

THE 10TH ANNIVERSARY OF THE
BLACK HEALTH COALITION OF WISCONSIN

HON. THOMAS M. BARRETT

OF WISCONSIN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 9, 1998

Mr. BARRETT of Wisconsin. Mr. Speaker, The Black Health Coalition of Wisconsin will celebrate tonight its 10th anniversary and its commitment to improving the health status of African-Americans in the state of Wisconsin.

Since 1988, The Black Health Coalition has dedicated itself to insuring that all people in Wisconsin enjoy equitable and comprehensive health. At its inception, twelve organizations that shared a common commitment bonded together to forge a partnership in health. Their efforts have translated into today's Black Health Coalition which reaches the lives of thousands of people in Wisconsin.

Today's celebration has an appropriate theme: "And Still We Rise." It is appropriate because it speaks to the commitment of the Black Health Coalition of Wisconsin to continue its important work. It is appropriate because it indicates the Black Health Coalition's pride in its work. And it is appropriate because it conveys the message that the Black Health Coalition works on behalf of everyone and excluded no one.

I congratulate the Black Health coalition on its ten years of remarkable achievements and fantastic efforts on behalf of the people of Wisconsin, and especially the people of my home city of Milwaukee.

DEICE HONORED

HON. PAUL E. KANJORSKI

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 9, 1998

Mr. KANJORSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise to day to pay tribute to James J. Deice, the 1998 Person of the year of the Italian-American Association of Luzerne County. I am proud to have been asked to participate in the Association's annual Columbus Day Dinner on October 11.

Jim played both football and track as a student at West Pittston High School. He majored in English at the University of Scranton and graduated with a B.A. in Education in 1969. He later obtained his Master's degree from West Chester University, Penn State University and University of Scranton.

After graduating from college, Jim took a teaching job in Royersford, Pennsylvania but in 1972, he returned to Northeastern Pennsylvania to teach English at Pittston Area Senior High School. Jim also coached Pittston Area's track, football and wrestling teams. He coached the wrestling team to its first-ever District Title in 1996-97. For this achievement, he was honored by his fellow coaches as Coach of the Year. He retired from coaching in 1997. That same year, Jim received the Gerard M. Musto Teacher of the Year Award from the National Honor Society at Pittston Area.

In addition to teaching and coaching, Jim has made his commitment to our community clear by his involvement in numerous activities outside of school. He is a member of the Knights of Columbus, UNICO, and the Serradifalco Society. He is Chairman of the Pittston City Parking Authority and is active with the Pittston Tomato Festival Committee, co-chairing the parade for that yearly event. For five years, Jim chaired the track-and-field events for the Special Olympics of Luzerne County. During the 10 years Jim has been a member of the Italian-American Association, he has served as President and chaired several communities. He is currently the Chairman of the Association's Board of Directors.

Mr. Speaker, I am proud to bring the many accomplishments of Jim Deice to the attention of my colleagues. Jim is a community leader and outstanding role model for the youths he helps to shape each day. I applaud the Italian-American Association for their choice of honoree this year and send my best wishes to Jim and his family as he accepts this prestigious honor.

TRIBUTE TO THE HONORABLE GERALD SOLOMON

SPEECH OF

HON. JOHN D. DINGELL

OF MICHIGAN

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, October 6, 1998

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize my good friend and colleague who has served his constituents and the United States well during his tenure in Congress. He has served this great institution for the last 20 years as a Member of the United States House of Representatives, and a total of 31 years as a public servant.

Congressman SOLOMON and I have worked together on many issues sometimes on opposite sides, but we have remained friends and always strived for bi-partisanship on issues of importance to our constituents and to the people of the United States.

My friend, "Closed-rule" SOLOMON's service on the Rules Committee is exemplary and he will be missed.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues to join me in honoring an extraordinary man who has spent his career as a public servant helping others. I will miss him and his wisdom, but I know that he will not be far away. I salute him and his accomplishments. I have enjoyed working with him in the House of Representatives.

A TRIBUTE TO DR. MICHAEL DOSIK OF JOHN T. MATHER HOSPITAL

HON. MICHAEL P. FORBES

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 9, 1998

Mr. FORBES. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in the U.S. House of Representatives to join my voice with the John T. Mather Hospital community as we honor Dr. Michael Dosik for his many years of outstanding service and leadership, including his tenure as the chief of Mather Hospital's Division of Hematology/Oncology since 1981.

On Friday evening, October 23, hundreds of friends, volunteers and staff will gather for Mather Hospital's 33rd annual "One Enchanted Evening" fundraising dinner. At this year's gala, Dr. Dosik will be honored with the "Theodore Roosevelt Award" for his dedicated volunteer service to Mather Hospital and the community it serves. This year, in recognition of October as National Breast Cancer Awareness Month, the proceeds from Mather Hospital's annual benefit will go to the Fortunato Breast Health Center and Breast Cancer Treatment.

It is fitting that Dr. Dosik should be honored on the same evening that Mather Hospital will raise money for breast cancer treatment. Since receiving his medical degree from Cornell University in 1966, Dr. Dosik has dedicated his professional career to the treatment of malignant diseases. As an oncology-generalist, Dr. Dosik is recognized for his continuing efforts to introduce innovative therapeutic interventions to his patients. He is greatly respected by peers and patients alike for his medical insight and compassionate, humane approach to treating the person, as well as the disease.

That Mather Hospital's October 23, benefit for the Fortunato Breast Health Center and Breast Cancer Treatment is of particular importance to Dr. Dosik, for he serves as the Center's Co-Medical Director and chairs the weekly breast cancer conference. He has also made significant contributions as an active member of the American Cancer Society and Long Island Cancer Council. He resides in Setauket, Long Island with his wife Lyn and their Daughter Diana. He and Lyn also have a 23-year-old daughter, Lia.

So, Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues in the U.S. House of Representatives to join the entire John T. Mather Hospital community as we honor Dr. Michael Dosik, a very deserving recipient of the "Theodore Roosevelt Award" for his dedicated service to the hospital and our entire Long Island community.

THE REPUBLIC OF CHINA'S NATIONAL DAY

HON. EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON

OF TEXAS

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 9, 1998

Ms. EDDIE BERNICE JOHNSON of Texas. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to express my congratulations to the Republic of China. Tomorrow, October 10, 1998, is Taiwan's National Day. Taiwan is a country fondly known as the "Little Tiger." Rightfully so, Taiwan has a strong economy and is an excellent trading partner for countries like the United States. In fact, Taiwan is our sixth largest trading partner.

In the last few years, Taiwan's economy has grown at a spectacular rate and has become one of the wealthiest nations in the world. Taiwan's wealth can be seen in their strong manufacturing industry and in their citizens' commitment to make Taiwan an effective trading partner. Taiwan has done remarkably well during the Asian financial crisis, and I hope that Taiwan will continue to prosper.

IN RECOGNITION OF JAMES F. McCONNELL UPON HIS RETIREMENT AS PRESIDENT AND CEO OF THE FLUSHING SAVINGS BANK

HON. GARY L. ACKERMAN

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 9, 1998

Mr. ACKERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to join with my constituents of the Fifth Congressional District of the State of New York and the staff of the Flushing Savings Bank as they honor James F. McConnell upon his retirement as the bank's president and CEO.

Mr. McConnell's background is both diverse and effective. Prior to his election as president of the Flushing Savings Bank he held prominent management positions with AMBAC Industries of Garden City, New York and the EDO Corporation of College Point. He joined the Flushing Savings Bank in 1974 as Vice-president and Treasurer. Realizing his keen sense of leadership and a most effective approach to getting things done, the bank appointed him president in 1981, appointed him to its board of directors in 1983 and elected him Chief Executive Officer in 1990.

Mr. McConnell's multiple leadership talents reach far beyond the Flushing Savings Bank. He has served on the Board of Directors of the Community Bankers Association of New York State from 1987 to 1997 and served as the Association's Chairman from 1990-1991. He was highly instrumental in negotiations which led to the successful merger of the Savings Bank Association of New York State with the New York League of Savings Institutions, thereby creating the Community Bankers Association.

Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues in the House of Representatives to join with me and rise in honor of James F. McConnell, who has imparted a sense of professionalism, leadership and community responsibility. His record is one of dynamism and productivity which readily emerges as a yardstick by which all such future efforts are measured.

TRIBUTE TO DR. TOM GIUGNI

HON. STEPHEN HORN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 9, 1998

Mr. HORN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to Dr. Tom Giugni, who is retiring as Executive Director of the Association of California School Administrators. Dr. Giugni's retirement marks the end of a 40-year career of service in public education.

Public schools are filled with dedicated people whose main objective is to make life better for the students and the communities which they serve. But on occasion, there are those who outshine even the brightest educators. Dr. Giugni is such a person. Teachers, parents, administrators, and the business community have consistently looked to him for ideas, direction, and inspiration in serving students.

Dr. Giugni's distinguished career began humbly in 1956 as a substitute teacher in St. Helena, California. Five years later, he had worked his way up to the level of principal in the St. Helena Unified School District, and he has never looked back. He has served six different California school districts, including four as Superintendent. I had the pleasure of working with Dr. Giugni when, during his tenure as Superintendent of the Long Beach Unified School District, he served on the Education Advisory Committee of the Graduate School of Education at California State University, Long Beach, where I was president.

He was a dynamic Superintendent. Under his leadership, the Long Beach district became one of the most decentralized in the United States. The central bureaucracy was cut back. Creativity and innovation became the watchwords in the schools. Parent councils were created. Parents played an increasing role. Principals worked to encourage the best ideas and performance from their faculty.

For the first time in California the elementary and secondary schools were closely linked with a major university, California State University, Long Beach. Many post-secondary institutions have their education majors intern in the schools. But the CSULB Long Beach Unified School District was a true partnership in which university students and faculty members as well as student organizations across the university involved themselves with the schools and their students.

Dr. Giugni has further served California through active participation in numerous civic and professional organizations, including as a member of area Chambers of Commerce and Industry Education Councils, an advisor to California colleges and universities, and an advocate of events to fight cancer and drug abuse. His knowledge and expertise have been recognized by several respected educational journals who have published his articles, and he has received countless awards honoring his leadership.

Dr. Giugni committed his career to improving education. His genuine concern for students, his vision, and his ability to rally support for public schools will be greatly missed. All of us who know him wish him well and doubt that he will be inactive in retirement.

A TRIBUTE TO DR. HARISH MALHOTRA OF JOHN T. MATHER HOSPITAL

HON. MICHAEL P. FORBES

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 9, 1998

Mr. FORBES. Mr. Speaker, I rise today in the House of Representatives to join with the staff and patrons of John T. Mather Hospital as they honor Dr. Harish Malhotra of Shoreham, Long Island, with the "Theodore Roosevelt Award" for his dedicated service to Mather Hospital and the Long Island community.

On Friday evening, October 23, hundreds of friends, volunteers and staff will gather for Mather Hospital's 33rd annual "One Enchanted Evening" fundraising dinner. This year, in recognition of October as National Breast Cancer Awareness Month, the proceeds from Mather Hospital's annual benefit will go to the Fortunato Breast Health Center and Breast Cancer Treatment.

A native of India, where he earned distinction as a "Gold Medal" doctor at the University of New Delhi for his work in surgery, Dr. Malhotra has achieved great success as a surgeon because he remains an avid student of his craft. A voracious reader, Dr. Malhotra is dedicated to the continual development of his talent for healing the sick and injured. "If you don't read a lot and keep constant," Dr. Malhotra said, "you can't take good care of your patients." Because of his lifelong pursuit of knowledge and inner desire to make the absolute most of his skills, Dr. Malhotra is able to take very good care of his patients.

It was while researching innovative surgical technologies that Dr. Malhotra learned of the bold, new bone marrow and stem cell transplants. Moved by the positive results of these surgical techniques, Dr. Malhotra founded the first Bone Marrow and Peripheral Blood Stem Cell Transplantation Program in Suffolk County, one of the most successful programs of its kind in the United States.

When he's not working with his patients or reading up on the latest surgical techniques, Dr. Malhotra is usually found on the golf course, or spending time with his wife Maureen and six-year-old son Kiran.

So, Mr. Speaker, I ask my colleagues in the U.S. House of Representatives to join the entire John T. Mather Hospital community as we honor Dr. Harish Malhotra, a very deserving recipient of the "Theodore Roosevelt Award" for his dedicated service to the hospital and our entire Long Island community.

CITIZENS' VOICE CELEBRATES 20TH ANNIVERSARY

HON. PAUL E. KANJORSKI

OF PENNSYLVANIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Friday, October 9, 1998

Mr. KANJORSKI. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to pay tribute to the Citizens' Voice newspaper of Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania, which is celebrating its twentieth anniversary on October 9, 1998. Despite tremendous obstacles, the Citizens' Voice has survived and thrived as a daily newspaper in a competitive market.

In the fall of 1978, 205 employees of the Wilkes-Barre Publishing Company who were on strike decided to create their own paper. That decision led to the publishing of the first edition of the Citizens' Voice. Since then, the paper has grown to a circulation of approximately 38,000. During that time, the Voice has received numerous awards from local and state professional organizations.

The Voice's first "home" was a building scheduled for demolition by the Redevelopment Authority on North Main Street in Wilkes-Barre. In early 1979, the Voice moved to the mezzanine of the Hotel Sterling in the heart of downtown Wilkes-Barre. In June of 1984, the Voice moved to its present headquarters on North Washington Street in Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. Speaker, not too many cities the size of Wilkes-Barre have two daily newspapers anymore, but I think the presence of both papers has led to an improvement in the quality of coverage provided to area residents. I applaud the Citizens' Voice for its twenty years of excellence and wish the paper future success.
