68
- motion to commit concurrent resolution, §23.54
- motion to commit resolution adopting rules, §23.56
- motion to commit resolution electing minority members to committees, §23.55
- motion to discharge, recognition for, §23.23
- motion to instruct conferees, §23.62
- motion to postpone, recognition for, §23.24
- motion to recommit, see Motion to recommit
- motion to reconsider, recognition for, §23.25
- motion to refer, §§23.57–23.61
- motion to resolve into Committee of the Whole, §§23.26, 23.27
- motion to strike enacting clause is preferential to motion to close debate, §23.32
- motion to strike enacting clause, opposition to, recognition for §§23.40–23.43
- motion to suspend rules, opposition to, recognition for, §§23.20, 23.21
- motion to suspend rules, recognition for, §§23.16–23.18
- motion to suspend rules “with amendments,” §19.37

Recognition (see also Priorities in recognition)—Cont.

objection to request for withdrawal of motion, recognition for, does not extend recognition to speak in opposition to motion, § 23.3

one-minute speeches, for, see One-minute speeches opposition, Member recognized in, yielded back time, § 28.28

opposition, rights of, after rejection of essential motion, see Losing or surrendering control of debate time opposition to amendment, chairman of committee or manager controlled time in, §§ 26.44, 26.46 opposition to more than one amendment, seeking recognition in, § 13.40, 13.53 opposition to substitute amendment, control of time in, § 26.43 order of recognition where amendment tree is full, §§ 19.50–19.52

parliamentary inquiries, recognition for, is within discretion of Chair, §§ 20.1, 20.7

parliamentary inquiry, Chair will not recognize for, if Member who has floor refuses to yield, § 29.24 parliamentary inquiry during call of roll, § 20.2

parliamentary inquiry during reading of Journal, § 20.3

parliamentary inquiry during time yielded for debate, § 29.22

parliamentary inquiry, interruption of Member with floor by, §§ 32.7–32.10 parliamentary inquiry, Member having floor need not yield for, § 20.5

parliamentary inquiry, Member may not be taken from floor by, § 29.23 parliamentary inquiry, Member recognized for, may not offer amendment, § 20.6

Recognition (see also Priorities in recognition)—Cont.

parliamentary inquiry, Member recognized for, may not yield floor, § 20.7

parliamentary inquiry moot where Speaker recognized another to withdraw resolution, § 20.4

parliamentary inquiry not entertained in absence of quorum, § 20.11 parliamentary inquiry, recognition for, denied after automatic roll call ordered, § 20.10 parliamentary inquiry, recognition for, denied when point of no quorum made, § 20.9

personal privilege, Member must state basis of, before recognition, § 8.34 personal privilege, recognition for one hour on question of, § 8.34

point of order, Chair must recognize for, § 20.26

point of order may interrupt question of privilege, § 20.27

point of order, Member recognized after debate had begun where he had shown due diligence in seeking recognition to make, §§ 20.32–20.34

point of order relating to pending call of House, § 20.11 point of order that Member has not properly sought recognition comes too late after Member has begun debate, § 8.8

points of order, recognition to make or debate, §§ 13.16, 20.23–20.39 postpone, recognition for motion to, § 23.24

preferential status of amendment offered as affecting, §§ 9.17, 9.23, 13.34

previously recognized, where Member seeking recognition has been, §§ 13.20, 13.53 priorities in, see Priorities in recognition

Recognition (see also Priorities in recognition)—Cont.

Private Calendar bills, during consideration of, §§ 16.25–16.30 privileged or assertedly privileged questions, recognition for, §§ 9.54–9.58

privileged resolution, Member calling up, has control of time, §§ 18.1, 18.2

privilege, question of, recognition for, §§ 18.11, 18.12

pro forma amendments, recognition not extended for, on motion to strike enacting clause, § 21.31

pro forma amendments, under special rule permitting only, § 13.17

purpose for seeking recognition, Chair may inquire as to, §§ 8.12, 8.13 purpose for seeking recognition, Chair's inquiry as to, does not confer recognition, § 8.14 purpose, recognition for specified, as not conferring recognition for other purposes, §§ 8.9–8.11, 23.3

purposes, Speaker announced policies concerning recognition for specified, § 9.13 quorum, recognition after announcement of absence of, § 20.18 quorum, seeking recognition for point of no, see Quorum, point of no reading of appropriation bills by heading and amount stated in each paragraph, Member seeking recognition to amend paragraph during, § 8.18 recommit, recognition for motion to see Recommit, motion to reconsider, recognition for motion to, § 23.25

recorded vote, Member desiring to ask for, must seek recognition in timely fashion, §§ 8.20, 8.23, 8.24

Record, remarks may be stricken from, if Member has not been recognized, §§ 8.3, 51.29

Recognition (see also Priorities in recognition)—Cont.

refer, recognition to offer motion to, not dependent on party affiliation or opposition to resolution, § 23.57 reorganization plan, resolution disapproving, Member opposed recognized to move consideration of, § 18.8

resolution of inquiry, after defeat of motion to table, § 18.7 resolutions, simple or concurrent, recognition for, §§ 18.1 et seq.

rise, Member desiring to speak must, §§ 8.5, 8.6

seating of Member-elect, amendment to resolution relating to, §§ 18.3, 18.4

secret session, motion to resolve into, see Secret sessions seeking, §§ 8.1, 8.4–8.6, 8.15, 8.19, 8.20, 8.23

seeking recognition in timely manner, necessity of, §§ 13.2, 13.13, 13.14

sit, member permitted by unanimous consent to, after yielding for purposes of debate, § 8.32

special-order speeches, for, see Special-order speeches special rule, calling up, §§ 18.13–18.15, 18.18, 18.19, 18.22

special rule permitting only committee amendments, debate under, §§ 13.51, 13.52

special rule permitting only pro forma amendments, under, § 13.17

special rule permitting three pending amendments in nature of substitute, order of recognition under, for debate and offering perfecting amendments, § 12.19

special rule prohibiting pro forma amendments, Speaker and Minority Leader permitted by unanimous consent to speak during consideration under, § 28.23

Recognition (see also Priorities in recognition)—Cont.

- special rule, recognition for debate not in order after House agreed to motion to discharge committee from consideration of, § 18.23
- special rule, recognition of Member calling up, where rule had been temporarily withdrawn, § 18.17
- special rule, where bill is considered under, §§ 16.1–16.6
- standing at time vote announced not sufficient as request for recognition to demand recorded vote, §§ 8.20, 8.23
- standing not sufficient as request for recognition to offer motion, § 8.19
- stand, Member desiring to speak must, §§ 8.5, 8.6
- statutory provisions affecting control of debate, § 13.54
- strike enacting clause, debate on, not available where all time has expired, §§ 23.38, 23.39
- strike enacting clause, member seeking to offer motion to, as opposed to bill, § 23.33
- strike enacting clause, recognition for motion to, where another was recognized to offer amendment, § 12.13
- strike enacting clause, ten minutes of debate on motion to, § 23.35
- substitute amendment, recognition to speak in support of perfecting amendment before another recognized to offer, § 19.54
- suspend rules, motion to, “with amendments,” § 19.37
- suspend the rules, alternation of recognition during debate on motion to, § 12.24, 25.25
- suspend the rules, challenging qualification of ranking minority member to be recognized in opposition to motion to, § 26.36

Recognition (see also Priorities in recognition)—Cont.

- suspend the rules, control of time in opposition to motion to, §§ 12.15, 23.20, 23.21
- suspend the rules, recognition for motion to, §§ 23.16–23.18
- suspend the rules, recognition (under former rule) to demand a second on motion to, §§ 12.25, 12.26
- time in opposition to amendment normally controlled by bill manager, §§ 26.44, 26.46
- timely manner, seeking recognition in, necessity of, §§ 13.2, 13.13, 13.14
- time, Members seeking allocation of, should stand when limitation on debate agreed to, § 8.26
- Trade Act provisions, control of debate under, § 13.54
- unanimous-consent agreement permitting Member to speak at certain time is not necessarily an infringement of Chair’s power, § 10.1
- unanimous consent, consideration of bills by, permitted only if cleared by leadership, §§ 2.3, 2.4
- unanimous consent, control of time where private bill was called up by, in House, § 16.11
- unanimous consent, recognition where House has agreed to consider bill by, § 16.12
- unanimous-consent request for consideration, §§ 16.7–16.10
- unanimous-consent requests or objections thereto, §§ 20.40 et seq.
- votes or roll calls, recognition during, § 9.38
- yeas and nays, Member desiring to ask for, must seek recognition in timely fashion, § 8.25
- yielding time, see, e.g., Yielding time for offering amendments; Yielding time for debate

Recommit, motion to amendment in nature of substitute, motion to recommit House resolution with instructions as not in order after adoption of, § 19.39 amendments to, yielding for, § 30.6

Chair's discretion in recognizing for, § 9.67 conference report, recognition for motion to recommit, § 17.62

debatable, motion as, §§ 6.39–6.42, 23.50, 23.52, 23.53

debate on, §§ 6.39–6.42, 24.30, 68.57 discipline of Member, resolution imposing, Minority Leader asserted “pre-emptory right” to offer motion to recommit, § 13.46 instructions containing direct amendment may not be offered where resolution amended in entirety, § 23.51 minority Member not on committee has priority of recognition over majority Member on committee, § 12.21 minority members of committee in order of rank, priority of, to offer, §§ 13.42, 13.43, 23.45 et seq.

opposition, Member subsequently voted for bill after stating his, § 23.49 opposition, offered by Member who has stated his, §§ 23.49, 23.50

read, offeror has floor after motion has been, § 23.48

recognition to offer, does not preclude recognition for another motion to recommit if first motion has not been read, § 8.21 recognition to offer, priority of, generally, §§ 12.21–12.23, 13.42–13.44, 23.45 et seq.

refer, principles of recognition to offer motion to, distinguished, § 12.23 reservation of debate time not allowed, § 24.30

Recommit, motion to—Cont.

resolution, simple, motion to recommit with or without instructions is in order on, § 23.50 resolution, simple, 10 minutes debate not applicable to motion to recommit, § 23.52

timeliness of, § 8.21

Recommit or recommit with instructions, debate on motion to, §§ 6.39–6.42, 24.30, 68.57

Reconsider, motion to, as debatable, §§ 6.48, 6.49

Reconsider, original question after adoption of motion to, as not debatable, §§ 6.50, 6.51

Record

debate on amendments previously printed in, after limitation on debate, §§ 22.18, 22.19, 22.32–22.38, 79.99 et seq.

recognition of Members whose amendments have been printed in, may be deferred, § 9.26 recognition to offer amendments printed in, see Expiration of debate time, amendments offered after; Recognition

Recorded vote, seeking recognition to ask for, see RecognitionRefer, motion to, hour rule as applicable to, §§ 68.50, 68.51*Refer, recognition to offer motion to, not dependent on party affiliation or opposition to resolution, § 12.23*Refer, scope of debate on motion to, resolution relating to seating of Member, § 36.7*Rejection of essential motion, effect of, on recognition, see Losing or surrendering control of debate time*Rejection of previous question, effect of, on recognition, see Losing or surrendering control of debate timeRelevancy in debate

advance, Chair does not rule in, § 35.17 amendment, pending, confining remarks to, §§ 38.5–38.7, 38.13 amend, motion to, debate on, §§ 35.21, 38.1 et seq.
 anticipate, Chair does not, ruling as to relevancy, § 38.3
 appeal on ruling of Chair, § 21.36
 appeals from decisions of the Chair, debate on, § 38.15 Chair, role of, in enforcing relevancy, §§ 35.6, 35.7, 35.12 committee, election of Member to, debate on, § 35.11 Committee of the Whole, debate in, generally, §§ 37.1 et seq.
 committee, resignation of Member from, debate concerning, § 35.12 committees, morning hour call of, during, § 35.8 disciplinary resolution, Chair does not rule on admissibility of evidence related to, § 35.14 disciplinary resolution, debate on, §§ 35.13–35.15 disciplinary resolution, motion to postpone debate on, § 35.16 five-minute rule, debate under, generally, §§ 38.1 et seq.
 five-minute rule, unanimous consent required for Member to raise question of personal privilege under guise of pro forma amendment during, § 38.16 floor, losing, after repeated points of order that Member's remarks are not relevant, § 33.2
 general debate in Committee of the Whole, §§ 39.1 et seq., 75.12 general debate in Committee of the Whole, effect of special rule on scope of, §§ 39.1, 39.2, 39.5

Relevancy in debate—Cont.

general debate in House, during, § 35.1
 general debate on District of Columbia Day, § 39.3
 general debate under Congressional Budget Act, § 39.4 impeachment, articles of, scope of debate on, § 35.10 impeachment charges, argumentative statements permitted in presenting, § 35.9 legislative history, point of order that debate was improper attempt to establish, § 35.19 morning hour call of committees, during, § 35.8 omnibus appropriation bill, scope of debate on, § 37.2 personalities, engaging in, as violation of rule of relevancy, § 38.4
 point of order, debate on, § 37.12 point of order, requirement of, for enforcement of rule as applied to five-minute debate, §§ 38.2, 38.13 postpone, motion to, debate on, §§ 35.16, 35.18 privilege of House, debate on question of, §§ 36.5, 36.7
 privilege, personal, discussion of pending legislation was not relevant to discussion of question of, § 36.3 privilege, personal, scope of remarks on question of, §§ 36.1–36.4, 36.6 privilege, personal, scope of response to editorials questioning motives for seeking impeachment where presented as question of, § 36.4 pro forma amendment, additional time on, § 35.7
 pro forma amendment, debate under, §§ 38.8–38.12 refer, debate on motion to, resolution relating to seating of Member, § 36.7

Relevancy in debate—Cont.

- special-order requests specifying subject matter, effect of, § 35.20
- special-order speeches, principle applicable to, § 10.77
- special rule, debate on, §§ 35.2–35.5
- special rule permitting only designated amendments, unanimous consent to speak out of order during debate under, § 38.17
- special rule providing for control of general debate, debate under, confined to bill as whole, § 28.10
- special rule requiring that debate be confined to bill, §§ 37.1, 37.3, 37.4
- strike enacting clause, scope of debate on motion that Committee of the Whole rise with recommendation to, §§ 37.5–37.11
- unanimous consent to speak out of order, §§ 35.7, 37.3, 37.4, 38.14, 38.16, 38.17

Relinquishing control of debate time, see Losing or surrendering control of debate timeReporters of debates

- not to insert indications of applause or demonstrations, § 1.11
- request for reading of notes of, not in order, § 1.10

Reservation of point of order, Chair may permit debate on merits before debate under, § 9.48Rise and recommend striking enacting clause, motion to, see Enacting clause, motion to rise and recommend striking*Rise and report, motion that Committee of the Whole

- minority Member in control because committee chairman opposed to resolution, motion was made by, § 14.21
- privilege of motion, § 78.56

Rise, motion that Committee of the Whole

- debatable, motion as not, §§ 6.29, 6.30, 14.20, 76.12, 78.54, 78.55

Rise, motion that Committee of the Whole—Cont.

- manager of bill, within discretion of, § 76.12, 78.55
- not necessary when House has limited general debate to time certain, § 76.11
- privilege of motion, § 78.53
- who may make motion, §§ 76.12, 76.13, 78.53, 78.55
- yielded time, making motion in, § 76.13

Rules, resolutions from Committee on, hour rule as applicable to, §§ 68.36 et seq.Secret sessions

- attendance, record of, not kept, § 85.9
- “clearance” not required, § 85.9
- committee authorization for Member to move for secret session, § 85.20
- committee presenting facts to Members in meeting after adjournment, § 1.8
- confidential communication, absence of assertion by Member that he wished to make, to House, § 85.3
- confidential communication, Member making motion must qualify by asserting he has, to make to House, §§ 85.5, 85.14
- confidential communication related to bill under consideration in Committee of the Whole, § 85.6
- defense bill, motion for secret session to discuss amendment to, deemed not necessary, § 85.25
- discipline of Member who releases information, § 85.23
- disclosure of intelligence-related materials, procedures for, § 85.21
- dissolving secret session, § 85.18
- employees, essential, admitted, §§ 85.9, 85.15, 85.22
- executive branch, matters deemed secret by, § 85.21

Secret sessions—Cont.

floor access, limiting, §§ 85.8, 85.9, 85.22

galleries, clearing, §§ 85.8, 85.9, 85.22 guidelines for conducting secret session, §§ 85.9, 85.22, 85.23

hour rule, §§ 85.13, 85.16

impeachment, Senate use of closed session in, § 85.26 legislation, relevance to, not required, § 85.9

motion for secret session must be made in House, §§ 85.4, 85.5

motion for secret session not debatable, § 85.7

motion for secret session, qualification to make, § 85.5

motion for secret session, recognition for, § 85.1

motion for secret session rejected, § 85.3

motion for secret session to be put in writing, § 85.1

motion to dissolve secret session, § 85.18

motion to make proceedings public, § 85.17

oath of secrecy, §§ 85.9, 85.12

parliamentary inquiry concerning procedures is addressed to Speaker, § 85.4

point of order, challenging motion for secret session, § 85.19 preparation for session, § 85.2

procedures for conducting secret session, generally, §§ 85.9, 85.22 public disclosure of intelligence-related materials, procedures for, § 85.21

public, motion to make proceedings, § 85.17

purpose of secret session, §§ 85.3, 85.5

qualification to make motion, §§ 85.5, 85.14

Secret sessions—Cont.

recognition to move for secret session, § 85.1

Senate use of closed session in impeachment, § 85.26

Senate debate on antiballistic missile program, § 1.9

Speaker determines which employees are essential, § 85.15

Speaker judges whether proponent qualifies to move for secret session, § 85.14

transcript of proceedings remains secret until otherwise ordered, §§ 85.10, 85.11 violation of injunction of secrecy, what constitutes, as matter for Member's judgment, § 85.24

Senate amendment in disagreement, motion to dispose of, one-third of debate time allotted to Member opposed to, see Third, one, of debate time controlled by one opposed

Senate amendments (see also Conference reports) concur, preferential motion to, does not transfer control of debate to proponent, §§ 17.43, 17.45, 17.46 concur with an amendment, circumstances in which proponent of preferential motion to, was recognized to control time, § 17.49 debate, control of, on motion to dispose of amendment in disagreement following rejection of conference report, § 24.42 debate, control of, on motion to dispose of amendment in disagreement, generally, §§ 24.42–24.50 debate on motion to dispose of amendment in disagreement, §§ 17.35–17.37, 17.39

debate on nongermane amendments, § 17.34

Senate amendments (see also Conference reports)—Cont.

forty minutes debate in House on motion to reject nongermane portion of conference report, §§ 69.12, 69.23–69.26 manager of conference report may defer to another to offer motion to dispose of, § 17.26 manager of conference report recognized to offer motion to dispose of, § 17.25 motion to dispose of, control of debate on, generally, §§ 24.42–24.50

nongermane amendments, debate on, § 17.34

preferential motion, circumstances in which proponent of, was recognized to control time, § 17.49

preferential motion, making of, does not transfer control of debate to proponent, §§ 17.38, 17.40, 17.42–17.48 preferential motion to dispose of, time to offer, § 17.27 recede and concur, effect on recognition where motion to, is divided and portion is rejected, § 17.61

recede and concur, motion to, recognition after rejection of, §§ 17.56–17.59 recede and concur, motion to, was preferential in form only and was superseded by proper preferential motion, § 17.41 recede and concur, preferential motion to, does not transfer control of debate to proponent, §§ 17.38, 17.40, 17.44, 17.47, 17.48

recede and concur, proponent of motion to, did not seek recognition even though manager had no motion pending, § 17.40 recede and concur, recognition after defeat of motion to reject nongermane portion of motion to, § 17.60

Senate amendments (see also Conference reports)—Cont.

recognition, effect where Member calling up conference report did not seek, to offer motion to dispose of matter in disagreement, § 17.24 recognition, Member must actively seek, to offer motion to dispose of, § 17.23 rejection of conference report, control of debate following, §§ 17.52, 24.42 rejection of motion to dispose of amendment, recognition after, §§ 17.53, 17.54, 17.56, 34.11–34.15 rejection of motion to recede and concur, recognition after, §§ 17.56–17.59 rejection of previous question on motion to concur, recognition after, § 17.55 suspension of rules, motion dealing with Senate amendments under, recognition for, §§ 17.32, 17.33 unanimous-consent requests to dispose of, recognition for, §§ 17.28–17.31

Senate bill, Member calling up, recognized for one hour, § 17.4Senate, duties of Chair in, in enforcing rules of debate, § 1.12*Senate, motion to comply with request for return of bill to, not debatable, § 6.60*Senate or Senators, references to

generally, §§ 44.1 et seq.

action, speculating on Senate, §§ 44.62, 44.63

action taken on House-passed legislation, §§ 44.58, 44.59

addressing remarks to Senate, § 44.65 advocating Senate action on nomination, § 44.60

Chair's initiative, rule enforced on, §§ 44.5, 44.7, 44.46, 44.48, 44.51, 44.54, 44.57, 44.62–44.64, 48.3

characterization of Senate actions, § 44.14

Senate or Senators, references to—
Cont.

character or integrity, attack on, § 44.54

comity, rule of, criticized, § 44.6

comity, rule of, explained, §§ 44.1, 44.2

committees, Senate reference to actions of, § 44.46

complimentary remarks, §§ 44.1, 44.29–44.31

conference proceedings, comment on, § 44.10

confirmation proceedings, reference to, § 44.60

correspondence between Senator and federal official, reference to, § 44.36 critical or derogatory references, §§ 44.16–44.22, 44.25, 44.26 enforcement of rule, Chair's announced policy, §§ 44.5, 44.8

floor, discussion off the, § 44.53

former Member of House, Senator who was, reference to, § 44.61

historical references, § 44.52

House, measure pending in, comment on Senate proceedings related to, §§ 44.11 et seq.

House, Senate proceedings critical of, § 44.9

House, Senator who was former Member of, reference to, § 44.61 identified by name, where Senator is not, §§ 44.21, 44.22 inaction of Senate, reference to, §§ 44.56, 44.57, 44.59

indirect reference to Senate or Senator, §§ 44.21, 44.22, 44.26–44.28

"Jell-o," reference to other body as, § 44.18 letter from non-Member, quoting, § 44.19

letter from Senator, reading, § 44.33

motives of Senators, demand that references to, be stricken, § 49.40

Senate or Senators, references to—
Cont.

name of Senator, reference by, § 44.4

newspaper account, quoting, § 44.31

non-Member, quoting letter written by, § 44.19

opinions or policy positions of individual Senators, § 44.15

"other body," references to, § 44.26 outside the Senate, actions or remarks, reference to, §§ 44.31, 44.32, 44.34, 44.35 pending measure in House, comment on Senate proceedings related to, §§ 44.11 et seq.

Presidential candidate, reference to Senator who is, §§ 44.54, 44.55 purpose of rule prohibiting reference, § 44.2

quotations from Senate debate, §§ 44.11 et seq., 44.30 quoting from newspaper or other published account, §§ 44.31, 44.37

quoting letter from non-Member, § 44.19

reading letter from Senator, § 44.33 recognition, denial of further, § 44.5

Record Extension of remarks, inserting references to Senate speeches or proceedings in, § 44.45

Record, inserting Senate remarks on bills pending before the House in, §§ 44.12, 44.24

Record, reading Senate proceedings from, § 44.23

Record, reference stricken from, § 44.4

Record, removing improper remarks from, §§ 44.45, 44.47–44.50

rule, discussion of, generally, § 44 (introduction)

rule prohibiting references criticized, § 44.6

"Senate," use of term, § 44.58

Senate or Senators, references to—
Cont.

- Speaker's initiative, rule may be enforced on, § 44.5
- sponsors of legislation, identifying Senators as, § 44.15
- unanimous consent to insert Senate debate in Record, §§ 44.12, 44.24
- unanimous consent to refer to correspondence between Senator and federal official, § 44.36
- Vice-Presidential candidate, reference to Senator who is, § 44.55
- Vice President, references to, § 47.9
- votes, Senate, reference to, §§ 44.38–44.44

Senate, references made in, to House
generally, §§ 46.1 et seq.

- announcement of intention to seek enforcement of rule of comity, § 46.4
- discretion of Presiding Officer, as matter within, § 46.3
- discretion of Senators, left to, § 46.2
- expunge remarks, resolution to, § 46.10
- floor, Senate, reference to presence of Member of House on, § 46.14
- House action on Senate references, § 46.13
- integrity or character, reference to, §§ 46.5, 46.10
- letters from House Member to Speaker and Senate Majority Leader inserted in Record, § 46.14
- “liar,” reference to House Member as, § 46.12
- motives, reference to, § 46.11
- name, reference to House Member by, § 46.9
- proceedings in House, reference to, §§ 46.5, 46.6
- rules, change in, was proposed, §§ 46.1
- Speaker of the House, reference to, §§ 46.7, 46.8

Senate, references made in, to House—Cont.

- unanimous consent to refer to proceedings of House, § 46.6

Smoking on the Floor, §§ 41.15, 41.16
Speaker, criticism of, as objectionable

- generally, §§ 57.1 et seq.
- count, criticizing, § 57.4
- designated another Member to preside, Speaker has, when words taken down affected Speaker, § 48.11
- dishonesty, charging, §§ 57.2, 57.4
- duty, criticism of performance of, §§ 57.1, 57.2, 57.4, 57.5
- indirect criticisms in course of debate, § 57.5
- name, reference to Speaker by nickname or, § 57.3
- press conference, criticism of remarks made by Speaker in, § 57.6
- privilege, insult to Speaker as raising question of, § 57.5
- privilege of the House, Speaker's impropriety or disregard of rules as raising question of, § 57.4
- rules of House, charge that Speaker ignored, §§ 57.2, 57.4
- Standards of Official Conduct, Committee on, criticism of Speaker where report has not been filed by, § 57.5
- timeliness of objection to attacks on Speaker, § 57.7
- vote, recorded, Member asserting belief that sufficient number was standing to demand, § 57.4

Speaker's initiative in enforcing rules, see Chair's initiative in enforcing rules*Special-order speeches

- “additional minute,” request to proceed for, § 73.14
- additional time or additional special order, Chair declines to recognize for, § 73.15

Special-order speeches—Cont.

amendments printed in Record, who may offer, § 21.28 debate, principle of relevancy in, as applicable, § 10.77 discretion of Speaker in recognizing for, §§ 9.63–9.66, 10.66, 10.67 duration of, § 73.15 et seq.

extension of time, §§ 73.14 et seq.

guidelines for recognition, § 10.65

hour limit, §§ 10.76, 68.72, 68.73, 71.20, 73.15

interruption of special-order speech, § 73.19 legislative business, entertaining unanimous-consent request concerning, during special orders, §§ 10.72, 18.25

legislative business, recognition after completion of, §§ 73.12–73.14 legislative business, Speaker may recognize Members for consideration of, after special-order speeches have begun, § 9.66

“Oxford” debates, § 10.64

policy, Speaker announced, for recognition for, § 10.48

postponement of special-order speeches, §§ 73.20, 73.21 privileged report, Committee on Rules filing, during, § 10.73 privilege, question of personal, takes precedence, § 10.75

recess, recognition before or after, § 10.74 recognition, guidelines for, § 10.64, 10.65

relevancy in debate, requirement of, as applicable, §§ 10.77, 35.20 time permitted, §§ 73.14 et seq.

unanimous consent, time may not be extended by, § 71.20

Veteran’s Day speeches, previous order of House permitting, § 10.68

Special-order speeches—Cont.

withdrawn, requests for, were, § 73.21

yielding during, § 10.78

Special rules (see also, e.g., Special rules, effect of, on control or distribution of time for debate) agenda, other business on, may be precluded by special rule, § 2.18 amendments, order of consideration permitted by, as determined by Chair, § 2.31 budget authority, new, points of order waived against consideration of bill authorizing, § 2.38 budget, points of order waived against consideration of conference report on, § 2.38 budget, providing for consideration of concurrent resolution on, § 2.35 budget, waiving points of order against outlays exceeding budget ceiling, § 2.38 calling up, §§ 18.13–18.15, 18.18, 18.19, 18.22

calling up on same day reported, § 18.20

closed rule, pro forma amendments under, §§ 21.23–21.26 committee amendments reported before recognition for debate, § 18.21 committee amendment to special rule, nonsubstantive, acted upon before debate on rule, § 19.22

Committee of the Whole, resolving into, without motion after adoption of special rule, § 3.2

committee structure, control of debate on resolution relating to, § 28.32 conference reports, rule providing for debate on, see Conference reports confirmation, previous question ordered on completion of general debate on resolution on, of Vice President, § 2.29

Special rules (see also, e.g., Special rules, effect of, on control or distribution of time for debate)—Cont.

- consideration of bill, point of order against, precluded by special rule, §§ 2.13–2.15
- consideration of joint resolution continuing appropriations, points of order against, waived, § 2.11
- consideration of outlays in excess of budget ceiling, points of order against, waived, § 2.38
- consideration, points of order against, effect of special rule on, §§ 2.13–2.16
- continuing appropriations, consideration of, waiving points of order against, § 2.11
- death of Member designated in special rule to call up bill, Chair's recognition of another Member after, § 9.4
- debate on special rule extended by unanimous consent, §§ 25.18, 71.3
- discharged from consideration of rule, recognition in opposition to bill where Committee on Rules was, § 25.16
- discharge, immediate vote on resolution (under former rule) where House agrees to motion to, § 18.23
- enacting clause, motion to recommend striking, not barred by special rule prohibiting pro forma amendments, § 74.19
- floor, amendment made in order by special rule was offered from, § 2.33
- House as in Committee of the Whole, providing for consideration in, §§ 4.1, 4.2
- House Calendar resolution, special rule providing for consideration of, in Committee of the Whole, § 3.1
- immediate consideration of unreported bill, § 2.28

Special rules (see also, e.g., Special rules, effect of, on control or distribution of time for debate)—Cont.

- modifying, by unanimous consent, §§ 10.37, 10.38, 74.14, 74.16, 74.17
- motion not required to call up measure where special rule provides for immediate consideration in House, § 2.30
- motions permitted by special rule, §§ 28.31, 79.86
- motions to limit debate, see, e.g., Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time
- motion to consider bill, rejection of, as not precluding reporting of special rule, § 2.27
- opening debate pursuant to, see Opening debate
- point of order against consideration precluded by special rule, §§ 2.13–2.15
- point of order that bill was reported from committee in absence of quorum is in order unless waived by rule, § 2.16
- previous question considered as ordered, further debate or amendments in House precluded where, § 7.9
- printing requirement, point of order that report has not met, does not lie where consideration granted, § 2.26
- privileged, consideration of matter not, as requiring special rule or unanimous consent, §§ 2.1, 2.2
- privilege, equal, motions to resolve into Committee of the Whole pursuant to separate special rules are of, § 2.34
- pro forma amendments, special rule permitting, § 21.27
- pro forma amendments, special rule prohibiting, as not prohibiting motion recommending that enacting clause be stricken, § 74.19

Special rules (see also, e.g., Special rules, effect of, on control or distribution of time for debate)—Cont.

pro forma amendments under closed rule, §§ 21.23–21.26

proponent and opponent, rule dividing debate on amendments between, §§ 26.44–26.46

quorum in committee reporting bill, lack of, as basis for point of order if not waived by rule, § 2.16 recognition under rule permitting simultaneous pendency of three amendments in nature of substitute, then pro forma amendments and perfecting amendments in specified order, § 12.19

Record, who may offer amendment where rule required amendments to be printed in, § 21.28 rejection of motion to consider bill as not precluding reporting of special rule, § 2.27

relevancy in debate on, see Relevancy in debate relevancy in general debate in Committee of the Whole, special rule may require, §§ 37.1, 39.1, 39.2

reported from Committee on Rules, special rule providing for consideration of resolution, § 3.1

revocation of, Chair declined recognition for unanimous-consent request for, § 18.24 same day reported, two-thirds vote to consider special rule on, §§ 2.20–2.26

seven legislative days, effect of not calling up rule within, §§ 18.13–18.15 strike enacting clause, motion to, not affected by special rule prohibiting pro forma amendments, § 23.44 structured amendment process, order of recognition, § 12.19

Special rules (see also, e.g., Special rules, effect of, on control or distribution of time for debate)—Cont.

two-thirds vote to consider rule on same day reported, §§ 2.20, 2.21, 2.25, 2.26 unanimous consent, modifying terms of special rule by, §§ 10.37, 10.38, 74.16 unanimous consent to permit additional debate where special rule permitted only specified amendments, §§ 74.14, 74.17 unanimous consent to permit additional debate where special rule prohibited pro forma amendments, § 74.14

unfinished business, bill made in order by adoption of special rule does not necessarily become, § 28.4

Vice President, consideration of resolution on confirmation of, § 2.29 withdrawal from consideration, §§ 18.16, 18.17

Special rules, effect of, on control or distribution of time for debate

generally, §§ 28.1 et seq.

accumulation of time under modified closed rule permitting separate hour of debate on amendment in nature of substitute and substitute therefor, § 28.20 additional Member not designated in special rule, unanimous consent that part of time be controlled by, §§ 28.11, 28.12

alternation under special rule, §§ 25.3–25.6

amendments, special rule limiting, effect of, §§ 77.19–77.22, 77.35 changing allocation of time for general debate by unanimous consent in Committee of the Whole, § 28.19 changing terms of special rule, §§ 28.1, 28.2

Special rules, effect of, on control or distribution of time for debate—Cont.

committees, bill within jurisdiction of two or more, §§ 28.13–28.19 designation by committee chairman of Members to control two hours of general debate, special rule providing for, § 28.10 discharged from consideration of rule where Committee on Rules was, § 25.16 jurisdiction of two or more committees, bill within, §§ 28.13–28.19

“majority and minority members” of committee, effect of special rule dividing debate between, § 28.5

motion to close general debate in Committee of the Whole where special rule has been adopted, § 76.9

multiple committees, division of time among, §§ 25.3–25.5

opposition to amendment, recognition of minority Member in, where special rule limits debate time on amendments to be controlled by proponent and opponent, § 28.24 order of recognition of primary and sequential committee members was not specified, § 28.18 proponent and opponent of amendment in nature of substitute, special rule dividing debate between, § 28.6

reallocation of time for general debate by unanimous consent in Committee of the Whole, § 28.19 reservation of objection to unanimous-consent request to offer amendment, time consumed under, § 28.21 separate hour of debate on amendment in nature of substitute and substitute therefor, accumulation of time where special rule provided for, § 28.20

Special rules, effect of, on control or distribution of time for debate—Cont.

sequential committees, §§ 28.13, 28.16, 28.18, 28.19 subcommittee, Chair may recognize chairman of, in opposition to amendment, § 25.6

suspension of rules, control of debate on motion for, fixed by resolution, §§ 71.15, 71.16 unanimous consent, allocation of time by, where no Member has claimed time in opposition allocated under special rule, § 74.18 unanimous-consent requests for additional time, §§ 28.1, 28.2, 75.8

unanimous consent, time for general debate reallocated by, § 28.19

Special rules, effect of, on duration of debate

generally, §§ 71.1 et seq.

amendments, special rule limiting effect of, §§ 77.19–77.22, 77.35

“days” or “one day,” special rule fixing time for debate on bill in terms of, §§ 74.7–74.9

limiting or closing debate where time has been prescribed by special rule, §§ 74.10, 74.11

motion to close general debate in Committee of the Whole where special rule has been adopted, § 76.9

previous question considered as ordered, § 72.6

privileged resolutions, §§ 71.1, 71.2

Standards of Official Conduct, references to matters considered by Committee on, see, e.g., Committee proceedings, unreported, objectionable references to; Words, taking down the; Words or statements considered to be proper Statutory provisions, effect of, on control of debate time on particular matters under Trade Act, § 11.17

Surrendering control of debate time, see Losing or surrendering control of debate time

Tactics in debate, objectionable references to “assassinate” character, charge that remarks tended to, § 59.8

confusing the issue, accusing Member of, § 59.1

“crime,” reference to Member’s remarks as, § 59.2

“demagoguery” in debate, occasion on which reference to, was held in order, § 60.5

“disgraceful” argument or language, charging Member with using, §§ 59.3, 59.4

hypocritical, characterising amendment as, § 58.12

“intemperate,” reference to another’s statement as, §§ 59.5, 59.6

“lowest thing that I have ever seen,” Speaker’s characterization of remarks as, § 59.9

“ludicrous” statements, charge that Member made, § 59.7

Speaker’s characterization of remarks as “lowest thing that I have ever seen,” § 59.9

unfair, characterizing debate as, § 59.8

“withholding votes,” reference to tactic of, held in order, § 58.10

Ten-minute debate in House

generally, §§ 69.4 et seq.

Calendar Wednesday business, motion to dispense with, §§ 69.4, 69.5

recommit with instructions, motion to, §§ 23.52, 23.53, 69.6–69.11

Speaker has taken floor in opposition to motion to recommit with instructions, § 23.53

Third, one, of debate time controlled by one opposed

generally, § 17.17, 26.48 et seq.

additional time, unanimous-consent request for, § 26.59 amendments reported from conference in disagreement, §§ 26.48, 26.61

close, who has right to, §§ 26.57, 26.60

conferees, motion to instruct, § 17.21

conference report, §§ 17.19, 17.20, 26.49 et seq.

party affiliation, recognition not dependent on, §§ 26.49–26.52, 26.54, 26.62 previous question may be moved after time has been consumed or yielded back, § 26.58 recognition, priority of, given to conferee, § 26.54 recognition within discretion of Chair, §§ 26.49–26.52, 26.54

Senate amendment in disagreement, § 17.18

senior member of reporting committee recognized in opposition, § 26.62

Time, control of, see, e.g., Losing or surrendering control of debate time; Manager of bill or resolution; Recognition; Third, one, of debate time controlled by one opposed; Special rules, effect of, on control or distribution of time for debate; Limitation on five-minute debate, effect of, on allocation of remaining time

Time, counting of, by Chair, §§ 74.1, 74.2

Timekeeping during debate, §§ 67.1, 67.2, 78.51

Title, amendments to, not debatable, § 6.45

Twenty-minute debate in House

generally, §§ 69.1 et seq.

discharge, motion to, §§ 69.1–69.3

Twenty-minute debate in House—
Cont.

minority, member of, opposed to bill has priority in controlling debate over majority member opposed, § 12.15, 12.26

Unanimous-consent agreement, effect of, on debate time or allocation of time censure, debate on resolution of, extended, § 71.6

Committee of the Whole, limitation by, where House has fixed time for debate, § 76.10 disapproval, debate on resolution of, limited, §§ 71.7, 71.8

discharge, Speaker does not recognize for requests to extend time on motion to, § 71.17 general debate in Committee of the Whole as affected by unanimous-consent agreements in House, §§ 76.6–76.8

“general rules of the House,” bill considered under, § 71.9

House as in Committee of the Whole, bill considered in, § 71.9

impeachment resolutions, § 71.13

omnibus private bills, Chair did not recognize for requests to extend debate on, § 71.12

previous question, further debate is by unanimous consent after ordering of, §§ 71.22–71.25 privileged resolution, debate on, extended, §§ 71.3–71.6

reconsider, debate on motion after House voted to, § 71.25

special-order speeches, Member not permitted additional time on, § 71.20 statute, debate time prescribed by, may be changed by, § 71.7

suspend rules, extending debate on motions to, § 71.14

Unanimous-consent agreement, effect of, on debate time or allocation of time—Cont.

termination of debate prior to fixed time, § 71.21

Union Calendar Bills, §§ 71.10, 71.11

Unanimous-consent agreement, effect of, on points of order, § 2.6Unanimous-consent requests and agreements (see also Unanimous-consent agreement, effect of, on debate time or allocation of time; Unanimous-consent agreement, effect of, on points of order)

address the House, Member be permitted to, at certain time, § 10.1

adjourn, permission for Majority Leader to announce legislative program pending motion to, § 10.28

Chair, discretion of, in recognizing for, §§ 10.1, 10.6–10.8, 10.10–10.25 committees permitted to sit by unanimous consent (under former practice), §§ 10.45, 11.15

conference report, Speaker declined to recognize for requests pending disposition of, § 10.8

Consent Calendar (under former rule), consideration of bills on, § 10.15 consideration, agreement waiving points of order against, of Senate amendment containing new budget authority in excess of ceiling, § 2.39 consideration of bills by, to be cleared with floor leadership, §§ 2.3, 2.4

consideration of measure, effect of unanimous consent for, on points of order against consideration, see Consideration, points of order against consideration of measure, Speaker may decline recognition for request for, §§ 10.10–10.26

cosponsors of bill, request to add Members as, § 10.39

Unanimous-consent requests and agreements (see also Unanimous-consent agreement, effect of, on debate time or allocation of time; Unanimous-consent agreement, effect of, on points of order)—Cont.

- debate, general, in Committee of the Whole as affected by unanimous-consent agreements in House, §§ 76.6–76.8
- debate on motion to instruct conferees extended by, after previous question ordered, § 17.2
- debate, reallocation of time for, where special rule had allocated time for general debate to primary committee, § 28.19
- debate, request for limitation on, not entertained during reading of amendment, § 10.41
- debate, request for limitation on, not entertained until resolution read or considered as read, § 10.40
- debate, request to close, ten minutes after subsequent amendment offered, § 10.42
- debate time in Committee of the Whole under hour rule, requests for extension of, §§ 75.5–75.7
- debate time, request for additional, where special rule has prescribed control of time, §§ 28.1, 28.2
- debate time, request for additional, where special rule has prohibited pro forma amendments, § 74.14
- debate time, request for additional, where special rule permits only specified amendments, §§ 74.14, 74.17
- debate time, request to extend, not entertained pending demand for recorded vote, § 10.43
- debate time under limitation, allocation of, by unanimous consent, §§ 26.24–26.26

Unanimous-consent requests and agreements (see also Unanimous-consent agreement, effect of, on debate time or allocation of time; Unanimous-consent agreement, effect of, on points of order)—Cont.

- debate under reservation of objection to, § 67.6
- discharge, Speaker may recognize for request prior to motion to, § 10.29
- document, House, request that speech made to joint meeting be printed as, § 10.36
- extensions of remarks, §§ 10.32–10.35
- future date, request to address House on, § 10.30
- joint meeting, request that speech made to, be printed as House document, § 10.36
- leadership, consultation with, prior to recognition for request to consider measure, §§ 10.16–10.25
- legislative business, request concerning, entertained during special orders, § 10.72
- legislative program, announcement of pending motion to adjourn, § 10.28
- non-Members to address House, request for consideration of resolution inviting, not entertained, § 10.44
- objection, recognition for does not extend recognition for opposition to motion, § 20.41
- objection, reservation of, charging time where debate is under, § 20.44
- objection, reservation of, effect of demand for regular order where debate is under, § 20.43
- objection, reservation of, Speaker may refuse to permit debate under, § 20.42
- objection to, is timely if entered before Chair has entered order on request, § 20.40

Unanimous-consent requests and agreements (see also Unanimous-consent agreement, effect of, on debate time or allocation of time; Unanimous-consent agreement, effect of, on points of order)—Cont.

objection to, Member seeking to make, must stand to be recognized, §§ 8.27–8.31

one-minute speeches, see One-minute speeches

one request pending at a time, § 10.2

parliamentary inquiry entertained to permit explanation of unanimous-consent order, § 8.31 party conference, Speaker declined to recognize for request for recess for, § 10.7

Private Calendar, request for restoration of bills to, § 10.27 program, legislative, permission for Majority Leader to announce, § 10.28 recess for party conference, Speaker declined to recognize for, § 10.7

recognition for, Chair may decline, §§ 9.33–9.37 recognition, Member to be accorded, at certain time, § 10.1

recognition, obtaining, to object or reserve right to object, §§ 10.3–10.5

rereference of bill, Speaker declined to recognize for request for, § 10.9

reserve right to object, obtaining recognition to, § 10.3

Senate amendments, to dispose of, see Senate amendments speak, Member to be allowed to, at certain time, § 10.1

special-order speeches, see Special-order speeches

special rule equally dividing time between proponent and opponent, allocation of time where no Member has claimed time in opposition under, § 74.18

Unanimous-consent requests and agreements (see also Unanimous-consent agreement, effect of, on debate time or allocation of time; Unanimous-consent agreement, effect of, on points of order)—Cont.

special rule, request to revoke or modify terms of, §§ 10.37, 10.38, 74.16

stand, member must, when objecting, § 10.4

vacated, proceedings by which amendment was adopted were, § 77.33

words, demand for taking down another Member's, request to be allowed to proceed for one minute pending, § 10.47

words, disorderly, request to withdraw, § 10.46

“Under debate,” motion to postpone consideration in order where measure is, § 2.41

Unfinished business, bill made in order by adoption of special rule does not necessarily become, § 28.4

Unfinished business, Chair as determining what is, § 9.1

Veto, control of debate on overriding, §§ 26.41, 26.42

Vetoed bill, debate on motion to postpone or refer, under hour rule, § 68.56

Vetoed bill, debate on, under hour rule, § 68.55

Words or statements considered to be improper (see also, e.g., Falseness, statements accusing Members of uttering; Motives of other Members, statements impugning)

“aid and comfort to the enemy,” President gave, § 51.30

blasphemous words, § 43.9

“canard,” Member alleged to be guilty of, § 63.1

Words or statements considered to be improper (see also, e.g., Falsehoods, statements accusing Members of uttering; Motives of other Members, statements impugning)—Cont.

“cheap,” § 49.32
 “cheap, sneaky, sly” way to operate, § 60.8
 committee or members, criticism of, see Committees, criticism of, as objectionable conduct similar to that alleged in pending complaint against another Member, § 49.33
 “cover-up,” allegation in Senate concerning, § 61.4
 “crybaby,” § 60.25
 “damn,” § 43.8
 debate on whether words are unparliamentary not allowed, §§ 6.15, 6.16, 50.7
 “deceptive” and “hypocritical,” § 58.12
 “demagogic or racist,” § 58.6
 “demagoguery” or “demagogues,” references to, §§ 60.3–60.6
 “disgraceful” argument or language, charging Member with using, §§ 59.3, 59.4
 election, “stealing,” § 53.7
 ethical “cloud,” references to Members or others who are under, § 60.16 “false and slanderous,” characterization of remarks as, § 63.4
 FBI record of Member, reference to, § 60.24 gain, personal, alleged to be motive, § 62.8
 “guts,” Members described as lacking, § 61.14
 honesty and motives, words impugning, objected to without demand words be taken down, § 49.34

Words or statements considered to be improper (see also, e.g., Falsehoods, statements accusing Members of uttering; Motives of other Members, statements impugning)—Cont.

“hypocrisy” adding “malice” to “falsehood” or “cowardice,” § 63.6
 “hypocrisy,” characterization of Vice-Presidential candidate’s acts and words as, § 49.17
 “hypocritical” and “deceptive,” § 58.12
 “hypothetical” reference referred to identifiable Member, § 60.29 identifiable group of sitting Members, allegation as to “stealing” election pertained to, § 53.7
 incapable of telling whether document was forged, Member accused of being, § 64.4
 “lies and half-truths” of committee report, telegram referring to, read in House, § 63.5
 “lowest thing that I have ever seen,” Speaker’s characterization of remarks as, § 59.9
 lynching, allegations as to party’s view of, § 53.3 “overbearing” manner of Member, reference to, § 60.23
 party’s view of lynching, allegations as to, § 53.3 personal gain alleged to be motive, § 62.8
 personal privilege, press accounts of Member’s criticisms of another Member as giving rise to, § 60.27 physical characteristics of Member, comment on, § 60.23, 61.1 “pinko,” § 61.9
 profanity, §§ 43.6–43.9
 race, reference to, see Race, references to, as objectionable; Racism or prejudice, statements accusing Member of, as objectionable

Words or statements considered to be improper (see also, e.g., Falsehoods, statements accusing Members of uttering; Motives of other Members, statements impugning)—Cont.

“racist, demagogic or,” § 58.6

Record, insertions in, of press accounts critical of Member, § 60.28

Senate or Senators, references to, see

Senate or Senators, references to sincerity, attack on Member’s, § 63.7

“sly,” § 49.32

“sneaky,” § 49.32

“sneaky,” “cheap,” “sly” way to operate, § 60.8

“snooper,” Member described as, § 61.11

Standards of Official Conduct, Committee on, remarks on conduct of Member where report has not been filed by, § 57.5

Standards of Official Conduct, effect of consideration of disciplinary matters by Committee on, on propriety of remarks on floor, §§ 60.11 et seq., 60.29

“stealing” election, § 53.7

“stolen” a seat, Members had, § 49.30

“stool pigeon,” § 61.12

tone of voice as offensive, § 60.21

unspecified Members, words questioning, § 49.37

“wild man,” Member described as acting like, § 61.1

Words or statements considered to be proper (see also, e.g., Words or statements considered to be improper)

Armed Forces, Member accused of depriving members of, of right to vote, §§ 62.3, 62.4

“assassinate” character, charge that remarks in debate tended to, § 59.8

Words or statements considered to be proper (see also, e.g., Words or statements considered to be improper)—Cont.

associations or groups, references to, § 43.2

“blind,” “slavish,” and “shameful” opposition to legislative measure, § 58.7

campaign expenses, certain remarks about payment of, § 53.1

committee or members, criticism of, see Committees, criticism of, as objectionable communist, reference to Lincoln as, § 43.3

confusing the issue, accusing Member of, § 59.1

congressional payroll, query as to whether committee found agents of Hitler on, § 54.12

Congress, statements critical of, that are not a personal reflection on individual Members, § 53.1

“consistency is a virtue of small minds,” § 62.2

“crime” proper word in context, § 50.6

“crime,” reference to Member’s remarks as, § 59.2

“damnable,” § 43.7

debate on whether words are unparliamentary not allowed, §§ 6.15, 6.16

“defense of our country,” Member accused of opposition to, § 62.5

“demagoguery” in debate, occasion on which reference to, was held in order, § 60.5

demand for taking down the words characterized as “unfair stealing of time,” § 59.10

dictator, charge that Members had praised, § 60.10

dignity and honor, House could proceed with greater, § 53.6

Words or statements considered to be proper (see also, e.g., Words or statements considered to be improper)—Cont.

disciplinary proceedings, reference to, §§ 35.13, 60.11 et seq.

“English,” questioning whether Member could understand, § 64.1

indictment of Member read into Congressional Record without objection, § 60.13

intemperate, reference to another’s statement as, §§ 59.5, 59.6

“irresponsible actions by members of” party, § 53.2

judgment of unspecified Members, words questioning, § 49.37 legislative position, motives for, §§ 62.3, 62.6

loose talk, accusing opponents of measure of, § 58.8

minority groups, references, to members of, §§ 43.4, 43.5, 56.5

motivation other than objective concern, reference to, § 53.6

opportunism, reference to Member’s leading the opposition party in policy of, § 53.5

party, “irresponsible actions by members of,” § 53.2

political motivations, allegation concerning, § 62.6

race, reference to, see Race, references to, as objectionable; Racism or prejudice, statements accusing Member of, as objectionable reckless with truth, accusing opponents of measure of being, § 58.8

“represent,” charge that another Member did not, certain groups in district, § 60.7

Senate, references to, see Senate or Senators, references to

Words or statements considered to be proper (see also, e.g., Words or statements considered to be improper)—Cont.

simple form, request that bill be printed in, so members of opposing party could understand it, § 53.4

“sinister” influences on those conducting filibuster, § 58.9

“skin us,” opposition accused of attempting to, § 61.10

“slavish,” “shameful,” and “blind” opposition to legislative measure, § 58.7

“slippery, snide, and sharp practices” did not reflect on any Member, § 58.5

“spurious reasoning” of American Medical Association, § 43.2

Standards of Official Conduct, reference to matters pending before Committee on, § 35.13

state or region, references to, § 43.1

syllable, one, request that bill be printed in words of, § 53.4

“unilateral disarmament,” reference to Members as advocating, § 60.21

“yapping,” § 61.13

Words, taking down the (see also, e.g., Words or statements considered to be improper)

generally, §§ 48.12, 48.13, 49.1 et seq.

appeals from rulings, §§ 50.8, 50.9, 59.2

appeals from rulings in Senate, § 50.11

Chairman of Committee of the Whole does not make ruling, § 50.9

colloquial expressions, dictionary definition of, given weight, § 50.4

colloquialisms, see Colloquialisms, objectionable use of Committee of the Whole, demand for reporting of additional words uttered in, § 49.39

Committee ordered to resume its sitting, point of order of no quorum not in order after, § 49.41

Words, taking down the (see also, e.g., Words or statements considered to be improper)—Cont.

committee proceedings, unreported, references to, see Committee proceedings, unreported, objectionable references to Committee resumes sitting automatically after ruling, § 49.42 committees, criticism of, see Committees, criticism of, as objectionable consequences of ruling, House determines, § 50.9

context, Speaker ordered clerk to report additional words to provide, § 50.6

“cover-up,” allegation in Senate concerning, § 61.4

debate, criticism of tactics in, see Tactics in debate, objectionable references to debate, freedom of, Speaker gives weight to, § 50.2

debate on motion to strike, § 51.26

“demagoguery,” references to, §§ 60.3–60.6

dictionary, reliance on, in making ruling, § 50.4

disciplinary action, House decides on, §§ 51.27, 51.37

disciplinary proceedings, references to, §§ 35.13, 60.11 et seq.

“dumb interpretation” of amendment, remarks charging Member with, withdrawn before ruling, § 64.3

explanation given by Member of usage, § 50.3

explanation of words by Member called to order, §§ 52.15, 52.16

expunging remarks from Record, §§ 51.18, 51.20 et seq.

falsehoods, see Falsehoods, statements accusing Members of uttering

Words, taking down the (see also, e.g., Words or statements considered to be improper)—Cont.

floor, member called to order as losing, § 33.1

free debate, weight given to preservation of, § 50.2

House decides on disciplinary action, §§ 51.27, 51.37

identifying words to be taken down, requirement of, § 49.2

individual Members, objectionable words as reflecting on, §§ 53.1, 53.7, 66.2, 66.3, 66.5, 66.11

integrity, impugning, §§ 49.35, 49.36

intelligence, attack on Member’s, see Intelligence, statements impugning Member’s, as objectionable interpreting point of order as demand that words be taken down, § 49.38 intervening debate, demand not timely if made after, §§ 49.6–49.12

“Jewish gentleman from New York,” reference to, § 56.5

legislative actions or proposals, criticisms of, see Legislative actions or proposals, criticism of, as objectionable loyalty, questioning Member’s, see Loyalty, statements questioning Member’s

“ludicrous” argument, charge that Member made, § 59.7

motion by House may dictate consequences of ruling, § 50.9

motions and requests pending demand, §§ 49.14–49.17 motion to proceed in order, see Permission to explain or proceed after demand that words be taken down motion to strike, debate on, § 51.26 motion to strike words, amendment proposing to strike words of another Member not germane to, § 51.32

Words, taking down the (see also, e.g., Words or statements considered to be improper)—Cont.

motion to strike words from Record, §§ 51.18, 51.20 et seq.

motion to table a motion to strike words, § 51.31 motives of Members, statements impugning, see Motives of other Members, statements impugning motives of Senators, demand that references to, be stricken, § 49.40

multiple demands, § 49.13

overuse of practice, Speaker drew attention to, § 49.1

papers read during debate, unparliamentary reference in, § 49.12

pending, motions and requests while demand is, §§ 49.14–49.17 permission to explain or proceed after demand that words be taken down, see Permission to explain or proceed after demand that words be taken down personalities, rule against indulging in, generally, §§ 60.1 et seq.

personal privilege, language inserted under leave to revise and extend remarks as raising question of, § 48.16 personal privilege, language uttered on floor is not basis of question of, §§ 48.14–48.18, 61.5

personal privilege, press accounts of Member's criticisms of another Member as giving rise to, § 60.27

physical characteristics, reference to, § 61.1

point of order interpreted after inquiry as demand that words be taken down, § 49.38 precedent, weight given to, in making ruling, § 50.1

privilege of the House, language uttered on floor is not basis of question of, § 48.15

Words, taking down the (see also, e.g., Words or statements considered to be improper)—Cont.

privilege of the House, resolution to expunge words as question of, §§ 51.33–51.35 proceed, House determines whether Member may, § 50.9

proceed in order, Chair's request that Member, in absence of demand that words be taken down, § 49.34 race or racism, references to, see Race, references to, as objectionable; Racism or prejudice, statements accusing Member of, as objectionable reasons for demand, debating, § 49.18

Record, motion to strike words from, § 52.14

Record, motion to strike words from, debate on, § 51.26

Record, striking words from, §§ 51.18, 51.20 et seq.

Record, striking words from, as question of privilege of the House, §§ 51.33–51.35 reported, consideration limited to words, § 49.3

reported to House, demand that additional words uttered in Committee of the Whole be, § 49.39 reported, words, ruling as confined to, § 50.10

resumes sitting, Committee of the Whole, after ruling in House, § 49.42 revising and extending remarks, Member was granted privilege of, after proceedings under which words were taken down, § 51.19 ruling by Speaker, generally, §§ 50.1 et seq.

seat, Member required to take, after demand, §§ 49.19, 49.20

Senate, allegation in, concerning "cover-up," § 61.4

Words, taking down the (see also, e.g., Words or statements considered to be improper)—Cont.

Senate practice, § 50.11
 simultaneous reporting of remarks of two Members in debate, § 49.13
 Speaker, criticism of, see Speaker, criticism of, as objectionable Speaker rules on propriety of words, §§ 50.5, 50.7, 50.9
 Speaker's characterization of remarks as "lowest thing that I have ever seen," § 59.9
 specifying words to be taken down, requirement of, § 49.2
 stricken, objection was made to unanimous-consent request that offending language be, § 49.17 striking words from Record, §§ 51.18, 51.20 et seq., 52.14 striking words from Record as question of privilege of the House, §§ 51.33–51.35 striking words from Record, debate on, § 51.26 striking words from Record, resolution, where words not taken down, § 51.17 suspended, business as, pending demand, §§ 49.21, 49.22, 49.32 tactics in debate, criticism of, see Tactics in debate, objectionable references to time, demand characterized as unfair stealing of, § 59.10 time for making motions, §§ 51.21–51.23 timeliness of demand, §§ 49.6–49.12, 49.35, 49.38, 62.12 timely, Chair may caution Members even where demand is not, §§ 49.35, 49.36
 tone of voice as offensive, § 60.21
 unanimous-consent requests or motions pending demand, §§ 49.14–49.17

Words, taking down the (see also, e.g., Words or statements considered to be improper)—Cont.

unanimous consent to withdraw words before ruling, §§ 51.1–51.15, 51.25, 52.1, 52.2
 "unilateral disarmament," reference to Members as advocating, § 60.21
 unspecified Members, words questioning judgment of, §§ 49.37 vote or demand for vote, Member called to order not barred from, § 49.23 withdrawal of demand that words be taken down, § 51.16 withdrawal of offending words, §§ 49.28–49.31 withdrawal of resolution to censure Member for words spoken, § 51.28 withdrawal of words before ruling, §§ 49.28–49.31, 51.1–51.15, 51.25, 52.1, 52.2, 59.7, 61.7
 withdrawal of words to which timely objection had not been made, § 51.24 withdrawing demand, §§ 49.24–49.27, 49.37
Yeas and nays, Chair declined to recognize Member to demand, during count on division vote, § 9.38
Yeas and nays, seeking recognition to ask for, see Recognition
Yielding back time in opposition where no other Member seeks recognition in opposition, § 11.18
Yielding time for debate allocation to others of time yielded, §§ 31.19–31.27
 amendment, may not offer, in time yielded for debate, §§ 19.28, 29.19, 29.20 amendment, Member recognized to debate, may yield, §§ 31.3, 31.4 amendment not allowed without unanimous consent in time yielded for debate, § 31.6

Yielding time for debate—Cont.

amendment to substitute offered during time yielded by opponent of substitute where debate time allocated under limitation, § 30.25 block of time, Member yielded time by manager as yielding, by unanimous consent, § 29.28

Budget Act as permitting Member in control to yield more than one hour, § 31.38

Chair, Member requesting another to yield should address, § 29.1

Chair, Member yielded to is not entitled to floor until recognized by, § 29.2

charging time yielded to Member with floor, §§ 29.5–29.7

discharge, Member in control of debate on motion to, §§ 31.14–31.16 discharge, Member recognized in opposition to motion to, as yielding time, §§ 31.14, 31.16

disciplinary resolution, division of time on, § 24.34

discretionary, yielding is, with Members having control, §§ 29.12–29.14, 31.1, 31.2

five-minute rule, one recognized under, may yield, §§ 31.3, 31.4, 77.27, 77.28

further yielding time, Member to whom time has been yielded as, §§ 29.28–29.31

general debate, yielding control of, §§ 26.29–26.31 hour, Member recognized for one, may yield time where time for debate in Committee of the Whole not fixed, § 31.5

hour rule, exception to, under Budget Act, § 31.38

irrelevant matter, unanimous consent required where Member yielded to speak on, § 31.12

Yielding time for debate—Cont.

joint use of yielded time, § 31.13

limited and divided, yielding where control of time under five-minute rule has been, §§ 31.7–31.11

Majority Leader recognized on privileged resolution yielded one half time to Minority Leader, § 31.37

microphone at majority or minority table should be used for questions to Member speaking from well of the House, § 29.3

motion that committee rise not in order in time yielded for debate, §§ 29.21, 30.29, 76.13 parliamentary inquiries may be made in time yielded for debate, § 29.22

parliamentary inquiry, Member recognized for, may not yield time, § 29.27

previously spoken, yielding to Member who has, § 31.4

previous question, Member may not move, during time yielded for debate, § 31.18

previous question terminates time yielded, § 31.17 previous question, yielding back time without moving, §§ 29.9, 29.10 question, Member propounding, should speak from microphone at majority or minority table, § 29.3

reading paper, yielding to another for purpose of, retaining floor while, § 29.17 recognition, power of, resides in chair and Member may not yield to himself for debate, § 14.5

reference to another Member, one who has floor not required to yield because of, § 31.2

relevant, unanimous consent required where Member yielded to speaks on matters not, § 31.12 repeatedly yielding to same Members, § 29.4

Yielding time for debate—Cont.

repeatedly yielding to same Member where special rule provides for control of time, § 28.29 reservation of objection, Member in control under, may yield, § 31.34

reserving unused portion of yielded time is by unanimous consent, § 31.35 reversion of time yielded back to Member in control, § 31.36

reversion of unused time yielded, § 29.16

rise, may not offer motion that Committee of the Whole, in time yielded for debate, §§ 29.21, 30.29, 76.13

“self,” yielding time to, under five-minute rule, § 77.30

sharing yielded time, § 31.13

special-order speeches, yielding during, § 10.78

special-order speech, Member recognized for, may yield portion of time to be further yielded, § 31.39 specific amount of time, one yielded to may not yield except by unanimous consent, § 31.20 standing, Member yielding time should remain, §§ 29.8, 31.24, 31.25 standing, Member yielding was not required to remain, §§ 31.23, 31.40 strike enacting clause, Member opposed to motion to, may not extend time by using yielded time, § 31.33 strike enacting clause, offeror of motion to, may yield portion of time, § 31.32 time for debate in Committee of the Whole not fixed, Member recognized for one hour may yield where, § 31.5

time for general debate not fixed, Member first recognized may yield portions of hour where, § 24.35

Yielding time for debate—Cont.

unanimous consent, additional time is obtained from Members in control and not by, § 31.30 unanimous consent, allocating time to third Member by, §§ 31.20–31.27 unanimous-consent request, time consumed under reservation of objection to, charged to Member yielding for request, § 29.25 unused portion of yielded time, reservation of, is by unanimous consent, § 31.35

unused time reverts to Member who yielded, § 29.16

yielded time, may not yield, for purpose other than debate, § 31.19

Yielding time for offering amendments balance of time was yielded to Member who then offered amendment, § 30.27 control of floor, Member yielding loses, §§ 30.7–30.13, 67.11

five-minute rule, Member recognized under, may not yield for amendment, §§ 8.16, 9.20, 30.18–30.24, 30.27, 77.29

Floor Member who yields as Losing, §§ 33.4–33.9

House, amendment of amendment in nature of substitute in, § 30.3

House, amendment of bill in, § 30.2

House, amendment of pending motion in, § 30.1

House, amendment of privileged resolution in, § 30.5

House, amendment of resolution raising privileges of, § 30.4

limitation, amendment to substitute offered during time yielded by opponent of substitute where debate time allocated under, § 30.25 limitation, offering amendments in time yielded by Members in control under, § 30.26

Yielding time for offering amendments—Cont.

recommit, Member speaking in opposition to motion to, may not yield for amendment, § 30.6

unanimous consent to yield balance of time to Member who thereafter offers amendment, § 9.20

Yielding time for offering motions adjourn, yielding for motion to, §§ 30.16, 30.17

deferring to another to offer motion to dispose of Senate amendment in disagreement, § 30.15

Yielding time for offering motions—Cont.

one-minute speech, Member recognized for, could not yield for motion to restore bill to Private Calendar, § 30.30 preferential motion, Member in control does not yield to another to offer, § 30.28

Private Calendar, motion to restore bill to, Member recognized for one-minute speech could not yield for, § 30.30

rise, motion that Committee of the Whole, § 30.29