

Civil Rights leader Reverend Ronald I. Schupp. For the past two years, Reverend Schupp has held a peaceful twenty-four hour fast and vigil outside of the Chinese Consulate in Chicago calling upon the government of the People's Republic of China to grant independence to Tibet and its people.

This vigil has been held on March 10, now known as Tibetan National Day, recognizing for thirty-nine years the ongoing efforts of the Tibetan people to gain their freedom.

The 14th Dalai Lama, who in 1989 won the Nobel Peace Prize for his continuing efforts for a nonviolent peaceful solution to end the occupation of Tibet, is still laboring ceaselessly to accomplish this goal. I fully support Reverend Schupp and the vigil he is once again undertaking.

TRIBUTE TO THE WOMEN'S RESOURCE CENTER CALIFORNIA LUTHERAN UNIVERSITY

HON. BRAD SHERMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, March 9, 1998

Mr. SHERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to recognize the Women's Resource Center of California Lutheran University. This organization will celebrate their Nineteenth Annual "Creative Options—A Day for Women" on Saturday, March 7th.

March has been designated "Women's History Month" by the Congress of the United States as a tribute to American women of every race, class and ethnic background that have made historic contributions to the growth and strength of our Nation. Women have played and continue to play a critical economic, cultural and social role in every aspect of American life. They serve as leaders in the forefront of every major progressive movement for social change and have worked to create a more fair and just society for all. And though our country has come a long way in recognizing the talents and accomplishments of women, there are still hurdles to be overcome.

The Women's Resource Center offers many services to women, from academic resources to emotional support. In addition, they sponsor a variety of forums aimed at facilitating discussions on the leadership role of women in our community. Creative Options is a day for women to come together to discuss their experiences. This day of reflection is spent listening and talking with each other about hardships associated with being a woman in today's society. From sharing personal stories, women learn from each other how to cope with struggles in their careers, families, and daily lives. With an emphasis on renewal and growth, many view the day as an opportunity to work toward self-improvement.

Throughout this month, schools, businesses and organizations will pay tribute to the role women have played in our country's history. However, the Women's Resource Center of California Lutheran University is an organization that works throughout the year to provide women with strength and support in every area of their lives. Mr. Speaker, distinguished colleagues, please join me in honoring the work they have already done and continue to do.

ANNOUNCEMENT OF THE 1998 CONGRESS-BUNDESTAG STAFF EXCHANGE

HON. RALPH REGULA

OF OHIO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, March 9, 1998

Mr. REGULA. Mr. Speaker, since 1983, the U.S. Congress and the German Parliament have conducted an annual exchange program for staff members from both countries. The program gives professional staff the opportunity to observe and learn about each other's political institutions and convey Members' views on issues of mutual concern.

A staff delegation from the United States Congress are being chosen to visit Germany March 22 to April 4 of this year. During the 2-week exchange, the delegation will attend meetings with Bundestag members, Bundestag party staff members, and representatives of numerous political, business, academic, and media agencies. Cultural activities and a weekend visit in a Bundestag Member's district will complete the schedule.

A comparable delegation of German staff members will visit the United States for 3 weeks this summer. They will attend similar meetings here in Washington and visit the districts of congressional Members.

The Congress-Bundestag is highly regarded in Germany and is one of several exchange programs sponsored by public and private institutions in the United States and Germany to foster better understanding of the politics and policies of both countries. The ongoing situation in Bosnia, the future expansion of NATO and the proposed expansion of the European Union, as well as plans for a single currency will make this year's exchange particularly relevant.

The U.S. delegation should consist of experienced and accomplished Hill staff members who can contribute to the success of the exchange on both sides of the Atlantic. The Bundestag sends senior staff professionals to the United States.

Applicants should have a demonstrable interest in events in Europe. Applicants need not be working in the field of foreign affairs, although such a background can be helpful. The composite U.S. delegation should exhibit a range of expertise in issues of mutual concern in Germany and the United States such as, but not limited to, trade, security, the environment, immigration, economic development, health care, and other social policy issues.

In addition, U.S. participants are expected to help plan and implement the program for the Bundestag staff members when they visit the United States. Participants are expected to assist in planning topical meetings in Washington, and are encouraged to host one or two Bundestag staffers in their Member's district over the Fourth of July break, or to arrange for such a visit to another Member's district.

Participants are being selected by a committee composed of U.S. Information Agency personnel and past participants of the exchange.

Senators and Representatives who would like a member of their staff to apply for participation in this year's program should direct them to submit a résumé and cover letter in which they state why they believe they are qualified and some assurances of their ability to participate during the time stated. Applications may be sent to Connie Veillette at 2309

Rayburn Building by noon on Friday, March 13.

COMMEMORATION OF STEPHEN S.
WISE TEMPLE

HON. BRAD SHERMAN

OF CALIFORNIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Monday, March 9, 1998

Mr. SHERMAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to commemorate the 34th Anniversary of the Stephen S. Wise Temple, which will be celebrated on March 8, 1998. I would also like to take this opportunity to acknowledge Rabbi Isaiah Zeldin, Rabbi Eli Herscher, Rabbi Leah Kroll, Rabbi Alan Rabishaw, Rabbi Toba August, Cantor Nathan Lam, Cantor Linda Kates, President Steven J. Fogel, and the other members of their dynamic staff.

The Talmud states that "He who does charity and justice is as if he had filled the whole world with kindness." In the spirit of such words, innovative volunteers actively participate in delivering tremendous support to the "Biggest Little Temple in the World," selflessly dedicating their time and energy to enriching our community. In fact, as the synagogue celebrates its 34th Anniversary, we also celebrate the holiday of Purim. This holiday celebrates two important traditions of mishlo'ah manot, or sending portions of foods to friends, and matanot l'evyonim, or giving charity to the needy. For 30 years, the Stephen S. Wise Temple has sponsored a carnival to mark this joyous occasion, fulfilling the Talmudic call to service.

At this time, the synagogue, its membership and the community are preparing to witness the realization of their dream with the anticipated completion of the Arts and Sports Pavilion, the Science and Study Building and the Administration Building of the Milken Community High School of Stephen S. Wise Temple. After Passover, Milken Community High School and faculty will take occupancy of their new and permanent home on Mulholland Drive.

Mr. Speaker, distinguished colleagues, please join me in honoring the Stephen S. Wise Temple for its outstanding accomplishments on this joyous occasion, with best wishes that the school and temple are one in the core purposes of serving and perpetuating the Jewish community, its values and traditions.
