

consumers who are in need of protection, State laws are more misses than hits: managed care consumers still cannot count on basic protections."

This report is only the latest in a growing body of evidence that proves what the American people already know, that we need a national Patients Protection Act. We need to ensure that doctors and patients, and not insurance company bureaucrats, are making the critical health care decisions, that patients have the right to go to the emergency room, that women can gain direct access to an obstetrician or gynecologist, and that health plans are held accountable when they deny patients care.

The only plan that ensures these basic protections is the Democratic Patient's Bill of Rights.

I urge the Republican leadership, schedule a vote today on the Dingell-KENNEDY Patients Protection Act.

"HEALTHMARTS" AND THE QUEST FOR QUALITY

(Mr. BLILEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BLILEY. Mr. Speaker, the health care debate has been full of surprises. One of my favorites was the statement that there is no true marketplace today to drive health care equality. The surprise is not what was said, but who said it: Ron Pollack of Families USA, a leading supporter of President Clinton's efforts to nationalize health care.

Well, he and a lot of other health experts are right, we do not have a real health care market, and that is the problem.

Think about it: The last time you bought a car, you did not go to your bank, your credit union or GMAC first. You went to a dealership, talked to the salespeople and took a test drive. Then you arranged your financing. The car you bought was determined by your personal needs and preferences, not by the bank or credit union that financed it.

Why cannot health care operate the same way?

The legislation developed by the Speaker's Working Group on Health Care Quality includes a provision creating HealthMarts. HealthMarts are private, voluntary and competitive health insurance supermarkets. They will transfer choice within the current market from small employers to their employees and dependents.

HealthMarts would give millions of consumers the freedom to choose their health coverage from a menu of options. These options could include managed care and fee-for-service plans, coverage offered by provider-sponsored organizations, and medical savings accounts.

REPUBLICAN HEALTH CARE PROPOSALS LACKING

(Ms. WOOLSEY asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. WOOLSEY. Mr. Speaker, 4 years ago, the Republicans defeated President Clinton's health care bill, claiming it would allow the Federal Government to interfere with doctor-patient relationships.

Well, now the Republicans are offering legislation that does nothing to protect the choices made by doctors and their patients. Their legislation, for example, does not ensure that patients have the right to see a specialist, nor does it prevent insurance companies from continuing to send women home early immediately following a mastectomy.

What our health care system needs, Mr. Speaker, is the Dingell-Daschle bill, a patient protection bill that ensures doctors and patients are able to make the decisions about the patient's health care, not insurance company bureaucrats and clerks.

A patient protection bill must ensure that patients have the right to choose their doctor, see a specialist, and seek a court remedy when claims have been unfairly denied. It is time to put doctors and patients back in charge of health care.

I urge my colleagues to support the Dingell-Daschle patient protection bill.

U.S. SHOULD WAKE UP TO NUCLEAR ATTACK VULNERABILITY

(Mr. CHABOT asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute.)

Mr. CHABOT. Mr. Speaker, it is a shame that it has taken nuclear blasts in India and Pakistan to convince American leaders that it is time to put an end to our policy of mutually assured vulnerability. What I mean by that is that the United States is vulnerable to a missile attack.

Many Americans are unaware of this, but if a missile were to be fired at American cities, the United States would be defenseless to stop it.

Not only that, but this is the deliberate policy of the United States to remain defenseless in the face of nuclear attack. The faith of liberals in arms control, in a piece of paper, is boundless.

But recent events in Pakistan and India should serve to force us to reconsider our position of vulnerability in the face of a missile attack.

I hope that recent reports that Communist China has 13 nuclear missiles aimed at the United States will finally cause our leaders here in Washington to wake up. The liberals and our President are always saying we must do this for the children, we must do that for the children. Well, let us make sure that our Nation is protected from nuclear attack for the children.

TERRIFYING HUMAN RIGHTS ABUSES IN INDONESIA

(Mr. PITTS asked and was given permission to address the House for 1 minute and to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PITTS. Mr. Speaker, reports of the riots in Indonesia last month tell of mass rapes targeted at the Chinese and non-Muslim women. There are several reports that some military leaders helped to organize the terrorizing of the ethnic and religious minorities. One 18-year-old woman reports that the apartment complex where she lived was invaded by an angry Muslim mob. The mob found this woman and her family, tied them up with bed sheets, knocked the father unconscious, and proceeded to brutally rape all the women. This woman's sister was raped by five men who all said, "Allahu Akbar" before they raped her.

The young woman's sister tried to fight against the rapists. In the end, one of her rapists sliced open her stomach and brutally killed her. There are many reports detailing the same situation for other women in Indonesia.

Mr. Speaker, the horrors done to the Chinese and the Christian communities must not be allowed to continue under any government whatsoever. The Indonesian Government should use its power to stop these terrifying human rights abuses and investigate the allegation of any military involvement in these atrocities.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days within which to revise and extend their remarks on the bill, H.R. 4194, and that I be permitted to include tables and charts and other extraneous material.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from California?

There was no objection.

DEPARTMENTS OF VETERANS AFFAIRS AND HOUSING AND URBAN DEVELOPMENT, AND INDEPENDENT AGENCIES APPROPRIATIONS ACT, 1999

The SPEAKER pro tempore (Mr. SHAW). Pursuant to House Resolution 501 and rule XXIII, the Chair declares the House in the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill, H.R. 4194.

IN THE COMMITTEE OF THE WHOLE

Accordingly, the House resolved itself into the Committee of the Whole House on the State of the Union for the consideration of the bill (H.R. 4194) making appropriations for the Departments of Veterans Affairs and Housing and Urban Development, and for sundry independent agencies, boards, commissions, corporations, and offices for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1999, and for other purposes, with Mr. COMBEST in the chair.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The CHAIRMAN. Pursuant to the rule, the bill is considered as having been read the first time.

Under the rule, the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS) and the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) each will control 30 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS).

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I want to at the outset mention to my colleagues that beyond the substance of this bill, which is considerable, during the day today I expect that we will have a good deal of discussion of the reality that there is another piece of substance that indeed deserves our recognition, for as many people know, and I would like the Members who are on their way over time here today to know, that this is the last bill that I will have the privilege of working with my colleague, the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) on, on the floor. I think everybody knows of our friendship, and I think as this debate goes forward, people will be reminded of the incredible contribution that the gentleman has made, not just to this legislation, not just to our committee, but to the House as a whole.

Before we perhaps discuss that in a little different environment than the one we have on the floor presently, I would like to spend a few moments with a brief overview of the fiscal year 1999 VA-HUD bill.

Due to the delayed budget process and upcoming election cycle, we find ourselves working under a very compressed schedule. This is evidenced by the fact that our Senate VA-HUD counterparts have already moved their bill through the full committee, and last evening they completed their debate on the bill. This morning they will begin simply the voting process. So they really are ahead of us in that cycle, a most unusual circumstance.

The gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) and I are hopeful that we can have a conference report completed before the August recess. That is a goal that may be a bit optimistic, but we both are committed to pushing the process forward and getting a bill that can be signed to the President's desk.

The bill before us today is within our allocation in both budget authority and outlays. Our proposal provides $70.894 billion, including $10.2 billion for Section 8 rental assistance. Hidden gimmicks in the President's request, which includes items like receipts from the tobacco settlement, which of course is a fiction, those items make our total $70,894 billion in discretionary spending. They appear to be over the budget request. We are, in fact, if we take out those gimmicks, some $2 billion in real spending below the administration's request.

The VA-HUD subcommittee, by cutting over $25 billion over the last several years, has demonstrated that we can, in a bipartisan way, reduce the rate of growth of government without putting those who rely upon these programs for assistance, including veterans and residents of public housing, for example, without putting those citizens in jeopardy.

With regard to veterans' programs, this bill provides $17.057 billion for veterans' medical care, an increase of $29 million over the administration's request. VA medical research is funded at $320 million, an increase of $20 million over the President's request, and $48 million over last year's bill.

Within HUD's budget, we have funded the Section 8 rental assistance program at $10.2 billion. The CDBG program and drug elimination grant programs have been funded at the budget request of $4.725 billion, and $290 million respectively.

We have also provided $100 million in vouchers designed to implement welfare reform. The section 202 elderly housing program has been funded at $645 million, $109 million over the President's request.

Section 811 disabled housing program has been funded at $194 million, which is an increase of $20 million over the request. Accounts within HUD which have demonstrated positive results have been increased. Those that either are without measurable results, or which have not worked well at all, have been treated differently under this measure.

With regard to the Environmental Protection Agency, we have slightly increased the Agency's budget over the current fiscal year to $7.422 billion. This included level funding of $1.5 billion for the Superfund, a program that has been described as being broken by the administrator. We have been waiting now for several years to receive that promised fix for the Superfund program. We have also funded the President's request for Safe Drinking Water State Revolving Funds, SRF, at $775 million, a $50 million increase over fiscal year 1998, and a Clean Water SRF at $1.250 billion, an increase of $175 million over the President's request. Finally, we have fully funded the President's clean water action plan.

Moving to the National Science Foundation, this bill has increased funding over last year's level for research by $269 million, for major equipment, by $16 million and educational programs by $10 million. As a result of the Frelinghuysen-Neumann amendment, which was adopted in the full committee, the funding for important research programs has been increased by approximately 10 percent over the current fiscal year.

With regard to the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, NASA, we have provided $13.328 billion, a $138 million figure below the administration's request. In part, this reduction represents the fact that due to the space station assembly delays, we may be reducing planned space shuttle launches from eight to six in fiscal year 1999. NASA's science and aeronautics technical account is below the 1998 level, but is $89 million above the President's request.

We plan to continue our positive working relationship with NASA's Administrator, Dan Goldin, to ensure that our final bill reflects our mutual priorities involving science, research, manned space flight, as well as space station assembly.

Moving into AmeriCorps, we have decided that instead of entering into an extended floor fight involving the funding for the Corporation of National and Community Service, the committee intends to first work very closely with our colleagues in the other body. This bill zeroes that program. It is pretty apparent, though, to the Members of the House that in the past when such discussions and actions have taken place, we finally come to a resolution in conference that reflected that broad will of both bodies, and I anticipate that that will be the case in this instance.

Finally, I would like to express my deep reservations to the President of attaching H.R. 2, the public housing reform bill, to this important funding bill in which HUD is just one important component of a much broader and difficult package. While I certainly understand the reasons that we are once again being asked to carry this heavy load that essentially is an authorizing load, it is my fervent hope that authorizing committees of jurisdiction will work to find an acceptable compromise with all parties so that this measure does not unfairly; that is, the authorizing side does not unfairly bring down an appropriations bill that otherwise should be signed into law. I trust that the leadership will work with us to assure that the overall VA-HUD bill, which currently strikes a delicate balance, will not ultimately be placed in jeopardy.

In closing, my colleagues, in terms of this portion of any formal remarks I might have, outside of expressing the pleasure that I have had working with my colleague, the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES), and the reality that we think this bill, that is the appropriations bill, indeed does, once again, reflect the best of nonpartisan effort in dealing with very complex programs. That product is the result of the hard work of the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES), first and foremost.

I want to further acknowledge the hard work and dedication of Del Davis and David Reich, and Fredette West from the minority staff, as well as Paul Thomson, who is serving as my clerk today; Tim Peterson, Valerie Baldwin, and Dena Baron; from my own staff, David LesStrang, Alex Heslop and Jeff Schockey.

I want to take a moment to pay special tribute and attention to my committee staff director, Frank Cushing, who, unfortunately, could not be with us today due to the death of Alan Tack Hammer, his wife Amy's father.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Chairman, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Chairman, before making my formal remarks, I want to take just a moment to express to the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS), the chairman, the extreme pleasure and honor I deem it to have been able to work with him on the VA-HUD subcommittee for so many years. During that period of time he and I have been able to establish a very personal friendship, and I think it is important for all my colleagues to know and understand that the bill that we bring before the House today is one that he and I have crafted together, under circumstances where he has at all times been extremely fair to me. He has been cooperative in every respect, in terms of all of my concerns relative to this legislation, and serving with the gentleman has been one of the great honors of my career. I want him to know that, as we take this bill through the House, that all the courtesies, all the professional consideration that he has afforded me is deeply appreciated.

Mr. Chairman, this is a bittersweet moment, bringing to the floor with my chairman the last VA-HUD spending measure that I will have the privilege to handle. In many ways, this 1999 bill resembles all the earlier bills of this subcommittee that I have worked on. It does much to provide for veterans, for housing, community development, for environmental protection and emergency management, and for science and education throughout the Nation. Unfortunately, it also falls short in satisfying many of the legitimate needs in some of these areas.

There is much in this legislation that I am proud of and I support without hesitation. There are also provisions and funding levels that I hope will be changed as we move through the process.

The gentleman from California has detailed the important aspects of the bill and I will not repeat them. I would like to take a moment or two, though, to address a few areas of the bill.

In the housing area I am pleased to say that we have been able to provide badly needed increases in some programs, including public housing capital funds, the Hope VI program for modernization of distressed public housing, and homeless assistance grants. I am also glad to report that the bill provides an increase for fair housing programs, and I appreciate the efforts of both the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS), the chairman, and also our colleague, the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. KNOLLENBERG), in working out a mutually satisfactory arrangement in this area.

Another positive development in the bill is the 17,000 new housing assistance vouchers that are provided to help families make the transition from welfare to work. However, I note the number provided is considerably less than the number requested by the administration, which was 50,000 vouchers for welfare to work and another 34,000 vouchers to help provide permanent homes for the homeless. These are areas where the need is great, and I intend to offer an amendment to increase the number of new vouchers provided.

The administration is very concerned that the committee's bill includes no funding for the corporation for national and community service, the AmeriCorps program. I think everyone in the chamber knows that there will be no signed VA-HUD bill without adequate AmeriCorps funding. Apparently, a majority of the House believe some measure of victory can be claimed if the bill, as passed by the House, contains no funding for this initiative, even if the conference agreement does. At any rate, I am sure that the bill presented to the President will contain funding for AmeriCorps.

Another provision that causes the administration much concern is that dealing with the Kyoto protocol. The administration has repeatedly stated that there will be no implementation of the Kyoto protocol unless and until the Senate ratifies a treaty. Thus, the provision is unnecessary and the accompanying report language is so broad and vague as to be nearly meaningless. But the signal it might send to some, that even working for educational and outreach purposes is not to be permitted, is, to me, just plain short-sighted.

Funding for EPA's Superfund program has been capped at last year's level of $1.5 billion, $650 million below the request. In addition, brownfields funding has been reduced $15 million below the 1998 level, and the bill contains a provision limiting those funds to assessments only, no money for brownfields cleanups.

Most of the Nation's mayors strongly support the brownfields program and regard the lack of funds for cleanup as the number one impediment in realizing the full potential of the program. At the appropriate time, I will offer an amendment, along with the gentleman from Colorado (Ms. DeGette), to strike the provision limiting the brownfields program.

The bill, as reported from committee, contained a troubling provision for the Consumer Product Safety Commission that has the effect of delaying possible rulemaking regarding fire-retardant chemicals in upholstered furniture. The provision was a triumph of the special interests over the national good of saving lives and money currently lost through fires involving furniture that does not have fire-retardant aspects. The rule we adopted included a self-executing provision that modified the original language. While the new provisions are a modest improvement, they still would have the effect desired by industry of delaying CPSC's rulemaking.

The National Science Foundation fared pretty well in the committee's recommendations, receiving about two-thirds of the requested increase for research activities. Still, I wish we could have done more, and especially in the area of education and human resources. For NASA's science programs, we were able to provide an increase above the budget, but the recommended amount is still nearly $150 million below the 1998 level. And the problems with the International Space Station continue. I am afraid our recommended cut of $170 million would have to be restored at some point.

If the estimates of the independent Chabrow report on the station are correct, chances are very good that even more funds than those requested in the budget will be required. I will do my best to ensure that the agency's science programs are not the source from which we make up the inevitable shortfalls in the space station.

In closing, let me say once again that it has been a true pleasure to work with the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS), the chairman, on this bill. We do not always agree completely on every measure, but we have been able to resolve our differences always in an amicable manner.

I want to thank him and his staff for all the courtesies and consideration that they have extended to me. I particularly want to say a word of thanks to Frank Cushing, the subcommittee's staff director, and along with the chairman I want to extend my condolences to Frank and Amy over the passing of her father.

I also want to express my appreciation of Paul Thompson, Tim Peterson, Valerie Baldwin, Dena Baron, who is a detailee to our subcommittee, along with Jeff Shockey and Alex Heslop on the Chairman's personal staff. And my special thanks also to two of the members of the minority staff who have been invaluable to me, Del Davis and David Reich, along with Fredette West of my own congressional staff.

Mr. Chairman, I just want to say again that no matter what our differences are relative to this bill, I believe that the chairman and I, in taking this bill to conference, will be able to work out those differences and bring back to this House the kind of a bill that we can all support.

Mr. Chairman, I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. JOE KNOLLENBERG), my colleague from the committee.

(Mr. KNOLLENBERG asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. KNOLLENBERG. Mr. Chairman, I thank the chairman for yielding me this time, and I rise today in strong support of this bill.

Mr. Chairman, I particularly want to thank the chairman of the subcommittee, the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS), and I also want to extend thanks to the ranking member, the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. LOUIS STOKES). As everybody knows, he is retiring this year. And while he has received a number of accolades, we continue to add to those, and I want to express mine again today. I want to join my colleagues in wishing him a fond farewell. He served the body well, he served his constituents well, and he will be missed.

I would also like to thank, in particular, the staff. Frank Cushing, who, as has been mentioned, could not be here today because of his loss. We extend our thoughts and prayers to Frank and his family. I want to, in particular, though, thank this staff, all of them, who have been remarkably and extraordinarily helpful in a whole lot of things, so they deserve a lot of credit for helping us craft this bill.

This appropriation bill is unique in that it covers an array of diverse agencies, ranging from the VA to NASA to the EPA. And it is not easy to bring this wide range of interests together into a single bill. However, the chairman, along with the ranking member, have done, I think, a great job by forging a relationship that makes this all possible.

H.R. 4194 is a good bill. However, there is one issue I would like to stress. We have reiterated in report language our intent and expectation that HUD will adhere to our guidance and award no funds for insurance-related purposes, even as part of awards to groups that may use their FHIP funds for a variety of enforcement activities. FHIP, as everyone must know, should know, is the Fair Housing Initiatives Program.

I further want to emphasize that the report allocates a portion of FHIP appropriations to a nationwide audit of discrimination in housing rentals and sales in 20 communities. Because this proposed audit is part of the FHIP, and because its purpose is to investigate discrimination in housing rentals and sales, there should be no question that any of the funds allocated for it can be used to investigate practices of property insurers. However, because HUD has, in the past, interpreted the Fair Housing Act very liberally, I believe it is necessary to underscore this point.

The committee report can only be understood to mean that absolutely no funds, no FHIP funds, including those for the nationwide audit and any awards for packages of activities by private groups, are to be spent on activities focused on practices of property insurers or their agents.

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Chairman, I yield 5 minutes to the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. OBEY), the distinguished ranking member of the full Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Chairman, I would like to say that as much as I would like to support this bill, I cannot, for a number of reasons.

First of all, the Committee on Rules, in the action of this House yesterday, made in order a totally illegitimate amendment to this bill by adding the 300-page housing bill and authorization bill. And I want to read my colleagues something that I just picked up on the press out of U.S. News today.

It said that the legislation would raise the income levels of people eligible for public housing. The bill would give greater priority to people making as much as $40,000 to be admitted to public housing, allowing them to gain housing before lower-income families. Since no new public housing is being built, and existing waiting lists are years long, these lower-income families will have no option whatsoever. A total of 3 million low-income people would be denied access to public and federally assisted housing, including 1.8 million seniors and children.

It went on to quote Secretary Cuomo, HUD Secretary Cuomo, as saying it is inexcusable that we would take the few units of affordable housing this Congress has allowed to remain and remove it from the grasp of the most vulnerable Americans. This means no housing for America's most vulnerable.

I think that this Congress has no business attaching a proposal like that to this bill.

Secondly, I would point out that there are a number of funding level problems with this bill. The brownfields program is reduced 18 percent below the President's request. There is very broad and vague language in the report language which relates to the Kyoto Protocol on climate change.

I agree with those who say that we should not be taking actions to implement any treaty before that treaty is ratified, and I would not vote for that treaty under existing circumstances because of what it does not require other countries, such as China, to do. It is simply not strong enough.

But I, nonetheless, believe that the committee language is far too broad. It even presents educational information about the issue. And I think that that is clearly simply a favor to special interests and it is a long-term detriment to America's public health and to the stability of the world's economy and its climate.

I would say that this also, in my view, underfunds what we ought to be doing with veterans' health care. And in my judgment, the reason that we are underfunding veterans' health care, underfunding housing, underfunding EPA, Superfund and a variety of other programs is because we have in this bill some $3½ billion of veterans' health care costs which are related to the treatment of tobacco-related diseases. And it seems to me that the taxpayer should not be paying for the treatment of those diseases, the tobacco companies should.

Since the Committee on Rules determined it was going to make in order an irrelevant authorization bill, I asked the Committee on Rules to make in order a relevant authorization amendment; and that amendment would have simply said that instead of the taxpayers being stuck with that $3½ billion worth of tobacco-related health treatment cost that the tobacco companies be assessed to pay for those costs. That would have enabled us to increase health care for veterans in this bill by $1.7 billion and to do some other things about some of these drastic shortfalls that will only get worse as the problems are compounded.

The Committee on Rules did not choose to do that. That means, in my view, that this bill is essentially an inadequate bill. And until it is, I have no intention whatsoever of voting for that.

I do not make these statements to in any way criticize the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) or the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS). They have done the best they can within the allocation given them. But the fact is that the allocation is stupid and the fact is that the Congress is stupid if it does not find a way to require tobacco companies to meet health care costs that the taxpayers should not be saddled with. And until we do that, we are not going to have the resources to meet the other needs facing this country.

It is about time that big tobacco does not have the ear of this Congress. It is about time that big business loses the ear of this Congress. It is about time that the public interest once again prevails.

And, in my view, with the priorities that have been set at a higher level than the subcommittee has the authority to do anything about, until those priorities are changed, we should not be supporting the outcome of those priorities.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I yield 4 minutes to the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN).

(Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN. Mr. Chairman, I thank the gentleman for yielding.

I rise in support of the VA-HUD Appropriations Bill. And as a member of the committee, I would like to thank the chairman the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS) and the ranking member the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) and their staffs for their hard work and guidance throughout this year on a whole host of issues, and most particularly the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS) for his extra efforts working with me to improve the Superfund program, which is so important to New Jersey, and the special attention of the gentleman and our staff to issues affecting housing for people with disabilities. Were it not for their hard work and diligence, those two issues, to my mind, would not be adequately addressed.

And I would be remiss, Mr. Chairman, if I did not commend and recognize the years of service of the ranking member the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES).

My colleague served with my father in Congress when he was in Congress and was one of the first people to welcome me to this body. His presence in Congress, as well as his service on this committee, will be greatly missed. I have been able to count on his expertise any number of times. His institutional memory is amazing. And his retirement will, without doubt, affect the committee in countless ways. I thank the gentleman for his friendship and advice.

Mr. Chairman, I would also like to briefly call to my colleagues' attention page 11 of the committee's report and thank both the ranking member and the chair for their agreeing to include this language.

This language highlights the problems with the Veterans Administration's new National Formulary for drugs and medical devices. This is a potentially explosive issue, and Members of Congress better have it on their radar screens.

Simply put, the new VA policy is hindering proper medical treatment of veterans by drastically limiting physicians' in the VA choice of medicine from a list, or a formulary, that they can prescribe to treat our veterans.

As this new policy is gradually being put into effect, doctors, residents of our VA hospitals, and veterans organizations familiar with the system have relayed some disturbing results. The stories I have heard from our veterans strike right at the quality of life and care issues, including one veteran who was forced to switch his Parkinson's medication and, as a result, is having a recurrence of his Parkinson's symptoms.

By putting overly restrictive limitations on which type of a medicine a VA doctor can choose, we are severely restricting access to the newest and most effective medications available. Unfortunately, bureaucrats at the VA are assuming that "one size fits all" when it comes to medicine. Well, one medicine does not fit all.

I urge all of my colleagues to review this language and listen to what our veterans and the National Alliance for the Mentally Ill are saying about this issue. This is a critical issue. I support this bill. This particular issue is one that we should be concentrating on.

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Chairman, I am pleased to yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from Virginia (Mr. MOLLOHAN) the very hard working and highly respected member of the subcommittee.

Mr. MOLLOHAN. Mr. Chairman, I appreciate the time that the ranking member has given me to make a few comments on this bill, and I rise to generally express my satisfaction for the bill in the main.

First let me compliment our chairman the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS) and the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) for the quality of their contribution to this bill. Year in and year out, through the process of marking up this bill putting it together, these two gentlemen, real gentleman, work extremely hard applying their very formidable talents to coming forth with an extraordinary piece of legislation under the circumstances that they find themselves and under the allocations that they are given.

This is I will note, and I will have more to say on it later, the last bill of the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) the last time he will be bringing this bill before the full House. And we are terribly appreciative of his wonderful service over many, many years.

Every year, the Subcommittee on VA, HUD and Independent Agencies works to strike the right balance in funding what is really an eclectic mission of vital services and programs to our people. I hope that every Member of this House appreciates not only the difficulty of that task but also the sense of fairness that the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS) and the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) bring to it. Their conscientious approach is certainly evident in the bill that is before us now.

And in review of it, I am especially pleased with the increased funding for Veterans Affairs regarding medical and prosthetic research that we are committing major resources to HUD, funding the important Community Development Block Grant and Public Housing Operating grants, that we are increasing money to the EPA for science and technology research, including research on particulate matter, and that we are giving greater resources for water assistance grants, which are so critical to the health of our local communities.

Of course, no appropriation bill can be all things to all people. Everyone here accepts that fact. But today we have been asked to accept something more, and it is very unfortunate that extraneous legislation has been made in order by the rule. Our appropriations bill is not the place for it, and that is why I join so many of my colleagues in opposing the rule.

But this appropriations bill is a good bill, and I look forward to working with the chairman and ranking member in making it better by increasing funding to underfunded programs as we move the bill through the process.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, it is my pleasure to yield 2¼ minutes to the gentlewoman from New Jersey (Mrs. ROUKEMA).

Mrs. ROUKEMA. Mr. Chairman, I certainly thank the chairman for yielding.

Mr. Chairman, I want to commend the committee for the work that they have done on this well-rounded bill. I have a few problems with the environmental riders, but let us put that aside for now and speak about the positives in this bill.

First let me indicate that I want to support and identify myself with the comments of my colleague the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN) particularly on the issue he outlined with respect to the Veterans Administration.

I certainly say we must accept the fact that this bill contains language concerning a time credit of $20 million to the Veterans' Integrated Service network. And that is what is needed, particularly in New Jersey and for the northeast.

There are certifiable needs throughout New Jersey, from East Orange and the Lyon's facility and throughout other veterans hospitals in the region. And I certainly call upon the Secretary of the VA to act immediately on the committee's direction after this bill is signed into law.

But let me give a little more time to the subject of the FHA single-family mortgage issue. I want to rise in strong support of this subject. It is strongly needed. The increase in the FHA loan limit is an issue that we have long supported on the Committee on Banking and Financial Services.

The gentleman from Florida (Mr. MCCOLLUM) and I have worked together to urge attention of the committee to this issue. And certainly, there is nothing that is more representative of the American dream than the 64-year history of the FHA single-family insurance program.

And particularly, as a representative from New Jersey, I want to point out that in states like New Jersey, but not exclusively New Jersey, where loan prices are traditionally higher than in other parts of the country, the increase is fundamental if the FHA loan program is to be a viable one. We need this increase urgently, it is overdue. And I thank the committee for their intelligent and far-reaching, far-searching work on this issue.

I want to commend the Committee for its work on what I consider to be a well-rounded bill. While I do have reservations on several of the so-called "environmental riders", included in this legislation, I want to rise in strong support of the provisions to increase the FHA single-family mortgage insurance limit. In addition to it being good public policy, the revenues raised by this measure are being put toward necessary programs—$10 million in needed medical research for disabled veterans, and $70 million of the National Science Foundation which will be used by colleges and universities, like Rutgers and Princeton in my own state New Jersey, to help educate our next generation of scientists.

The increase in the FHA loan limit is an issue that I have long supported. For a state like New Jersey this increase is key. I worked with Congressman MCCOLLUM to gather signatures on a letter to Chairman LEWIS and Ranking Minority Member LEWIS STOKES urging that this provision be included in the VA/HUD bill.

Throughout its 64-year history, the FHA single family insurance has enabled millions of American families to achieve the dream of home ownership The American Dream at no cost to taxpayers. It has provided countless home ownership opportunities to millions of deserving families who were denied or deprived of owning a home through the conventional market. The FHA program has also generated significant revenue benefiting the U.S. Treasury and helped stimulate our nation's economy through housing and neighborhood development.

Yet, FHA's effectiveness is limited because its loan limits have not been allowed to keep pace with market development and changes. Many families have been denied home ownership opportunities because the arbitrary constraints on the maximum mortgage amount prevent FHA from reaching many moderate-income families. In States like New Jersey where home prices are traditionally higher than in other parts of the country, the increase is fundamental if the FHA loan program is to be viable.

Under the measure included in the committee-reported bill, the general limit on FHA loans would be increased from $86,317 to $109,032 (i.e. from 38% to 48% of the Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac "conforming" loan limit), while the limit on FHA loans in high-cost areas from $170,362 to $197,620 (i.e. from 75% to 87% of conforming loan limit). The Administration had requested that FHA loan limits be raised to be a nationwide ceiling of $227,150. The provisions included in this bill represent a fair common sense compromise that will provide a measure of fairness to American consumers residing in under served markets, and generate $80 million in additional revenues.

Home ownership is the cornerstone of the American Dream. This FHA loan-limit increase proposal included in the bill helps to further that dream for many hard-working Americans who reside in those markets that are currently under served.

Mr. Chairman, I rise today to speak on an issue that is vital to the veterans of New Jersey and the Northeast.

This bill contains language that urges the Veterans Administration to provide for a one time credit of $20 million to the Veterans Integrated Service Network (VISN) Three, which serves veterans of New Jersey and the Northeast. This language is right and fair.

A General Accounting Office (GAO) revealed that the Network 3 Director, James Farsetta, returned $20 million for the Fiscal Year 1997 budget to the Veterans Administration national offices in Washington. According to the GAO, the Network 3 Director found "no prudent use" for these funds. Frankly, with all the funding cutbacks already negatively impacting the justifiable health care needs of the veterans of Network 3, I strongly believe that there are many prudent ways this money could be spent.

At the same time this money was returned to Washington, my office had numerous certifiable complaints from the East Orange and Lyons facilities. Most recently, a patient at Lyons Veterans Affairs Medical Center, which mainly serves psychiatric patients, was found dead after wandering off site unsupervised. He was missing for three days and found only 150 feet from the Hospital's administration building. It is interesting to note that due to funding restraints, New Jersey's VA hospitals have eliminated over 240 jobs. It is obvious to me that the $20 million could have been spent in many prudent ways.

The implementation of the VA's new funding formula known as Veterans Equitable Resource Allocation (VERA) has negatively im-acted funding of veterans' health care in New Jersey and the northeastern United States. New Jersey and the Northeast will lose millions of dollars over the next three years.

To save money, the VA has cut back on numerous services for veterans and instituted various managed care procedures that have the impact of destroying the quality of care the veterans receive. For instance, the VA has reduced the amount of treatment offered to those who suffer from Post Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) and reduced the number of medical personnel at various health centers.

As a result of these cutbacks on top of the $20 million giveaway, there has been an erosion of confidence between veterans and the VA. This erosion threatens to destroy the solemn commitment that this Nation made to its veterans when they were called to duty.

I call on the Secretary of the VA to act immediately on the Committee's direction after this bill is signed into law.

The CHAIRMAN. The gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS) has 11¾ minutes remaining, and the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) has 13½ minutes remaining.

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Chairman, I am pleased to yield 2 minutes to the gentlewoman from Florida (Mrs. MEEK) another very distinguished member of our subcommittee and an extremely hard-working lady.

Mrs. MEEK of Florida. Mr. Chairman, I want to thank my colleague and admired member and leader the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) and I want to thank my chairman, who has been both fair and efficient in this bill. And I am urging being the Congress to pass this VA-HUD bill.

It was the gentleman from Wisconsin (Mr. OBEY) who said that Congress is to define problems and differences and to devise solutions to these problems. I think that is the way the Subcommittee on VA, HUD and Independent Agencies worked to do this. They were not able in many instances to solve all the problems, but they did try to find solutions to many of them. And I want to commend our committee for that.

There are some things in the bill that I would like to go have seen to have appropriated more money to do the good things that we started some time ago, and one of them was the Corporation for National and Community Services. Another one is housing. And I think the committee addressed housing in a good way. But of course, the more housing vouchers we can receive in poor communities, the better it will be.

So I appreciate the committee addressing the housing voucher situation and raising that level. And I repeat, I would have liked to have seen more.

I would also like to see our committee continue in its direction to improve the environment, not to cut back with drastic reduction, but to continue to provide those assistance that we so desperately need.

One of my other major concerns to the committee is that the Economic Development Initiative, which has helped so many of us in cities where we have so many poor people being helped by government, providing jobs, doing the kinds of things that good job creation can do, I want to commend the committee for looking at that, but we did not go far enough in providing enough money for the economic development initiative to take care of the cities.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. HOBSON), a member of the committee, for a colloquy.

Mr. HOBSON. Mr. Chairman, I would like to ask the chairman of the subcommittee, my good friend, the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS) to enter into a colloquy to clarify report language in this bill pertaining to a rulemaking being considered by the EPA.

As my colleague knows, report language in this bill addresses the security risks associated with making risk management plan data available on the Internet under an EPA rulemaking according to section 112(r) of the Clean Air Act. Members of our committee have heard from many members of their community who expressed concern that making this information available to the public via the Internet could have grave consequences. This type of data, which is already available to relevant businesses and public safety and law enforcement officers, could result in mass destruction in the hands of those intent on doing harm. These security concerns have been echoed by law enforcement and national intelligence representatives in discussions with the EPA. However, the EPA has been unable to adequately address the national security concerns that have been raised.

Mr. Chairman, it is my understanding that discussions between representative law enforcement, the intelligence community and the EPA are ongoing and that a resolution of this issue will occur by the end of this year.

Would the gentleman agree that this is an accurate statement?

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. HOBSON. I yield to the gentleman from California.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Yes, the EPA has been working closely with FBI and other law enforcement and security experts to develop a system limiting inappropriate access to such information. That system is expected to be completed by the end of 1998 as the committee expects to be updated on a monthly basis on the progress and development of security protocol.

Mr. HOBSON. Mr. Chairman, when will the agency actually implement the protocol?

Mr. LEWIS of California. The agency must include a formal protocol proposal as part of their fiscal year 1999 operations plan before implementing any security protocol.

Mr. HOBSON. Thank the gentleman from California for his clarification. I think we both agree that this issue is one of vital importance to our communities and law enforcement officials, and I appreciate the gentleman's assistance in this matter.

Mr. Chairman, before I conclude, I would just like to take this moment to thank a member of my staff who has worked on this. She has been with me for 7 years. Jennifer Cutcher is leaving to get married and move to Florida, and we are sorry to lose her in our office.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I yield whatever time she might consume, within limits, to the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. MCCARTHY).

Mrs. MCCARTHY of New York. Mr. Chairman, I thank the gentleman for yielding this time to me.

Mr. Chairman, I would like to call attention to an item that is contained in the other body's VA-HUD appropriations bill. It is my understanding that the other body has allowed $7 million for the water systems improvement project in the village of Hempstead, New York. I say to the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS) this program is very important to a large number of my constituents. I would be interested in knowing if the gentleman will give consideration in conference to accepting this project?

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, will the gentlewoman yield?

Mrs. MCCARTHY of New York. I yield to the gentleman from California.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I say to the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. MCCARTHY), as we have discussed personally and in many a way she has attempted to bring this item to my attention, it indeed is our intention to address this question in the conference. We are going to do everything we can to not only recognize the importance but to assist the gentlewoman and her district as well.

Mrs. MCCARTHY of New York. Mr. Chairman, I thank the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS).

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Chairman, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. VENTO).

(Mr. VENTO asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. VENTO. Mr. Chairman, I want to, at the onset, recognize the service of our distinguished colleague from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) who has so ably led this subcommittee as initially chairman, first as a Member, of course, and finally now as ranking member. I think that his steady hand and intellect, keen intellect, and efforts have really done a remarkable job in terms of trying to deal with some of the neediest in our Nation. I am most familiar, of course, with his work on housing and our mutual interest in homelessness and other issues.

But, Mr. Chairman, just speaking to the merits of this briefly, I wanted to express my concerns about some of the fundamental problems with the bill that we have before us. Regrettably, we have serious problems, but it seems as though, notwithstanding positive revenue projections that continue to buoy our economy, that none of the benefit of that positive economy are translating into some of the essential programs that we should have, and this bill even falls short of the budget agreement that was written just last year with regards to some of the agreements on environmental expenditures.

I am very concerned about the attacks on the environment and the riders in this bill. I am concerned about the political game that is going on with regards to providing zero funding for AmeriCorps. I am concerned about the continued expenditure of billions of dollars on the space station, notwithstanding the fact that commitments year after year are not met. I am concerned about the fact that it is written in such a way as to cause these problems. And the fact is, if this were not enough, now we are going to pile onto this bill unrelated riders on bills such as the abolishment of some of the public housing responsibilities that the national government has committed to for the past fifty years.

Therefore, I rise to express my concerns and point out some fundamental problems in the VA-HUD Appropriations bill for FY 1999. Once again, the Republican led Appropriations Committee has provided an uneven product within sufficient resources to meet the needs identified by the Administration, the Congress and the American people. This bill has several serious flaws: it underfunds veterans medical care; attacks our natural resources and environment; abandons the Administration's AmeriCorps program and includes continued funding for a budget busting international space station that will cost American taxpayers more than $100 billion in the final form. In its current state as written, this bill has ensured a collision course with the Senate, House Democrats and the President, but the intended amendment and design crafted by the rule will further warp the measure beyond reason, taking on more controversy and a further blow to this measure's unbalance.

The VA-HUD bill appropriates a total of $42.3 billion for VA programs and benefits. Unfortunately, this bill underfunds veterans medical care. The report language states that the Committee has provided an increase for medical care to maintain the 1998 level. While technically true at the amount level, this is accomplished only by reducing funding for VA construction activities and projects by 20% less than current funding levels. Discounting this artifice, the total amount provided for veterans medical care is $276 million less than the 1998 level. According to the Independent Budget issued by major veteran service organizations, the Committee's recommendation is $525 million below the 1999 current service level, and nearly $1.8 billion below their recommended 1999 funding amount.

The funding levels for the housing and community development programs in the VA-HUD bill, are satisfactory compared to 1998. The bill allocates $26.5 billion for HUD programs, an increase from FY 1998. The measure increases funding for the McKinney Homeless Assistance Act programs and with the inclusion of $100 million in new funds for incremental vouchers. Frankly, given the tremendous need for housing assistance that exists across this country, we could have used the entire Administration's request in incremental, or new, section 8 assistance. Given the fact that we have not received incremental funding for many years, however, this is a positive first step in recognizing the severity of the need. This urgent need would argue for the elimination of the provision in this measure which requires a three-month delay in re-issuance of section 8 housing vouchers and certificates. There is no public policy reason and only budget cost scoring behind this 3 month delay provision. It hopefully will be dropped before it becomes law and we will provide dollars without shift.

I am also very supportive of the changes to the FHA loan limit an authorization matter with little to do with the appropriation, no doubt buoyed by the positive CBO scoring. Increases in the floor and the ceiling of the FHA loan limit will make a more viable FHA program because it will achieve market relevance. The increase in the ceiling to 87% of the conforming loan limit will help middle income home buyers in the high cost areas purchase homes. The 48% of the conforming loan limit for the FHA floor is approximately what the level was in an amendment I offered in the 1994 Housing Reauthorization bill. It's been too long a wait for action on FHA modernization. These changes are critically important to many, many areas of the country because the current floor, which serves as the minimum has not been high enough to cover the real costs of building a new home in most regions of the nation for a long time. The bill also makes a positive change that should help deal with disparities in limits in geographically contiguous areas.

I strongly oppose the amendment that will be offered by Mr. LAZIO to this bill later today. His amendment would attach a reworked public housing measure, H.R. 2, to the appropriations bill. This remains a faulty policy and is potentially quite harmful to most communities. Attachment to the appropriations bill is shortsighted simply and an end run of a controversial bill around the process which could potentially stall the important HUD appropriations bill for FY99. This fundamental change being superimposed upon this bill should be considered upon its merits rather than placed upon a must enact funding measure.

In offering this amendment, and indeed protecting it under the rule from points of order, this House majority will be disrupting ongoing, bi-partisan negotiations to resolve major differences between H.R. 2 and its Senate counterpart, S. 462 attempting to gloss over legitimate policy differences on income targeting, "home rule" deregulations, minimum rents and other issues. While that process has not been in an actual House/Senate Conference, as it well should be, at least there have been ongoing discussions. This appropriations slam dunk will completely undermine that process. I urge opposition to the Lazio amendment, which will undercut the role of the authorizing committee and which could effectively jeopardize, for no legitimate reason, the progress being made by the positive HUD funding in this bill. I would suggest that the inclusion of the public housing controversy into the VA-HUD bill could be the last straw on the camel's back for many members trying to decide whether to support this appropriations bill.

I also want to note that I have filed several amendments to the HUD-VA bill. Two amendments would provide an additional $30 million to the highly successful, yet consistently underfunded Federal Emergency Management Agency's (FEMA) Emergency Food and Shelter program. I don't intend to offer both but intend to discuss one. The charities that work in partnership with the FEMA program continue to be overloaded. Demand for food and shelter is rising and the funding level of EFS has, to say the least, not kept pace with the need.

The other amendment that I have filed would set in law a requirement that owners who intend to prepay their mortgage on low-income multifamily housing properties would have to provide one year notice to the local jurisdictions and to the tenants of those buildings, whose lives are being totally disrupted by such action. It is a reasonable amendment and one I hope this body will see fit to accept.

I note that the Community Development Financial Institutions (CDFI) fund has been allocated $80 million. I am working with my Chairwoman, Mrs. ROUKEMA, in the Banking Committee on reauthorizing this program. We are making improvements, as the CDFI management has, in response to some of the concerns brought out over the last year or so. I think we will have a stronger, more viable CDFI as a result of those actions and that this program which can have such a positive impact in communities, indeed justifies a solid appropriation.

Disappointingly, this bill lacks adequate funding for much needed environmental cleanup and natural resources conservation. Specifically, $1.5 billion is included for the Environmental Protection Agency's (EPA) Superfund program. This amount is $650 million below the budget request and the level agreed to in last year's balanced budget agreement. As a result, numerous contaminated toxic waste sites throughout the country, including specific sites in my district in Minnesota, will remain hazardous to people's health. In addition, the popular and successful Brownfields program is reduced 18 percent below the Administration's request. For the second straight year, the Committee has limited the Brownfields program to assessments; no funding is available for toxic waste site cleanup. According to a report issued by the U.S. Conference of Mayors earlier this year: "Cities participating in the study identified several major obstacles to the redevelopment of Brownfields. Cities ranked the lack of clean up funds as the number one impediment." This is certainly not the time to turn our backs on cleaning up toxic waste in our local communities who desperately need Federal assistance.

The Committee funded the Administration's Climate Change Technology Initiative at $99 million. This amount is less than one-half of the $205 million requested. Furthermore, the Leadership included vague language that limits the use of funds regarding activities related to the Kyoto Protocol on climate change. Specifically, this bill attempts to prohibit the use of funds in the act to "develop, propose, or issue rules, regulations, decrees, or orders for the purpose of implementing, or in contemplation of implementation, of the Kyoto Protocol. Under existing statutory authorities, the EPA has ongoing activities to develop and issue regulations that would be affected by the Kyoto provisions. Proponents of the provisions argue that this language prohibits the implementation of a treaty by the Senate. However, I disagree. These provisions could well restrict the United States from playing a leadership role in the reduction of greenhouse gas emissions as they at least undercut the EPA moral leadership. Furthermore, the Committee report also balks at EPA's efforts to promote educational outreach and further research on the policies underlying the Kyoto Protocol until or unless the Protocol is ratified by the Senate. This clearly illustrates that the congressional leadership is indifferent to our environmental stewardship responsibilities in this Nation.

As reported, the bill contains no funding for the Corporation for National and Community Service, or AmeriCorps. This lack of language will terminate the programs. This continued effort by the House Republican Majority to eliminate the Administration's national service program will ensure confrontation with the Senate, who supports the program firmly, and the Administration. The Administration had made its support of AmeriCorps abundantly clear. Despite this, the Republican leaders once again have elected to support a charade of cutting or eliminating AmeriCorps funds in the House knowing the conference agreement with the Senate will restore them.

Furthermore, this bill appropriates $2.1 billion for continued development of the international space station. According to some of the most qualified scientists in America, the international space station has little or no scientific value and the American people will gain almost nothing except for the experience of wasting billions on building a space station in orbit. Congress should not invest another penny in this immensely overbudget and overdue program. This is money that can be used to strengthen our National Parks, reinvest in our children's education, provide adequate health care to our Nation's veterans and restore pre-1995 rescission level funding for the Federal Emergency Management Agency's (FEMA) Emergency Food and Shelter Program.

Overall, this legislation meets some of the needs of our Nation's veterans and makes a good first step in the right direction for low-income housing programs. However, I agree with the Administration that this legislation is highly flawed in its attacks upon environmental cleanup, elimination of the successful AmeriCorps program and a budget busting international space station. I urge all Members to vote no on this measure.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I have no additional requests for time, so I reserve the balance of my time.

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Chairman, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. PASCARELL).

(Mr. PASCARELL asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. PASCARELL. Mr. Chairman, I want to commend both the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS) and the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) for putting together a very reasonable piece of legislation. However, I have one concern which I want to bring to the floor.

The $16 billion upholstery manufac-

Christmas present this year, Mr. Chairman. The industry is laughing its way to the bank. Thousands of Americans might die in house fires. They will be burnt to death because the industry spent thousands of dollars lobbying against a national upholstery flammability standard. This absolves the industry from responsibility and preventing their products from literally going up in smoke.

Thirty-seven hundred people a year are killed by house fires. One thousand of them are children, twice as likely to die in a fire than adults. An additional 1,700 youngsters are injured due to residential fires. This bill blocks the progress that the Consumer Product Safety Commission has made in the development of an upholstered furniture flammability standard. This provision not only delays the project but is totally redundant, provides no further benefit to the American public.

Upholstered furniture fires are the number one fire hazard in this country, yet we are still waiting for flammability standards, and while we wait over 25,000 men, women and children have died as a result of burning furniture. The Consumer Product Safety Commission calculates that an upholstery flammability standards will have an annual net savings of $300 million. This $300 million will go directly to American taxpayers because their local fire departments will not be called to extinguish as many residential fires.

Prevention of fires is not just a noteworthy goal. Flammability standards are attainable, they are cost effective, and they make sense. We already require institutions such as hospitals and prisons to purchase flame-retardant furniture. Are we saying that we are more interested in protecting prisoners from upholstery fires than our children?

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Chairman I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. PALLONE).

Mr. PALLONE. Mr. Chairman, I thank our ranking member for all the work he has done over so many years on important issues, particularly on his pro-environmental stance.

Mr. Chairman, I rise today because of my concerns over the anti-environmental riders in this bill. As in years past, the Republican majority has once again inserted a number of anti-environmental riders into the bill and its accompanying report. As I am sure we all remember, similar efforts in years past came to no good, eventually resulting in a government shutdown in 1995. Many of these provisions are a waste of taxpayer dollars, calling for duplicative studies and other wasteful delay tactics that will block the implementation of important environmental protection measures, measures that the EPA has determined are in the best interests of protecting human health and the environment.

Just as an example, one provision prohibits the EPA from taking any action to remove contaminated sediments from rivers, lakes and streams until a new National Academy of Science study has been completed and distributed and analyzed by all parties including Congress or, in other words, indefinitely. The need for this new study is questionable since the NAS just released a report last year entitled: Contaminated Sediments in Ports and Waterways Clean-up Strategies and Technologies.

But the need to remove these contaminated sediments from America's waterways is not in question. Nowhere more than in New Jersey are people sensitive to the issue of contaminated sediments. In New Jersey we have witnessed firsthand the impact that contaminated sediments can have on our commercial and recreational fishing industries.

This remedial dredging rider, I should say this dredging rider, is just one example of the numerous special interest riders in this bill. Others include restrictions on brownfields funding, limitations on the number of toxicological profiles that the Agency for Toxic Substances and Disease Registry can perform, delaying reductions of hazardous mercury emissions from utilities, lowering the bar for clean-ups of NRC-licensed facilities, and the list goes on.

Mr. Chairman, my colleague, the gentleman from California (Mr. WAXMAN) will be offering an amendment to eliminate the anti-environmental riders later today, and I would urge my colleagues on a bipartisan basis to support the Waxman amendment.

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Chairman, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. KUCINICH).

Mr. KUCINICH. Mr. Chairman, I thank the gentleman for yielding this time to me, and I rise to support the appropriations made in this bill for NASA.

This year marks the 40th anniversary of NASA. These 40 years have been filled with remarkable achievements such as placing the first man on the moon. Let me list for my colleagues only just a few of the spin-offs that have been spawned by this program:

The engine powering the Boeing 777 uses a NASA design high bypass turbo fan engine;

A laminar airflow technique used in NASA clean rooms for contamination-free assembly of space equipment is used as an air purification system;

NASA-developed micro-miniaturization is used in a pacemaker which can be programmed from outside the body; and NASA-developed solar technologies used to provide power through solar energy.

NASA technology has also been developed to strip paint and also to provide thermal protection from the shuttle solid rocket boosters.

Mr. Chairman, later there will be an amendment on the floor to cancel the space station program. By cancelling the space station we would end the benefits our society can gain from it.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Kansas (Mr. RYUN) for purposes of a colloquy.

Mr. RYUN. Mr. Chairman, I recently received a letter from the mayor of Topeka, Kansas, regarding a serious issue facing the city. According to the mayor, during the floods that ravaged Topeka area in 1993 salt from upstream rivers washed into the city's water infrastructure, causing excessive rust in nearly a hundred miles of unlined cast iron water pipe.

This resulted in a severe "red water" and sediment problem for the city. In some parts of the city, residents are unable to drink the water, even to use their washing machines. Every human being needs water daily in order to live. The people of Topeka, Kansas, need clean water to live.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. RYUN. I yield to the gentleman from California.

Mr. LEWIS of California. In our discussions, it has been my distinct impression that the City of Topeka has taken steps to correct this problem, is that correct?

Mr. RYUN. Yes, the city has replaced 20 miles of pipe at a cost of $2.5 million, and has appropriated $5.1 million of city revenue this year to replace another 40 miles. However, according to the mayor, this is insufficient to complete the repairs, and the city is seeking Federal assistance to replace the remaining 40 miles of pipe.

I understand that this is late in the legislative process. However, in light of the urgency of the problem, I am exploring any legislative options available. I would appreciate your assistance in providing funds that we could use to improve this project.

Mr. LEWIS of California. We look forward to working with the gentleman, and appreciate his concerns.

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Chairman, I am pleased to yield two minutes to the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. DINGELL) the distinguished ranking member of the Committee on Commerce.

(Mr. DINGELL asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DINGELL. Mr. Chairman, I rise in strong support of the amendment offered by the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) and the distinguished gentleman from Colorado (Ms. DEGETTE) on title 3 of the bill that will strike language placing limitations on the brownfields program. This is one of the most successful programs we have. It is a program desperately needed by our cities.

A bipartisan report from the mayors of our cities say that brownfields sites represent pockets of disinvestment, neglect, and missed opportunities. They are often found in poorer communities and neighborhoods that are desperately in need of economic investment and job creation. The brownfields grant program protects human health by helping to assess and remove environmental poisons from our neighborhood, and, at the same time, encourages redevelopment of abandoned or underutilized property. It also tends to halt urban sprawl, something which is a massive problem.

The Nation's mayors recently surveyed their Members and found that lack of cleanup funds is the number one impediment to brownfields redevelopment. Yet the members of the majority party, by limiting funding and prohibiting revolving loan funds, would go in exactly the opposite and wrong direction. Limitations currently contained in this bill would cripple one of the most successful urban programs we have.

I do not understand the hostility of my colleagues on the Republican side, but let me cite what it is the Inspector General of EPA had to say about this program.

He said, "EPA has been instrumental in bringing together numerous Federal agencies to work cooperatively towards removing barriers to the redevelopment of brownfields. Our review showed that the cities have been able to leverage millions in private brownfields investment. The agency has accomplished a great deal in a relatively short time."

One of the remarkable things is this amendment and the prohibition on these expenditures would make a massive step backwards in terms of local efforts in this area. It would even impinge in a very severe and unfortunate way on the efforts of banks to increase lending in these areas.

I urge the adoption of the amendment.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I yield two minutes to the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. WELLER), for purposes of a colloquy.

Mr. WELLER. Mr. Chairman, I thank the gentleman for the opportunity to engage in a colloquy with him.

As you know, there are over 13 hundred sites on the Superfund National Priority List that are still in need of remediation. Of course, we would like to see comprehensive Superfund reform enacted this year that will help get these sites cleaned up faster. However, today I wanted to specify to you about one site in particular and ask that this site be given special priority by the Environmental Protection Agency.

The City of Ottawa in my Congressional district is home to 14 NPL sites contaminated with radioactive waste from factories that used radium-based paints from 1918 to 1978 to make glow in the dark clock dials. Ten of the sites have been remediated. However, due to the complex nature of disposing of radioactive waste, the cost rose over $30 million, and there are four large sites yet to be cleaned. The remediation of the first ten sites involved shipping about 40,000 tons of contaminated soil to Utah.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. WELLER. I yield to the gentleman from California.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. WELLER, I understand that there is a very high rate of cancer in areas surrounding these Superfund sites.

Mr. WELLER. This is true. According to a report prepared by the Illinois Department of Public Health, certain areas surrounding Ottawa Radiation Sites contain very high cancer rates. The study compared the incidence of cancer rates with another city in northern Illinois, and found that Ottawa has nearly 30 percent more cancer. The study also indicated a concentration of those incidences along the north side of the city, where the radiation sites are located.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, if the gentleman will yield further, the picture the gentleman has drawn for me is most disturbing, and I want you to know I will be urging the EPA to take this into consideration and expedite the remediation of the remaining Ottawa sites as soon as able possible, consistent with the agency's priority listings.

Mr. WELLER. Mr. Chairman, reclaiming my time, I appreciate the gentleman's concern, and, along with the residents of Ottawa, Illinois, we can look forward to clean up being completed at these sites.

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Chairman, I am pleased to yield 1 minute to the gentleman from New York (Mr. MANTON).

(Mr. MANTON asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. MANTON. Mr. Chairman, I thank the gentleman for yielding me time.

Mr. Chairman, I rise to express my deep reservations about several provisions of the bill before us, and, of particular concern, the accompanying report language.

The provisions in question may have the result of significantly weakening a number of important environmental programs. These so-called environmental riders contained in the fiscal year 1999 VA-HUD appropriations bill and report are ill-conceived and represent a retreat from a sensible national environmental policy designated or designed to keep our water safe, our air clean and breathable and our lands free of toxic waste.

Mr. Chairman, these are unnecessary provisions which do a great disservice to this House. At a time when our nation's economy is booming with historically low levels of unemployment and inflation well under control, we find ourselves back to fighting the same old battles over how even the most reasonable of environmental protection measures supposedly undermine our economy.

Well, I would say to my colleagues, this old song does not play true any more. The budget is balanced, with a surplus envisioned for the first time in a generation. The stock market is going through the roof, and we have accomplished all this as a country with a strong Clean Air Act, a strong Clean Water Act, and a strong Superfund program.

Mr. Chairman, I ask my colleagues who believe we need to weaken our environmental programs: What is their justification for such drastic steps? And, if they believe their cause is just, let us debate them in an open and fair fashion, and not try to sneak through far-reaching changes in funding bills and hidden in report language. Let us address our differences through the normal legislative process.

You may be surprised to find that we might be in agreement on some matters. Or, we may be able to develop reasonable compromise language on others.

After all, the art of compromise has served our Nation well for over two hundred years.

Mr. Chairman. One amendment which will seek to correct some of the flaws in this legislation will be offered by my friend and colleague, the gentlewoman from Colorado, Ms. DEGETTE. She will be joined in her effort by the distinguished Ranking Member of the VA-HUD Subcommittee, Mr. STOKES, and the gentleman from New Jersey, Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN.

I believe this amendment deserves to receive wide, bipartisan support.

Mr. Chairman. While we may differ on the advisability of pursuing any one particular environmental policy over another, we should not sacrifice the regular order in doing so.

If we have problems with the Superfund program, let us move forward to develop a reasonable reauthorization which takes into account the program as it stands today, not ten years ago.

And, if we are truly concerned about cleaning up old industrial sites and revitalizing our cities, now is not the time to unnecessarily limit funding or erect hurdles to the implementation of this successful program.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I yield two minutes to the gentleman from Iowa (Mr. LATHAM) for a colloquy.

Mr. LATHAM. Mr. Chairman, as the chairman knows, my district in northwest Iowa, like many areas throughout rural America, finds itself underserved when it comes to health care. This is particularly true concerning area veterans.

My district, which covers one-third of Iowa's geographic area, is served by VISN No. 13 in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, and VISN No. 14 in Omaha, Nebraska, and Des Moines, Iowa. Yet there are no VA medical facilities in the district to serve area veterans. Therefore, most veterans must travel anywhere from an hour-and-a-half to three hours each way to find VA medical care.

The placement of a VA community-based outpatient clinic in Sioux City and Fort Dodge would greatly increase the accessibility of VA health care for my constituents. Would the chairman agree to work with me in urging the VA to work towards this end?

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. LATHAM. I yield to the gentleman from California.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I am very happy to work with the gentleman from Iowa. I might mention to the gentleman that his district and mine have this identical problem, for our territories involves open spaces where people have to travel many, many miles for this kind of service.

As the gentleman is aware, the VA's community-based outpatient clinics were established expressly to address this problem and have been a great success. Moreover, the decision to establish outpatient clinics are made not in Washington, but at the VISN level with local input to address regional and local veterans needs.

That being said, I would be happy to work with the gentleman in communicating his very real concerns to the VA.

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Chairman, I yield 1½ minutes the gentlewoman from Colorado (Ms. DEGETTE).

(Ms. DEGETTE asked and was given permission to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. DEGETTE. Mr. Chairman, I rise in support today of the amendment offered by the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) and myself to strike the anti-Brownfields environmental rider to this bill. This bill jeopardizes the EPA's brownfields program which we heard the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. DINGELL) so eloquently refer to in three ways: First of all, it prohibits any of these funds from being used by localities to set up revolving loan programs. Secondly, this bill provides only $75 million in funding, which is 17.4 percent below the President's budget request. Finally, this bill prohibits the funds from being used for research and community outreach, a vital component of the program, which furthers understanding of brownfields and gives communities the tools to further redevelopment.

Our amendment remediates these three problems with the bill. It restores the important brownfields component of the legislation, which is so critical towards cleaning up environmental contamination in our inner-cities throughout this country and revitalizing these areas so that they can be economically beneficial to the entire community.

Mr. Chairman, I thank the ranking member for working with me on this amendment.

Mr. HOYER. Mr. Chairman, I rise today because I have some genuine concerns about the funding levels of specific accounts within H.R. 4194, the Veterans Affairs and Housing and Urban Development and Independent Agencies appropriations bill for fiscal year 1999. I understand the difficulty that the chairman and the ranking member faced in crafting this legislation within the tight fiscal constraints that the Appropriations Committee had this year. However, I am concerned that certain initiatives, which have been priorities of the committee and the Congress in the past, will not receive the necessary level of funding in fiscal year 1999.

First, the bill proposals a $59 million reduction to NASA's Earth Science Program. This important program can help predict weather and climate changes up to a year in advance, will yield tremendous benefits for agricultural and natural resources productivity, will save money and lives by allowing natural disasters to be predicted earlier, and involves partnerships with Japan, the United Kingdom, Brazil, and France. Goddard Space Flight Center, located in Greenbelt, Maryland, is NASA's lead center for these efforts and has an extraordinary reputation for Earth Science studies.

I have visited with the scientists working on this program and I can tell you that their work is amazing. Funding for Earth Science will produce both practical benefits and a long term understanding of the environment. This reduction would be disruptive to the program at a time when the need for programmatic flexibility is at its greatest due to technical challenges in the development of various missions, and could lead to either significant delays or even cancellation of project elements.

I also want to express my concern about the bill's elimination of the AmeriCorps National Service Program. AmeriCorps' members are estimated to leverage an average of about 16 stipended volunteers per member. AmeriCorps teaches its volunteers responsibility and opportunity. The organization has also had a positive effect on traditional volunteer activity. If we are going to make children and youth our top priority, we need the assistance of volunteer service organizations such as AmeriCorps. AmeriCorps plays an important role in advancing the goals of the summit for America's future. We cannot fight to make the future better for our nation's children without AmeriCorps' help.

Finally, the bill increases the limits on the sizes of home mortgage loans that may be insured by the Federal Housing Administration (FHA) under its single-family loan program. Raising these loan limits poses little or no risk to the FHA fund. It is a fund with a value of about $11 billion. Auditors give it a clean bill of health and say that loans at the higher end pose less risk than do low balance loans. Raising the FHA loan limit is critically important and will expand home ownership opportunities to families all too often shut out of the conventional mortgage markets—first time home buyers, minorities, families in inner cities and rural families.

Mr. Chairman, as a member of the Appropriations Committee, I fully understand the budget constraints which we are under, but I am concerned that we are not properly funding the Nation's priorities in this bill. I would hope that we can work towards remedying this imbalance.

Mr. MARKEY. Mr. Chairman, I rise in strong opposition to the VA-HUD and Independent Agencies Appropriations bill. This bill contains a wide array of assaults against the public interest and good sense, which I intend to discuss further during the course of the debate. I am rising now, however, to talk about one particularly obnoxious provision of this bill that affects the Consumer Products Safety Commission.

Under the version of the bill reported out of the Appropriations Committee, a legislative rider was attached which would prevent the CPSC from adopting a rule regarding flammability standards for upholstered furniture until an outside panel was convened to examine the toxicity of fire retardants that would be used to treat such furniture. The Rule providing for consideration of this bill deleted this rider with an equally objectionable self-executing provision which made in order an amendment by the Gentleman from Mississippi (Mr. WICKER).

This amendment was developed behind closed doors, without any meaningful Democratic participation. No mention of the amendment was made during the Rules Committee hearing on the bill, and the gentleman from Mississippi did not even testify on his amendment. Instead, the amendment appeared magically before the Members during the Rules Committee markup. And under the Rule which the Rules Committee approved and the House adopted earlier today, the amendment was attached to the bill—notwithstanding the fact that it violates Clause 2 of Rule XXI of the House Rules by legislating on an appropriations bill. Of course, the Rule took care of that problem as well by granting the amendment a waiver against all points of order.

In light of surreptitious origins of this amendment, and the great haste with which it was adopted, is it any wonder that it contains serious flaws? Earlier today, during consideration of the Rule for this bill, we discovered that the authors of the amendment had mistakenly appropriated $5 billion for the amendment's execution, when they had actually intended to appropriate $5 million. By comparison, the entire CPSC budget is only $46 million. The Republican Majority actually had to offer a motion to correct the unintended financial windfall they almost provided to the CPSC. Despite this correction, however, the underlying amendment remains fatally flawed.

During House debate on the Rule, one of the supporters of this amendment claimed that the proposal had the support of the Commerce Committee. As the Ranking Democrat on the Commerce Committee's Subcommittee on Telecommunications, Trade and Consumer Protection—which has jurisdiction over the CPSC—I can assure the Members that this was not the case. The Commerce Committee has never considered this matter addressed by this amendment. We have never had a single hearing on this subject. We have never heard a word from any of the affected industries and reportedly pressed for adoption of this amendment. We have never had a Committee or Subcommittee markup or cast a vote on this matter. So, while the Chairman and some of the Members of the Majority Side on the Commerce Committee may have agreed to this language, it is not accurate to characterize this provision as having had the support of the Commerce Committee.

So, let's just take a look at what the issue is that this amendment addresses. Currently the CPSC is considering a flammability standard for upholstered furniture. They are doing so pursuant to a petition from the National Association of State Fire Marshals, who asked the CPSC more than four years ago to develop a mandatory safety standard for upholstered furniture to address the risk of fires started from open flames—such as lighters, matches, and candles. The Fire Marshals called for such a rule because the U.S. has one of the highest fire death rates in the world. Nearly 4,000 people died in 1995 because of fires that started in their homes, of which nearly 1,000 were children under the age of 15.

Over the last four years the CPSC has been going through the process of taking public comments, conducting laboratory tests, and evaluating all the technical and economic issues relating to adoption of a safety standard in this area, including requirements relating to use of flame resistant chemicals to treat upholstered furniture. The CPSC staff has been working with scientists from other agencies, such as the National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences and the EPA to assure that all of the significant public health and safety issues associated with adoption of such a rule would be studied.

Now, the bill before us today contains a provision that would, in the words of CPSC Chairwoman Ann Brown, "completely halt work currently underway . . . on a safety regulation to address the risk of fire from upholstered furniture. According to Chairwoman Brown, "more fire deaths result from upholstered furniture than any other product under the CPSC's jurisdiction." The proposed rules in this area could save hundreds of lives and hundreds of millions in societal costs every year, according to CPSC staff estimates. And yet, instead of allowing the CPSC to proceed with its process, the legislative rider that has been attached to this bill would add at least a year's delay by requiring unnecessary and costly technical review and halting Commission work.

This anti-consumer rider will add additional costs and delays to an ongoing rulemaking process at the CPSC. It will micromanage the cost-benefit analysis that the CPSC is already required to undertake before it adopts a final rule. And it does so why? Well, according to last Friday's Washington Post, this provision is in the bill to benefit the narrow economic interest of a few upholstered furniture manufacturers in Mississippi who are opposed to a mandatory furniture flammability standard. As CPSC Chairwoman Brown has noted, the furniture industry's "lobbyists are bringing the proper work of government to a halt."

I think this is wrong. We should oppose this bill today and allow the CPSC to move forward in conjunction with the EPA to adopt a flammability standard for upholstered furniture that fully protects the public from harm. The Clinton Administration has indicated in its Statement of Administration policy that it is opposed to this provision and warned that "efforts to block the development of a new safety standard represent a threat to public health." I agree, and I hope that if this bill is approved the House, this provision will either be deleted in conference or vetoed by the President. I urge a no vote on the bill.

Mr. EVANS. Mr. Chairman, I rise today to express my support for the VA-HUD Appropriations Act of 1999. Like the Administration's FY 1999 budget request, I do not believe this bill does enough to honor the sacrifices our veterans have made for our country. However, I do believe this bill is the best we can do for our veterans in this Congress, which is why I will vote for the bill.

In a perfect world, veterans health care funding would be at higher levels than provided for in this legislation. As health care costs continue to rise, there is simply no way the VA can provide consistently high quality care to veterans at the present funding levels. An unfortunate result of such shortfalls has been to force VA's specialized care programs to take a back seat to other spending priorities. In the process, important veteran-oriented initiatives such as spinal cord injury centers, blind rehabilitation programs and programs for homeless and mentally ill veterans are not receiving the emphasis they deserve within VA. We cannot allow VA's special program and our commitment to our nation's veterans to unravel.

I also believe that funding levels for the VA Inspector General's office should be sufficient to allow the IG to conduct more of its extremely important work. At a minimum, the IG's budget should be increased by $3.298 million over the House level to enable the IG to perform critical follow up work in response to serious patient care issues raised by veterans and VA employees during the past year. I am pleased with Chairman LEWIS' willingness to consider increased funding levels for the VA Inspector General's office during conference with the other body, and I thank the Oversight Subcommittee Chairman, TERRY EVERETT, for working with me on a bi-partisan basis to pursue this needed additional funding.

Despite its deficiencies, this legislation represents a modest improvement over last year's appropriation. Given the short time left in this congressional session, I believe we can ill afford to revert to last year's funding levels as part of a continuing resolution in the eleventh hour of this Congress. I urge members to support this bill with the hope that the next Congress can do more to honor the sacrifices made by our veterans.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I have no further requests for time, and I yield back the balance of my time.

The CHAIRMAN. All time for general debate has expired. Pursuant to the rule, the amendment printed in House Report 105-628 is adopted and the bill is considered read for amendment under the 5 minute rule.

Amendment number 12 printed in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD may be offered only by the gentleman from Iowa (Mr. LEACH) or his designee, shall be considered read, shall be considered for 40 minutes, equally divided and controlled by the proponent and an opponent, shall not be subject to amendment, and shall not be subject to a demand for division of the question.

During consideration of the bill for amendment, the chair may accord priority in recognition to a Member offering an amendment that he has printed in the CONGRESSIONAL RECORD. Those amendments will be considered read.

The chairman of the Committee of the Whole may postpone a request for a recorded vote on any amendment and may reduce to a minimum of 5 minutes the time for voting on any postponed question that immediately follows another vote, providing that the time for voting on the first question shall be a minimum of 15 minutes.

The Clerk will read.

The Clerk read as follows:

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the following sums are appropriated, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, for the Departments of Veterans Affairs and Housing and Urban Development, and for sundry independent agencies, boards, commissions, corporations and offices for the fiscal year ending September 30, 1999, and for other purposes, namely:

TITLE I

DEPARTMENT OF VETERANS AFFAIRS

Mr. BROWN of California. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.

(Mr. BROWN of California asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BROWN of California. Mr. Chairman, I just want to offer a few comments on the bill from the perspective of the authorizing committee on which I serve, the Committee on Science. This bill, of course, appropriates about $20 billion or more for programs within the purview of that committee.

I am happy to say that I am rising here to praise and not to condemn the work of the chairman and the ranking member, although there are some difficult choices that had to be made in this bill.

Benjamin Franklin once observed that necessity never made a good bargain, and yet it is necessity that drives the painful choices that go into this most challenging appropriation bill.

Evaluating this bill is always difficult for me. I believe deeply that this Nation has failed to do an adequate job of investing in our future by letting funding levels for civilian science programs decline over the last decade. Yet, this bill forces us to make painful trade-offs among disparate deserving domestic programs.

In this one bill, we have to fund housing, support our veterans, provide for emergency disaster relief and invest in our future at NASA, the National Science Foundation and EPA. Worse, we have no objective criteria for guiding us in waiving the respective benefits of spending among these programs.

I believe there is insufficient funding to meet all our legitimate civilian science needs, but I also know there are insufficient funds to meet the other needs captured in this bill.

Acknowledging this situation that our needs outpace our funds and that we seem to lack either the creative vision or will to do anything about that, I want to congratulate the chairman, the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS), and the ranking member of the subcommittee, my good friend, the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES), for doing a good job in a difficult year.

The funding levels for NASA, NSF and EPA are generally consistent with the President's budget request, and given the pressures on the subcommittee's allocation, that is a remarkable achievement. I have some specific areas of concern or congratulations. I am particularly pleased with the subcommittee action on funding the U.S.-Mexico Science Foundation, funding certain research related to the Salton Sea, and funding a number of FEMA programs which I think are critically important.

However, with the limited time that I have this morning, I want to draw the Members' attention just to two areas of concern. I am very worried about the continuing decline in funding for NASA. Our space agency is among the most efficient and best-managed agencies in the Federal Government, and it has been among the leaders in reinventing itself to do more with less. However, year after year, we ask NASA to keep the Nation at the forefront of civilian aeronautics technologies, satellite technologies, space exploration and space science, and year after year we give them not quite enough money to actually carry out those tasks.

Just as an example of the costs of underfunding NASA, I would point to the Near Earth Object detection and cataloging effort at NASA. The threat posed by Earth-orbit-crossing asteroids and comets has long been a concern of mine and of the committee. The Committee on Science has proposed augmenting funding for this important effort, and I am gratified that the Committee on Appropriations has increased fiscal year 1999 funding by $1.6 million. Nevertheless, I believe the Near Earth Object detection program, the cost of which represents just a fraction of the weekly receipts from current asteroid-disaster-themed Hollywood movies, could be considerably increased.

This is an example of a good program that could be great for very little additional money, and I hope we can do better for it coming out of conference, and I know that the chairman of the subcommittee shares my concern in that regard.

I might note that I saw the current asteroid disaster movie last Sunday, and it is going to stimulate a lot of public concern about whether Congress should be doing something about this important problem.

I am also distressed about language in the bill and report relating to EPA and the Kyoto Protocols. The gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) and others have commented on this matter. As presented to the House, the bill would place such sweeping limits so EPA that basically we are legislating their thought processes. We also appear to be barring useful work that predates Kyoto, and we would undermine efforts to improve public health. I will be supporting a series of amendments offered by my friend, the gentleman from California (Mr. WAXMAN) that would attempt to mitigate the excesses on the current language on this issue.

I look forward to continuing a very productive relationship with the chairman and ranking member of the subcommittee as we move toward conference, and I would be happy to provide any services I can to help them in their important work.

Mr. TIAHRT. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.

Mr. Chairman, I have 2 amendments at the desk, but I do not intend to offer them today. Both amendments were designed to earmark money for Federal research and treatment for the Gulf War illness.

Now, in 1991, about 700,000 American men and women served in the Gulf War. All of us appreciate their courage and their service and thank each and every one of them. More than 228,000 of these veterans have sought medical care. Over 100,000 of them have indicated they may be suffering from Gulf War illness. Their symptoms include sleeplessness, chronic diarrhea, nausea, memory loss, miscarriages, and even birth defects of their newborn children.

Some veterans' organizations have estimated that several thousand of our soldiers have died, and their deaths, in some part, are related to their service in the Gulf War.

This is a very real problem, but the Department of Defense and the Veterans Administration have been very reluctant to acknowledge this problem. At first the Department of Defense said that this was not a problem. Then they told us it was stress-related. It was only until the last few years that the Department of Defense and the Veterans Administration have begun to search for solutions for those who are suffering from these diseases or illnesses that veterans are living with every day of their lives.

In February of this year, in a report by the Government Accounting Office, the GAO, it was stated, "Our government was not proactive in researching Gulf War illness."

As a government, we sat on our hands, and this was wrong. Now there is research in the Department of Defense; however, I am convinced that this research is not about the veterans; it is more about protecting soldiers in future conflicts, and I see no fault in it. I think that is very good research, but that places the burden on the Veterans Administration.

Mr. Chairman, I have a great deal of respect for the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS), the distinguished chairman of the Subcommittee on VA, HUD and Independent Agencies, and I want to encourage Mr. LEWIS to pursue language that would emphasize to the Veterans Administration the high priority of research and treatment of Gulf War illness.

Let me close by quoting from the February 1998 GAO report. They said in the report, "The vast majority of research was not initiated until 1994 or later, and much of that was due to pressure by legislative requirements. These requirements were imposed by us here in Congress. Establishing Gulf War research and treatment as a high priority is the right thing to do, and that is why I make this request."

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. TIAHRT. I yield to the gentleman from California.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I must say to the body that our colleague, the gentleman from Kansas (Mr. TIAHRT) has played a very significant role in dealing with this problem, for there is money in the pipeline now pushing forward that research on the part of the Veterans Administration that is taking place as a direct result of his own work with our committee as well as the entire Congress. I very much appreciate that, and we intend to continue to work with the gentleman, and as we go to conference, I want to make sure that there is emphasis one more time.

Mr. TIAHRT. Mr. Chairman, reclaiming my time, I thank the subcommittee chairman, the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS), and I appreciate his efforts. He has been instrumental in putting this pressure on to make sure that we maintain this high priority.

Mr. ROEMER. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.

Mr. Chairman, first of all, I want to rise in my admiration for the chairman of the subcommittee who has some of the quickest wit and sparkling sense of humor of any Member in the body. While we agree on many things, including working together on providing quality homes for people in this country and manufactured housing, we disagree on the funding for the space station, where I will offer an amendment later today to strike the funding for the space station; not the space program, but the space station. That disagreement does not diminish my respect for our chairman, the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS).

I also have a great deal of respect for a Member from Ohio that is retiring and serving in his last year in this body, who has served not only this body and this institution, but has been a champion for the people in many big cities that have a very difficult time getting their fair share of the budget, getting their fair share of rights, getting their fair share of opportunities.

The gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) comes from a family of public servants. His brother served for many, many years not only as a mayor, not only as a member of the Ohio community, but served this country so ably, and the gentleman has followed in those footsteps and exceeded those footsteps, I think. So I want to thank him and associate myself with the many tributes that will take place to him.

The gentleman from Michigan (Mr. CAMP), a Republican, and I will offer an amendment later today to strike the funding for the space station, and we will do it, or I will do it for two reasons. One is because of the lack of merit in the space station itself as a program. It has not performed up to the capabilities that it should have; secondly, because we have such a difficult time now under a balanced budget agreement allocating the resources in a fair and just manner.

De Tocqueville said many years ago, "America is a great country because America is a good country. It will cease to be great when it ceases to be good." I think that quote is very appropriate here today. If we do not allocate the resources in a fair, just and good manner to all in society, then we cease to be a great country.

Now, what about the merits of the space station? First of all, I support roughly the $11 billion to $12 billion in the NASA budget, but the $2.1 billion for the space station is not a good expenditure for science, it is not a good expenditure for NASA, and it is not a fair expenditure to the rest of the budget.

Right here, according to this graph, and I think the General Accounting Office put this out in their latest study, we will spend $98 billion over the course of building, developing, researching and maintaining the space station.

Now, we have spent about $20 billion so far, so my colleagues that say, well, we have already spent $20 billion, we will now throw another $80 billion toward this project, I want my colleagues to be very aware of that under the budgetary environment that we face. We have spent $20 billion on research and development; we will spend another $80 billion in the total cost of this.

Now, that is according to the General Accounting Office, and that is if everything goes perfectly. We just had a private sector report, the Cost Assessment and Validation Task Force, that now says that we probably will have cost overruns on the space station of $120 million to $250 million every single month. The $98 billion cost estimate is if everything goes perfectly from now on.

Well, we know it is not going perfectly. The prime contractor is having problems; we have just announced $5 billion in cost overruns, the Russians are not coming through with their fair share of expenditures, we are picking up the tab as taxpayers and transferring money out of NASA to the Russian account to pay for their services. So now the Chabrow report, with their estimation, is saying that, in fact, the space station that was supposed to be completed in 1994 may not be done until somewhere around 2005 or 2006 or 2007. And the development cost is going to be $24 billion instead of $17 billion.

So I think the gentleman from Michigan (Mr. CAMP) and other supporters of cancelling the space station, not the space program, but the space station program, will have this debate later today, and I urge Members' support.

The CHAIRMAN. The Clerk will read.

AMENDMENTS NUMBERED 18 OFFERED BY MR. STOKES

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Chairman, I offer amendment No. 18, which I offer on behalf of myself and the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. KENNEDY), and I ask unanimous consent that it be considered en bloc.

The CHAIRMAN. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Ohio?

There was no objection.

The CHAIRMAN. The Clerk will designate the amendments.

The text of the amendments is as follows:

Amendments numbered 18 offered by Mr. STOKES:

Page 18, line 14, after the dollar amount, insert the following: "(reduced by $97,000,000)".

Page 20, line 22, after the dollar amount, insert the following: "(increased by $97,000,000)".

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Chairman, the purpose of the amendment that I am offering, along with my friend, the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. KENNEDY) from the authorizing committee, is to provide additional Section 8 housing assistance vouchers targeted specifically to helping low income families make the transition from welfare to work.

The bill, as reported, provides $100 million for this purpose, and our amendment adds another $97 million. This will increase the number of new housing assistance vouchers provided for the bill from 17,600 to 34,800. This is still a bit short of the 50,000 new vouchers requested by the administration, but it is at least a good start.

The budgetary offset for the increase comes from $97 million that the bill appropriates for so-called Section 8 amendments, the term which HUD uses to refer to the process of adding funds to existing Section 8 housing assistance contracts that are running short.

The latest data from HUD and the GAO indicates that this $97 million would not be needed for Section 8 amendments in fiscal year 1999, as they have sufficient money on hand from other sources. Accordingly, what our amendment does is simply shift this $97 million within the Section 8 program and use it instead for welfare-to-work vouchers.

The context for our amendment is the very real crisis in affordable housing that is facing all too many people in this country. According to the latest statistics, there are 5.3 million low income households with what the experts call worst-case housing needs. These are people with incomes below 50 percent of the local median who receive no Federal housing assistance and who either pay more than half their income for rent or live in severely substandard housing.

This is not just an intercity housing problem. One-third of these 5.3 million households with worst-case needs live in the suburbs. It is not just a problem for people who do not have jobs. Indeed, the latest growth in worst-case housing needs has been among working families. The fact is, there is just not enough affordable housing to go around for people who earn low wages.

Despite the tremendous need, the Federal Government has been stepping back from its traditional role in helping to provide affordable housing. We are actually losing public housing units, not gaining. And there has not been funding since 1995 to expand the number of families helped by the Section 8 program, which is a program that provides financial assistance to help people rent housing on the private market.

The committee's bill takes a small step towards reversing this trend by providing funds for 17,800 new Section 8 housing vouchers, and our amendment makes that small step a little bigger by raising the number of new vouchers to 34,600.

Further, like the bill, our amendment targets those new housing vouchers to meeting a very high-priority need, helping people make the transition from welfare to work. Currently, about two-thirds of new jobs are being created in the suburbs, but three of every four welfare recipients live in central cities or rural areas. The basic purpose of the program, expanded by our amendment, is to help eliminate housing needs as an obstacle to getting and keeping jobs.

For example, families would be able to use the vouchers to move to areas where more job opportunities exist or to reduce excessively long and expensive commutes. The additional vouchers would be awarded on a competitive basis to local housing authorities. In other words, the vouchers would go to the localities who put together the best programs for using them, and HUD will be required to implement a system for tracking the use of these vouchers in evaluating the program's performance and in furthering the welfare-to-work objective.

In short, Mr. Chairman, our amendment provides a modest increase in a vital and well-structured program. I urge a yes vote on this Stokes Kennedy amendment.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, reluctantly, I rise in opposition to the amendment of my colleague.

Mr. Chairman, I believe the body knows that we have not had any significant funding for this program since 1995. The reason for that is that the voucher program essentially has been in serious disarray. It has not delivered service or money in a way that really made sense to those of us who know that we have challenges here in terms of serving poor people, but at the same time, as we try to meet those challenges, we would like to have the programs involved to work effectively.

This current year is the first year for some time we have provided significant dollars. There is some $100 million in the current fiscal year. That involves some 17,600 vouchers.

We are really taking a hard look at the way HUD is implementing this program. We want to measure whether or not they will get the job done this time. What this amendment suggests is that before that measurement actually takes place we ought to kind of double the program. We would go from 17,600 vouchers to 34,800. We would go from $100 million to $197 million.

Now while I have a good deal of empathy for what we are attempting to do here, frankly, I think we ought to deal as much as we can in the real world. The other body is more skeptical than we. They are providing some $40 million in their proposal this year, frankly, in no small part because they have some of those questions from the past still remaining.

So I would urge the body to realize that we have only got so many dollars to go around. We ought to be conservative in connection with this in the most positive way. We want to make sure the dollars that are a part of the bill for serving people are being used well, and so let us go one step at a time here.

With that reservation in mind, thereby, I urge the body to vote no on this amendment.

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.

Mr. Chairman, I rise in strong support of the Stokes-Kennedy amendment. I also want to just take this opportunity to thank the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS) and the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) for their hard work on looking out for the housing needs of our country.

Both of these gentlemen have worked together since I have been in the Congress in a way that has been, I think, very admirable.

I want to just say, as I look upon a fellow who was chairman of this subcommittee for many, many years and who is perhaps offering, if the chairman of the committee could just listen for 1 quick second here, it is perhaps the last housing amendment of the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) that we are dealing with here. I know of the close relationship that the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS) and the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) have. I would hope that maybe the opposition of the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS), while having been voiced, will not be too strong.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. I yield to the gentleman from California.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, the gentleman is attempting to soften my heart relative to my colleague here. I would prefer that he come back just a little later when we will discuss this matter much more extensively.

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, I would be happy. We will be back later on when another amendment comes up.

But the fact is that this is an amendment that is important, and it is important for us to recognize the tremendous housing needs of this country. Of the 15 million families that are eligible for housing assistance in America today, only 3 million of them get it. That means there are 12 million families, almost 40 million people that are walking around our country, many of whom are living in cars, many of whom are living in shelters, that have no place to go.

Nobody is going to defend every housing program or every voucher program. But the truth of the matter is that when we look at the severe housing needs and the severe housing shortages of this country, it is a crying shame. Over 5 million families, almost 15 million people in our country today have what are determined to be severe housing shortages. They are paying over 50 percent of their income in rent and living in inadequate housing.

This voucher program is different than public housing. This voucher program is different than the project-based housing program. This is a voucher which you can take to any part of our country, take to any home in America and be able to rent an apartment. It is a program that works.

There is money in this bill, make no mistake about it. There is a gap in the funding levels of this bill that allows us to pay for this program. And when we look at the tremendous shortages of so many of our families, we have put a very tough welfare bill in place.

If we talk to the mayor of Philadelphia, he will tell us that with the lowering of the unemployment rate, the fact of the matter is, he has to find 47,000 new jobs for welfare recipients in the next several months. We have got to find over 2,000 jobs a week in the city of Boston. The mayor of Chicago will tell us he has got to find 164,000 jobs between now and December. The jobs simply do not exist.

If we take away the welfare benefit and we do not even provide housing, what we will be doing is sending people into homeless shelters. The homeless shelters that I have visited are at new records of participation. More and more people, in the midst of summer, at a time when traditionally people do not use homeless shelters, they are now full to the brim.

This is a crisis in America. Certainly we can study problems, but there is money in this appropriations bill that can be used to assist 100,000 more children, 100,000 more kids who are in trouble in America, who need a place to have and call a home, who need a shelter in their lives, who need a place that they can feel provides them respite from all of the ills that the rest of the world is foisting upon them.

I ask Members to reach into their conscience and to support this legislation. There is money to be able to spend on this bill and to get it done within the budgetary constraints within which the committee has found itself.

I believe that if we look at the housing shortage, if we look at a well-run housing program, there is not a better-run housing program than the voucher program. This voucher program is designed to get people from welfare to work and to give them some housing needs as that occurs. Please support this amendment.

The gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) has asked for this support. I ask for this support. I think if we get it, the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS) will end up going along with it.

The CHAIRMAN. The question is on the amendments offered by the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES).

The question was taken; and the Chairman announced that the noes appeared to have it.

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, I demand a recorded vote.

The CHAIRMAN. Pursuant to House Resolution 501, further proceedings on the amendments offered by the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) will be postponed.

Mrs. LINDA SMITH of Washington. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.

Mr. Chairman, when I came to the floor today, I had originally intended to introduce an amendment to this bill, but it is becoming very clear that there is great opposition from the leadership of Congress.

And it was ruled out of order in the Committee on Rules because leadership did not want this debate. I do not think it is a debate, however, that we should shirk from.

What the debate is about is just a few weeks ago, and then confirmed in the last week, we decided that we would take a big cut in veterans' health care because there was a big transportation budget coming down the tracks that needed more money. So on the end of the transportation bill, and then confirmed again at the end of the IRS bill, in the last few days, few hours, we said if a veteran ever started smoking while they were in the military, we would break our commitment to them to give them health care later in life, in their later years.

For far too long veterans have been given table scraps in Congress while we pass pork barrel bills of things not nearly as important, not nearly as honorable as funding veterans' health care or the benefits we promised. I think some Members need to think, as they look at this bill today before final passage, about what we told veterans when we went home on the Fourth of July. Many members were approached by a veteran at one of the celebrations of our freedom or one of the memorials of those lost in war or those wounded in war that we all went to, and at those we would have a veteran approach us and say, "It was so terrible to read that veterans had a big health care cut. What will you do about it?"

And without exception, or very few I am sure, the Member of Congress would say, "Well, it was a part of a bigger bill. The bigger bill was so important that we just had to vote for this veterans' health care cut. But when we go back, if we get a chance, we will fix this. Because it is really not very fair, is it?" And we would apologize and then come back to Congress and, at the end of another bill, the IRS reform bill, right at the last minute, they found out the veterans' cuts were not done right in the transportation bill.

See, when we do things at the last minute, in a kind of way that is not aboveboard, that cannot be debated, we hang it on another bill. Sometimes it does not get done very clean. And so what happens is the language was so messy, and, by the way, the President proposed the original language, so this is a bipartisan problem, that they had to bring it back up and put it on the IRS reform bill. It is called a must-pass bill. And we are told we are going to get in deep trouble if we do not vote for the IRS reform bill. So guess what? We will put it on this bill. Nothing related to veterans' health care, but they did have to reconfirm the writing and the drafting. So they put it on a must-pass bill.

Today, we have a third chance to keep our word. This is the veterans' bill. It is not just any other bill that we are hanging something on. This bill can say we made a mistake, and I am going to keep my word. If we vote for this bill, we are confirming the cut, $15 billion over 5 years.

Now, the health care portion of the V.A. budget is $17 billion a year for veterans. If we take this much money out, it is a real reduction; or, if it is not a reduction, where are we going to get the money? Are we going to take it out of housing? Are we going to go to veterans' outreach? Where will it come from? Where will it come from?

One thing we know is the veterans' population is increasing. And those about my age are the Vietnam vets. And guess what? They are getting to where things hurt. And the things we could have worked through in our 20's and 30's we cannot now necessarily do that. So they are needing to come forward and saying to us, "I need you to keep your commitment to me; the one that you made when I served the country; the one that you made when I went back in and the recruiter said give us 2 more years. If you just come 2 more years, you will get health care." And what are we saying to them? We are saying to them, no, we are not going to honor that commitment ever.

When veterans got their S.P.'s in Vietnam, they got cigarettes. In the Second World War and Korea, when they were issued their provisions, they were given cigarettes. They were encouraged to smoke to release the tension. But if they did that, we are going to tell them now that we are going to break our word to them.

What I tell my colleagues is that this is the time you can keep our word to veterans. Every major veterans' group in the Nation came forward, from the littlest group to the Vietnam veterans. The Vietnam veterans are even calling our offices saying do not vote for this bill. If we are going to do the honorable thing, this is the only train this year that we can correct and put back on track. Do not vote for this bill.

The CHAIRMAN. The time of the gentlewoman from Washington (Mrs. LINDA SMITH) has expired.

(On request of Mr. OBEY, and by unanimous consent, Mrs. LINDA SMITH of Washington was allowed to proceed for 1 additional minute.)

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Chairman, will the gentlewoman yield?

Mrs. LINDA SMITH of Washington. I yield to the gentleman from Wisconsin.

Mr. OBEY. Mr. Chairman, I simply want to say that I agree with the gentlewoman's observations, and that is one of the reasons that I think Members ought to vote against this bill.

Again, it is not because of anything that has been done by the subcommittee, but because of what has been done by this institution previously that has put this subcommittee in this box today. And I do not think we ought to be ratifying those decisions.

Mrs. LINDA SMITH of Washington. Reclaiming my time, Mr. Chairman, in conclusion, I think this is a hard issue for a lot of people. It is hard to know how to keep our commitment. But one thing we can be sure of, if we take $15 billion out of veterans' health care over 5 years, and the VA health care budget is only $17 billion a year, we cannot keep our commitment.

This is a Democrat-Republican problem. The President started it. He even recommended we do it. They got to the days of the transportation budget and just did not have enough money for all those roads that go nowhere. So, all of a sudden, both parties and the President made a decision that veterans do not have a loud enough voice.

Today, let us think about the veterans. Let us say it is not honorable to go forward with this and let us take it back, fix it, and bring it forward. There is a lot of good things and a lot of good effort in this bill, but let us defeat it, bring it back next week, and take the veterans' health care cut out of it.

Mr. Chairman, I am submitting for the RECORD an urgent appeal from the Vietnam Veterans of America regarding this bill.

VIETNAM VETERANS OF AMERICA, INC.,
Washington, DC, July 15, 1998.

URGENT APPEAL TO ALL U.S. REPRESENTATIVES
Don't break your promise to veterans again.

You hurt veterans twice already this year with majority votes in the House and Senate to loot $15 plus billion from disabled veterans and their widows and orphans for pork barrel projects in the transportation bill. Then just last week you dishonored veterans again by voting to finalize the transfer of funds for transportation in the IRS Reform bill.

Most if not all of you promised when you marched in Independence Day parades with your veterans this July 4th that you would correct this immoral act and restore the dollars taken for disabled veterans health care and benefits.

Well, you have a third chance now, vote no on final passage of H.R. 4194, the VA/HUD Fiscal Year 1999 appropriations bill. Representative Linda Smith tried to keep your promises to veterans, but was denied even a chance to vote to restore funds for veterans in this bill.

A vote for the VA-HUD bill is a vote against veterans. Vote no on final passage.

AMENDMENT NO. 23 OFFERED BY MS. JACKSON-LEE OF TEXAS

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Chairman, I offer amendment No. 23.

The CHAIRMAN. The Clerk will designate the amendment.

The text of the amendment is as follows:

Amendment No. 23 offered by Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas:

Page 17, line 25, insert "(increased by $183,000,000)" after "$10,250,542,030".

Page 24, line 2, insert "(decreased by $183,000,000)" after "$3,000,000,000".

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent that the amendment be considered en bloc?

The CHAIRMAN. Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from Texas?

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I must reserve a point of order against the amendment because it would increase the level of budget authority outlays in the bill in violation of clause 2 of rule XXI.

This rule states that it shall be in order to consider en bloc amendments proposed only to transfer appropriations among objects in the bill without increasing the levels of budget authority or outlays in the bill. The amendment would increase the level of budget authority outlays in the bill and, therefore, I make a point of order.

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Chairman, I would say to the chairman that I intend to withdraw this amendment and would like to support the Kennedy-Stokes amendment.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair understands the gentleman from California to be reserving a point of order.

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. It is difficult in this process to, in many instances, help our constituents who are in great need because of the various procedures that are necessary. And I do realize that in the order of the House these are important, but since my main concern is to ensure that those who need public housing and affordable housing in America are taken care of, I offered an amendment that would have added more monies to the Section 8 incremental assistance restoration program.

That program provides the opportunity for families whose incomes do not meet the Section 8 standards. Section 8 certificates allow for housing throughout the community and for it to be integrated in the community separate and apart from public housing. My interest is to ensure that those particular families have a greater opportunity.

In fact, under the current version of the bill, only 14,000 new families will be able to receive incremental assistance under Section 8, and that is 36,000 families short of the administration's proposals. In dollars and cents terms, there is a difference of $183 million between H.R. 4194 and the administration's request.

I am delighted, however, to do two things this morning: One, to pay tribute to the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. LOUIS STOKES) for his long and dedicated service in this area of public housing and service to veterans. The gentleman from Ohio has chaired and been the ranking member of this subcommittee for many, many years, and I appreciate his dedication to the spirit and the intent of my amendment, which is to find families who are struggling in America.

In particular, my district in Houston, the City of Houston, was cited as one of the cities with the lowest number of affordable housing units. We are desperately in need of housing families who struggle every day. With that in mind, I have viewed Section 8 housing as a very important mechanism for families looking to solidify their futures.

I would offer to withdraw my amendment and support the Kennedy-Stokes amendment, which answers the question of providing vouchers to low-income families living in housing owned by private landlords. Each of these families in the program, the vouchers pay the difference between the fair market value of their accommodations and 30 percent of their income. Therefore, this program not only ensures that private landlords get their fair share in rental income, but it also phases out the federal assistance as a qualifying family's income rises. Section 8 vouchers and certificates are vitally important to the minority community. The latest figures indicate that well over half of all Section 8 assistance goes to African American and Hispanic families.

Mr. Chairman, I would simply say that we are long behind helping to house the families who are in need of Section 8. Over half of Section 8 families are headed by a single parent. With the Kennedy-Stokes amendment, I believe that we are making great headway in this legislation to assure that those families who are asking not for a hand-out, but a hand-up and a step-up, that those families in my district and in the Houston area, in particular, which has been designated, as I said earlier, as a city without a lot of affordable housing, I believe the Stokes-Kennedy amendment does answer the question.

I am very pleased to rise to support this particular amendment. If I might inquire of the gentleman from Ohio, before my time ends and before withdrawing my amendment, to make sure that my understanding is correct, is it correct that the gentleman's amendment will provide additional monies for those families, incremental monies, to help them qualify for the Section 8? Is my understanding correct regarding the provisions of the gentleman's amendment that it will add more families to the Section 8 opportunities?

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Chairman, will the gentlewoman yield?

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. I yield to the gentleman from Ohio.

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Chairman, what precisely my amendment would do is to add additional vouchers up to the amount of $97 million, which is the requested amount by the administration, which would automatically provide additional vouchers, additional opportunities, for welfare to work for those persons who are residents of public housing.

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Chairman, I appreciate very much the gentleman's leadership on that issue. As he well knows, I had an additional concern about helping families raise their incomes to be eligible for Section 8. I do believe it is extremely important to answer the many waiting lists that are around the Nation where families are waiting for Section 8, and I applaud the gentleman's leadership.

I am delighted to withdraw my amendment in support of the Stokes-Kennedy amendment and thank the gentleman for his very fine leadership and thank the chairman as well for his fine leadership on this issue.

Ms. JACKSON-LEE of Texas. Mr. Chairman, I ask unanimous consent to withdraw the amendment.

The CHAIRMAN. Is there objection to the request of the gentlewoman from Texas?

There was no objection.

The CHAIRMAN. The Clerk will read.

The Clerk read as follows:

□ 1115

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.

Mr. Chairman, I would like to speak briefly about the Fair Housing Initiatives Program and particularly about my understanding of the committee's intent with respect to use of funds for this program.

The Fair Housing Initiatives Program, known as FHIP, provides grants to nonprofit organizations and local government agencies to aid in the promotion of fair housing. These grants are used for education, for outreach efforts, for investigation of possible violations, for conciliation of complaints and other similar purposes.

FHIP guarantees to address the full range of prohibited discrimination in sale and rental of housing and provision of housing-related services, including discrimination based on race, discrimination based on sex, discrimination against people with disabilities, and discrimination against families with children.

Unfortunately, this kind of housing discrimination still exists in our Nation. And, for this reason, I am pleased to report that our committee has been able to provide a portion of the funding increase requested by the administration for the FHIP program.

In funding this program, our subcommittee has taken note of a controversy surrounding the application of our Federal Fair Housing laws to discrimination in the provision of property insurance. Now, I and many others believe that there should be no doubt that the Fair Housing Act prohibits that kind of discrimination. Without access to insurance, they are not going to get a mortgage and they are not going to be able to buy a home. This position has been consistently taken by HUD and the Justice Department throughout both Republican and Democratic administrations and has been reaffirmed by the courts.

However, some still raise doubts and maintain that FHIP funds should not be available to address discrimination in the provision of property insurance. In the spirit of compromise, we worked out an agreement on this issue last year. That agreement proved workable in fiscal year 1998 and is repeated in the committee's report language on this bill.

In essence, the committee agreed that FHIP grants should not be awarded for any single-purpose enforcement initiatives. In other words, funds should not be used to make grants for enforcement efforts targeted to any narrow category of discrimination, whether that category is discrimination in provision of insurance or any other particular form of discrimination. Rather, FHIP funds are to be used for activities addressing a broad range of conduct prohibited by the Fair Housing Act.

In the view of HUD, the Justice Department and the courts, that broad range of prohibited conduct includes discrimination in the provision of insurance. And FHIP grantees are free to use their funds to address such discrimination as long as they do so in the context of a broadly based fair housing enforcement program.

Mrs. CHENOWETH. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.

Mr. Chairman, one of the oldest tactics of argument is the shotgun approach. In debate, they bombard their opposition with a flurry of arguments in the hopes that somewhere along the line one of their points will ring true.

In football, an all-out blitz gives the defense the very best odds that somebody will sack the quarterback. But, Mr. Chairman, the appropriations process in the Congress is not a football game. Instead, it should be a solemn responsibility of the elected representatives of this great Nation to determine the just allocation of the hard-earned money of our Nation's taxpayers.

We do not have a fair and honest debate on individual departments or programs. Instead, in the VA-HUD appropriations bill, we will have alphabet soup, an approach to government.

Let me just read to my colleagues some of the names of the agencies that we are dealing with: HUD, EPA, CEQ, OEQ, FDIC, FEMA, NASA, NSF, ABMC, CSHIB. Mr. Chairman, I am sure my colleagues get my point. It goes on and on and on. Why are we forced to vote in favor of increased funding for agencies like HUD in order to just get funding for our veterans and complete our promises?

Let me demonstrate my point. I asked for a seat on the Committee on Veterans' Affairs in the 105th Congress in order to be in a position of advocacy for these great Americans. Less than a month ago, two chairmen of the Committee on Veterans' Affairs joined with me to hold a field hearing in my district to determine the methods of improving veterans' health care. Both chairmen and I came out of that hearing with a clear idea about the steps that Congress and the VA needs to take to ensure that we keep our promises as a Nation to the veterans to provide the health care we promised.

So, in theory, all I would have to do is look at the recommendations from the Subcommittee on VA, HUD and Independent Agencies to ensure that the necessary programs are funded at the appropriate levels. Well, instead, I have to vote to fund the VA in conjunction with some 20 other programs in order to guarantee the VA is funded. This is offensive, Mr. Chairman.

But I also have other concerns about the VA-HUD appropriation bill. This bill appropriates $94.4 billion in new budget authority, $94.4 billion. It increases spending by $4.4 billion over 1998. But what concerns me most about this increase in spending is that not one penny of the increases will go to the veterans' medical care. Over $4 billion of new spending and we are not going to spend one new dime to provide the necessary medical care. Yes, we spent new money for administrative care, but not new money for the kind of medical care we need for our veterans.

This bill also makes no provision for the mandatory cost-of-living adjustment for our veterans' benefits. We provided for everyone else, but what about our veterans? Again, there is an increase of more than $4 billion in spending from last year, but that does not include the necessary COLA for our veterans.

Earlier this year, we voted to take billions of dollars from veterans' programs and use them to fund transportation projects. Instead of trying to right the wrong, we are increasing spending for HUD and EPA and CEQ and not for the veterans' medical care.

Additionally, this bill cuts funding for the maintenance of war memorials, our national cemeteries, and Arlington National Cemetery, our finest symbol of honor and valor in this country.

Mr. Chairman, I recognize the need for fiscal responsibility. However, this is not being responsible, increasing HUD by the degree that we are and forgetting our veterans. We should not balance the budget on the back of our veterans. They should be a priority because we made that promise, not an afterthought.

I urge a no vote on H.R. 4194.

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last requisite number of words.

Mr. Chairman, I must say to my colleagues in the House that the description made of our bill a moment ago is so far from being a reflection of the work of this committee that I cannot help but respond.

This committee has been a part of that significant effort to reduce patterns of growth in the Government across the board. We have reduced patterns of growth in every category except the veterans' category. This subcommittee has consistently adjusted funding for veterans in a positive way. In a bipartisan way, we have expressed our concern about veterans and indeed have made significant strides in the direction of improving the quality of care delivered to veterans across the country.

The CHAIRMAN (Mr. COMBEST). The Clerk will read.

Mrs. KELLY. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.

I would like to join the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS) in a colloquy.

Chairman LEWIS, I apologize for not being here during the time that you were discussing title I of this bill. Other business kept me from the House floor.

But, as you know, I and a number of my colleagues in New York and New Jersey have been very concerned over reports of substandard care amount our veterans' hospitals with Veterans Integrated Service Network 3.

An investigation by the VA's Office of Medical Inspector confirmed over 158 separate health and safety violations at the VISN 3 facilities. Of added concern was the fact that these problems coincided with the funding cuts required by the implementation of the Veterans Equitable Resource system, or VERA.

While the Office of Medical Inspector was identifying so many problems related to the care and services of our veterans, the VISN 3 director transferred an additional $20 million over and above what was required by VERA back to Washington. This action may have satisfied a budgetary goal, but it is completely inconsistent with the goal of quality veterans care, which should be the core mission of the VA.

With your leadership, Mr. Chairman, the committee included report language to accompany the Fiscal Year 1999 VA-HUD appropriations bill to urge the VA Secretary to provide VISN 3 with a one-time credit of $20 million, ensuring that this funding remains in the Network to address the problems noted in the OMI's report. Unfortunately, public statements by the VA have suggested that the agency may not carry out the committee's wishes as set forth by the report.

Mr. Chairman, is it your intention that the VA will carry out the will of the committee as dictated by the report language?

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

Mrs. KELLY. I yield to the gentleman from California.

Mr. LEWIS of California. The gentleman from New York (Mrs. KELLY) correctly characterizes the nature of the problems in VISN 3, and I would like to assure her that it is my intention that the VA comply with the directive included in the report to provide VISN 3 with a one-time credit of $20 million.

To further address her concerns, I have a letter from VA Deputy Secretary Gober which clarifies that it is his agency's policy to honor appropriations report language.

Mr. GILMAN. Mr. Chairman, I rise today in support of the colloquy taking place between subcommittee Chairman LEWIS and my colleague from New York, Representative KELLY.

Earlier this year, a General Accounting Office study, which had been requested by the New York delegation, revealed that the director of VISN-3 had returned $20 million from his FY '97 budget to Washington at a time when the VA Office of the Medical Inspector was finding more than 156 separate health and safety violations at two of the VISN's eight hospitals.

No other VISN, Mr. Speaker, returned any money from their FY '97 budget to Washington. Leaving the timing of the decision aside, central VA authorities, at the very least, should have credited VISN-3 with making additional contributions to VERA requirements ahead of time. Regrettably, this was not the case, and essentially, VISN-3 received absolutely nothing for returning these funds.

VISN-3 has been the one network hardest hit by the VERA realignment. While we in Congress are awaiting the final report of the GAO on the effects of VERA on the quality of care being delivered in VISN-3, it is safe to conclude that VERA has not improved matters.

Furthermore, while it may have been inappropriate for the VISN director to send back such a large sum of money at a time when so many infra-structural and staffing problems were surfacing, the fact remains that the VISN should have benefited from its director's "thriftiness." That it did not is a gross injustice, one which the VA should now correct to assure quality care for our Veterans.

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.

Mr. Chairman, I would like to add to the comments made in the colloquy between the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS) and the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. KELLY).

First of all, let me thank the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. KELLY) and the gentlewoman from my own State of New Jersey (Mrs. ROUKEMA) for their leadership relative to getting back from Washington the money that was sent back by the VISN 3 director, Jim Farsetta, from the New York and New Jersey region.

Their leadership has been wonderful and entirely appropriate.

Only 2 weeks ago, Mr. Chairman, I learned in my district office in New Jersey from the top brass of that VISN, that Veterans Integrated Service Network, from the lips of James Farsetta, who is the director, as well as Kim Mizarch, who heads up the combined veterans hospitals in New Jersey, that the VA, if that money comes back to

New York and New Jersey, that $20 million that was inappropriately sent back to Washington, that the VISN leadership would use that to pay the retirement packages for employees that will be retiring from hospitals in the New York and New Jersey region.

That is entirely inappropriate. If, in fact, that money comes back to New York and New Jersey, it ought to be used to increase the health care access and programs, as the gentlewoman from New Jersey (Mrs. ROUKEMA), the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. KELLY) and myself and other members of the delegation, both Democrats and Republicans, would seek. The thought of using that money for retirement packages flies in the face of everything we have learned about the way our system is run and, quite honestly, quality of care issues are definitely in effect in that that money ought to be used for medical care for the veterans, not for retirement packages.

Mrs. ROUKEMA. Mr. Chairman, will the gentleman yield?

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN. I yield to the gentlewoman from New Jersey.

Mrs. ROUKEMA. Mr. Chairman, I want to express my appreciation for gentleman's leadership on this subject; of course, for the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. KELLY). We all share the same needs in the New York-New Jersey area for veterans.

I also want to enter into this colloquy because it is most essential, what the gentleman has just said and what I stated earlier in the general debate, that the committee has got to force the compliance with the VA under the conditions of this legislation and the conditions under which the $20 million is being allocated. And I am happy to hear, I had not known until just recently, about this conversation or discussion the gentleman had with Farsetta.

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN. Director Farsetta.

Mrs. ROUKEMA. The director, but I am very pleased to learn of the letter that the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS) has just identified and the stated intentions. This colloquy and the language in the appropriations bill should be ample evidence that they have to comply with the intentions of Congress, and I really commend the gentleman for his leadership.

I want to continue to working with the gentleman, Mr. Chairman. We will be the watchdogs on this issue.

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN. Reclaiming my time, I yield to the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. KELLY).

Mrs. KELLY. Mr. Chairman, I simply want to concur in what the gentleman said, and I want to emphasize that the money should go, as we all expected it to go, into high-quality medical care for the veterans. They deserve nothing less.

Mrs. ROUKEMA. Precisely.

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN. Mr. Chairman, I yield to the gentleman from New York (Mr. SOLOMON), chairman of the Committee on Rules.

Mr. SOLOMON. Mr. Chairman, I will make it very fast.

I just want to commend the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN), and certainly the gentlewoman from New Jersey (Mrs. ROUKEMA), particularly the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. KELLY), my neighbor.

As a former ranking member of the Committee on Veterans Affairs, the money ought to go to medical care delivery. That is where the shortage is. And I appreciate, believe me, the support of the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS) because he has always been a great supporter of the veterans, and with this help now we will see that it happens.

The CHAIRMAN. The Clerk will read. The Clerk read as follows:

(2) provide each tenant of the housing with a copy of that notice.

(b) Exception.—The requirements of this section do not apply—

(1) in any case in which the prepayment or termination at issue is necessary to effect conversion to ownership by a priority purchaser (as defined in section 231(a) of the Low-Income Housing Preservation and Resident Homeownership Act of 1990 (12 U.S.C. 4120(a))); or

(2) in the case of any owner who has provided notice of an intended prepayment or termination on or before July 7, 1998, in accordance with the requirements of section 212(b) of the Low-Income Housing Preservation and Resident Homeownership Act of 1990 (12 U.S.C. 4102(b)).

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I reserve a point of order on the amendment.

Mr. VENTO. Mr. Chairman, I appreciate the gentleman reserving his point of order.

There is a similar amendment that has been passed to mine which provides 1 year notice for persons residing in assisted housing where there is an exercised option by the owner to, in fact, terminate the assisted or Section 8 type of support to such housing. This is a problem of immediate concern that is causing a crisis across the Nation.

The fact is that in 1989 in the LIHPRA legislation that was enacted, there was a provision for prenotification of the option to exercise termination of such contract. But that has not been implemented, and, as my colleagues are aware and I am very concerned about, there is not funding for the Low-income Housing Preservation Resident Ownership Program in this legislation, and what we hope to do is at least try to provide this notice so that individuals who are receiving only, in some cases only 30 days and others 60 days notice, are not receiving much notification, that they, in fact, would have that. I suppose optimally, if they have a year, they would have a chance to really restructure this and to do something to, in fact, maintain this low-income housing.

While it is important nationwide with hundreds of thousands of units of low-income housing being converted, it is especially important in our State of Minnesota where nearly 10 percent of the low-income housing is affected by this provision.

So this prepayment notice provision has been added to the Senate bill by our senior Senator, and we hope that that will be looked at in conference. At the very least we would like the option to offer it at this time, but the rule obviously, while making great provisions for other measures to be offered on the floor that have, I think, much less relevance and relationship to the appropriation process, has decided not to do so for us.

Mr. Chairman, I yield to the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. SABO), my colleague and a member of this subcommittee.

Mr. SABO. Mr. Chairman, I congratulate the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. VENTO) on an excellent amendment.

As I understand the gentleman’s amendment, it requires notice to both the residents and the local governments.

Mr. VENTO. Yes, it does, and I continue to yield to the gentleman.

Mr. SABO. That is very crucial for 2 reasons: one, so that the residents have some advance knowledge that their status may change, and also so the local governments may know that the status of buildings are going to change so that there is some potential for negotiating, maybe even negotiating change of ownership. And I had one big project where they were able to work out a nonprofit ownership of a building where the owner wanted to refinance so they could continue as low-income housing.

And so I just think this is a very important amendment, and let me add that it is one part of dealing with what is a growing problem in our country, and that is the lack of affordable housing. Clearly the expansion of vouchers helps, and I strongly support the Stokes amendment to add more vouchers. But we have a problem that goes beyond that in our area in Minnesota, and that is that we have very, very low vacancy rates, and the problem is that people lose their vouchers, and there is no place to go. We desperately in this country need to build more housing that is available for low-income people. The vouchers are good, but, if there is no housing to use them with, they fail their purpose.

And so we really need to be fair to local governments, to residents, to have the kind of notice that my friend, the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. VENTO), is suggesting, but we also need more vouchers for people who have low income, but we also need to get serious about producing more housing that is available for low-income families in this country. It is a problem that exists not only in our urban area, but in most rural parts of our State.

So I thank the gentleman for his very good amendment. I understand the procedural problems we have today, but I would urge the subcommittee to look kindly on such a proposal in conference.

Mr. VENTO. Mr. Chairman, I thank the gentleman for his comments and would just point out that this problem that with the notification of local governments with the State can, in fact, have a very salutary effect because our State, as an example, has appropriated $10 million to, in fact, try to respond to the inadequate Federal funding.

The CHAIRMAN. The time of the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. VENTO) has expired.

(On request of Mr. SABO, and by unanimous consent, Mr. VENTO was allowed to proceed for 2 additional minutes.)

Mr. VENTO. Mr. Chairman, I thank the gentleman for the additional time, and I will be brief, but I was going to point out that the State had provided dollars in the cities and communities in which they lie. Minnesota was very quick to pick up on the assisted housing program that was enacted and put in place in the early 1970s. The consequence is that we have a significant concentration of assisted housing, and this assisted housing program worked very well in Minnesota, like a lot of other public programs and other initiatives that not always have an even affect across the country, but things seem to work very well there in terms of what we are doing.

And the State has made this commitment, I think the various cities and communities, and what is happening is some of the best low-income housing that has a market approach without a certain contract with regards to Section 8, my colleagues, and those contracts for 1 year are somewhat uncertain, and without the type of notice requirements and the implementation of LIHPRA, we are losing it. So we basically have a crisis.

Mr. Chairman, I further yield to the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. SABO), my colleague from the Fifth District in Minneapolis.

Mr. SABO. Mr. Chairman, I think our history has been that whatever problems exist nationally have not existed in most of these projects and programs in our State, and they worked very well. They provided very good housing, and are widely used, and people who live there like them and would like to be able to stay.

At some point I would like to ask the chairman of the subcommittee a question, and I am not sure if it is appropriate.

Mr. VENTO. Mr. Chairman, I yield to the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS) for that particular purpose and response.

Mr. SABO. Mr. Chairman, if the gentleman would yield, my understanding is that one of the things that helps remedy the situation are the so-called sticky vouchers which can be used where these projects are converted.

The CHAIRMAN. The time of the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. VENTO) has again expired.

(By unanimous consent, Mr. VENTO was allowed to proceed for 2 additional minutes.)

Mr. VENTO. Mr. Chairman, I yield to the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. SABO).

Mr. SABO. My understanding is that under this bill sticky vouchers can be used for renewal after the first year.

Mr. VENTO. Mr. Chairman, I yield to the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS), chairman of the subcommittee.

Mr. LEWIS of California. The gentleman is correct.

Mr. VENTO. Mr. Chairman, this amendment would provide tenants and state or local officials with fair notice that the federally insured mortgages for buildings in which they live or that are in their communities, are going to be prepaid. In being prepaid, the building will no longer be a part of the subsidized housing stock and the tenants will likely have to move or pay large increases in rent.

In the late 80's and 90's as the threat of prepayment began to loom large on the horizon, we worked and enacted laws that would help preserve as many units as possible as subsidized or affordable housing. We attempted to create incentives for owners to remain in programs or for them to sell to nonprofits or others who would maintain the affordable housing mission.

We enacted the Low Income Housing Preservation and Resident Homeownership Act (LIHPRA). However, funds have not been allocated for LIHPRA since FY 1997 and the provisions of LIHPRA which provide fair notice, plans of action and tenant displacement assistance appear not to be being enforced by HUD when owners prepay.

Significantly, this has very negatively affected the jurisdictions in which those housing units exist and especially the tenants of the buildings.

This has been devastating for tenants who are often elderly or disabled persons living on fixed incomes. They are receiving 60 or sometimes only 30 days notice that their entire lives are going to be disrupted, supportive neighbors and friends lost, and possibly their proximity to doctors or services that they need eliminated. Worse still, in many markets, including the Twin Cities of St. Paul and Minneapolis, there is no where to go. Vouchers if any help but, our vacancy rate is very low. There is not enough affordable housing to go around there or other parts of the country as the 5.3 million American households in substandard housing or paying over 50 percent of their incomes can tell you.

This amendment can help real people deal with traumatic changes in the lives in an orderly and reasonable fashion. It will only require a little extra notice. That could make some difference for people for whom the very thought of a search for a new home could overwhelm them.

Mr. Speaker, in my state of Minnesota, they were able to come up with a new law this year that would provide $10 million for each of the next two years to help preserve some of these buildings at risk of prepayment. I intend to introduce very soon legislation that would provide a federal match to state programs that step up to the plate and try to save federally assisted affordable housing in their borders.

My amendment today will help responsible governments and tenants with timely notice that could help them preserve some of the housing in Minnesota and elsewhere. In Minnesota, the Minnesota State Housing Agency is estimated that 10 percent of that low income housing stock, some 5,000 units are at risk. We have a national housing crisis on our hands and Congress must face it, fairly and squarely now and in the future. Support my amendment as a first step back into dealing with the housing crisis and do what Congress can do to make certain that residents of assisted housing have adequate notice and time to respond to the eviction from their homes.

POINT OF ORDER

The CHAIRMAN. Does the gentleman from California press his point of order?

Mr. LEWIS of California. Mr. Chairman, I make a point of order against the Vento amendment because it proposes to change existing law and constitutes legislation in an appropriation bill, and therefore violates clause 2 of rule XXI.

The rule states in pertinent part that no amendment to a general appropriations bill shall be in order if changing existing law. This amendment, by requiring owners of Preservation-eligible properties to provide 1 year notice of prepayment to tenants and State and local governments, imposes additional duties and constitutes, therefore, legislation in an appropriation bill.

I ask for a ruling of the Chair.

The CHAIRMAN. Does any other Member wish to be heard on the point of order?

Mr. VENTO. Mr. Chairman, I concede the point of order.

The CHAIRMAN. The point of order is conceded and sustained.

Mr. FRANK of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, I move to strike the last word.

Mr. Chairman, I know we are all eager to conclude, but I did feel the need to speak. We have had a number of amendments today, and I find myself in the unusual position, as someone who has been on the Subcommittee on Housing for 18 years, of not really being able to enthusiastically get involved in the amendment process because some things are beyond repair, and this bill is one of them. It is no reflection on either the chairman or the ranking member. They have, in my experience, done in the past and continue to do an excellent job with what they are given to work with.

The gentleman from California and the gentleman from Ohio I think have been sensitive and thoughtful in their responsibilities as leaders of the appropriations subcommittee. But what they have been given to work with in this bill is a disgrace. There is hardly an aspect of this important appropriations bill which comes close to being adequately funded, and we ought to be clear that this is a reflection of the outrageous, crabbled, insensitive, socially-destructive priorities that are now governing this Congress.

What is particularly interesting, I think, is that there are probably 80 percent of the Members who have told some group that, yes, they wish we could have given them more money in veterans' health, in Section 8 housing, in brownfields, in the cleanup of Superfund sites. Everybody here, close to everybody, is for more money. But, in fact, we will be disappointing interest after interest, legitimate interests, because of a crabbled and insensitive set of priorities.

There simply is no way to improve this bill. The gentlemen who run the committee have done as good a job as they can with the extraordinarily meager resources they are given, so as we amend here, we are reduced to not even robbing Peter to pay Paul, we are reduced to mugging Peter to pay Paul's burial expenses, because this bill systematically degrades and destroys and diminishes valuable government programs.

Let us be very clear, this is a bill inadequate to help with our housing crisis. This is a bill which will leave people in need of housing, hard-working families, people who are being told to get off welfare and get jobs, it will leave them in a worse crisis, because they will, in many parts of this country, not be able to afford housing. It will leave the environmental problems of the country worse off. It will deprive veterans of this country of health care they need to have.

What are we being told we will then do? We are going to cut taxes. We have a surplus, and we are told, particularly on the other side, that we should rejoice because there is this great surplus.

I do rejoice that we are generating more money, but is not a nickel to go to the veterans who have already lost health care? Is nothing to go alleviate a housing crisis which this bill will make worse? Is nothing out of that even worth considering to deal with environmental problems which go undone?

Members here, I guess I would at least ask for this, Members who have said this is the best we can do for the environment, for housing and for veterans, and we have to cut taxes, please have the decency not to tell people how much you wish you could have helped them. Please have the decency not to tell people, that, oh, yes, you were for more housing, and you were for more help for the veterans, and you were for more help for the brownfields, but somehow you could not do it.

Do you know what we have? What I have called the reverse Houdini. Harry Houdini became famous, as Ragtime remembers, because other people would tie him in knots, and his trick was to get out of the knots.

What we have here is a House that has done the reverse Houdini by voting a crabbed and inadequate budget that underfunds valuable social programs, and then says, if we have additional revenue, let us put all of it into tax cuts for people that are already pretty wealthy. And then people will come to us and say we need help with veterans. Veterans are going without health care. We need help with housing. We need help with the environment.

What do we say to them? We cannot help you. Why can we not help you? Because we have tied our own hands. That is the reverse Houdini. The Houdini is when somebody else ties you up and you get out of it. The reverse Houdini is when you tie yourself up, and then people come and say please help me with these terrible social problems, and you say, I am sorry, I cannot do that, I am all tied up. But it a self-inflicted restraint.

So I am not participating in this debate on the amendment process. Many of my friends are trying very hard, but they are trying to square the circle. Despite the good intentions of the gentleman from California, and I apologize to him for praising him in this context, I will do him no good, I am afraid, by doing so, but I know he tries. The gentleman from Ohio tries. But they have been given such a desperately inadequate amount of money to deal with some of the gravest social problems in America, not because the money is not there, but because this House chooses to misallocate the money in a reflection of terrible priorities.

Mr. Chairman, that is why I took the 5 minutes right now. That is why I am so disappointed that we are so ill-serving the American people.

SEC. 1003. DECLARATION OF POLICY TO RENEW AMERICAN NEIGHBORHOODS.

The Congress hereby declares that—

(1) the Federal Government has a responsibility to promote the general welfare of the Nation—

(A) by using Federal resources to aid families and individuals seeking affordable homes that are safe, clean, and healthy and, in particular, assisting responsible, deserving citizens who cannot provide fully for themselves because of temporary circumstances or factors beyond their control;

(B) by working to ensure a thriving national economy and a strong private housing market; and

(C) by developing effective partnerships among the Federal Government, State and local governments, and private entities that allow government to accept responsibility for fostering the development of a healthy marketplace and allow families to prosper without government involvement in their day-to-day activities;

(2) the Federal Government cannot through its direct action alone provide for the housing of every American citizen, or even a majority of its citizens, but it is the responsibility of the Government to promote and protect the independent and collective actions of private citizens to develop housing and strengthen their own neighborhoods;

(3) the Federal Government should act where there is a serious need that private citizens or groups cannot or are not addressing responsibly;

(4) housing is a fundamental and necessary component of bringing true opportunity to people and communities in need, but providing physical structures to house low-income families will not by itself pull generations up from poverty;

(5) it is a goal of our Nation that all citizens have decent and affordable housing; and

(6) our Nation should promote the goal of providing decent and affordable housing for all citizens through the efforts and encouragement of Federal, State, and local governments, and by the independent and collective actions of private citizens, organizations, and the private sector.

TITLE XI—GENERAL PROVISIONS

SEC. 1101. STATEMENT OF PURPOSE.

The purpose of this division is to promote safe, clean, and healthy housing that is affordable to low-income families, and thereby contribute to the supply of affordable housing, by—

(1) deregulating and decontrolling public housing agencies, thereby enabling them to perform as property and asset managers;

(2) providing for more flexible use of Federal assistance to public housing agencies, allowing the authorities to leverage and combine assistance amounts with amounts obtained from other sources;

(3) facilitating mixed income communities;

(4) increasing accountability and rewarding effective management of public housing agencies;

(5) creating incentives and economic opportunities for residents of dwelling units assisted by public housing agencies to work, become self-sufficient, and transition out of public housing and federally assisted dwelling units;

(6) recreating the existing rental assistance voucher program so that the use of vouchers and relationships between landlords and tenants under the program operate in a manner that more closely resembles the private housing market; and

(7) remedying troubled public housing agencies and replacing or revitalizing severely distressed public housing developments.

SEC. 1102. DEFINITIONS.

For purposes of this division, the following definitions shall apply:

(1) ACQUISITION COST.—When used in reference to public housing, the term "acquisition cost" means the amount prudently expended by a public housing agency in acquiring property for a public housing development.

(4) DRUG-RELATED CRIMINAL ACTIVITY.—The term “drug-related criminal activity” means the illegal manufacture, sale, distribution, use, or possession with intent to manufacture, sell, distribute, or use, of a controlled substance (as such term is defined in section 102 of the Controlled Substances Act).

SEC. 1107. REVIEW OF PLANS.

(a) REVIEW AND NOTICE.—

(1) REVIEW.—The Secretary shall conduct a limited review of each local housing management plan submitted to the Secretary to ensure that the plan is complete and complies with the requirements of section 1106. The Secretary shall have the discretion to review a plan to the extent that the Secretary considers review is necessary.

(2) NOTICE.—The Secretary shall notify each public housing agency submitting a plan whether the plan complies with such requirements not later than 75 days after receiving the plan. If the Secretary does not notify the public housing agency, as required under this subsection and subsection (b), the Secretary shall be considered, for purposes of this division, to have made a determination that the plan complies with the requirements under section 1106 and the agency shall be considered to have been notified of compliance upon the expiration of such 75-day period. The preceding sentence shall not preclude judicial review regarding such compliance pursuant to chapter 7 of title 5, United States Code, or an action regarding such compliance under section 1979 of the Revised Statutes of the United States (42 U.S.C. 1983).

(b) NOTICE OF REASONS FOR DETERMINATION OF NONCOMPLIANCE.—If the Secretary determines that a plan, as submitted, does not comply with the requirements under section 1106, the Secretary shall specify in the notice under subsection (a) the reasons for the non-compliance and any modifications necessary for the plan to meet the requirements under section 1106.

(c) STANDARDS FOR DETERMINATION OF NONCOMPLIANCE.—The Secretary may determine that a plan does not comply with the requirements under section 1106 only if—

(1) the plan is incomplete in significant matters required under such section;

(2) there is evidence available to the Secretary that challenges, in a substantial manner, any information provided in the plan;

(3) the Secretary determines that the plan does not comply with Federal law or violates the purposes of this division because it fails to provide housing that will be viable on a long-term basis at a reasonable cost;

(4) the plan plainly fails to adequately identify the needs of low-income families for housing assistance in the jurisdiction of the agency;

(5) the plan plainly fails to adequately identify the capital improvement needs for public housing developments in the jurisdiction of the agency;

(6) the activities identified in the plan are plainly inappropriate to address the needs identified in the plan; or

(7) the plan is inconsistent with the requirements of this division.

The Secretary shall determine that a plan does not comply with the requirements under section 1106 if the plan does not include the information required under section 1106(d)(2)(D).

(d) TREATMENT OF EXISTING PLANS.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, a public housing agency shall be considered to have submitted a plan under this section if the agency has submitted to the Secretary a comprehensive plan under section 14(e) of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (as in effect immediately before the effective date of the repeal under section 1601(b) of this Act) or under the comprehensive improvement assistance program under such section 14, and the Secretary has approved such plan, before January 1, 1997. The Secretary shall provide specific procedures and requirements for such authorities to amend such plans by submitting only such additional information as is necessary to comply with the requirements of section 1106.

(e) ACTIONS TO CHANGE PLAN.—A public housing agency that has submitted a plan under section 1106 may change actions or policies described in the plan before submission and review of the plan of the agency for the next fiscal year only if—

(1) in the case of costly or nonroutine changes, the agency submits to the Secretary an amendment to the plan under subsection (f) which is reviewed in accordance with such subsection; or

(f) AMENDMENTS TO PLAN.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—During the annual or 5-year period covered by the plan for a public housing agency, the agency may submit to the Secretary any amendments to the plan.

(2) REVIEW.—The Secretary shall conduct a limited review of each proposed amendment submitted under this subsection to determine whether the plan, as amended by the amendment, complies with the requirements of section 1106 and notify each public housing agency submitting the amendment whether the plan, as amended, complies with such requirements not later than 30 days after receiving the amendment. If the Secretary determines that a plan, as amended, does not comply with the requirements under section 1106, such notice shall indicate the reasons for the noncompliance and any modifications necessary for the plan to meet the requirements under section 1106. If the Secretary does not notify the public housing agency as required under this paragraph, the plan, as amended, shall be considered, for purposes of this section, to comply with the requirements under section 1106.

(3) STANDARDS FOR DETERMINATION OF NON-COMPLIANCE.—The Secretary may determine that a plan, as amended by a proposed amendment, does not comply with the requirements under section 1106 only if—

(A) the plan, as amended, would be subject to a determination of noncompliance in accordance with the provisions of subsection (c);

(B) the Secretary determines that—

(i) the proposed amendment is plainly inconsistent with the activities specified in the plan; or

(ii) there is evidence that challenges, in a substantial manner, any information contained in the amendment; or

(C) the Secretary determines that the plan, as amended, violates the purposes of this division because it fails to provide housing that will be viable on a long-term basis at a reasonable cost.

(4) AMENDMENTS TO EXTEND TIME OF PERFORMANCE.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this subsection, the Secretary may not determine that any amendment to the plan of a public housing agency that extends the time for performance of activities assisted with amounts provided under this title fails to comply with the requirements under section 1106 if the Secretary has not provided the amount of assistance set forth in the plan or has not provided the assistance in a timely manner.

SEC. 1108. REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.

(a) PERFORMANCE AND EVALUATION REPORT.—Each public housing agency shall annually submit to the Secretary, on a date determined by the Secretary, a performance and evaluation report concerning the use of funds made available under this division. The public housing agency shall certify that the report was available for review and comment by affected tenants prior to its submission to the Secretary.

(b) EXCLUSION FROM ADMINISTRATIVE PROCEDURE OF GRIEVANCES CONCERNING EVICTIONS FROM PUBLIC HOUSING INVOLVING HEALTH, SAFETY, OR PEACEFUL ENJOYMENT.—A public housing agency may exclude from its procedure established under subsection (a) any grievance, in any jurisdiction which requires that prior to eviction, a tenant be given a hearing in court, which the Secretary determines provides the basic elements of due process (which the Secretary shall establish by rule under section 553 of title 5, United States Code), concerning an eviction from or termination of tenancy in public housing that involves any activity that threatens the health, safety, or right to peaceful enjoyment of the premises of other tenants or employees of the public housing agency or any drug-related criminal activity on or off such premises. In the case of any eviction from or termination of tenancy in public housing not described in the preceding sentence, each of the following provisions shall apply:

(1) Such eviction or termination shall be subject to an administrative grievance procedure if the tenant so evicted or terminated requests a hearing under such procedure not later than five days after service of notice of such eviction or termination.

(2) The public housing agency shall take final action regarding a grievance under paragraph (1) not later than thirty days after such notice is served.

(3) If the public housing agency fails to provide a hearing under the grievance procedure pursuant to a request under paragraph

(1) and take final action regarding the grievance before the expiration of the 30-day period under paragraph (2), the notice of eviction or termination shall be considered void and shall not be given any force or effect.

(4) If a public housing authority takes final action on a grievance for any eviction or termination, the tenant and any member of the tenant's household shall not have any right in connection with any subsequent eviction or termination notice to request or be afforded any administrative grievance hearing during the 1-year period beginning upon the date of the final action.

(c) INAPPLICABILITY TO CHOICE-BASED RENTAL HOUSING ASSISTANCE.—This section may not be construed to require any public housing agency to establish or implement an administrative grievance procedure with respect to assisted families under title XIII.

Any prohibition against discrimination on the basis of age under the Age Discrimination Act of 1975 or with respect to an otherwise qualified handicapped individual as provided in section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 shall also apply to any such program or activity.

(b) CIVIL RIGHTS COMPLIANCE.—Each public housing agency that receives grant amounts under this division shall use such amounts and carry out its local housing management plan approved under section 1107 in conformity with title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Fair Housing Act, section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, and the Americans With Disabilities Act of 1990, and shall affirmatively further fair housing.

(A) leaseholders for units assisted pursuant to a contract or agreement; or

(B) the holders of any outstanding obligations of the public housing agency involved for which annual contributions have been pledged; or

(2) provide for payment of block grant amounts under this title in an amount exceeding the allocation for the agency determined under section 1204.

Any rule of law contrary to this subsection shall be deemed inapplicable.

(A) CAPITAL FUND.—A capital fund to provide capital and management improvements to public housing developments.

(B) OPERATING FUND.—An operating fund for public housing operations.

(A) IN GENERAL.—A public housing agency may use up to 20 percent of the amounts from a grant under this title that are allocated and provided from the capital fund for activities that are eligible under section 1203(a)(2) to be funded with amounts from the operating fund.

(B) FULL FLEXIBILITY FOR SMALL PHA'S.—In the case of a public housing agency that owns or operates less than 250 public housing dwelling units and is (in the determination of the Secretary) operating and maintaining its public housing in a safe, clean, and healthy condition, the agency may use amounts from a grant under this title for any eligible activities under section 1203(a), regardless of the fund from which the amounts were allocated and provided.

(c) AMOUNT OF GRANTS.—The amount of the grant under this title for a public housing agency for a fiscal year shall be the amount of the allocation for the agency determined under section 1204, except as otherwise provided in this title and title XV.

(d) ELIGIBILITY.—A public housing agency shall be an eligible public housing agency with respect to a fiscal year for purposes of this title only if—

(1) the Secretary has entered into a block grant contract with the agency;

(2) the agency has submitted a local housing management plan to the Secretary for such fiscal year;

(3) the plan has been determined to comply with the requirements under section 1106 and the Secretary has not notified the agency that the plan fails to comply with such requirements;

(5) no member of the board of directors or other governing body of the agency, or the executive director, has been convicted of a felony;

(e) PAYMENTS IN LIEU OF STATE AND LOCAL TAXATION OF PUBLIC HOUSING DEVELOPMENTS.—

(1) EXEMPTION FROM TAXATION.—A public housing agency may receive a block grant under this title only if—

(A)(i) the developments of the agency (exclusive of any portions not assisted with amounts provided under this title) are exempt from all real and personal property taxes levied or imposed by the State, city, county, or other political subdivision; and

(ii) the public housing agency makes payments in lieu of taxes to such taxing authority equal to 10 percent of the sum, for units charged in the developments of the agency, of the difference between the gross rent and the utility cost, or such lesser amount as is—

(I) prescribed by State law;

(II) agreed to by the local governing body in its agreement under subsection (f) for local cooperation with the public housing agency or under a waiver by the local governing body; or

(2) EFFECT OF FAILURE TO EXEMPT FROM TAXATION.—Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a public housing agency that does not comply with the requirements under such paragraph may receive a block grant under this title, but only if the State, city, county, or other political subdivision in which the development is situated contributes, in the form of cash or tax remission, the amount by which the taxes paid with respect to the development exceed 10 percent of the gross rent and utility cost charged in the development.

(f) LOCAL COOPERATION.—In recognition that there should be local determination of the need for low-income housing to meet needs not being adequately met by private enterprise, the Secretary may not make any grant under this title to a public housing agency unless the governing body of the locality involved has entered into an agreement with the agency providing for the local cooperation required by the Secretary pursuant to this title. The Secretary shall require that each such agreement for local cooperation shall provide that, notwithstanding any order, judgment, or decree of any court (including any settlement order), before making any amounts provided under a grant under this title available for use for the production of any housing or other property not previously used as public housing, the public housing agency shall—

(1) notify the chief executive officer (or other appropriate official) of the unit of general local government in which the public housing for which such amounts are to be so used is located (or to be located) of such use; and

(2) pursuant to the request of such unit of general local government, provide such information as may reasonably be requested by such unit of general local government regarding the public housing to be so assisted (except to the extent otherwise prohibited by law) and consult with representatives of such local government regarding the public housing.

(g) EXCEPTION.—Notwithstanding subsection (a), the Secretary may make a grant under this title for a public housing agency that is not an eligible public housing agency but only for the period necessary to secure, in accordance with this title, an alternative public housing agency for the public housing of the ineligible agency.

(h) RECAPTURE OF CAPITAL ASSISTANCE AMOUNTS.—The Secretary may recapture, from any grant amounts made available to a public housing agency from the capital fund, any portion of such amounts that are not used or obligated by the public housing agency for use for eligible activities under section 1203(a)(1) (or dedicated for use pursuant to section 1202(b)(2)(A)) before the expiration of the 24-month period beginning upon the award of such grant to the agency.

SEC. 1203. ELIGIBLE AND REQUIRED ACTIVITIES.

(a) ELIGIBLE ACTIVITIES.—Except as provided in subsection (b) and in section 1202(b)(2), grant amounts allocated and provided from the capital fund and grant amounts allocated and provided from the operating fund may be used for the following activities:

(b) REQUIRED CONVERSION OF ASSISTANCE FOR PUBLIC HOUSING TO RENTAL HOUSING ASSISTANCE.—

(1) REQUIREMENT.—A public housing agency that receives grant amounts under this title shall provide assistance in the form of rental housing assistance under title XIII, or appropriate site revitalization or other appropriate capital improvements approved by the Secretary, in lieu of assisting the operation and modernization of any building or buildings of public housing, if the agency provides sufficient evidence to the Secretary that the building or buildings—

(A) are on the same or contiguous sites;

(B) consist of more than 300 dwelling units;

(C) have a vacancy rate of at least 10 percent for dwelling units not in funded, on-schedule modernization programs;

(D) are identified as distressed housing for which the public housing agency cannot assure the long-term viability as public housing through reasonable revitalization, density reduction, or achievement of a broader range of household income; and

(E) have an estimated cost of continued operation and modernization as public housing that exceeds the cost of providing choice-based rental assistance under title XIII for all families in occupancy, based on appropriate indicators of cost (such as the percentage of the total development cost required for modernization).

Public housing agencies shall identify properties that meet the definition of subparagraphs (A) through (E) and shall consult with the appropriate public housing residents and the appropriate unit of general local government in identifying such properties.

(2) USE OF OTHER AMOUNTS.—In addition to grant amounts under this title attributable (pursuant to the formulas under section 1204) to the building or buildings identified under paragraph (1), the Secretary may use amounts provided in appropriation Acts for choice-based housing assistance under title XIII for families residing in such building or buildings or for appropriate site revitalization or other appropriate capital improvements approved by the Secretary.

(3) ENFORCEMENT.—The Secretary shall take appropriate action to ensure conversion of any building or buildings identified under paragraph (1) and any other appropriate action under this subsection, if the public housing agency fails to take appropriate action under this subsection.

(4) FAILURE OF PHA'S TO COMPLY WITH CONVERSION REQUIREMENT.—If the Secretary determines that—

(A) a public housing agency has failed under paragraph (1) to identify a building or buildings in a timely manner,

(B) a public housing agency has failed to identify one or more buildings which the Secretary determines should have been identified under paragraph (1), or

(C) one or more of the buildings identified by the public housing agency pursuant to paragraph (1) should not, in the determination of the Secretary, have been identified under that paragraph, the Secretary may identify a building or buildings for conversion and take other appropriate action pursuant to this subsection.

(5) CESSATION OF UNNECESSARY SPENDING.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if, in the determination of the Secretary, a building or buildings meets or is likely to meet the criteria set forth in paragraph (1), the Secretary may direct the public housing agency to cease additional spending in connection with such building or buildings, except to the extent that additional spending is necessary to ensure safe, clean, and healthy housing until the Secretary determines or approves an appropriate course of action with respect to such building or buildings under this subsection.

(6) USE OF BUDGET AUTHORITY.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, if a building or buildings are identified pursuant to paragraph (1), the Secretary may authorize or direct the transfer, to the choice-based or tenant-based assistance program of such agency or to appropriate site revitalization or other capital improvements approved by the Secretary, of—

(A) in the case of an agency receiving assistance under the comprehensive improvement assistance program, any amounts obligated by the Secretary for the modernization of such building or buildings pursuant to section 14 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (as in effect immediately before the effective date of the repeal under section 1601(b));

(B) in the case of an agency receiving public housing modernization assistance by formula pursuant to such section 14, any amounts provided to the agency which are attributable pursuant to the formula for allocating such assistance to such building or buildings;

(C) in the case of an agency receiving assistance for the major reconstruction of obsolete projects, any amounts obligated by the Secretary for the major reconstruction of such building or buildings pursuant to section 5(j)(2) of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as in effect immediately before the effective date of the repeal under section 1601(b); and

(D) in the case of an agency receiving assistance pursuant to the formulas under section 1204, any amounts provided to the agency which are attributable pursuant to the formulas for allocating such assistance to such building or buildings.

(7) RELOCATION REQUIREMENTS.—Any public housing agency carrying out conversion of public housing under this subsection shall—

(A) notify the families residing in the public housing development subject to the conversion, in accordance with any guidelines issued by the Secretary governing such notifications, that—

(i) the development will be removed from the inventory of the public housing agency; and

(ii) the families displaced by such action will receive choice-based housing assistance or occupancy in a unit operated or assisted by the public housing agency;

(B) ensure that each family that is a resident of the development is relocated to other safe, clean, and healthy affordable housing, which is, to the maximum extent practicable, housing of the family's choice, including choice-based assistance under title XIII (provided that with respect to choice-based assistance, the preceding requirement shall be fulfilled only upon the relocation of such family into such housing);

(C) provide any necessary counseling for families displaced by such action to facilitate relocation; and

(D) provide any reasonable relocation expenses for families displaced by such action.

(8) TRANSITION.—Any amounts made available to a public housing agency to carry out section 202 of the Departments of Veterans Affairs and Housing and Urban Development, and Independent Agencies Appropriations Act, 1996 (enacted as section 101(e) of the Omnibus Consolidated Rescissions and Appropriations Act of 1996 (Public Law 104-134; 110 Stat. 1321-279)) may be used, to the extent or in such amounts as are or have been provided in advance in appropriation Acts, to carry out this section. The Secretary shall provide for public housing agencies to conform and continue actions taken under such section 202 in accordance with the requirements under this section.

(c) EXTENSION OF DEADLINES.—The Secretary may, for a public housing agency, extend any deadline established pursuant to this section or a local housing management plan for up to an additional 5 years if the Secretary makes a determination that the deadline is impracticable.

(d) COMPLIANCE WITH PLAN.—The local housing management plan submitted by a public housing agency (including any amendments to the plan), unless determined under section 1107 not to comply with the requirements under section 1106, shall be binding upon the Secretary and the public housing agency and the agency shall use any grant amounts provided under this title for eligible activities under subsection (a) in accordance with the plan. This subsection may not be construed to preclude changes or amendments to the plan, as authorized under section 1107 or any actions authorized by this division to be taken without regard to a local housing management plan.

(e) ELIGIBLE ACTIVITIES FOR INCREASED INCOME.—Any public housing agency that derives increased nonrental or rental income, as referred to in subsection (c)(2)(B) or (d)(1)(D) of section 1204 or pursuant to provision of mixed-income developments under section 1221(c)(2), may use such amounts for any eligible activity under paragraph (1) or (2) of subsection (a) of this section or for providing choice-based housing assistance under title XIII.

SEC. 1204. DETERMINATION OF GRANT ALLOCATION.

(a) IN GENERAL.—For each fiscal year, after reserving amounts under section 1111 from the aggregate amount made available for the fiscal year for carrying out this title, the Secretary shall allocate any remaining amounts among eligible public housing agencies in accordance with this section, so that the sum of all of the allocations for all eligible authorities is equal to such remaining amount.

(b) ALLOCATION AMOUNT.—The Secretary shall determine the amount of the allocation for each eligible public housing agency, which shall be—

(1) for any fiscal year beginning after the enactment of a law containing the formulas described in paragraphs (1) and (2) of subsection (c), the sum of the amounts determined for the agency under each such formula; or

(2) for any fiscal year beginning before the expiration of such period, the sum of—

(A) the operating allocation determined under subsection (d)(1) for the agency; and

(B) the capital improvement allocation determined under subsection (d)(2) for the agency.

(c) PERMANENT ALLOCATION FORMULAS FOR CAPITAL AND OPERATING FUNDS.—

(1) ESTABLISHMENT OF CAPITAL FUND FORMULA.—The formula under this paragraph shall provide for allocating assistance under the capital fund for a fiscal year. The formula may take into account such factors as—

(A) the number of public housing dwelling units owned or operated by the public housing agency, the characteristics and locations of the developments, and the characteristics of the families served and to be served (including the incomes of the families);

(B) the need of the public housing agency to carry out rehabilitation and modernization activities, and reconstruction, production, and demolition activities related to public housing dwelling units owned or operated by the public housing agency, including backlog and projected future needs of the agency;

(C) the cost of constructing and rehabilitating property in the area; and

(D) the need of the public housing agency to carry out activities that provide a safe and secure environment in public housing units owned or operated by the public housing agency.

(2) ESTABLISHMENT OF OPERATING FUND FORMULA.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—The formula under this paragraph shall provide for allocating assistance under the operating fund for a fiscal year. The formula may take into account such factors as—

(i) standards for the costs of operating and reasonable projections of income, taking into account the characteristics and locations of the public housing developments and characteristics of the families served and to be served (including the incomes of the families), or the costs of providing comparable services as determined in accordance with criteria or a formula representing the operations of a prototype well-managed public housing development;

(ii) the number of public housing dwelling units owned or operated by the public housing agency;

(iii) the need of the public housing agency to carry out anti-crime and anti-drug activities, including providing adequate security for public housing residents; and

(iv) any record by the public housing agency of exemplary performance in the operation of public housing.

(B) INCENTIVE TO INCREASE INCOME.—The formula shall provide an incentive to encourage public housing agencies to increase nonrental income and to increase rental income attributable to their units by encouraging occupancy by families whose incomes have increase while in occupancy and newly admitted families. Any such incentive shall provide that the agency shall derive the full benefit of any increase in nonrental or rental income, and such increase shall not result in a decrease in amounts provided to the agency under this title. In addition, an agency shall be permitted to retain, from each fiscal year, the full benefit of such an increase in nonrental or rental income, except to the extent that such benefit exceeds (i) 100 percent of the total amount of the operating allocation for which the agency is eligible under this section, and (ii) the maximum balance permitted for the agency's operating reserve under this section and any regulations issued under this section.

(C) TREATMENT OF UTILITY RATES.—The formula shall not take into account the amount of any cost reductions for a public housing agency due to the difference between projected and actual utility rates attributable to actions that are taken by the agency which lead to such reductions, as determined by the Secretary. In the case of any public housing agency that receives financing from any person or entity other than the Secretary or enters into a performance contract to undertake energy conservation improvements in a public housing development, under which the payment does not exceed the cost of the energy saved as a result of the improvements during a reasonable negotiated contract period, the formula shall not take into account the amount of any cost reductions for the agency due to the differences between projected and actual utility consumption attributable to actions that are taken by the agency which lead to such reductions, as determined by the Secretary. Notwithstanding the preceding 2 sentences, after the expiration of the 10-year period beginning upon the savings initially taking effect, the Secretary may reduce the amount allocated to the agency under the formula by up to 50 percent of such differences.

(3) CONSIDERATION OF PERFORMANCE, COSTS, AND OTHER FACTORS.—The formulas under paragraphs (1) and (2) should each reward performance and may each consider appropriate factors that reflect the different characteristics and sizes of public housing agencies, the relative needs, revenues, costs, and capital improvements of agencies, and the relative costs to agencies of operating a well-managed agency that meets the performance targets for the agency established in the local housing management plan for the agency.

(4) DEVELOPMENT UNDER NEGOTIATED RULEMAKING PROCEDURE.—The formulas under this subsection shall be developed according to procedures for issuance of regulations under the negotiated rulemaking procedure under subchapter III of chapter 5 of title 5, United States Code, except that the formulas shall not be contained in a regulation.

(5) REPORT.—Not later than the expiration of the 12-month period beginning upon the enactment of this Act, the Secretary shall submit a report to the Congress containing the proposed formulas established pursuant to paragraph (4) that meets the requirements of this subsection.

(d) INTERIM ALLOCATION REQUIREMENTS.—

(1) OPERATING ALLOCATION.—

(A) APPLICABILITY TO APPROPRIATED AMOUNTS.—Of any amounts available for allocation under this subsection for a fiscal year, an amount shall be used only to provide amounts for operating allocations under this paragraph for eligible public housing agencies that bears the same ratio to such total amount available for allocation that the amount appropriated for fiscal year 1997 for operating subsidies under section 9 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 bears to the sum of such operating subsidy amounts plus the amounts appropriated for such fiscal year for modernization under section 14 of such Act.

(B) DETERMINATION.—The operating allocation under this paragraph for a public housing agency for a fiscal year shall be an amount determined by applying, to the amount to be allocated under this paragraph, the formula used for determining the distribution of operating subsidies for fiscal year 1997 to public housing agencies (as modified under subparagraphs (C) and (D)) under section 9 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as in effect immediately before the effective date of the repeal under section 1601(b).

(C) TREATMENT OF CHRONICALLY VACANT UNITS.—The Secretary shall revise the formula referred to in subparagraph (B) so that the formula does not provide any amounts, other than utility costs and other necessary costs (such as costs necessary for the protection of persons and property), attributable to any dwelling unit of a public housing agency that has been vacant continuously for 6 or more months. A unit shall not be considered vacant for purposes of this paragraph if the unit is unoccupied because of rehabilitation or renovation that is on schedule.

(D) TREATMENT OF INCREASES IN INCOME.—The Secretary shall revise the formula referred to in subparagraph (B) to provide an incentive to encourage public housing agencies to increase nonrental income and to increase rental income attributable to their units by encouraging occupancy by families whose incomes have increased while in occupancy and newly admitted families. Any such incentive shall provide that the agency shall derive the full benefit of any increase in nonrental or rental income, and such increase shall not result in a decrease in amounts provided to the agency under this title. In addition, an agency shall be permitted to retain, from each fiscal year, the full benefit of such an increase in nonrental or rental income, except that such benefit may not be retained if—

(i) the agency's operating allocation equals 100 percent of the amount for which it is eligible under section 9 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as in effect immediately before the effective date of the repeal under section 1601(b) of this Act; and

(ii) the agency's operating reserve balance is equal to the maximum amount permitted under section 9 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as in effect immediately before the effective date of the repeal under section 1601(b) of this Act.

(2) CAPITAL IMPROVEMENT ALLOCATION.—

(A) APPLICABILITY TO APPROPRIATED AMOUNTS.—Of any amounts available for allocation under this subsection for a fiscal year, an amount shall be used only to provide amounts for capital improvement allocations under this paragraph for eligible public housing agencies that bears the same ratio to such total amount available for allocation that the amount appropriated for fiscal year 1997 for modernization under section 14 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 bears to the sum of such modernization amounts plus the amounts appropriated for such fiscal year for operating subsidies under section 9 of such Act.

(B) DETERMINATION.—The capital improvement allocation under this paragraph for an eligible public housing agency for a fiscal year shall be determined by applying, to the amount to be allocated under this paragraph, the formula used for determining the distribution of modernization assistance for fiscal year 1997 to public housing agencies under section 14 of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as in effect immediately before the effective date of the repeal under section 1601(b), except that the Secretary shall establish a method for taking into consideration allocation of amounts under the comprehensive improvement assistance program.

(E) ELIGIBILITY OF UNITS ACQUIRED FROM PROCEEDS OF SALES UNDER DEMOLITION OR DISPOSITION PLAN.—If a public housing agency uses proceeds from the sale of units under a homeownership program in accordance with section 1251 to acquire additional units to be sold to low-income families, the additional units shall be counted as public housing for purposes of determining the amount of the allocation to the agency under this section until sale by the agency, but in any case no longer than 5 years.

SEC. 1205. SANCTIONS FOR IMPROPER USE OF AMOUNTS.

(A) IN GENERAL.—In addition to any other actions authorized under this title, if the Secretary finds pursuant to an audit under section 1541 that a public housing agency receiving grant amounts under this title has failed to comply substantially with any provision of this title, the Secretary may—

(1) terminate payments under this title to the agency;

(2) withhold from the agency amounts from the total allocation for the agency pursuant to section 1204;

(3) reduce the amount of future grant payments under this title to the agency by an amount equal to the amount of such payments that were not expended in accordance with this title;

(4) limit the availability of grant amounts provided to the agency under this title to programs, projects, or activities not affected by such failure to comply;

(5) withhold from the agency amounts allocated for the agency under title XIII; or

(6) order other corrective action with respect to the agency.

(B) TERMINATION OF COMPLIANCE ACTION.—If the Secretary takes action under subsection (a) with respect to a public housing agency, the Secretary shall—

(1) in the case of action under subsection (a)(1), resume payments of grant amounts under this title to the agency in the full amount of the total allocation under section 1204 for the agency at the time that the Secretary first determines that the agency will comply with the provisions of this title;

(2) in the case of action under paragraph (2), (5), or (6) of subsection (a), make withheld amounts available as the Secretary considers appropriate to ensure that the agency complies with the provisions of this title; or

(3) in the case of action under subsection (a)(4), release such restrictions at the time that the Secretary first determines that the agency will comply with the provisions of this title.

Subtitle B—Admissions and Occupancy Requirements

SEC. 1221. LOW-INCOME HOUSING REQUIREMENT.

(A) PRODUCTION ASSISTANCE.—Any public housing produced using amounts provided under a grant under this title or under the United States Housing Act of 1937 shall be operated as public housing for the 40-year period beginning upon such production.

(B) OPERATING ASSISTANCE.—No portion of any public housing development operated with amounts from a grant under this title or operating assistance provided under the United States Housing Act of 1937 may be disposed of before the expiration of the 10-year period beginning upon the conclusion of the fiscal year for which the grant or such assistance was provided, except as provided in this Act.

(C) CAPITAL IMPROVEMENTS ASSISTANCE.—Amounts may be used for eligible activities under section 1203(a)(1) only for the following housing developments:

(1) LOW-INCOME DEVELOPMENTS.—Amounts may be used for a low-income housing development that—

(A) is owned by public housing agencies;

(B) is operated as low-income rental housing and produced or operated with assistance provided under a grant under this title; and

(C) is consistent with the purposes of this title.

Any development, or portion thereof, referred to in this paragraph for which activities under section 1203(a)(1) are conducted using amounts from a grant under this title shall be maintained and used as public housing for the 20-year period beginning upon the receipt of such grant. Any public housing development, or portion thereof, that received the benefit of a grant pursuant to section 14 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 shall be maintained and used as public housing for the 20-year period beginning upon receipt of such amounts.

(2) MIXED INCOME DEVELOPMENTS.—Amounts may be used for eligible activities under section 1203(a)(1) for mixed-income developments, which shall be a housing development that—

(A) contains dwelling units that are available for occupancy by families other than low-income families;

(B) contains a number of dwelling units—

(i) which units are made available (by master contract or individual lease) for occupancy only by low- and very low-income families identified by the public housing agency;

(ii) which number is not less than a reasonable number of units, including related amenities, taking into account the amount of the assistance provided by the agency compared to the total investment (including costs of operation) in the development;

(iii) which units are subject to the statutory and regulatory requirements of the public housing program, except that the Secretary may grant appropriate waivers to such statutory and regulatory requirements if reductions in funding or other changes to the program make continued application of such requirements impracticable;

(iv) which units are specially designated as dwelling units under this subparagraph, except the equivalent units in the development may be substituted for designated units during the period the units are subject to the requirements of the public housing program; and

(v) which units shall be eligible for assistance under this title; and

(C) is owned by the public housing agency, an affiliate controlled by it, or another appropriate entity.

Notwithstanding any other provision of this title, to facilitate the establishment of socioeconomically mixed communities, a public housing agency that uses grant amounts under this title for a mixed income development under this paragraph may, to the extent that income from such a development reduces the amount of grant amounts used for operating or other costs relating to public housing, use such resulting savings to rent privately developed dwelling units in the neighborhood of the mixed income development. Such units shall be made available for occupancy only by low-income families eligible for residency in public housing.

SEC. 1222. FAMILY ELIGIBILITY.

(A) IN GENERAL.—Dwelling units in public housing may be rented only to families who are low-income families at the time of their initial occupancy of such units.

(B) INCOME MIX WITHIN DEVELOPMENTS.—A public housing agency may establish and utilize income-mix criteria for the selection of residents for dwelling units in public housing developments that limit admission to a development by selecting applicants having incomes appropriate so that the mix of incomes of families occupying the development at any time is proportional to the income mix in the eligible population of the jurisdiction of the agency at such time, as adjusted to take into consideration the severity of housing need. Any criteria established under this subsection shall be subject to the provisions of subsection (c).

(C) INCOME MIX.—

(1) PHA INCOME MIX.—Of the public housing dwelling units of a public housing agency made available for occupancy by eligible families, not less than 35 percent shall be occupied by families whose incomes at the time of occupancy do not exceed 30 percent of the area median income, as determined by the Secretary with adjustments for smaller and larger families, except that the Secretary, may for purposes of this subsection, establish income ceilings higher or lower than 30 percent of the median for the area on the basis of the Secretary's findings that such variations are necessary because of unusually high or low family incomes. This paragraph may not be construed to create any authority on the part of any public housing agency to evict any family residing in public housing solely because of the income of the family or because of any noncompliance or overcompliance with the requirement of this paragraph.

(2) PROHIBITION OF CONCENTRATION OF LOW-INCOME FAMILIES.—A public housing agency may not, in complying with the requirements under paragraph (1), concentrate very low-income families (or other families with relatively low incomes) in public housing dwelling units in certain public housing developments or certain buildings within developments. The Secretary may review the income and occupancy characteristics of the public housing developments, and the buildings of such developments, of public housing agencies to ensure compliance with the provisions of this paragraph.

(3) FUNGIBILITY WITH CHOICE-BASED ASSISTANCE.—If, during a fiscal year, a public housing agency provides choice-based housing assistance under title XIII for a number of low-income families, who are initially assisted by the agency in such year and have incomes described in section 1321(b) (relating to income targeting), which exceeds the number of families that is required for the agency to comply with the percentage requirement under such section 1321(b) for such fiscal year, notwithstanding paragraph (1) of this subsection, the number of public housing dwelling units that the agency must otherwise make available in accordance with such paragraph to comply with the percentage requirement under such paragraph shall be reduced by such excess number of families for such fiscal year.

(d) WAIVER OF ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS FOR OCCUPANCY BY POLICE OFFICERS.—

(1) AUTHORITY AND WAIVER.—To the extent necessary to provide occupancy in public housing dwelling units to police officers and other law enforcement or security personnel (who are not otherwise eligible for residence in public housing) and to increase security for other public housing residents in developments where crime has been a problem, a public housing agency may, with respect to such units and subject to paragraph (2)—

(A) waive—
(i) the provisions of subsection (a) of this section and section 1225(a); and
(ii) the applicability of—

(I) any preferences for occupancy established under section 1223;

(II) the minimum rental amount established pursuant to section 1225(c) and any maximum monthly rental amount established pursuant to section 1225(b);

(III) any criteria relating to income mix within developments established under subsection (b);

(IV) the income mix requirements under subsection (c); and

(V) any other occupancy limitations or requirements; and

(B) establish special rent requirements and other terms and conditions of occupancy.

(2) CONDITIONS OF WAIVER.—A public housing agency may take the actions authorized in paragraph (1) only if agency determines that such actions will increase security in the public housing developments involved and will not result in a significant reduction of units available for residence by low-income families.

SEC. 1223. PREFERENCES FOR OCCUPANCY.

(a) AUTHORITY TO ESTABLISH.—Each public housing agency may establish a system for making dwelling units in public housing available for occupancy that provides preference for such occupancy to families having certain characteristics.

(b) CONTENT.—Each system of preferences established pursuant to this section shall be based upon local housing needs and priorities, as determined by the public housing agency using generally accepted data sources, including any information obtained pursuant to an opportunity for public comment as provided under section 1106(e) and under the requirements applicable to the comprehensive housing affordability strategy for the relevant jurisdiction.

(c) SENSE OF THE CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Congress that, to the greatest extent practicable, public housing agencies involved in the selection of tenants under the provisions of this title should adopt preferences for individuals who are victims of domestic violence.

SEC. 1224. ADMISSION PROCEDURES.

(a) ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS.—A public housing agency shall ensure that each family residing in a public housing development owned or administered by the agency is admitted in accordance with the procedures established under this title by the agency and the income limits under section 1222.

(b) NOTIFICATION OF APPLICATION DECISIONS.—A public housing agency shall establish procedures designed to provide for notification to an applicant for admission to public housing of the determination with respect to such application, the basis for the determination, and, if the applicant is determined to be eligible for admission, the projected date of occupancy (to the extent such date can reasonably be determined). If an agency denies an applicant admission to public housing, the agency shall notify the applicant that the applicant may request an informal hearing on the denial within a reasonable time of such notification.

(c) SITE-BASED WAITING LISTS.—A public housing agency may establish procedures for maintaining waiting lists for admissions to public housing developments of the agency, which may include (notwithstanding any other law, regulation, handbook, or notice to the contrary) a system of site-based waiting lists whereby applicants may apply directly at or otherwise designate the development or developments in which they seek to reside. All such procedures shall comply with all provisions of title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, the Fair Housing Act, and other applicable civil rights laws.

(d) CONFIDENTIALITY FOR VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE.—A public housing agency shall be subject to the restrictions regarding release of information relating to the identity and new residence of any family in public housing that was a victim of domestic violence that are applicable to shelters pursuant to the Family Violence Prevention and Services Act. The agency shall work with the United States Postal Service to establish procedures consistent with the confidentiality provisions in the Violence Against Women Act of 1994.

(e) TRANSFERS.—A public housing agency may apply, to each public housing resident seeking to transfer from one development to another development owned or operated by the agency, the screening procedures applicable at such time to new applicants for public housing.

SEC. 1225. FAMILY CHOICE OF RENTAL PAYMENT.

(a) RENTAL CONTRIBUTION BY RESIDENT.—A family residing in a public housing dwelling shall pay as monthly rent for the unit the amount determined under paragraph (1) or (2) of subsection (b), subject to the requirement under subsection (c). Each public housing agency shall provide for each family residing in a public housing dwelling unit owned or administered by the agency to elect annually whether the rent paid by such family shall be determined under paragraph (1) or (2) of subsection (b).

(b) ALLOWABLE RENT STRUCTURES.—

(1) FLAT RENTS.—Each public housing agency shall establish, for each dwelling unit in public housing owned or administered by the agency, a flat rental amount for the dwelling unit, which shall—

(A) be based on the rental value of the unit, as determined by the public housing agency; and

(B) be designed in accordance with subsection (e) so that the rent structures do not create a disincentive for continued residency in public housing by families who are attempting to become economically self-sufficient through employment or who have attained a level of self-sufficiency through their own efforts.

The rental amount for a dwelling unit shall be considered to comply with the requirements of this paragraph if such amount does not exceed the actual monthly costs to the public housing agency attributable to providing and operating the dwelling unit. The preceding sentence may not be construed to require establishment of rental amounts equal to or based on operating costs or to prevent public housing agencies from developing flat rents required under this paragraph in any other manner that may comply with this paragraph.

(2) INCOME-BASED RENTS.—The monthly rental amount determined under this paragraph for a family shall be an amount, determined by the public housing agency, that does not exceed the greatest of the following amounts (rounded to the nearest dollar):

(A) 30 percent of the monthly adjusted income of the family.

(B) 10 percent of the monthly income of the family.

(C) If the family is receiving payments for welfare assistance from a public agency and a part of such payments, adjusted in accordance with the actual housing costs of the family, is specifically designated by such agency to meet the housing costs of the family, the portion of such payments that is so designated.

Nothing in this paragraph may be construed to require a public housing agency to charge a monthly rent in the maximum amount permitted under this paragraph.

(c) MINIMUM RENTAL AMOUNT.—Notwithstanding the method for rent determination elected by a family pursuant to subsection (a), each public housing agency shall require that the monthly rent for each dwelling unit in public housing owned or administered by the agency shall not be less than a minimum amount (which amount shall include any amount allowed for utilities), which shall be an amount determined by the agency that is not less than $25 nor more than $50.

(d) HARDSHIP PROVISIONS.—

(1) MINIMUM RENTAL.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding subsection (c), a public housing agency shall grant an exemption from application of the minimum monthly rental under such subsection to any family unable to pay such amount because of financial hardship, which shall include situations in which (i) the family has lost eligibility for or is awaiting an eligibility determination for a Federal, State, or local assistance program, including a family that includes a member who is an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act who would be entitled to public benefits but for title IV of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996; (ii) the family would be evicted as a result of the imposition of the minimum rent requirement under subsection (c); (iii) the income of the family has decreased because of changed circumstance, including loss of employment; and (iv) a death in the family has occurred; and other situations as may be determined by the agency.

(B) WAITING PERIOD.—If a resident requests a hardship exemption under this paragraph and the public housing agency reasonably determines the hardship to be of a temporary nature, an exemption shall not be granted during the 90-day period beginning upon the making of a request for the exemption. A resident may not be evicted during such 90-day period for nonpayment of rent. In such a case, if the resident thereafter demonstrates that the financial hardship is of a long-term basis, the agency shall retroactively exempt the resident from the applicability of the minimum rent requirement for such 90-day period.

(2) SWITCHING RENT DETERMINATION METHODS.—Notwithstanding subsection (a), in the case of a family that has elected to pay rent in the amount determined under subsection (b)(1), a public housing agency shall provide for the family to pay rent in the amount determined under subsection (b)(2) during the period for which such election was made if the family is unable to pay the amount determined under subsection (b)(1) because of financial hardship, including—

(A) situations in which the income of the family has decreased because of changed circumstances, loss of reduction of employment, death in the family, and reduction in or loss of income or other assistance;

(B) an increase, because of changed circumstances, in the family's expenses for—

- (i) medical costs;
- (ii) child care;
- (iii) transportation;
- (iv) education; or
- (v) similar items; and

(C) such other situations as may be determined by the agency.

(e) ENCOURAGEMENT OF SELF-SUFFICIENCY.—The rental policy developed by each public housing agency shall encourage and reward employment and economic self-sufficiency.

(f) INCOME REVIEWS.—Each public housing agency shall review the income of each family occupying a dwelling unit in public housing owned or administered by the agency not less than annually, except that, in the case of families that are paying rent in the amount determined under subsection (b)(1), the agency shall review the income of such family not less than once every 3 years.

(g) DISALLOWANCE OF EARNED INCOME FROM RENT DETERMINATIONS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the rent payable under this section by a family whose income increases as a result of employment of a member of the family who was previously unemployed for 1 or more years (including a family whose income increases as a result of the participation of a family member in any family self-sufficiency or other job training program) may not be increased as a result of the increased income due to such employment during the 18-month period beginning on the date on which the employment is commenced.

(2) PHASE-IN OF RENT INCREASES.—After the expiration of the 18-month period referred to in paragraph (1), rent increases due to the continued employment of the family member described in paragraph (1) shall be phased in over a subsequent 3-year period.

(A) from any economic gain derived from any such resale occurring during the 5-year period beginning upon purchase of the dwelling unit by the eligible family, a portion of the amount of any financial assistance provided under the program by the agency to the eligible family; and

(B) after the expiration of such 5-year period, only such amounts as are equivalent to the assistance provided under this section by the agency to the purchaser.

(2) CONSIDERATIONS.—The limitations referred to in paragraph (1) may provide for consideration of the aggregate amount of assistance provided under the program to the family, the contribution to equity provided by the purchasing eligible family, the period of time elapsed between purchase under the homeownership program and resale, the reason for resale, any improvements to the property made by the eligible family, any appreciation in the value of the property, and any other factors that the agency considers appropriate.

(h) SALE OF CERTAIN SCATTERED-SITE HOUSING.—A public housing agency that the Secretary has determined to be a high-performing agency may use the proceeds from the disposition of scattered-site public housing under a homeownership program under this section to purchase replacement scattered-site dwelling units, to the extent such use is provided for in the local housing management plan for the agency approved under section 1107. Any such replacement dwelling units shall be considered public housing for purposes of this division.

(i) INAPPLICABILITY OF DISPOSITION REQUIREMENTS.—The provisions of section 1261 shall not apply to disposition of public housing dwelling units under a homeownership program under this section, except that any dwelling units sold under such a program shall be treated as public housing dwelling units for purposes of subsections (e) and (f) of section 1261.

Subtitle E—Disposition, Demolition, and Revitalization of Developments

SEC. 1261. REQUIREMENTS FOR DEMOLITION AND DISPOSITION OF DEVELOPMENTS.

(a) AUTHORITY AND FLEXIBILITY.—A public housing agency may demolish, dispose of, or demolish and dispose of nonviable or non-marketable public housing developments of the agency in accordance with this section.

(b) LOCAL HOUSING MANAGEMENT PLAN REQUIREMENT.—A public housing agency may take any action to demolish or dispose of a public housing development (or a portion of a development) only if such demolition or disposition complies with the provisions of this section and is in accordance with the local housing management plan for the agency. Notwithstanding section 1107, the Secretary may approve a local housing management plan without approving the portion of the plan covering demolition or disposition pursuant to this section.

(c) PURPOSE OF DEMOLITION OR DISPOSITION.—A public housing agency may demolish or dispose of a public housing development (or portion of a development) only if the agency provides sufficient evidence to the Secretary that—

(1) the development (or portion thereof) is severely distressed or obsolete;

(2) the development (or portion thereof) is in a location making it unsuitable for housing purposes;

(3) the development (or portion thereof) has design or construction deficiencies that make cost-effective rehabilitation infeasible;

(4) assuming that reasonable rehabilitation and management intervention for the development has been completed and paid for, the anticipated revenue that would be derived from charging market-based rents for units in the development (or portion thereof) would not cover the anticipated operating costs and replacement reserves of the development (or portion) at full occupancy and the development (or portion) would constitute a substantial burden on the resources of the public housing agency;

(5) retention of the development (or portion thereof) is not in the best interests of the residents of the public housing agency because—

(A) developmental changes in the area surrounding the development adversely affect the health or safety of the residents or the feasible operation of the development by the public housing agency;

(B) demolition or disposition will allow the acquisition, development, or rehabilitation of other properties which will be more efficiently or effectively operated as low-income housing; or

(C) other factors exist that the agency determines are consistent with the best interests of the residents and the agency and not inconsistent with other provisions of this division;

(6) in the case only of demolition or disposition of a portion of a development, the demolition or disposition will help to ensure the remaining useful life of the remainder of the development; or

(7) in the case only of property other than dwelling units—

(A) the property is excess to the needs of a development; or

(B) the demolition or disposition is incidental to, or does not interfere with, continued operation of a development.

The evidence required under this subsection shall include, as a condition of demolishing or disposing of a public housing development (or portion of a development) estimated to have a value of $100,000 or more, a statement of the market value of the development (or portion), which has been determined by a party not having any interest in the housing or the public housing agency and pursuant to not less than 2 professional, independent appraisals of the development (or portion).

(d) CONSULTATION.—A public housing agency may demolish or dispose of a public housing development (or portion of a development) only if the agency notifies and confers regarding the demolition or disposition with—

(1) the residents of the development (or portion); and

(2) appropriate local government officials.

(e) COUNSELING.—A public housing agency may demolish or dispose of a public housing development (or a portion of a development) only if the agency provides any necessary counseling for families displaced by such action to facilitate relocation.

(f) USE OF PROCEEDS.—Any net proceeds from the disposition of a public housing development (or portion of a development) shall be used for—

(1) housing assistance for low-income families that is consistent with the low-income housing needs of the community, through acquisition, development, or rehabilitation of, or homeownership programs for, other low-income housing or the provision of choice-based assistance under title XIII for such families;

(2) supportive services relating to job training or child care for residents of a development or developments; or

(3) leveraging amounts for securing commercial enterprises, on-site in public housing developments of the public housing agency, appropriate to serve the needs of the residents.

(g) RELOCATION.—A public housing agency that demolishes or disposes of a public housing development (or portion of a development thereof) shall ensure that—

(1) each family that is a resident of the development (or portion) that is demolished or disposed of is relocated to other safe, clean, healthy, and affordable housing, which is, to the maximum extent practicable, housing of the family's choice, including choice-based assistance under title XIII (provided that with respect to choice-based assistance, the preceding requirement shall be fulfilled only upon the relocation of the such family into such housing);

(2) the public housing agency does not take any action to dispose of any unit until any resident to be displaced is relocated in accordance with paragraph (1); and

(3) each resident family to be displaced is paid relocation expenses, and the rent to be paid initially by the resident following relocation does not exceed the amount permitted under section 1225(a).

(h) RIGHT OF FIRST REFUSAL FOR RESIDENT ORGANIZATIONS AND RESIDENT MANAGEMENT CORPORATIONS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—A public housing agency may not dispose of a public housing development (or portion of a development) unless the agency has, before such disposition, offered to sell the property, as provided in this subsection, to each resident organization and resident management corporation operating at the development for continued use as low-income housing, and no such organization or corporation purchases the property pursuant to such offer. A resident organization may act, for purposes of this subsection, through an entity formed to facilitate homeownership under subtitle D.

(2) TIMING.—Disposition of a development (or portion thereof) under this section may not take place—

(A) before the expiration of the period during which any such organization or corporation may notify the agency of interest in purchasing the property, which shall be the 30-day period beginning on the date that the agency first provides notice of the proposed disposition of the property to such resident organizations and resident management corporations;

(B) if an organization or corporation submits notice of interest in accordance with subparagraph (A), before the expiration of the period during which such organization or corporation may obtain a commitment for financing to purchase the property, which shall be the 60-day period beginning upon the submission to the agency of the notice of interest; or

(C) if, during the period under subparagraph (B), an organization or corporation obtains such financing commitment and makes a bona fide offer to the agency to purchase the property for a price equal to or exceeding the applicable offer price under paragraph (3).

The agency shall sell the property pursuant to any purchase offer described in subparagraph (C).

(3) TERMS OF OFFER.—An offer by a public housing agency to sell a property in accordance with this subsection shall involve a purchase price that reflects the market value of the property, the reason for the sale, the impact of the sale on the surrounding community, and any other factors that the agency considers appropriate.

(i) INFORMATION FOR LOCAL HOUSING MANAGEMENT PLAN.—A public housing agency may demolish or dispose of a public housing development (or portion thereof) only if it includes in the applicable local housing management plan information sufficient to describe—

(1) the housing to be demolished or disposed of;

(2) the purpose of the demolition or disposition under subsection (c) and why the demolition or disposition complies with the requirements under subsection (c), and includes evidence of the market value of the development (or portion) required under subsection (c);

(3) how the consultations required under subsection (d) will be made;

(4) how the net proceeds of the disposition will be used in accordance with subsection (f);

(5) how the agency will relocate residents, if necessary, as required under subsection (g); and

(6) that the agency has offered the property for acquisition by resident organizations and resident management corporations in accordance with subsection (h).

(j) SITE AND NEIGHBORHOOD STANDARDS EXEMPTION.—Notwithstanding any other provision of law, a public housing agency may provide for development of public housing dwelling units on the same site or in the same neighborhood as any dwelling units demolished, pursuant to a plan under this section, but only if such development provides for significantly fewer dwelling units.

(k) TREATMENT OF REPLACEMENT UNITS.—

(1) PROVISION OF OTHER HOUSING ASSISTANCE.—In connection with any demolition or disposition of public housing under this section, a public housing agency may provide for other housing assistance for low-income families that is consistent with the low-income housing needs of the community, including—

(B) the development, acquisition, or lease by the agency of dwelling units, which dwelling units shall—

(i) be eligible to receive assistance with grant amounts provided under this title; and

(2) TREATMENT OF INDIVIDUALS.—For purposes of this subsection, an individual between the ages of 18 and 21, inclusive, shall, at the discretion of the individual, be considered a family.

(l) USE OF NEW DWELLING UNITS.—A public housing agency demolishing or disposing of a public housing development (or portion thereof) under this section shall seek, where practical, to ensure that, if housing units are provided on any property that was previously used for the public housing demolished or disposed of, not less than 25 percent of such dwelling units shall be dwelling units reserved for occupancy during the remaining useful life of the housing by low-income families.

(m) PERMISSIBLE RELOCATION WITHOUT PLAN.—If a public housing agency determines that because of an emergency situation public housing dwelling units are severely uninhabitable, the public housing agency may relocate residents of such dwelling units before the submission of a local housing management plan providing for demolition or disposition of such units.

(n) CONSOLIDATION OF OCCUPANCY WITHIN OR AMONG BUILDINGS.—Nothing in this section may be construed to prevent a public housing agency from consolidating occupancy within or among buildings of a public housing development, or among developments, or with other housing for the purpose of improving living conditions of, or providing more efficient services to, residents.

(o) DE MINIMIS EXCEPTION TO DEMOLITION REQUIREMENTS.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this section, in any 5-year period a public housing agency may demolish not more than the lesser of 5 dwelling units or 5 percent of the total dwelling units owned and operated by the public housing agency, without providing for such demolition in a local housing management plan, but only if the space occupied by the demolished unit is used for meeting the service or other needs of public housing residents or the demolished unit was beyond repair.

SEC. 1262. DEMOLITION, SITE REVITALIZATION, REPLACEMENT HOUSING, AND CHOICE-BASED ASSISTANCE GRANTS FOR DEVELOPMENTS.

(a) PURPOSES.—The purpose of this section is to provide assistance to public housing agencies for the purposes of—

(1) reducing the density and improving the living environment for public housing residents of severely distressed public housing developments through the demolition of obsolete public housing developments (or portions thereof);

(2) revitalizing sites (including remaining public housing dwelling units) on which such public housing developments are located and contributing to the improvement of the surrounding neighborhood;

(3) providing housing that will avoid or decrease the concentration of very low-income families; and

(4) providing choice-based assistance in accordance with title XIII for the purpose of providing replacement housing and assisting residents to be displaced by the demolition.

(b) GRANT AUTHORITY.—The Secretary may make grants available to public housing agencies as provided in this section.

(c) CONTRIBUTION REQUIREMENT.—The Secretary may not make any grant under this section to any applicant unless the applicant certifies to the Secretary that the applicant will supplement the amount of assistance provided under this section with an amount of funds from sources other than this section equal to not less than 5 percent of the amount provided under this section, including amounts from other Federal sources, any State or local government sources, any private contributions, and the value of any in-kind services or administrative costs provided.

(d) ELIGIBLE ACTIVITIES.—Grants under this section may be used for activities to carry out revitalization programs for severely distressed public housing, including—

(1) architectural and engineering work, including the redesign, reconstruction, or redevelopment of a severely distressed public housing development, including the site on which the development is located;

(2) the demolition, sale, or lease of the site, in whole or in part;

(3) covering the administrative costs of the applicant, which may not exceed such portion of the assistance provided under this section as the Secretary may prescribe;

(4) payment of reasonable legal fees;

(5) providing reasonable moving expenses for residents displaced as a result of the revitalization of the development;

(6) economic development activities that promote the economic self-sufficiency of residents under the revitalization program;

(e) APPLICATION AND SELECTION.—

(1) APPLICATION.—An application for a grant under this section shall contain such information and shall be submitted at such time and in accordance with such procedures, as the Secretary shall prescribe.

(2) SELECTION CRITERIA.—The Secretary shall establish selection criteria for the award of grants under this section, which shall include—

(A) the relationship of the grant to the local housing management plan for the public housing agency and how the grant will result in a revitalized site that will enhance the neighborhood in which the development is located;

(B) the capability and record of the applicant public housing agency, or any alternative management agency for the agency, for managing large-scale redevelopment or modernization projects, meeting construction timetables, and obligating amounts in a timely manner;

(C) the extent to which the public housing agency could undertake such activities without a grant under this section;

(D) the extent of involvement of residents, State and local governments, private service providers, financing entities, and developers, in the development of a revitalization program for the development; and

(E) the amount of funds and other resources to be leveraged by the grant.

The Secretary shall give preference in selection to any public housing agency that has been awarded a planning grant under section 24(c) of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (as in effect before the effective date of the repeal under section 1601(b) of this Act).

(f) COST LIMITS.—Subject to the provisions of this section, the Secretary—

(1) shall establish cost limits on eligible activities under this section sufficient to provide for effective revitalization programs; and

(2) may establish other cost limits on eligible activities under this section.

(g) DEMOLITION AND REPLACEMENT.—Any severely distressed public housing demolished or disposed of pursuant to a revitalization plan and any public housing produced in lieu of such severely distressed housing, shall be subject to the provisions of section 1261.

(h) ADMINISTRATION BY OTHER ENTITIES.—The Secretary may require a grantee under this section to make arrangements satisfactory to the Secretary for use of an entity other than the public housing agency to carry out activities assisted under the revitalization plan, if the Secretary determines that such action will help to effectuate the purposes of this section.

(i) WITHDRAWAL OF FUNDING.—If a grantee under this section does not proceed expeditiously, in the determination of the Secretary, the Secretary shall withdraw any grant amounts under this section that have not been obligated by the public housing agency. The Secretary shall redistribute any withdrawn amounts to one or more public housing agencies eligible for assistance under this section or to one or more other entities capable of proceeding expeditiously in the same locality in carrying out the revitalization plan of the original grantee.

SEC. 1263. VOLUNTARY VOUCHER SYSTEM FOR PUBLIC HOUSING.

(a) IN GENERAL.—A public housing agency may convert any public housing development (or portion thereof) owned and operated by the agency to a system of choice-based rental housing assistance under title XIII, in accordance with this section.

(1) be consistent with and part of the local housing management plan for the agency;

(2) describe the conversion and future use or disposition of the public housing development, including an impact analysis on the affected community;

(3) include a cost analysis that demonstrates whether or not the cost (both on a net present value basis and in terms of new budget authority requirements) of providing choice-based rental housing assistance under title XIII for the same families in substantially similar dwellings over the same period of time is less expensive than continuing public housing assistance in the public housing development proposed for conversion for the remaining useful life of the development;

(4) identify the actions, if any, that the public housing agency will take with regard to converting any public housing development or developments (or portions thereof) of the agency to a system of choice-based rental housing assistance under title XIII;

(5) require the public housing agency to—

(c) STREAMLINED ASSESSMENT AND PLAN.—At the discretion of the Secretary or at the

(d) IMPLEMENTATION OF CONVERSION PLAN.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—A public housing agency may implement a conversion plan only if the conversion assessment under this section demonstrates that the conversion—

(A) will not be more expensive than continuing to operate the public housing development (or portion thereof) as public housing; and

(B) will principally benefit the residents of the public housing development (or portion thereof) to be converted, the public housing agency, and the community.

(2) DISAPPROVAL.—The Secretary shall disapprove a conversion plan only if the plan is plainly inconsistent with the conversion assessment under subsection (b) or there is reliable information and data available to the Secretary that contradicts that conversion assessment.

SEC. 1272. MIXED-FINANCE HOUSING DEVELOPMENTS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—For purposes of this subtitle, the term “mixed-finance housing” means low-income housing or mixed-income housing (as described in section 1221(c)(2)) for which the financing for production or revitalization is provided, in part, from entities other than the public housing agency.

(b) PRODUCTION.—A mixed-finance housing development shall be produced or revitalized, and owned—

(1) by a public housing agency or by an entity affiliated with a public housing agency;

(2) by a partnership, a limited liability company, or other entity in which the public housing agency (or an entity affiliated with a public housing agency) is a general partner, is a managing member, or otherwise participates in the activities of the entity;

(3) by any entity that grants to the public housing agency the option to purchase the public housing project during the 20-year period beginning on the date of initial occupancy of the public housing project in accordance with section 42(l)(7) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986; or

(4) in accordance with such other terms and conditions as the Secretary may prescribe by regulation.

This subsection may not be construed to require production or revitalization, and ownership, by the same entity.

SEC. 1273. MIXED-FINANCE HOUSING PLAN.

The Secretary may approve a plan for production or revitalization of mixed-finance housing under this subtitle only if the Secretary determines that—

(1) the public housing agency has the ability, or has provided for an entity under section 1272(b) that has the ability, to use the amounts provided for use under the plan for such housing, effectively, either directly or through contract management;

(2) the plan provides permanent financing commitments from a sufficient number of sources other than the public housing agency, which may include banks and other conventional lenders, States, units of general local government, State housing finance agencies, secondary market entities, and other financial institutions;

(3) the plan provides for use of amounts provided under section 1271 by the public housing agency for financing the mixed-income housing in the form of grants, loans, advances, or other debt or equity investments, including collateral or credit enhancement of bonds issued by the agency or any State or local governmental agency for production or revitalization of the development; and

(4) the plan complies with any other criteria that the Secretary may establish.

SEC. 1274. RENT LEVELS FOR HOUSING FINANCED WITH LOW-INCOME HOUSING TAX CREDIT.

With respect to any dwelling unit in a mixed-finance housing development that is a low-income dwelling unit for which amounts from a block grant under this title are used and that is assisted pursuant to the low-income housing tax credit under section 42 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the rents charged to the residents of the unit shall be determined in accordance with this title, but shall not in any case exceed the amounts allowable under such section 42.

SEC. 1275. CARRY-OVER OF ASSISTANCE FOR REPLACED HOUSING.

In the case of a mixed-finance housing development that is replacement housing for public housing demolished or disposed of, or is the result of the revitalization of existing public housing, the share of assistance received from the capital fund and the operating fund by the public housing agency that owned or operated the housing demolished, disposed of, or revitalized shall not be reduced because of such demolition, disposition, or revitalization after the commencement of such demolition, disposition, or revitalization, unless—

(1) upon the expiration of the 18-month period beginning upon the approval of the plan under section 1273 for the mixed-finance housing development, the agency does not have binding commitments for production or revitalization, or a construction contract, for such development;

(2) upon the expiration of the 4-year period beginning upon the approval of the plan, the mixed-finance housing development is not substantially ready for occupancy and is placed under the block grant contract for the agency under section 1201; or

(3) the number of dwelling units in the mixed-finance housing development that are made available for occupancy only by low-income families is substantially less than the number of such dwelling units in the public housing demolished, disposed of, or revitalized.

The Secretary may extend the period under paragraph (1) or (2) for a public housing agency if the Secretary determines that circumstances beyond the control of the agency caused the agency to fail to meet the deadline under such paragraph.

SEC. 1281. PAYMENT OF NON-FEDERAL SHARE.

Rental or use-value of buildings or facilities paid for, in whole or in part, from production, modernization, or operation costs financed under this title may be used as the non-Federal share required in connection with activities undertaken under Federal grant-in-aid programs which provide social, educational, employment, and other services to the residents in a project assisted under this title.

There are authorized to be appropriated for grants under this title, the following amounts:

SEC. 1302. CONTRACTS WITH PHA'S.

(a) CONDITION OF ASSISTANCE.—The Secretary may provide amounts under this title to a public housing agency for a fiscal year only if the Secretary has entered into a contract under this section with the public housing agency, under which the Secretary shall provide such agency with amounts (in the amount of the allocation for the agency determined pursuant to section 1304) for housing assistance under this title for low-income families.

(b) USE FOR HOUSING ASSISTANCE.—A contract under this section shall require a public housing agency to use amounts provided under this title to provide housing assistance in any manner authorized under this title.

(c) ANNUAL OBLIGATION OF AUTHORITY.—A contract under this title shall provide amounts for housing assistance for 1 fiscal year covered by the contract.

(d) ENFORCEMENT OF HOUSING QUALITY REQUIREMENTS.—Each contract under this section shall require the public housing agency administering assistance provided under the contract—

(1) to ensure compliance, under each housing assistance payments contract entered into pursuant to the contract under this section, with the provisions of the housing assistance payments contract included pursuant to section 1351(c)(4); and

(2) to establish procedures for assisted families to notify the agency of any noncompliance with such provisions.

SEC. 1303. ELIGIBILITY OF PHA'S FOR ASSISTANCE AMOUNTS.

The Secretary may provide amounts available for housing assistance under this title pursuant to the formula established under section 1304(a) to a public housing agency only if—

(1) the agency has submitted a local housing management plan to the Secretary for such fiscal year and applied to the Secretary for such assistance;

(2) the plan has been determined to comply with the requirements under section 1106 and the Secretary has not notified the agency that the plan fails to comply with such requirements;

(3) no member of the board of directors or other governing body of the agency, or the executive director, has been convicted of a felony; and

(4) the agency has not been disqualified for assistance pursuant to title XV.

SEC. 1304. ALLOCATION OF AMOUNTS.

(a) FORMULA ALLOCATION.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—When amounts for assistance under this title are first made available for reservation, after reserving amounts in accordance with subsections (b)(3) and (c), the Secretary shall allocate such amounts, only among public housing agencies meeting the requirements under this title to receive such assistance, on the basis of a formula that is established in accordance with paragraph (2) and based upon appropriate criteria to reflect the needs of different States, areas, and communities, using the most recent data available from the Bureau of the Census of the Department of Commerce and the comprehensive housing affordability strategy under section 105 of the Cranston-Gonzalez National Affordable Housing Act (or any consolidated plan incorporating such strategy) for the applicable jurisdiction. The Secretary may establish a minimum allocation amount, in which case only the public housing agencies that, pursuant to the formula, are provided an amount equal to or greater than the minimum allocation amount, shall receive an allocation.

(2) REGULATIONS.—The formula under this subsection shall be established by regulation issued by the Secretary. Notwithstanding sections 563(a) and 565(a) of title 5, United States Code, any proposed regulation containing such formula shall be issued pursuant to a negotiated rulemaking procedure under subchapter III of chapter 5 of such title and the Secretary shall establish a negotiated rulemaking committee for development of any such proposed regulations.

(b) ALLOCATION CONSIDERATIONS.—

(1) LIMITATION ON REALLOCATION FOR ANOTHER STATE.—Any amounts allocated for a State or areas or communities within a State that are not likely to be used within the fiscal year for which the amounts are provided shall not be reallocated for use in another State, unless the Secretary determines that other areas or communities within the same State (that are eligible for amounts under this title) cannot use the amounts within the same fiscal year.

(2) EFFECT OF RECEIPT OF TENANT-BASED ASSISTANCE FOR DISABLED FAMILIES.—The Secretary may not consider the receipt by a public housing agency of assistance under section 811(b)(1) of the Cranston-Gonzalez National Affordable Housing Act, or the amount received, in approving amounts under this title for the agency or in determining the amount of such assistance to be provided to the agency.

(3) EXEMPTION FROM FORMULA ALLOCATION.—The formula allocation requirements of subsection (a) shall not apply to any assistance under this title that is approved in appropriation Acts for uses that the Secretary determines are incapable of geographic allocation, including amendments of existing housing assistance payments contracts, renewal of such contracts, assistance to families that would otherwise lose assistance due to the decision of the project owner to prepay the project mortgage or not to renew the housing assistance payments contract, assistance to prevent displacement from public or assisted housing or to provide replacement housing in connection with the demolition or disposition of public housing, assistance for relocation from public housing, assistance in connection with protection of crime witnesses, assistance for conversion from leased housing contracts under section 23 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (as in effect before the enactment of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1974), and assistance in support of the property disposition and portfolio management functions of the Secretary.

(c) RECAPTURE OF AMOUNTS.—

(1) AUTHORITY.—In each fiscal year, from any budget authority made available for assistance under this title or section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (as in effect before the effective date of the repeal under section 1601(b) of this Act) that is obligated to a public housing agency but remains unobligated by the agency upon the expiration of the 8-month period beginning upon the initial availability of such amounts for obligation by the agency, the Secretary may deobligate an amount, as determined by the Secretary, not exceeding 50 percent of such unobligated amount.

(2) USE.—The Secretary may reallocate and transfer any amounts deobligated under paragraph (1) only to public housing agencies in areas that the Secretary determines have received less funding than other areas, based on the relative needs of all areas.

SEC. 1305. ADMINISTRATIVE FEES.

(a) FEE FOR ONGOING COSTS OF ADMINISTRATION.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall establish fees for the costs of administering the choice-based housing assistance program under this title.

(2) FISCAL YEAR 1998.—

(A) CALCULATION.—For fiscal year 1998, the fee for each month for which a dwelling unit is covered by a contract for assistance under this title shall be—

(i) in the case of a public housing agency that, on an annual basis, is administering a program for not more than 600 dwelling units, 7.65 percent of the base amount; and

(ii) in the case of an agency that, on an annual basis, is administering a program for more than 600 dwelling units—

(I) for the first 600 units, 7.65 percent of the base amount; and

(II) for any additional dwelling units under the program, 7.0 percent of the base amount.

(B) BASE AMOUNT.—For purposes of this paragraph, the base amount shall be the higher of—

(i) the fair market rental established under section 8(c) of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (as in effect immediately before the effective date of the repeal under section 1601(b) of this Act) for fiscal year 1993 for a 2-bedroom existing rental dwelling unit in the market area of the agency, and

(ii) the amount that is the lesser of (I) such fair market rental for fiscal year 1994 or (II) 103.5 percent of the amount determined under clause (i), adjusted based on changes in wage data or other objectively measurable data that reflect the costs of administering the program, as determined by the Secretary. The Secretary may require that the base amount be not less than a minimum amount and not more than a maximum amount.

(3) SUBSEQUENT FISCAL YEARS.—For subsequent fiscal years, the Secretary shall publish a notice in the Federal Register, for each geographic area, establishing the amount of the fee that would apply for public housing agencies administering the program, based on changes in wage data or other objectively measurable data that reflect the costs of administering the program, as determined by the Secretary.

(4) INCREASE.—The Secretary may increase the fee if necessary to reflect the higher costs of administering small programs and programs operating over large geographic areas.

(b) FEE FOR PRELIMINARY EXPENSES.—The Secretary shall also establish reasonable fees (as determined by the Secretary) for—

(1) the costs of preliminary expenses, in the amount of $500, for a public housing agency, but only in the first year that the agency administers a choice-based housing assistance program under this title, and only if, immediately before the effective date of this division, the agency was not administering a tenant-based rental assistance program under the United States Housing Act of 1937 (as in effect immediately before such effective date), in connection with its initial increment of assistance received;

(2) the costs incurred in assisting families who experience difficulty (as determined by the Secretary) in obtaining appropriate housing under the programs; and

(3) extraordinary costs approved by the Secretary.

(c) TRANSFER OF FEES IN CASES OF CONCURRENT GEOGRAPHICAL JURISDICTION.—In each fiscal year, if any public housing agency provides tenant-based rental assistance under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 or housing assistance under this title on behalf of a family who uses such assistance for a dwelling unit that is located within the jurisdiction of such agency but is also within the jurisdiction of another public housing agency, the Secretary shall take such steps as may be necessary to ensure that the public housing agency that provides the services for a family receives all or part of the administrative fee under this section (as appropriate).

SEC. 1306. AUTHORIZATIONS OF APPROPRIATIONS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—There is authorized to be appropriated for providing public housing agencies with housing assistance under this title, such sums as may be necessary for each of fiscal years 1998, 1999, 2000, 2001, and 2002 to provide amounts for incremental assistance under this title, for renewal of expiring contracts under section 1302 of this Act and renewal under this title of expiring contracts for tenant-based rental assistance under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (as in effect before the effective date of the repeal under section 1601(b) of this Act), and for replacement needs for public housing under title XII.

(b) ASSISTANCE FOR DISABLED FAMILIES.—

(1) AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS.—There is authorized to be appropriated, for choice-based housing assistance under this title to be used in accordance with paragraph (2), $50,000,000 for fiscal year 1998, and such sums as may be necessary for each subsequent fiscal year.

(2) USE.—The Secretary shall provide amounts made available under paragraph (1) to public housing agencies only for use to provide housing assistance under this title for nonelderly disabled families (including such families relocating pursuant to designation of a public housing development under section 1227 or the establishment of occupancy restrictions in accordance with section 658 of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1992 and other nonelderly disabled families who have applied to the agency for housing assistance under this title).

(3) ALLOCATION OF AMOUNTS.—The Secretary shall allocate and provide amounts made available under paragraph (1) to public housing agencies as the Secretary determines appropriate based on the relative levels of need among the authorities for assistance for families described in paragraph (1).

(c) ASSISTANCE FOR WITNESS RELOCATION.—Of the amounts made available for choice-based housing assistance under this title for each fiscal year, the Secretary, in consultation with the Inspector General, shall make available such sums as may be necessary for such housing assistance for the relocation of witnesses in connection with efforts to combat crime in public and assisted housing pursuant to requests from law enforcement and prosecutive agencies.

SEC. 1307. CONVERSION OF SECTION 8 ASSISTANCE.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Any amounts made available to a public housing agency under a contract for annual contributions for assistance under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 (as in effect before the effective date of the repeal under section 1601(b) of this Act) that have not been obligated for such assistance by such agency before such effective date shall be used to provide assistance under this title, except to the extent the Secretary determines such use is inconsistent with existing commitments.

(b) EXCEPTION.—Subsection (a) shall not apply to any amounts made available under a contract for housing constructed or substantially rehabilitated pursuant to section 8(b)(2) of the United States Housing Act of 1937, as in effect before October 1, 1983.

SEC. 1308. RECAPTURE AND REUSE OF ANNUAL CONTRACT PROJECT RESERVES UNDER CHOICE-BASED HOUSING ASSISTANCE AND SECTION 8 TENANT-BASED ASSISTANCE PROGRAMS.

To the extent that the Secretary determines that the amount in the reserve account for annual contributions contracts (for housing assistance under this title or tenant-based assistance under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937) that is under contract with a public housing agency for such assistance is in excess of the amounts needed by the agency, the Secretary shall recapture such excess amount. The Secretary may hold recaptured amounts in reserve until needed to enter into, amend, or renew contracts under this title or to amend or renew contracts under section 8 of such Act for tenant-based assistance with

Subtitle B—Choice-Based Housing Assistance for Eligible Families

SEC. 1321. ELIGIBLE FAMILIES AND PREFERENCES FOR ASSISTANCE.

(a) LOW-INCOME REQUIREMENT.—Housing assistance under this title may be provided only on behalf of a family that—

(1) at the time that such assistance is initially provided on behalf of the family, is determined by the public housing agency to be a low-income family; or

(2) qualifies to receive such assistance under any other provision of Federal law.

(b) INCOME TARGETING.—Of the families initially assisted under this title by a public housing agency in any year, not less than 40 percent shall be families whose incomes do not exceed 30 percent of the area median income, as determined by the Secretary with adjustments for smaller and larger families. The Secretary may establish income ceiling higher or lower than 30 percent of the area median income on the basis of the Secretary's findings that such variations are necessary because of unusually high or low family incomes.

(c) REVIEWS OF FAMILY INCOMES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Reviews of family incomes for purposes of this title shall be subject to the provisions of section 904 of the Stewart B. McKinney Homeless Assistance Amendments Act of 1988 and shall be conducted upon the initial provision of housing assistance for the family and thereafter not less than annually.

(2) PROCEDURES.—Each public housing agency administering housing assistance under this title shall establish procedures that are appropriate and necessary to ensure that income data provided to the agency and owners by families applying for or receiving housing assistance from the agency is complete and accurate.

(d) PREFERENCES FOR ASSISTANCE.—

(1) AUTHORITY TO ESTABLISH.—Any public housing agency that receives amounts under this title may establish a system for making housing assistance available on behalf of eligible families that provides preference for such assistance to eligible families having certain characteristics.

(2) CONTENT.—Each system of preferences established pursuant to this subsection shall be based upon local housing needs and priorities, as determined by the public housing agency using generally accepted data sources, including any information obtained pursuant to an opportunity for public comment as provided under section 1106(e) and under the requirements applicable to the comprehensive housing affordability strategy for the relevant jurisdiction.

(3) SENSE OF THE CONGRESS.—It is the sense of the Congress that, to the greatest extent practicable, public housing agencies involved in the selection of tenants under the provisions of this title should adopt preferences for individuals who are victims of domestic violence.

(e) PORTABILITY OF HOUSING ASSISTANCE.—

(1) NATIONAL PORTABILITY.—An eligible family that is selected to receive or is receiving assistance under this title may rent any eligible dwelling unit in any area where a program is being administered under this title. Notwithstanding the preceding sentence, a public housing agency may require that any family not living within the jurisdiction of the public housing agency at the time the family applies for assistance from the agency shall, during the 12-month period beginning on the date of initial receipt of housing assistance made available on behalf of the family from such agency, lease and occupy an eligible dwelling unit located within the jurisdiction served by the agency. The agency for the jurisdiction into which the family moves shall have the responsibility for administering assistance for the family.

(2) SOURCE OF FUNDING FOR A FAMILY THAT MOVES.—For a family that has moved into the jurisdiction of a public housing agency and that, at the time of the move, has been selected to receive, or is receiving, assistance provided by another agency, the agency for the jurisdiction into which the family has moved may, in its discretion, cover the cost of assisting the family under its contract with the Secretary or through reimbursement from the other agency under that agency's contract.

(3) AUTHORITY TO DENY ASSISTANCE TO CERTAIN FAMILIES WHO MOVE.—A family may not receive housing assistance as provided under this subsection if the family has moved from a dwelling unit in violation of the lease for the dwelling unit.

(4) FUNDING ALLOCATIONS.—In providing assistance amounts under this title for public housing agencies for any fiscal year, the Secretary may give consideration to any reduction or increase in the number of resident families under the program of an agency in the preceding fiscal year as a result of this subsection.

(f) CONFIDENTIALITY FOR VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE.—A public housing agency shall be subject to the restrictions regarding release of information relating to the identity and new residence of any family receiving housing assistance who was a victim of domestic violence that are applicable to shelters pursuant to the Family Violence Prevention and Services Act. The agency shall work with the United States Postal Service to establish procedures consistent with the confidentiality provisions in the Violence Against Women Act of 1994.

SEC. 1322. RESIDENT CONTRIBUTION.

(a) AMOUNT.—

(1) MONTHLY RENT CONTRIBUTION.—An assisted family shall contribute on a monthly basis for the rental of an assisted dwelling unit an amount that the public housing agency determines is appropriate with respect to the family and the unit, but which—

(A) shall not be less than the minimum monthly rental contribution determined under subsection (b); and

(B) shall not exceed the greatest of—

(i) 30 percent of the monthly adjusted income of the family;

(ii) 10 percent of the monthly income of the family; and

(iii) if the family is receiving payments for welfare assistance from a public agency and a part of such payments, adjusted in accordance with the actual housing costs of the family, is specifically designated by such agency to meet the housing costs of the family, the portion of such payments that is so designated.

(2) EXCESS RENTAL AMOUNT.—In any case in which the monthly rent charged for a dwelling unit pursuant to the housing assistance payments contract exceeds the applicable payment standard (established under section 1353) for the dwelling unit, the assisted family residing in the unit shall contribute (in addition to the amount of the monthly rent contribution otherwise determined under paragraph (1) for such family) such entire excess rental amount.

(b) MINIMUM MONTHLY RENTAL CONTRIBUTION.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—The public housing agency shall determine the amount of the minimum monthly rental contribution of an assisted family (which rent shall include any amount allowed for utilities), which—

(A) shall be based upon factors including the adjusted income of the family and any other factors that the agency considers appropriate;

(B) shall be not less than $25, nor more than $50; and

(C) may be increased annually by the agency, except that no such annual increase may exceed 10 percent of the amount of the minimum monthly contribution in effect for the preceding year.

(2) HARDSHIP PROVISIONS.—

(A) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding paragraph (1), a public housing agency shall grant an exemption in whole or in part from payment of the minimum monthly rental contribution established under this paragraph to any assisted family unable to pay such amount because of financial hardship, which shall include situations in which (i) the family has lost eligibility for or is awaiting an eligibility determination for a Federal, State, or local assistance program, including a family that includes a member who is an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence under the Immigration and Nationality Act who would be entitled to public benefits but for title IV of the Personal Responsibility and Work Opportunity Reconciliation Act of 1996; (ii) the family would be evicted as a result of imposition of the minimum rent; (iii) the income of the family has decreased because of changed circumstance, including loss of employment; and (iv) a death in the family has occurred; and other situations as may be determined by the agency.

(B) WAITING PERIOD.—If an assisted family requests a hardship exemption under this paragraph and the public housing agency reasonably determines the hardship to be of a temporary nature, an exemption shall not be granted during the 90-day period beginning upon the making of a request for the exemption. An assisted family may not be evicted during such 90-day period for non-payment of rent. In such a case, if the assisted family thereafter demonstrates that the financial hardship is of a long-term basis, the agency shall retroactively exempt the family from the applicability of the minimum rent requirement for such 90-day period.

(C) TREATMENT OF CHANGES IN RENTAL CONTRIBUTION.—

(1) NOTIFICATION OF CHANGES.—A public housing agency shall promptly notify the owner of an assisted dwelling unit of any change in the resident contribution by the assisted family residing in the unit that takes effect immediately or at a later date.

(2) COLLECTION OF RETROACTIVE CHANGES.—In the case of any change in the rental contribution of an assisted family that affects rental payments previously made, the public housing agency shall collect any additional amounts required to be paid by the family under such change directly from the family and shall refund any excess rental contribution paid by the family directly to the family.

(D) PHASE-IN OF RENT CONTRIBUTION INCREASES.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Except as provided in paragraph (2), for any family that is receiving tenant-based rental assistance under section 8 of the United States Housing Act of 1937 upon the initial applicability of the provisions of this title to such family, if the monthly contribution for rental of an assisted dwelling unit to be paid by the family upon such initial applicability is greater than the amount paid by the family under the provisions of the United States Housing Act of 1937 immediately before such applicability, any such resulting increase in rent contribution shall be—

(A) phased in equally over a period of not less than 3 years, if such increase is 30 percent or more of such contribution before initial applicability; and

(B) limited to not more than 10 percent per year if such increase is more than 10 percent but less than 30 percent of such contribution before initial applicability.

(2) EXCEPTION.—The minimum rent contribution requirement under subsection (b)(1) shall apply to each family described in paragraph (1) of this subsection, notwithstanding such paragraph.

SEC. 1323. RENTAL INDICATORS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall establish and issue rental indicators under this section periodically, but not less than annually, for existing rental dwelling units that are eligible dwelling units. The Secretary shall establish and issue the rental indicators by housing market area (as the Secretary shall establish) for various sizes and types of dwelling units.

(b) AMOUNT.—For a market area, the rental indicator established under subsection (a) for a dwelling unit of a particular size and type in the market area shall be a dollar amount that reflects the rental amount for a standard quality rental unit of such size and type in the market area that is an eligible dwelling unit.

(c) EFFECTIVE DATE.—The Secretary shall cause the proposed rental indicators established under subsection (a) for each market area to be published in the Federal Register with reasonable time for public comment, and such rental indicators shall become effective upon the date of publication in final form in the Federal Register.

(d) ANNUAL ADJUSTMENT.—Each rental indicator in effect under this section shall be adjusted to be effective on October 1 of each year to reflect changes, based on the most recent available data trended so that the indicators will be current for the year to which they apply, in rents for existing rental dwelling units of various sizes and types in the market area suitable for occupancy by families assisted under this title.

SEC. 1324. LEASE TERMS.

Rental assistance may be provided for an eligible dwelling unit only if the assisted family and the owner of the dwelling unit enter into a lease for the unit that—

(1) provides for a single lease term of 12 months and continued tenancy after such term under a periodic tenancy on a month-to-month basis;

(2) contains terms and conditions specifying that termination of tenancy during the term of a lease shall be subject to the provisions set forth in sections 1642 and 1643; and

(3) is set forth in the standard form, which is used in the local housing market area by the owner and applies generally to any other tenants in the property who are not assisted families, together with any addendum necessary to include the many terms required under this section.

A lease may include any addenda appropriate to set forth the provisions under this title.

SEC. 1325. TERMINATION OF TENANCY.

Each housing assistance payments contract shall provide that the owner shall conduct the termination of tenancy of any tenant of an assisted dwelling unit under the contract in accordance with applicable State or local laws, including providing any notice of termination required under such laws.

SEC. 1326. ELIGIBLE OWNERS.

(a) OWNERSHIP ENTITY.—Rental assistance under this title may be provided for any eligible dwelling unit for which the owner is any public agency, private person or entity (including a cooperative), nonprofit organization, agency of the Federal Government, or public housing agency.

(b) INELIGIBLE OWNERS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—Notwithstanding subsection (a), a public housing agency—

(A) may not enter into a housing assistance payments contract (or renew an existing contract) covering a dwelling unit that is owned by an owner who is debarred, suspended, or subject to limited denial of participation under part 24 of title 24, Code of Federal Regulations;

(B) may prohibit, or authorize the termination or suspension of, payment of housing assistance under a housing assistance payments contract in effect at the time such debarment, suspension, or limited denial of participation takes effect.

If the public housing agency takes action under subparagraph (B), the agency shall take such actions as may be necessary to protect assisted families who are affected by the action, which may include the provision of additional assistance under this title to such families.

(2) PROHIBITION OF SALE OR RENTAL TO RELATED PARTIES.—The Secretary shall establish guidelines to prevent housing assistance payments for a dwelling unit that is owned by any spouse, child, or other party who allows an owner described in paragraph (1) to maintain control of the unit.

SEC. 1327. SELECTION OF DWELLING UNITS.

(a) FAMILY CHOICE.—The determination of the dwelling unit in which an assisted family resides and for which housing assistance is provided under this title shall be made solely by the assisted family, subject to the provisions of this title and any applicable law.

(b) DEED RESTRICTIONS.—Housing assistance may not be used in any manner that abrogates any local deed restriction that applies to any housing consisting of 1 to 4 dwelling units. Nothing in this section may be construed to affect the provisions or applicability of the Fair Housing Act.

SEC. 1328. ELIGIBLE DWELLING UNITS.

(a) IN GENERAL.—A dwelling unit shall be an eligible dwelling unit for purposes of this title only if the public housing agency to provide housing assistance for the dwelling unit determines that the dwelling unit—

(1) is an existing dwelling unit that is not located within a nursing home or the grounds of any penal, reformatory, medical, mental, or similar public or private institution; and

(2) complies—

(A) in the case of a dwelling unit located in a jurisdiction which has in effect laws, regulations, standards, or codes regarding habitability of residential dwellings, with such applicable laws, regulations, standards, or codes; or

(B) in the case of a dwelling unit located in a jurisdiction which does not have in effect laws, regulations, standards, or codes described in subparagraph (A), with the housing quality standards established under subsection (c).

Each public housing agency providing housing assistance shall identify, in the local housing management plan for the agency, whether the agency is utilizing the standard under subparagraph (A) or (B) of paragraph (2).

(b) DETERMINATIONS.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—A public housing agency shall make the determinations required under subsection (a) pursuant to an inspection of the dwelling unit conducted before any assistance payment is made for the unit.

(2) EXPEDITIOUS INSPECTION.—Inspections of dwelling units under this subsection shall be made before the expiration of the 15-day period beginning upon a request by the resident or landlord to the public housing agency. The performance of the agency in meeting the 15-day inspection deadline shall be taken into account in assessing the performance of the agency.

(c) FEDERAL HOUSING QUALITY STANDARDS.—The Secretary shall establish housing quality standards under this subsection that ensure that assisted dwelling units are safe, clean, and healthy. Such standards shall include requirements relating to habitability, including maintenance, health and sanitation factors, condition, and construction of dwellings, and shall, to the greatest extent practicable, be consistent with the standards established under section 1232(b). The Secretary shall differentiate between major and minor violations of such standards.

(d) ANNUAL INSPECTIONS.—Each public housing agency providing housing assistance shall make an annual inspection of each assisted dwelling unit during the term of the housing assistance payments contracts for the unit to determine whether the unit is maintained in accordance with the requirements under subsection (a)(2). The agency shall retain the records of the inspection for a reasonable time and shall make the records available upon request to the Secretary, the Inspector General for the Department of Housing and Urban Development, and any auditor conducting an audit under section 1541.

(e) INSPECTION GUIDELINES.—The Secretary shall establish procedural guidelines and performance standards to facilitate inspections of dwelling units and conform such inspections with practices utilized in the private housing market. Such guidelines and standards shall take into consideration variations in local laws and practices of public housing agencies and shall provide flexibility to authorities appropriate to facilitate efficient provision of assistance under this title.

(f) RULE OF CONSTRUCTION.—This section may not be construed to prevent the provision of housing assistance in connection with supportive services for elderly or disabled families.

SEC. 1329. HOMEOWNERSHIP OPTION.

(a) IN GENERAL.—A public housing agency providing housing assistance under this title may provide homeownership assistance to assist eligible families to purchase a dwelling unit (including purchase under lease-purchase homeownership plans).

(b) REQUIREMENTS.—A public housing agency providing homeownership assistance under this section shall, as a condition of an eligible family receiving such assistance, require the family to—

(1) demonstrate that the family has sufficient income from employment or other sources (other than public assistance), as determined in accordance with requirements established by the agency; and

(2) meet any other initial or continuing requirements established by the public housing agency.

(c) DOWNPAYMENT REQUIREMENT.—

(1) IN GENERAL.—A public housing agency may establish minimum downpayment requirements, if appropriate, in connection with loans made for the purchase of dwelling units for which homeownership assistance is provided under this section. If the agency establishes a minimum downpayment requirement, the agency shall permit the family to use grant amounts, gifts from relatives, contributions from private sources, and similar amounts as downpayment amounts in such purchase, subject to the requirements of paragraph (2).

(2) DIRECT FAMILY CONTRIBUTION.—In purchasing housing pursuant to this section subject to a downpayment requirement, each family shall contribute an amount of the downpayment, from resources of the family other than grants, gifts, contributions, or other similar amounts referred to in paragraph (1), that is not less than 1 percent of the purchase price.

(d) INELIGIBILITY UNDER OTHER PROGRAMS.—A family may not receive homeownership assistance pursuant to this section during any period when assistance is being provided for the family under other Federal homeownership assistance programs, as determined by the Secretary, including assistance under the HOME Investment Partnerships Act, the Homeownership and Opportunity Through HOPE Act, title II of the Housing and Community Development Act of 1987, and section 502 of the Housing Act of 1949.

SEC. 1330. ASSISTANCE FOR RENTAL OF MANUFACTURED HOMES.

(a) AUTHORITY.—Nothing in this title may be construed to prevent a public housing agency from providing housing assistance under this title on behalf of a low-income family for the rental of—

(1) a manufactured home that is the principal residence of the family and the real property on which the home is located; or

(2) the real property on which is located a manufactured home, which is owned by the family and is the principal residence of the family.

(b) ASSISTANCE FOR CERTAIN FAMILIES OWNING MANUFACTURED HOMES.—

(1) AUTHORITY.—Notwithstanding section 1351 or any other provision of this title, a public housing agency that receives amounts under a contract under section 1302 may enter into a housing assistance payment contract to make assistance payments under this title to a family that owns a manufactured home, but only as provided in paragraph (2).

(2) LIMITATIONS.—In the case only of a low-income family that owns a manufactured home, rents the real property on which it is located, and to whom housing assistance under this title has been made available for the rental of such property, the public housing agency making such assistance available shall enter into a contract to make housing assistance payments under this title directly to the family (rather than to the owner of such real property) if—

(A) the owner of the real property refuses to enter into a contract to receive housing assistance payments pursuant to section 1351(a);

(B) the family was residing in such manufactured home on such real property at the time such housing assistance was initially made available on behalf of the family;

(C) the family provides such assurances to the agency, as the Secretary may require, to ensure that amounts from the housing assistance payments are used for rental of the real property; and

(D) the rental of the real property otherwise complies with the requirements for assistance under this title.

A contract pursuant to this subsection shall be subject to the provisions of section 1351 and any other provisions applicable to housing assistance payments contracts under this title, except that the Secretary may provide such exceptions as the Secretary considers appropriate to facilitate the provision of assistance under this subsection.

If, pursuant to the review, the Secretary determines that such payment standard is not appropriate to serve the needs of the low-income population of the jurisdiction served by the agency (taking into consideration rental costs in the area), as identified in the approved community improvement plan of the agency, the Secretary may require the public housing agency to modify the payment standard.

(A) the Secretary shall (notwithstanding any other provisions of this division), continue to make the block grant payments for the agency so long as any of such obligations remain outstanding; and

(B) the Secretary may covenant in such a contract that in any event such block grant amounts shall in each year be at least equal to an amount which, together with such income or other funds as are actually available from the development for the purpose at the time such block grant payments are made, will suffice for the payment of all installments of principal and interest on the obligations for which the amounts provided for in the contract shall have been pledged as security that fall due within the next succeeding 12 months.

In no case shall such block grant amounts be in excess of the maximum sum specified in the contract involved, nor for longer than the remainder of the maximum period fixed by the contract.

(d) POWERS OF SECRETARY.—If the Secretary takes possession of an agency, or any developments or functions of an agency, pursuant to subsection (b)(2), the Secretary—

(1) may abrogate contracts that substantially impede correction of the substantial default or improvement of the classification, but only after efforts to renegotiate such contracts have failed and the Secretary has made a written determination regarding such abrogation, which shall be available to the public upon request, identify such contracts, and explain the determination that such contracts may be abrogated;

(2) may demolish and dispose of assets of the agency in accordance with section 1261;

(3) where determined appropriate by the Secretary, may require the establishment of one or more new public housing agencies;

(6) shall have such additional authority as a district court of the United States has the authority to confer under like circumstances upon a receiver to achieve the purposes of the receivership.

The Secretary may appoint, on a competitive or noncompetitive basis, an individual or entity as an administrative receiver to assume the Secretary's responsibility under this paragraph for the administration of a public housing agency. The Secretary may delegate to the administrative receiver any or all of the powers of the Secretary under this subsection. Regardless of any delegation under this subsection, an administrative receiver may not require the establishment of one or more new public housing agencies pursuant to paragraph (3) unless the Secretary first approves such establishment. For purposes of this subsection, the term "public housing agency" includes any developments or functions of a public housing agency under any section of this title.

(e) RECEIVERSHIP.—

The receiver appointed may be another public housing agency, a private management corporation, the Secretary, or any other appropriate entity. The court shall have power to grant appropriate temporary or preliminary relief pending final disposition of the petition by the Secretary.

(2) POWERS OF RECEIVER.—If a receiver is appointed for a public housing agency pursuant to subsection (b)(5), in addition to the powers accorded by the court appointing the receiver, the receiver—

(B) may demolish and dispose of assets of the agency in accordance with section 1261;

(C) where determined appropriate by the Secretary, may require the establishment of one or more new public housing agencies, to the extent permitted by State and local law; and

(D) except as provided in subparagraph (C), shall not be subject to any State or local laws relating to civil service requirements, employee rights, procurement, or financial or administrative controls that, in the determination of the receiver, substantially impede correction of the substantial default or improvement of the classification, but only if the receiver has made a written determination regarding such inapplicability, which shall be available to the public upon request, identify such inapplicable laws, and explain the determination that such laws impede such correction.

For purposes of this paragraph, the term "public housing agency" includes any developments or functions of a public housing agency under any section of this title.

(3) TERMINATION.—The appointment of a receiver pursuant to this subsection may be terminated, upon the petition of any party, when the court determines that all defaults have been cured or the public housing agency will be able to make the same amount of progress in correcting the management of the housing as the receiver.

(f) LIABILITY.—If the Secretary takes possession of an agency pursuant to subsection (b)(2) or a receiver is appointed pursuant to subsection (b)(5) for a public housing agency, the Secretary or the receiver shall be deemed to be acting in the capacity of the public housing agency (and not in the official capacity as Secretary or other official) and any liability incurred shall be a liability of the public housing agency.

“(A) NEW APPLICANTS.—Each public housing agency that owns or operates 250 or more public housing dwelling units and has—

“(iii) the Secretary has determined, pursuant to a performance review under paragraph (4), that during the preceding fiscal year the agency has substantially fulfilled the requirements under subparagraphs (A) and (B) of paragraph (4).

Notwithstanding subparagraphs (A) and (B), the Secretary may make a grant under this chapter to a public housing agency that owns or operates 250 or more public housing dwelling units only if the agency includes in the application for the grant information that demonstrates, to the satisfaction of the Secretary, that the agency has a need for the grant amounts based on generally recognized crime statistics showing that (I) the crime rate for the public housing developments of the agency (or the immediate neighborhoods in which such developments are located) is higher than the crime rate for the jurisdiction in which the agency operates, (II) the crime rate for the developments (or such neighborhoods) is increasing over a period of sufficient duration to indicate a general trend, or (III) the operation of the program under this chapter substantially contributes to the reduction of crime.

“(3) AMOUNT.—In any fiscal year, the amount of the grant for a public housing agency receiving a grant pursuant to paragraph (1) shall be the amount that bears the same ratio to the total amount made available under section 5131(b)(1) as the total number of public dwelling units owned or operated by such agency bears to the total number of dwelling units owned or operated by all public housing agencies that own or operate 250 or more public housing dwelling units that are approved for such fiscal year.

“(4) PERFORMANCE REVIEW.—For each fiscal year, the Secretary shall conduct a performance review of the activities carried out by each public housing agency receiving a grant pursuant to this subsection to determine whether the agency—

“(5) SUBMISSION OF APPLICATIONS.—The Secretary shall establish such deadlines and requirements for submission of applications under this subsection.

“(6) REVIEW AND DETERMINATION.—The Secretary shall review each application submitted under this subsection upon submission and shall approve the application unless the application and the 5-year crime deterrence and reduction plan are inconsistent with the purposes of this chapter or any requirements established by the Secretary or the information in the application or plan is not substantially complete. Upon approving or determining not to approve an application and plan submitted under this subsection, the Secretary shall notify the public housing agency submitting the application and plan of such approval or disapproval.

“(7) DISAPPROVAL OF APPLICATIONS.—If the Secretary notifies an agency that the application and plan of the agency is not approved, not later than the expiration of the 15-day period beginning upon such notice of disapproval, the Secretary shall also notify the agency, in writing, of the reasons for the disapproval, the actions that the agency could take to comply with the criteria for approval, and the deadlines for such actions.

considered to have been approved for purposes of this section.

“(b) PHA’S WITH FEWER THAN 250 UNITS AND OWNERS OF FEDERALLY ASSISTED LOW-INCOME HOUSING.—

“(1) APPLICATIONS AND PLANS.—To be eligible to receive a grant under this chapter, a public housing agency that owns or operates fewer than 250 public housing dwelling units or an owner of federally assisted low-income housing shall submit an application to the Secretary at such time, in such manner, and accompanied by such additional information as the Secretary may require. The application shall include a plan for addressing the problem of crime in and around the housing for which the application is submitted, describing in detail activities to be conducted during the fiscal year for which the grant is requested.

In each fiscal year, the Secretary may give preference to applications under this subsection for housing made by applicants who received a grant for such housing for the preceding fiscal year under this subsection or under the provisions of this chapter as in effect immediately before the date of the enactment of the Housing Opportunity and Responsibility Act of 1997.

“(5) ADDITIONAL CRITERIA FOR FEDERALLY ASSISTED LOW-INCOME HOUSING.—In addition to the selection criteria under paragraph (4), the Secretary may establish other criteria for evaluating applications submitted by owners of federally assisted low-income housing, except that such additional criteria shall be designed only to reflect—

(b)(1) PUBLIC BENEFIT DISCOUNT.—The amount of the public benefit discount available under this section shall be 75 percent of the estimated fair market value of the property, except that the Secretary may discount by a greater percentage if the Secretary, in consultation with the Administrator, determines that a higher percentage is justified due to any benefit which will accrue to the United States from the use of such property for the public purpose of providing low- and moderate-income housing.

The CHAIRMAN. Pursuant to House Resolution 501, the gentleman from New York (Mr. LAZIO) and a Member opposed each will control 20 minutes.

The Chair recognizes the gentleman from New York (Mr. LAZIO).

Mr. LAZIO of New York. Mr. Chairman, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Chairman, I rise for purposes of offering an amendment to the VA, HUD and Independent Agencies appropriations bill. This amendment would add H.R. 2, the Housing Opportunity and Responsibility Act, which was passed by this Congress last year on May 14, 1997, by a vote of 293 to 132 to the bill, with one minor modification to address any possible scoring concerns.

Mr. Chairman, I yield such time as he may consume to the gentleman from Iowa (Mr. LEACH), the chairman of the Committee on Banking and Financial Services, who I have enormous respect for and who is largely responsible for us having gotten to the point we are right now.

Mr. LEACH. Mr. Chairman, I thank the gentleman for yielding me time.

Mr. Chairman, let me stress at this point that I think, while awkward, this is particularly appropriate to add this bill to this bill. Let me thank the distinguished gentleman from New York, who has led the housing movement in the House so ably.

But in making this suggestion, let me make some clarification. The distinguished ranking member of the committee, the gentleman from New York, made some critical comments on process during prior debate on the rule, and, to some degree, as chairman of the committee, let me suggest that the gentleman is absolutely correct.

The regular order should have been a Committee on Banking and Financial Services conference. For various reasons, this proved difficult to institute. On the other hand, the present situation is not quite the procedural umbrage that is hinted at, in that the bill before us, unlike most authorizing parts of appropriations bills, has passed the House, in fact by a large margin, and a conference can be expected of authorizers in the context of an appropriations conference. What we are thus simply doing is attaching legislation that has previously been agreed to by the House to facilitate movement on that critical subject.

In this regard, public housing reform is clearly an important national interest and national objective. Both those of liberal and conservative perspectives have concluded that there are serious problems in our present system that demand resolution. This is precisely what the Committee on Banking and Financial Services has done in a straightforward way in a bill that exceeds, and let me stress, based on the statement of the last Member, exceeds the administration's request in funding levels for housing. Indeed, the bill substantially exceeds the administration's request for senior and disabled housing.

To the extent that politics is the art of the possible, the reason we are proceeding in this fashion is simply to use a vehicle that has the greatest chance of achieving consensus and support, both from the other body as well as, hopefully, from the administration.

Included in this bill is authorization on an appropriation pushed by the minority, an increase in FHA mortgage insurance limits as advocated by the administration. The Committee on Banking and Financial Services is willing, in the context of public housing reform, to consider this change, even though it represents a modest increase in the governmentalization of credit in the United States.

Finally, let me say that it has been represented to this Member that in the background there are the concerns of some that, if adopted, these reforms might be perceived as a success of this Congress, and, therefore, opposed because some would oppose any institutional successes.

I have spent the vast majority of my time in Congress in the minority. I never paid heed to those who wanted to subvert good policy for political reasons. I hope in the end the minority in this body and in the administration will make a judgment based on the national interests and not whether it will be perceived as something Congress can take credit for.

The fact is, good governance implies that, more often than not, administrations have initiatives that deserve serious consideration by the Congress and, if meritorious, accepted; likewise, that initiatives put forward by the Congress in a divided government deserve serious consideration by the Executive Branch, and, if meritorious, accepted.

Finally, let me stress again that if this amendment is adopted it would be the intention of the leadership to designate sub-conferes from the authorizing committee of jurisdictions from both sides of the aisle to resolve outstanding issues of public housing. I am optimistic and hopeful that such can be done in short order and that this Congress will do what is best for the American people and pass permanent public housing reform.

The CHAIRMAN. Does any Member seek control of the time in opposition?

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, I rise in opposition.

The CHAIRMAN. The gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. KENNEDY) is recognized for 20 minutes.

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, I yield 2½ minutes to my good friend, the gentleman from New York (Mr. LAFALCE), the ranking member of the Committee on Banking and Financial Services.

(Mr. LAFALCE asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. LAFALCE. Mr. Chairman, why are we here today? The House already passed H.R. 2. The Senate passed their public housing bill. We passed ours in May, they passed theirs in September, and yet neither body has appointed conferees.

There is no reason to attach this bill to an appropriations bill. Let us go to the table. Let us go to conference. Why are we not going to conference in the regular order? Why are there not conference committees?

Because the Members on the majority side are afraid that the minority on the House side will join forces with both the majority and minority on the Senate side and overwhelmingly approve a bill that is not to their personal, individual tastes. That is the reason and the only reason. So now they try to use legislative extortion, attach it to something they really need, attach it to the FHA, attach it to the appropriations process. That is what they are attempting to do here. Let nobody be fooled by it.

Let us now go to substance. I refer to a statement put out by the Department of Housing and Urban Development yesterday, and I will insert this, with a list of all those vulnerable people in America that will be adversely affected by this on a state-by-state basis.

According to HUD, this particular amendment would raise the income levels of people eligible for public housing. It would give greater priority to people making as much as $40,000 to be admitted to public housing, allowing them to gain housing before low income families. Since no new public housing is being built and existing waiting lists are years long, these lower income families will have no option whatsoever.

I have always believed we should have a preferential option for the poor. What this amendment does is eliminate any option. A total, according to HUD, of 3 million low income people would be denied access to public and federally assisted housing, including 1.8 million seniors and children.

I want to quote Secretary of Housing Andrew Cuomo. He said,

The inclusion of this repugnant public housing bill in the HUD appropriations bill violates the good faith and cooperative efforts we have been working toward and is tantamount to legislative extortion.

That is why, if this amendment passes, there will be a veto of this bill.

Mr. Chairman, I include the following news release from the Department of Housing and Urban Development for the RECORD.

AMERICA'S MOST VULNERABLE LIST: 1.8 MILLION POOR SENIORS AND CHILDREN LOCKED OUT OF NATION'S HOUSING

WASHINGTON.—Today, the House is considering an amendment to legislation (H.R. 4194) that would raise the income levels of people eligible for public housing. This bill would give greater priority to people making as much as $40,000 to be admitted to public housing, allowing them to gain housing before lower income families. Since no new public housing is being built and existing waiting lists are years long, these lower income families will have no option whatsoever. A total of 3 million low-income people would be denied access to public and federally-assisted housing, including 1.8 million seniors and children.

In response to this bill, Housing Secretary Andrew Cuomo said:

"It is inexcusable that we would take the few units of affordable housing this Congress has allowed to remain and remove it from the grasp of the most vulnerable Americans. This means no housing for America's most vulnerable. In an apparent effort to 'mix income' in public housing the House bill would make 1.8 million seniors and children virtually homeless. For them, the House bill would be the equivalent of a housing death sentence: no housing for life.

"The Administration's position is an intelligent balance which would allow mixed income in public housing and provide for the most vulnerable with Section 8 vouchers for every lower-income family displaced from the waiting list.

"The inclusion of this repugnant public housing bill in the HUD appropriations bill violates the good faith and cooperative efforts we have been working towards and is tantamount to legislative extortion."

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, I yield 3 minutes to the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES), the ranking member of the subcommittee.

Mr. STOKES. Mr. Chairman, I thank the gentleman for yielding me this time.

Mr. Chairman, I rise in opposition to this amendment.

First, I do not understand what legitimate purpose can possibly be served by adding this measure to the VA-HUD appropriations bill. The same bill has already been passed by the House and a companion bill has been passed by the Senate. Obviously, what needs to happen next is serious, good-faith negotiations leading to a conference report that will pass the House and Senate and be signed into law by the President.

Bringing this bill up for a vote again in the House does nothing to further this process. Absent serious negotiations and compromises, this measure is not going to become law, no matter how many times it is passed by the House.

Both the House and Senate passed their versions of the bill over a year ago, yet conferees have not even been appointed. I think the Banking Committee majority would do far better to get a real conference process underway, rather than offering this amendment.

I want to leave the details of this detail and the substance of this proposal to my colleagues on the authorizing committee since our appropriations subcommittee has never held any hearings on this legislation. However, let me mention the most serious concern I had about this version of the housing authorization bill when it passed the House last year, a concern which has only grown stronger over time. In short, the measure goes much too far in allowing scarce housing funds to be diverted away from people who are most in need of assistance.

For example, the Lazio bill requires only 35 percent of newly vacant housing units to go to families with incomes below 30 percent of area medium income, a level as roughly equal to the poverty line in many areas and a level earned by many families that are working at minimum wages. I understand these targeting rules could divert up to 270,000 Federal housing subsidies per year away from poor families. With so many unmet needs for housing, we need to ensure that a substantial part of our scarce housing assistance dollars go to those with the greatest need, and I urge defeat of this amendment.

Mr. LAZIO of New York. Mr. Chairman, I yield myself 4 minutes.

Mr. Chairman, we have largely stated our case earlier in debate on the rule which passed. This is a bill that has been fully vetted over 3 years. This is a bill that has twice seen consideration, not just in committee, but on the floor of the House.

Just last May, as I mentioned earlier, this bill passed with over 293 Members of the House voting in favor of it, including one-third of the Democratic conference. Mr. Chairman, 71 Democrats supported making these essential changes to a failed public housing system.

I do not understand, Mr. Chairman, for many folks that did not create this system of failure, why they feel the need to defend it. Who can be against individual choice, empowerment, more local control? But to urge defeat of this amendment is to do just that.

This is a bill that stands for the individual, stands for individual choice, allows individuals who receive rental vouchers to achieve homeownership, which we say is the American dream. Let us stand for it. Let us not be hypocritical. We say we are for local control; we say the communities and neighborhoods should be able to control their own destiny. Let us do it. This bill does it.

We say we are for safer streets, for healthier housing, for better education. Let us give poor people the tools to achieve those things by giving them vouchers, by allowing them to achieve homeownership, by allowing them to build up equity in a home, by permitting them to start businesses.

On the other side we have an argument for the defense of the status quo, for the defense of a system that concentrates poverty, that drives out the working poor, that undermines schools, that drives out the businesses that keep working folks in areas.

Under the system that is supported by the administration and by the Kennedy amendment, for example, in terms of vouchers, in the overwhelming majority of areas throughout the country, over 80 percent of the areas, and I will get into this later, for a mother and father who both have work and have minimum wage jobs, they have no chance of getting a voucher. Now, what is the statement that we provide here? What statement are we making?

We are saying that if one works, one loses. If one gets married, one loses. If one takes the chance of taking an entry-level position and moving into the culture of work and socializing in that direction, one loses; one will not get access to a rental voucher. But if one does not work, one will get the help.

We are saying with this bill, give communities more control. We are not saying how many poor people they can have. They can have, if a community desires, this bill allows absolute flexibility for local communities to target all of its resources on the very poor. But we are also saying, do not shut out folks who are trying to move up the economic ladder. Do not shut out folks who are getting an entry-level position. Do not tell folks they have to get a divorce to qualify for a voucher. Do not tell folks that if they get a rental unit through HUD, that because of the so-called Brooke amendment, that the minute that they work overtime or get married, or get a better job, or go to work, that their rent goes up by another 30 percent. That is the disincentive that we have built into the system that punishes work and punishes families.

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, I yield myself 4 minutes.

Mr. Chairman, there are some pretty good aspects of being an United States Congressman, one of which is that every once in a while one gets to bring an amendment on the House floor, and one actually gets to win it. I want to congratulate the chairman of the housing committee, Mr. LAZIO, on the fact that he has won this amendment, and he won it pretty big. That is terrific.

But one would think at some point one would want to be able to go beyond winning an amendment to actually being able to enact law, and one would think that at some point, the pride that one would have in being the chairman of a committee would drive one towards trying to find a way to actually see what one has tried to accomplish become law.

This is not an attempt to create law; this is an attempt to have a press conference. That is all this is about. This is not going before the House and Senate and calling for a conference to create compromise with the administration about new direction for housing policy. We have not had a new housing bill in this Congress since 1992, because people are not willing to compromise.

Now, there is a very simple, easy process. What happens is, the House passes a bill, the Senate passes a bill, and we go to conference. The House passed a bill 9 months ago. The Senate passed a bill 10 months ago. We have yet to go to conference, because the Republicans have been fighting amongst themselves.

Finally, 2 or 3 weeks ago my staff gets a call and says, we would like you to come and discuss the housing bill. We go to the discussion, not a conference, to the discussion. We begin good faith negotiations. Secretary Cuomo from HUD participates in these negotiations. And yet, lo and behold, yesterday morning I get a call from the Committee on Rules saying that, oh, no, we are not going to go with the compromise that we are all trying to work out in these back-room negotiations, not a conference, but we are going to go back to the original House bill, which we are going to attach without any hearings in the appropriations process, as the gentleman from Ohio, Mr. STOKES has pointed out, and we are going to attach the initial House-passed bill to the appropriations bill and try to jam it down the throat of the administration, try to jam it down the throat of the American people, in a way that is completely abusive to the basic fundamental process of how things work around here.

I cannot believe the chairman of the Subcommittee on VA, HUD and Independent Agencies of the Committee on Appropriations, the gentleman from California (Mr. LEWIS), would allow such a process to fully take place and to circumvent the basic fundamental rules of the road about how legislation gets passed, and I doubt very much that he will allow that to occur in the end.

I would hope that we will reach compromise. I do not think that it is right that we say to the poorest people, and yet, maybe a lot of this country is not eligible for these public housing programs. Do we know why? Because we do not put enough money into public housing programs.

So we are forced with decisions, decisions about whether or not to take care of the very, very poor, the people who are on the edge of homelessness, or whether or not to take care of people who earn $30,000 or $40,000 a year. I will tell my colleagues something. If one earns $30,000 or $40,000 a year, there are all sorts of banks, Fannie Mae and Freddie Mac that can get one into homeownership. If we are going to provide direct tax subsidies to the poor people of this country, let us at least try to target those subsidies to the people that need them the most. Is that such an outrageous proposal or outrageous moral thought that we are going to try to make sure that the poorest of the poor are served? That is the Democratic position.

So maybe somebody says, well, listen, I think a few more less-poor people ought to be served. That is a compromise. We are willing to work that out. That is not the worst idea in the world, but let us go to a conference and try to come up with a compromise. Let us not try to say, so, listen, we are totally, morally right, everybody else is wrong, and we are going to find a way to jam it down your throat. That is what this is.

Let us defeat this Leach amendment and stand up for the poor of this country.

Mr. LAZIO of New York. Mr. Chairman, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. BOEHNER), the distinguished conference chairman.

(Mr. BOEHNER asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BOEHNER. Mr. Chairman, 2 years ago, Congress delivered real welfare reform legislation for the first time in our Nation's history. Today those reforms are moving people from welfare to work in unprecedented numbers, reducing caseloads by 75 percent in some States. In my own county in Ohio, Butler County, we have reduced taxpayer costs for welfare 50 percent in 1 year alone. Today we are set to build on that success by taking the next step in welfare reform by passing legislation that transforms public housing from a way of life into a better life for low-income American families.

The amendment offered by the gentleman from Iowa (Mr. LEACH) and the gentleman from New York (Mr. LAZIO) truly represents a new era in Federal housing policy. America's Federal housing framework has been essentially unchanged since 1937, when Washington adopted the United States Housing Act, the basis for all Federal housing programs.

The structure has remained relatively unchanged and in place for more than two generations. Unfortunately, it is not one of those things that gets better with age. It is time we acted responsibly to bring our Nation's housing laws into the 21st century.

The amendment before us would replace our Nation's Depression-era housing laws with a new structure that empowers people, not government. It expands homeownership opportunities and gives residents a say in planning and management decisions that affect their quality of life.

It reflects our strong belief that families deserve the opportunity to become homeowners and to make more decisions about where they live and, more importantly even, how they live.

Current Federal housing policy results in warehousing of poor people. Decades of well-intentioned but flawed Washington policies have built a cold Federal wall between working Americans and our lowest-income Americans. It is, frankly, a national outrage.

The measure that we have before us today helps put an end to this practice by providing broad flexibility. I urge my colleagues to vote in favor of this amendment.

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, I yield 2 minutes to my good friend, the gentlewoman from California (Ms. WATERS).

(Ms. WATERS asked and was given permission to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. WATERS. Mr. Chairman, I must rise today and voice my very strong opposition to this amendment. It is outrageous that this authorizing bill would be considered as part of this appropriations bill.

Democrats and Republicans in both the House and the Senate have been working to come to agreement on public housing legislation. To use this last-minute maneuver to undercut this process is the worst form of lawmaking.

As a member of the Committee on Banking and Financial Services that considered this legislation, I know the significance of this bill for millions of low-income persons that live in public housing across this country. The amendment includes provisions that will undermine the basic mission of public housing, the provision of decent, safe and affordable housing for those who would not otherwise be able to secure it.

The income-targeting provision will mean that 709,000 poor families over the next 10 years will not have access to public housing and the Section 8 certificate program. In an effort to diversify the income mix of public housing, we cannot allow a wholesale abdication of our responsibility to the poor. Provisions that would turn over control of the Federal public housing dollars to local municipalities would jeopardize the welfare of poor families.

The requirement that residents of poor public housing work as a condition of residency is another of the punitive provisions of this legislation. Why do we feel that we can impose this requirement on poor people when we do not impose the same kind of requirement on other beneficiaries of Federal support?

For these reasons, I urge a no vote on this amendment.

Let me just say, I am really surprised that my chairman, the gentleman from Iowa (Mr. LEACH), would support this. He has a reputation for being fair. He has a reputation for respecting the legislative process. This is legislating on an appropriation. I would ask my colleagues to vote against this amendment.

The CHAIRMAN. The Chair would advise the gentleman from New York (Mr. LAZIO) and the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. KENNEDY) that each side has 9 minutes remaining.

Mr. LAZIO of New York. Mr. Chairman, I yield 2 minutes to the distinguished gentleman from Louisiana (Mr. BAKER), a member of the Committee on Banking and Financial Services.

(Mr. BAKER asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. BAKER. Mr. Chairman, this debate has been rather unclear, unfortunately. I think one must first look at the condition of public housing in this Nation today to understand what we are really about with this amendment.

Unfortunately, many of our public housing facilities are crime-ridden, filled with single moms with kids, without role models of dads going to work. What we know for a certainty is what we have is simply not working.

Should we come here and take taxpayer money and pour more and more into proven failure, or should we try perhaps to do something slightly different?

What Mr. LAZIO is proposing with this amendment is really very simple, to encourage people to go get a job and work, so if dad is working and mom wants to get the second job in the family or dad wants to take two jobs, not to tell mom or dad, if you go out and earn more, we are going to take more in rent. If mom goes to work, she has to have child care. She has to have transportation. She has to pay the increase in rent under the current rules. When she sits down and does the math, she has got to be crazy to go out and work 40 hours a week for a net of $25 or $50 dollar gain.

We are encouraging people not to try with the current system. The end result is not just taking away a person's ability to earn money. We are taking away their hope, their hope that life for their kids and their family can be better tomorrow if they simply try harder.

I do believe that if we give this one option a chance, we will be giving more than taxpayers a good return for their investment. We will be giving the working poor of this country an opportunity move up the ladder and not be warehoused like they have been for the past 40 years in deteriorating conditions with no opportunity to improve their lot in life.

This is serious legislation which desperately needs to be adopted.

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, I yield myself 10 seconds to respond to the gentleman from Louisiana to point out that, in the compromise we were working out, almost every provision that he just articulated had been accepted by the minority provision.

Mr. Chairman, I yield 2 minutes to the gentleman from Minnesota (Mr. VENTO).

Mr. VENTO. Mr. Chairman, I rise in opposition to this. This is wrong on process.

The reason that we are taking this particular tack is that this bill cannot make it on its merits through the entire process. So what we are trying to do is, what is going on here is we have a must-pass funding bill, and we are trying to superimpose this particular policy change.

This is no small policy change. What this really represents to me is, it represents our Nation giving up on trying to help house the poor. That is what this really represents. We are dumping this back on the local governments. That is what is going on. We are giving up. That is what is going on here. That is why everyone is so concerned about it, because the local governments, when we talk about the problems with public housing, are where the problems are.

I come from the number one public housing authority in the Nation, St. Paul, Minnesota. We stole Minneapolis's director. Otherwise, they might have it. Public housing works in my area. Our housing is not without problems, but where we have problems, they usually occur in some of the private multifamily housing.

One of the big problems, we just have too big buildings in most instances. We did the wrong thing. We did not provide the resources. We are providing less and less. Is it any wonder that there is a problem? This is wrong in terms of, in other words, taking the low income people, we have more of them, as we know. We have got this great disparity going on in terms of the best times of our economy. Many people have a lot more income and a lot have a lot less income, even though both parents or single parent families are all working. It tries to put the veneer of welfare reform over this. They are part of welfare reform.

A part of welfare reform is to fund the vouchers amendment that the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) and the gentleman from Massachusetts (Mr. KENNEDY) offered. That is welfare reform. We do not need a duplicate welfare system superimposed on the one that we passed. I voted for it. I wanted it to work. Let us fund it. Let us quit creating more promises.

All this is is a paper promise in term of welfare reform. That is what is wrong with this place. We get one good idea going, then we have to have three things similar and nothing gets funded.

Let us fund it. Let us vote up the Kennedy-Stokes amendment.

Mr. LAZIO of New York. Mr. Chairman, I yield 2 minutes to the gentlewoman from New York (Mrs. KELLY), a member of the Committee on Banking and Financial Services.

Mrs. KELLY. Mr. Chairman, I rise today to call on all of my colleagues from both sides of the aisle to join me in strong support for the Leach-Lazio amendment to add H.R. 2, the Housing Opportunity and Responsibility Act of 1997, to the VA-HUD appropriations bill.

I would like to thank the gentleman from New York (Mr. LAZIO) and all of the members of the House Committee on Banking and Financial Services for their hard work on H.R. 2, which we passed with a bipartisan vote last year. H.R. 2 is a piece of well-thought-out, comprehensive legislation that will make a real difference in public housing in America.

We have based this legislation on simple goals that will move our public housing programs in a strong new direction to empower the residents. The goals are, one, personal responsibility that extends to a mutual obligation between the provider and the recipient. One of the ways we accomplish this is through 8 hours a month work requirements for residents, exempting the elderly, the disabled, the employed, those who are in school or are receiving training, and those who are already involved in a welfare program.

Two, retention of protections for residents. One way this is accomplished is through the exclusion of income for the first few months of a new job and the income of minors from the determination of a resident's income level.

Another thing I would hope this bill would accomplish is improving thoughtful consideration of others for those who live in public housing. For instance, I have heard that some of the residents in one public housing building in my district butchered a cow in their bathtub. No one should have to live with neighbors who care so little for their other neighbors that they would do this, let alone the poor cow.

Number three, removal of disincentives to work and empowerment of the individual and family tenant through choices that I believe will lead them to economic independence. One of the ways we do this is by giving residents a choice between a flat rent or a percentage of their income.

I would like to emphasize that everyone has the same shared objective: clean, safe, affordable housing that empowers the have-nots in our society to become people who can realize their own American dream.

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from North Carolina (Mr. WATT).

Mr. WATT of North Carolina. Mr. Chairman, I obviously object to the process that is being followed, but there is something that is behind that process that I object to that I want to call our attention to.

We had a debate about it on this floor. This bill allows housing authorities to evict tenants for failure to perform community service. That is unprecedented. Think of it, we give veterans benefits. We give all kinds of benefits, even welfare benefits. We provide to people, we might require them to work but at least we pay them.

This is a provision that says, we are going to evict you from public housing unless you perform free community service, no guidelines for it, no question about whether you are an employee. What happens if you get hurt out there doing this stuff? Nothing about guidelines under this provision. We debated this ad infinitum. Here it comes back again on an appropriations bill. Put it on an appropriations bill, maybe we can sneak it through and it will be all right.

This is unprecedented. It should not be in an appropriations bill. There ought to be discussions about it back and forth between the committees of jurisdiction in the House and Senate, and we ought to refine it. We ought not just put a provision out there that has no guidelines about it. This is unforgivable. It is out of the process. We should not allow it to happen in this body. Processwise or contentwise, it is unforgivable. We should vote against this amendment.

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, I yield 1 minute to the gentlewoman in from New York (Ms. VELÁZQUEZ), who probably has more public housing in her district than any other Member of Congress.

Ms. VELÁZQUEZ. Mr. Chairman, I rise in opposition to this amendment, and I just would like to say that the process in which this legislation has been brought to the floor is a sham and you should be ashamed of yourselves.

At a time when America's economy is the strongest in generations, it is disturbing that some in this Chamber continue the war on the poor. Yet, once again, we are being asked to vote on an attack on our national commitment to public housing and our neediest families.

America has the distinction of being one of the wealthiest countries in the world. Yet just last month HUD reported that more than 5 million poor families living in the worst housing are not being helped. Instead of helping these families become self-sufficient, the Lazio amendment pushes them deeper into poverty. I urge anyone with compassion to vote no. If we are going to reform public housing, it must be fair and reasonable. Safe, affordable housing must remain available to those in need.

We must provide real economic opportunities, not community service, so that public housing can help families become self-sufficient.

My colleagues, public housing has been a right, not just a privilege, for 60 years. Vote no on this legislation.

Mr. LAZIO of New York. Mr. Chairman, I yield 2 minutes to the distinguished gentleman from Delaware (Mr. CASTLE), former governor, member of the Committee on Banking and Financial Services, chairman of the Subcommittee on Domestic and International Monetary Policy.

Mr. CASTLE. Mr. Chairman, I do rise in support of this amendment and of this program in general. I have given a lot of thought to this. I would like to discuss sort of the indomitability of the human spirit. I will be the first to say, who knows who is right or wrong in this argument? It has been called the war on the poor. I look at it as an opportunity for the poor, and I do go back to the welfare reform legislation.

A lot of the same arguments were made when we discussed welfare reform, that this was going to be a disaster for the poor. It was going to be a failure. I am not here today to say it is an absolute success, but clearly the welfare rolls are down. More importantly is what I have seen personally. What I have seen personally in Delaware are people who have been afforded an opportunity that they never had before.

I have been to the classes, I have seen the individuals who are now working, who have a sense of taking care of themselves and their families, and it has worked extraordinarily well.

I have done the same thing in housing. I have been in Wilmington, Delaware, in our public housing, and I have been in Rehoboth Beach. We do have public housing there in Delaware, and I have seen what they have done there. Indeed, they have a community service program, exactly the same as we are talking about in this particular piece of legislation, and it has worked. People are helping each other.

I have seen in Dover, Delaware, the recognition that we have one of the best housing authorities in the country; and they have encouraged people to become involved with their community and do many of the things that we are talking about here.

I do not think it is a wholesale selling out of people in poverty. I think, indeed, it is affording them an opportunity to live in a better housing situation. Who can really defend the housing circumstance we have today which, by the way, goes back to 1937 in terms of what has happened, and not say that we need change?

We came together some time ago, about two-thirds of us voted for legislation to make housing better in America. Indeed, it has not gone forward the way I would like to see it go forward. We can question the process. We always seem to question the process. But the bottom line is, it seems to me that today is an opportunity to give this legislation, which I think is so well founded, an opportunity to move forward.

My judgment is, we should do this. I think it is in our best interest, and I encourage all Members to support it.

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. JACKSON).

(Mr. JACKSON of Illinois asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. JACKSON of Illinois. Mr. Chairman, I rise in opposition to this amendment.

The chairman argues that no one can be against local flexibility and control. The reason for the 1937 housing law was because local communities were not addressing the scope of the housing dilemma in this country.

H.R. 2 is a very unique bill. Franklin Delano Roosevelt, in 1937, looked at housing law and treated it as a human right. H.R. 2 treats housing as a privilege in exchange for community work.

The problem with this bill is it treats poor people differently than others. There is no mandate of community work for homeowners who have a mortgage tax deduction, who receive farm subsidies, food stamps, Social Security, Medicare, Medicaid, LIHEAP, corporate welfare, Fannie Mae, or loan guarantees. No, not since the Civil War have we imposed upon a group of Americans that in exchange for their Federal benefit they must volunteer without compensation.

What is the government doing making a law about volunteerism? The government of the United States is under no obligation to force its citizens, in exchange for their Federal benefits, to volunteer. Mandating volunteerism is an oxymoron, and we should vote against this bill because it is simply wrong.

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, I yield 1 minute to the gentlewoman from Michigan (Ms. CAROLYN KILPATRICK), a new and very active member of the committee.

(Ms. KILPATRICK asked and was given permission to revise and extend her remarks.)

Ms. KILPATRICK. Mr. Chairman, I thank the ranking member for yielding to me, and I wish to say to him that we appreciate his leadership in the committee and we are going to miss him.

What will we do with regard to public housing in this country; shelter for the poorest? It is unfortunate that this Congress is taking a step backwards. Not a single line in this amendment will provide funding for new housing for the poorest of Americans. There is not a single line in this legislation that will provide for demolition of unsafe housing in this legislation. What it will do, though, is to put more than 3 million people, the poorest of Americans, into the streets and into homelessness.

Someone mentioned earlier, is it really working? Should we have a new program? Yes, we should have a new program. But what has happened with public housing is under the 12 years of a Republican Presidency in this country there was a disinvestment in public housing. And over the last 10 years in this country over 600 tons of drugs have come into America and, at the same time, our people have not been employed.

Can we fix it? Yes, we can. Vote "no" on this amendment.

Mr. LAZIO of New York. Mr. Chairman, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Maryland (Mr. GILCHREST).

Mr. GILCHREST. Mr. Chairman, I thank the gentleman for yielding me this time.

There are some good public housing projects that work well and there are some bad public housing projects that work terrible. What is the difference under the present regime? It is good management. It is not the people that live there that cause the problems of crime or drugs or rundown buildings. It is 100 percent of the responsibility of the management.

If we have good management, we will have a good public housing project. If there is poor management, there will be rundown buildings, crime-ridden streets and people that live in despair and hopelessness. Accountability goes a long way, almost the whole way, in providing service, housing, safe housing, for people.

What is the mystery of human initiative? Responsibility and dignity. The amendment the gentleman from New York (Mr. LAZIO) offers us today provides a better opportunity and better quality housing than anything we have done up to this point. I urge my colleagues to vote for the amendment.

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Florida (Mrs. CARRIE MEEK).

(Mrs. MEEK of Florida asked and was given permission to revise and extend her remarks.)

Mrs. MEEK of Florida. Mr. Chairman, I am happy to say I was one of the Members of the House that voted against H.R. 2 when it came up last year. Now it is back again and it is time for us to give it a very timely demise this time.

There are many reasons why we should. Number one, it deletes the amount of assistance that can be given to public housing. Now, many of my colleagues do not really understand what public housing is all about, but I live in those communities, I serve those constituents, and when one job is offered in that community, 500 people line up for that one job hoping that they get that one job that will get them into housing. That does not happen. Most of them are poor.

The poor people need housing. They need it. They need help from the Federal Government. They do not need a block grant that comes down. They do not need local housing authorities that have been demeaned in such a way that we have taken away their power. So it weakens local government.

We do not need this amendment. We do not need it on this good VA-HUD bill, and I urge my colleagues to vote against H.R. 2.

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Illinois (Mr. DAVIS).

(Mr. DAVIS of Illinois asked and was given permission to revise and extend his remarks.)

Mr. DAVIS of Illinois. Mr. Chairman, here we are again, same old wine, new bottle; same lemon, new twist; same target, new weapon; same poor people of America being attacked again, taking away opportunities for the very poor to their demise.

What people really want and need in public housing are jobs and the opportunity to work. If we give them jobs, they do not need to volunteer. Five thousand families in Chicago working; 108 new businesses; $52 million generated last year; 2,000 in a program. Give them jobs. They do not need to volunteer.

Same wrong premise, same conclusion, we need to teach people in public housing the value of work. Wrong premise, wrong conclusion. Let's further attack the poor. For some irrational and incoherent reason there seems to be serious preoccupation with fostering attacks upon the poor, the disadvantaged, the unemployed, the disadvantaged and the disconnected.

Those citizens who receive a form of public subsidy and live in public housing are continually being harassed. Sounds logical, sounds rational, sounds corrective; but in actuality it is discriminatory, oppressive and regressive. It is tantamount to slavery or at the very least, involuntary servitude.

Let's look at what is being proposed, let's take a hard look at what we are being asked to do. Of all the subsidies which are given out in this country, farmers, developers, manufacturers, private colleges and universities, other institutionally based activities and corporations, ranches—big business programs, we are being asked to single out public housing recipients and say that you must, if you live in public housing, volunteer some services as recognition of the public largesse of which you have become the beneficiary. If this is the case, then those who receive the 150 billion dollars in corporate welfare should be providing some serious volunteer services. H.R. 2 demands public service from public housing residents. But let's also demand public services from those receiving corporate welfare. We've been down this road before, I voted against the Housing Opportunity and Responsibility Act then and I shall vote against it now. H.R. 2 targets an inadequate number of housing units for people with the least financial means and unfairly imposes duties on public housing residents that other Americans do not have to perform. I believe that we should not endeavor to create zones and pockets of poverty within our society and that public housing sites should consist of residents who have diverse and mixed income levels. However, we must not set our target income level quotas in a manner that does not sufficiently accommodate the needs of those who can least afford housing in the private market.

Moreover, in light of cuts in welfare benefits and social security payments to beneficiaries, it is imperative that the rent payments required of public housing residents be reduced in a manner that reflects this loss of income.

H.R. 2 requires that public housing residents, who are not on welfare or working must perform eight hours of community service. While I believe in community service, I do not believe that residents should be evicted, as this provision would permit, for failing to perform a job for which they are uncompensated, volunteerism simply cannot be compelled. Moreover, no other individuals or groups must volunteer because they receive a subsidy from the government. Current law targets 75–85% of housing units for those with income at 50% of median, while H.R. 2 targets only 35% of units for those at 30% of median income, with the remainder being allocable to those making no more than 80% of median income. This will push a lot of low-income families into homelessness.

In Chicago, there is a viable work program for residents of the Chicago housing authority.

1. Approximately 5000 families participate in the Resident Employment Program.

2. There are approximately 108 resident owned businesses.

3. Resident owned business grossed approximately $52 million in business last year.

4. Resident owned businesses employ approximately 2000 people and resident owned businesses include:

1. Custodial Services
2. Landscaping Services
3. Childcare Services
4. Laundry Services
5. Extermination Services

People in public housing need and want jobs. When we provide the opportunities, they will do the work.

Mr. LAZIO of New York. Mr. Chairman, I yield 1 minute to the gentleman from Connecticut (Mr. SHAYS).

Mr. SHAYS. Mr. Chairman, in my capacity as chairman of the Subcommittee on Human Resources of the Committee on Government Reform and Oversight I oversee HUD, and I believe strongly in what the Lazio amendment does. It removes us from a caretaking society to a caring society where we give people back control of their lives.

Welfare reform must work. It is going to work if we provide better job training, better child care, transportation to work, and better housing. This bill will give us better housing because it will give people control of their own housing conditions.

Mr. KENNEDY of Massachusetts. Mr. Chairman, I yield myself the balance of my time.

Mr. Chairman, once again, let us just get back to the basics about what this bill is about and what it is not about. This bill is not about the substance of what is contained in H.R. 2. This bill is about the fact that there was a compromise situation between the House, the Senate, and the administration that was on the table and being negotiated. Rather than allowing that process to take place, there was a jump that was taken, a jump by the chairman of the Subcommittee on Housing and Community Opportunity of the Committee on Banking and Financial Services, who jumped into the Committee on Rules and created a situation which forced the chairman of the Committee on Appropriations to accept this bill, which he does not like, he does not support; which I do not like, I do not support; and which the gentleman from Ohio (Mr. STOKES) does not like and does not support.

There are provisions that are good in this bill, make no mistake about it. But there are provisions that are bad. It needs compromise. If we are not going to turn our back on the poorest of the poor, then we have got to find a way of creating a ramp which does not turn our back and create homelessness. This bill will create homelessness. It is not just about opportunity, it is about the abusive process that the chairman of the committee brought upon us. We should vote against the Lazio amendment.

Mr. LAZIO of New York. Mr. Chairman, I yield myself such time as I may consume.

Mr. Chairman, let us get the job done. All we have heard are arguments about process and rules. Let us get the job done. That argument about process does not help one person save themselves. It does not help one family. It does not help one community.

We have debated this bill for 3 years. We have twice passed this on the floor of the House, the last time with 71 independent-minded, reform-minded Democrats voting for this. This is the exact same bill that has come before the House earlier.

This is the bill that prizes individual choice over Washington mandates. It values local community control over more Washington mandates. It celebrates individual empowerment by rewarding work and not punishing families. It helps to build local leadership by building capacity through control over communities and control over individuals. It rewards work by removing the system that punishes work. It rewards work by ensuring that people who take minimum wage jobs are not shut out of vouchers, which is the administration's position. It eliminates rules that are antifamily and replaces them with pro-family rules and rules that are pro work.

This is a debate over accountability, responsibility, hope and opportunity; about building for the future versus defending the status quo. Vote for this amendment. Vote for the future of America. Help our poor working Americans.

Mrs. ROUKEMA. Mr. Chairman, I rise in strong support of the Leach-Lazio amendment adding H.R. 2, the Housing Opportunity and Responsibility Act to the VA/HUD appropriations bill. Reforming our public housing system is long overdue. Our public housing programs have been a failure. For years I served as the Ranking Minority Member on the Banking Housing Subcommittee. While we made repeated attempts to address the waste, fraud and abuse inherent in our public housing system, this is the first time we have had a comprehensive plan offering effective solutions. This provision is the same legislation passed by this House by a significant margin earlier this year.

H.R. 2 will give public housing families the tools they need to help themselves achieve decent housing at a affordable price, in safer neighborhoods, with significant resident management and local control.

We have made great strides in reforming our welfare system in an effort to give people the hand up they need rather than a hand out. But the job of reforming our welfare system will not be complete until we make fundamental changes to and reform of our public housing system.

H.R. 2 is based on several simple principles: A shared objective to provide clean, safe, affordable housing for our lower-income families in America; personal responsibility; protection for the residents of public housing; removal of disincentives to work; and empowerment of the individual and family tenant by offering them choices.

H.R. 2 represents a bold step forward, and Chairman LEACH and Subcommittee Chairman LAZIO are to be commended for their steadfast commitment to seeing that these reforms become a reality. I urge my colleagues to support this amendment.

The CHAIRMAN. All time has expired.
